FRED. JAS. HALLIDAY,
Offg. Secy. to the Govt. of India.

Fort William, Home Department, Legislative, the 30th December, 1848.

The following Act is brought up before the Legislative Council this day—Resolved, That the Rules requiring that all Acts shall be brought up for second reading in two months, or in three months from the date of the first reading, be suspended in respect to the following proposed Act, and that it be at once passed into Law—the assent of the Right Hon'ble the Governor General of India having been obtained and recorded.

ACT No. XXVII. OF 1848.

An Act to amend the Act XII. of 1844.

Whereas it is deemed expedient that the Act No. XII. of 1844, entitled "An Act for better securing the observance of an Exact Discipline in the Indian Navy," should be amended as hereinafter is mentioned, And whereas the Court of Directors of the East India Company have given their previous sanction to the several enactments hereinafter contained, It is enacted as follows:

I. From and after the first day of February 1849 the Articles and Orders hereinafter following, as well in time of Peace as in time of War, shall be observed and put in execution in manner hereinafter mentioned in addition to the thirty-five Articles and Orders contained in the said Act, that is to say:

36th. Every person belonging to the Indian Navy who shall be guilty of Manslaughter, or any other offence against the person, or of any offence against the property, of any subject of Her Majesty, or any other person entitled to Her Majesty's protection, or to the protection of the respective Governments of the East India Company, or any other person whomsoever, not being an Enemy of Her Majesty or of the East India Company, (and the punishment of which offence is not provided for by the said Act,) shall be liable to Transportation for life, or for a term of years, or to such other punishment according to the nature and degree of the offence as a Court Martial shall award.

37th. All Insubordination, Disorders, Irregularities, and Neglects which any person belonging to the Indian Navy may be guilty of, to the prejudice of good order or of discipline in the Naval Service of the East India Company, and all disgraceful conduct of a cruel or dishonest or indecent or malicious or mischievous character, though not particularly specified in the said Act, or in this Act, shall be liable to such punishment, having regard to the nature and degree of the offence, as a Court Martial shall adjudge.

38th. Where any person belonging to the Indian Navy, (not being of the Rank of an Officer,) shall be guilty of any offence, which the Officer in Command of the Ship or Vessel shall deem necessary to be punished without trial by Court Martial, the Commanding Officer; and the offender shall be liable to such punishment, (not extending to life or limb, or to transportation, or imprisonment exceeding six days, or to any corporal punishment exceeding twelve lashes), as such Officer shall by his Warrant adjudge.

II. In the several cases in which a Court Martial is by the said Act authorized to award the punishment of death and also in grave cases of embezzlement against the 8th and 24th Articles of the said Act, and also in the case of grave offences against the 20th and 21st of the said Articles, a Court Martial may, if it shall adjudge the same to be proper, award sentence of transportation for life or for a term of years.

III. In all cases where a capital punishment shall have been awarded by a Court Martial, it shall be lawful for the Governor General in Council, (if he shall think the circumstances of the case make it proper so to do), to order the offender to be transported for life, or for a certain term of years.

IV. In cases where any sentence of transportation shall be passed under the provisions of the said Act, or of this Act, or any sentence of death be commuted to transportation, the offender shall be conveyed to or left at some one of the Presidencies of India, and shall be liable to be dealt with, as in the case of other offenders sentenced to transportation, and shall be subject to all such orders for carrying the sentence into execution as shall in that behalf be given by the Governor General in Council; or if the offender shall be at the Presidency of Fort St. George or the Presidency of Bombay, then by the Governor in Council of such Presidency; subject, however, in the last mentioned case, to any orders made by the Governor General in Council, in case any such orders shall have been so made.

V. The Governor General of India in Council, and the Governors in Council of Madras and Bombay respectively, shall have full power and authority from time to time, as there shall be occasion, to direct any superior Officer, Captain, or Commander of the Indian Navy, who shall be in any Port of the East Indies, to hold Courts Martial in any such Port as shall be found most expedient and for the good of the East India Company's Service; and such superior Officer, Captain, or Commander shall preside at such Court Martial.

VI. And for removing the doubts which have been entertained as to the effect and intention of the 9th Section of the said Act No. XII. of 1844, in relation to the Officers of whom Courts Martial, to be held or appointed under that Act, shall be composed, it is declared and enacted, that any Officers of the Indian Navy, ordered by Government or the Superintendent of the Indian Navy to be present at any Court Martial, for the purpose of serving thereat if required, shall be eligible to act on any Court Martial, although such Officers may not be commissioned to any Ship or Vessel.

VII. If on any occasion there shall not be present a sufficient number of Superior Officers, Captains, Commanders, and Lieutenants of the Indian Navy to form a Court Martial, for the purposes of the said Act or of this Act, the required number of Officers may, with the sanction of the Government, or Officer by whose authority the Court Martial shall have been convened, be made up or completed by any Officer or Officers in the Military Service of the East India Company then being Commissioned and in Pay, and of the Rank either of Major or Captain, who shall be ordered, or be ready, to afford his or their services on such Court Martial; and, for default of such or of a sufficient number of such, then the deficiency may be supplied by any Officer or Officers of Her Majesty's Naval Service of sufficient Rank, according to the said Act, who may be present, and may be ready to afford his or their services on such Court Martial; and the proceedings of a Court Martial so constituted shall be valid and effectual.

VIII. The Clauses and Provisions of the said Act No. XII. of 1844, for regulating the places to which and persons to whom the same is to extend, and also the other Clauses and Provisions thereof shall apply to this Act, and the two Acts shall be construed together as one Act, and the same effect shall be given thereto, and to the several Articles and Provisions thereof respectively as if the Articles and Provisions contained in this Act had been originally contained in the said Act No. XII. of 1844, and had formed part of the Articles and Provisions of that Act.

FRED. JAS. HALLIDAY,
Offg. Secy. to the Govt. of India.

Fort William, Home Department, Legislative, the 30th December, 1848.

The following Draft of a proposed Act was read in Council for the first time on the 30th December 1848.

ACT NO. —— OF 1848.

An Act for better defining the Duties of Customs and Excise.

Whereas under the Regulations in force for taking a duty of twenty Spanish Dollars for each and every Leaguer of Arrack or Asiatic Rum imported into and intended for consumption within Prince of Wales' Island, Singapore and Malacca, doubts have arisen whether any duty may be taken on importation of a quantity less than a Leaguer, and it is expedient that such doubts be removed and that the meaning of all such or the like expressions in any Regulation or Act for the levy of Custom or Excise Duties within the territories under the Government of the East India Company be plainly declared, It is declared and enacted as follows:

I. Whenever by any Regulation or Act now or hereafter to be in force, not containing any direction to the contrary, a certain duty of Customs or Excise, or in the nature thereof, is leviable on any given quantity, by weight, measure or value, of any goods or merchandise, a like duty is leviable according to the same rate on any greater or less quantity.

Ordered, that the Draft now read be published for general information.

Ordered, that the said Draft be re-considered at the first meeting of the Legislative Council of India after the First day March 1849.

NOTIFICATION.—Notice is hereby given, that in pursuance of instructions received from the Hon'ble the Court of Directors the Governments of Bengal, Madras and Bombay have been authorized in any case in which they may consider such a course to be expedient to dispense with the

It is to be understood, that the Insurance to be effected, will only be to the amount of the Advance in each case, so as to cover the East India Company's risk.

Letter from dated 18th March 1848, No. 11 A.

41. The Government of Fort Saint George have been informed in regard to Vacancies in Office Establishments, that while in some few cases the gross amount has been drawn and the savings by vacancies credited in account the general practice has been to draw only the net amount.

Para. 11. The practice of drawing the gross amount allowed for Office Establishments notwithstanding that certain situations may be vacant in them, is a very improper one, and must be immediately abandoned in every case in which it is adopted.

PILOTS' COURT.

At a Court assembled on Thursday, the Twenty-Third day of November, One Thousand Eight Hundred and Forty-Eight, under Act No. XXIV. of 1845, Mr. Mate Pilot George Arthur Pennington was tried on the following Charges:

1*st Charge.*—For having whilst in Pilotage Charge of the Schooner "Eliza Penelope," in the River Hooghly off Akra, on the night of the 9th of November 1848, been in a state of intoxication,

2d Charge.—For having at or about the same time and place, and whilst in Pilotage Charge as aforesaid, behaved in a scandalous manner, reflecting disgrace and discredit on the service, by using gross and indecent language, to Mr. Hutton, a Gentleman connected with the Peninsular and Oriental Steam Company's Service, who had gone on board the "Eliza Penelope," the same being in breach of Rule No. 10, of the Penal Code.

3d Charge.—For having whilst in Pilotage Charge as aforesaid, on the 10th of November 1848, thrown up his charge of the said vessel without waiting to be relieved, the same being in breach of Rule No. 4, of the Penal Code.

4th Charge.—For having on the 10th of November 1848, and whilst in Pilotage Charge as aforesaid, quitted the "Eliza Penelope," at single anchor in the River Hooghly, instead of mooring her as enjoined to do by Rule No. 26, of the Rules for Running Pilots.

By order of the Superintendent of Marine,

(Sd.) JAMES SUTHERLAND, Secretary.

Fort William, the 18th November, 1848.

Finding.—The Court having maturely weighed and considered the evidence brought forward in support of the prosecution, together with that adduced on the Defence, is of opinion, that the Defendant, Mr. George Arthur Pennington, Mate Pilot, is Not Guilty of the 1st Charge, and do accordingly acquit him of the same.

Guilty of the 2d Charge.
Guilty of the 3d Charge.
Guilty of the 4th Charge.

Sentence.—The Court having found the Defendant Guilty to the extent specified, do adjudge him the said Mr. George Arthur Pennington, Mate Pilot, to lose and his name to be placed in the list of Mate Pilots immediately under that of Mr. Mate Pilot William Davis, and above that of Mr. Mate Pilot C. J. McDormond.

FOUR STEPS,

(Sd.) HENRY PIDDINGTON, President.

Remarks and Recommendation of the Court.

The Court having performed the duty imposed upon it begs leave to remark on the second Charge, that the provocation given by Mr. Hutton to the Defendant was, in their opinion, sufficient to call forth an angry retort, and that although the words made use of by Mr. Pennington were gross and offensive, yet they do not consider they bear the stringent interpretation which the charge conveys.

On the third Charge, the Court begs to recommend the Defendant to the favorable consideration of Government, it having been proved that he was labouring under indisposition on leaving the vessel, and although this was not of so serious a nature, as to incapacitate him from all duty, yet the injury he had some time previously received in the head, does upon Dr. Thomson's evidence, cause him to be subject to fevers, and a natural dread of the serious recurrence of these, is, in the opinion of the Court, some extenuation of the charge.

(Sd.) H. PIDDINGTON, President.

The Proceedings having been submitted to Government, His Honor the Deputy Governor of Bengal has been pleased to communicate his decision on the case as follows:

Para. 2d. His Honor approves of the finding of the Court on the first Charge.

3d. His Honor approves of the finding of the Court upon the second Charge. He is unable to concur in the extenuating remark appended by the Court to their finding, in relation to this charge. There is nothing in the evidence to induce His Honor to think that the gross insult offered by Mr. Pennington had been provoked.

4th. His Honor approves of the Finding of the Court upon the third Charge. He regrets that he is unable to accede to the recommendation by the Court of the accused to favorable consideration, in relation to this charge. He does not find it proved in evidence that the Defendant was labouring under indisposition when he left the vessel, though it is proved that he left the vessel on that plea, and the accused fails to explain why if he was really so ill at that time as to justify his leaving the vessel, without being relieved, he did not apply for medical advice and the Certificate of the Marine Surgeon, until two days after he must have returned to town.

5th. His Honor approves of the Finding of the Court on the fourth Charge.

6th. The Sentence passed upon Mate Pilot G. A. Pennington is confirmed by the Deputy Governor. His Honor looks upon the Sentence as very lenient, considering the nature of the three Charges of which the accused has been found guilty. Mr. G. A. Pennington will lose four steps, and his name will be placed on the list of Mate Pilots immediately under that of Mr. Mate Pilot W. Davis, and above that of Mr. Mate Pilot McDormond.

In conformity to the above decision the Master Attendant has been requested to release Mr. Mate Pilot Pennington from arrest and to place his name in the list of Pilots immediately under that of Mr. Mate Pilot W. Davis, and above that of Mr. Mate Pilot C. J. McDormond.

ACT No. XXVII. OF 1848.

An Act to amend the Act XII. of 1844.

Whereas it is deemed expedient that the Act No. XII. of 1844, entitled "An Act for better securing the observance of an Exact Discipline in the Indian Navy," should be amended as hereinafter is mentioned, And whereas the Court of Directors of the East India Company have given their previous sanction to the several enactments hereinafter contained, It is enacted as follows:

I. From and after the first day of February 1849 the Articles and Orders hereinafter following, as well in time of Peace as in time of War, shall be observed and put in execution in manner hereinafter mentioned in addition to the thirty-five Articles and Orders contained in the said Act, that is to say:

36th. Every person belonging to the Indian Navy who shall be guilty of Manslaughter, or any other offence against the person, or of any offence against the property, of any subject of Her Majesty, or any other person entitled to Her Majesty's protection, or to the protection of the respective Governments of the East India Company, or any other person whomsoever, not being an Enemy of Her Majesty or of the East India Company, (and the punishment of which offence is not provided for by the said Act,) shall be liable to Transportation for life, or for a term of years, or to such other punishment according to the nature and degree of the offence as a Court Martial shall award.

37th. All Insubordination, Disorders, Irregularities, and Neglects which any person belonging to the Indian Navy may be guilty of, to the prejudice of good order or of discipline in the Naval Service of the East India Company, and all disgraceful conduct of a cruel or dishonest or indecent or malicious or mischievous character, though not particularly specified in the said Act, or in this Act, shall be liable to such punishment, having regard to the nature and degree of the offence, as a Court Martial shall adjudge.

38th. Where any person belonging to the Indian Navy, (not being of the Rank of an Officer,) shall be guilty of any offence, which the Officer in Command of the Ship or Vessel shall deem necessary to be punished without trial by Court Martial, the offence shall be investigated by such Commanding Officer; and the offender shall be liable to such punishment, (not extending to life or limb, or to transportation, or imprisonment exceeding six days, or to any corporal punishment exceeding twelve lashes), as such Officer shall by his Warrant adjudge.

II. In the several cases in which a Court Martial is by the said Act authorized to award the punishment of death and also in grave cases of embezzlement against the 8th and 24th Articles of the said Act, and also in the case of grave offences against the 20th and 21st of the said Articles, a Court Martial may, if it shall adjudge the same to be proper, award sentence of transportation for life or for a term of years.

III. In all cases where a capital punishment shall have been awarded by a Court Martial, it shall be lawful for the Governor General in Council, (if he shall think the circumstances of the case make it proper so to do), to order the offender to be transported for life, or for a certain term of years.

IV. In cases where any sentence of transportation shall be passed under the provisions of the said Act, or of this Act, or any sentence of death be commuted to transportation, the offender shall be conveyed to or left at some one of the Presidencies of India, and shall be liable to be dealt with, as in the case of other offenders sentenced to transportation, and shall be subject to all such orders for carrying the sentence into execution as shall in that behalf be given by the Governor General in Council, or if the offender shall be at the Presidency of Fort St. George or the Presidency of Bombay, then by the Governor in Council of such Presidency; subject, however, in the last mentioned case, to any orders made by the Governor General in Council, in case any such orders shall have been so made.

V. The Governor General of India in Council, and the Governors in Council of Madras and Bombay respectively, shall have full power and authority from time to time, as there shall be occasion, to direct any superior Officer, Captain, or Commander of the Indian Navy, who shall be in any Port of the East Indies, to hold Courts Martial in any such Port as shall be found most expedient and for the good of the East India Company's Service; and such superior Officer, Captain, or Commander shall preside at such Court Martial.

VI. And for removing the doubts which have been entertained as to the effect and intention of the 9th Section of the said Act No. XII. of 1844, in relation to the Officers of whom Courts Martial, to be held or appointed under that Act, shall be composed, it is declared and enacted, that any Officers of the Indian Navy, ordered by Government or the Superintendent of the Indian Navy to be present at any Court Martial, for the purpose of serving thereat if required, shall be eligible to act on any Court Martial, although such Officers may not be commissioned to any Ship or Vessel.

VII. If on any occasion there shall not be present a sufficient number of Superior Officers, Captains, Commanders, and Lieutenants of the Indian Navy to form a Court Martial, for the purposes of the said Act or of this Act, the required number of Officers may, with the sanction of the Government or Officer by whose authority the Court Martial shall have been convened, be made up or completed by any Officer or Officers in the Military Service of the East India Company then being Commissioned and in Pay, and of the Rank either of Major or Captain, who may be present, and may be ordered, or be ready, to afford his or their services on such Court Martial; and, for default of such or of a sufficient number of such, then the deficiency may be supplied by any Officer or Officers of Her Majesty's Naval Service of sufficient Rank, according to the said Act, who may be present, and may be ready to afford his or their services on such Court Martial; and the proceedings of a Court Martial so constituted shall be valid and effectual.

VIII. The Clauses and Provisions of the said Act No. XII. of 1844, for regulating the places to which and persons to whom the same is to extend, and also the other Clauses and Provisions thereof shall apply to this Act, and the two Acts shall be construed together as one Act, and the same effect shall be given thereto, and to the several Articles and Provisions thereof respectively as if the Articles and Provisions contained in this Act had been originally contained in the said Act No. XII. of 1844, and had formed [redacted] the Articles and Provisions of that Act.

FRED. JAS. HALLIDAY,
Offg. Secy. to the Govt. of India.

Fort William, Home Department, Legislative, the 30th December, 1848.

The following Draft of a proposed Act was read in Council for the first time on the 30th December 1848.

ACT No. —— OF 1848.

An Act for better defining the Duties of Customs and Excise.

Whereas under the Regulations in force for taking a duty of twenty Spanish Dollars for each and every Leaguer of Arrack or Asiatic Rum imported into and intended for consumption within Prince of Wales' Island, Singapore and Malacca, doubts have arisen whether any duty may be taken on importation of a quantity less than a Leaguer, and it is expedient that such doubts be removed and that the meaning of all such or the like expressions in any Regulation or Act for the levy of Custom or Excise Duties within the territories under the Government of the East India Company be plainly declared, It is declared and enacted as follows:

I. Whenever by any Regulation or Act now or hereafter to be in force, not containing any direction to the contrary, a certain duty of Customs or Excise, or in the nature thereof, is leviable on any given quantity, by weight, measure or value, of any goods or merchandise, a like duty is leviable according to the same rate on any greater or less quantity.

Ordered, that the Draft now read be published for general information.

Fort William, Financial Department, the 22d April, 1848.

NOTIFICATION.—Notice is hereby given, that in pursuance of instructions received from the Hon'ble the Court of Directors, the Governments of Bengal, Madras and Bombay, have been authorized in any case in which they may consider such a course to be expedient, to dispense with the obligation to insure which is imposed by the existing terms and conditions upon parties who may obtain Advances from the respective Governments, on the Security of Goods hypothecated to the East India Company, intimating to them that the Hon'ble Court will make the Insurance in England, and requiring a Declaration binding the parties to re-pay the premium upon Insurances, which the Court may effect before the Bills of Lading and other Shipping documents are handed over to their Agents.

It is to be understood, that the Insurance to be effected, will only be to the amount of the Advance in each case, so as to cover the East India Company's risk.

41. The Government of Fort Saint George have been informed in regard to Vacancies in Office Establishments, that while in some few cases the gross amount has been drawn and the savings by vacancies credited in account the general practice has been to draw only the net amount.

Para. 11. The practice of drawing the gross amount allowed for Office Establishments notwithstanding that certain situations may be vacant in them, is a very improper one, and must be immediately abandoned in every case in which it is adopted.

Messrs. Gordon, Harvey, Torrens, and Colvin, were re-elected, and Mr. Edward Currie was elected in the place of Mr. Tucker, who has gone to the Cape.

It was then proposed by Mr. Brown, seconded by Mr. Quintin—

That this Meeting is of opinion that the practice of requiring from Annuitants, who have more than completed the prescribed total value of their Annuities (as entered in the last column of the table in page 21 of the printed rules) an additional cash payment to secure to themselves the advantage of quarterly receipts and payments to the date of decease, is not borne out by the intention of Rule 34; and that it be submitted for the sense of the next General Meeting that no such additional sum in cash shall be levied for the future in cases in which the value of quarterly payments has already been made good by subscription, or may be available out of the bonus to which any Annuitant may be entitled on his retirement from the service.

Amendment proposed by Mr. Young—

That Annuitants having heretofore paid the extra sums without objection, it is to be presumed that the rule has been always properly construed, and this Meeting sees no reason for discussing the subject.

Amendment proposed by Mr. Udny—

That the calculations on which the Fund is based require that the additional sum for quarterly payments of the Annuity and payment of it to the date of decease should be continued, to guarantee the stability of the Fund.

The amendments being both put to the sense of the Meeting and lost, the original motion was then proposed and carried.

A vote of thanks was passed to the Chairman.

Fort William, Home Department, Legislative, the 30th December, 1848.

The following Act is brought up before the Legislative Council this day—Resolved, That the Rules requiring that all Acts shall be brought up for second reading in two months, or in three months from the date of the first reading, be suspended in respect to the following proposed Act, and that it be at once passed into Law—the assent of the Right Hon'ble the Governor General of India having been obtained and recorded.

An Act to amend the Act XII. of 1844.

Whereas it is deemed expedient that the Act No. XII. of 1844, entitled "An Act for better securing the observance of an Exact Discipline in the Indian Navy," should be amended as hereinafter is mentioned, And whereas the Court of Directors of the East India Company have given their previous sanction to the several enactments hereinafter contained, It is enacted as follows:

I. From and after the first day of February 1849 the Articles and Orders hereinafter following, as well in time of Peace as in time of War, shall be observed and put in execution in manner hereinafter mentioned in addition to the thirty-five Articles and Orders contained in the said Act, that is to say:

36th. Every person belonging to the Indian Navy who shall be guilty of Manslaughter, or any other offence against the person, or of any offence against the property, of any subject of Her Majesty, or any other person entitled to Her Majesty's protection, or to the protection of the respective Governments of the East India Company, or any other person whomsoever, not being an Enemy of Her Majesty or of the East India Company, (and the punishment of which offence is not provided for by the said Act,) shall be liable to Transportation for life, or for a term of years, or to such other punishment according to the nature and degree of the offence as a Court Martial shall award.

37th. All Insubordination, Disorders, Irregularities, and Neglects which any person belonging to the Indian Navy may be guilty of, to the prejudice of good order or of discipline in the Naval Service of the East India Company, and all disgraceful conduct of a cruel or dishonest or indecent or malicious or mischievous character, though not particularly specified in the said Act, or in this Act, shall be liable to such punishment, having regard to the nature and degree of the offence, as a Court Martial shall adjudge.

38th. Where any person belonging to the Indian Navy, (not being of the Rank of an Officer,) shall be guilty of any offence, which the Officer in Command of the Ship or Vessel shall deem necessary to be punished without trial by Court Martial, the offence shall be investigated by such Commanding Officer; and the offender shall be liable to such punishment, (not extending to life or limb, or to transportation, or imprisonment exceeding six days, or to any corporal punishment exceeding twelve lashes), as such Officer shall by his Warrant adjudge.

II. In the several cases in which a Court Martial is by the said Act authorized to award the punishment of death and also in grave cases of embezzlement against the 8th and 24th Articles of the said Act, and also in the case of grave offences against the 20th and 21st of the said Articles, a Court Martial may, if it shall adjudge the same to be proper, award sentence of transportation for life or for a term of years.

III. In all cases where a capital punishment shall have been awarded by a Court Martial, it shall be lawful for the Governor General in Council, (if he shall think the circumstances of the case make it proper so to do), to order the offender to be transported for life, or for a certain term of years.

IV. In cases where any sentence of transportation shall be passed under the provisions of the said Act, or of this Act, or any sentence of death be commuted to transportation, the offender shall be conveyed to or left at some one of the Presidencies of India, and shall be liable to be dealt with, as in the case of other offenders sentenced to transportation, and shall be subject to all such orders for carrying the sentence into execution as shall in that behalf be given by the Governor General in Council, or if the offender shall be at the Presidency of Fort St. George or the Presidency of Bombay, then by the Governor in Council of such Presidency; subject, however, in the last mentioned case, to any orders made by the Governor General in Council, in case any such orders shall have been so made.

V. The Governor General of India in Council, and the Governors in Council of Madras and Bombay respectively, shall have full power and authority from time to time, as there shall be occasion, to direct any superior Officer, Captain, or Commander of the Indian Navy, who shall be in any Port of the East Indies, to hold Courts Martial in any such Port as shall be found most expedient and for the good of the East India Company's Service; and such superior Officer, Captain, or Commander shall preside at such Court Martial.

VI. And for removing the doubts which have been entertained as to the effect and intention of the 9th Section of the said Act No. XII. of 1844, in relation to the Officers of whom Courts Martial, to be held or appointed under that Act, shall be composed, it is declared and enacted, that any Officers of the Indian Navy, ordered by Government or the Superintendent of the Indian Navy to be present at any Court Martial, for the purpose of serving thereat if required, shall be eligible to act on any Court Martial, although such Officers may not be commissioned to any Ship or Vessel.

VII. If on any occasion there shall not be present a sufficient number of Superior Officers, Captains, Commanders, and Lieutenants of the Indian Navy to form a Court Martial, for the purposes of the said Act or of this Act, the required number of Officers may, with the sanction of the Government, or Officer by whose authority the Court Martial shall have been convened, be made up or completed by any Officer or Officers in the Military Service of the East India Company then being Commissioned and in Pay, and of the Rank either of Major or Captain, who may be present, and may be ordered, or be ready, to afford his or their services on such Court Martial; and, for default of such or of a sufficient number of such, then the deficiency may be supplied by any Officer or Officers of Her Majesty's Naval Service of sufficient Rank, according to the said Act, who may be present, and may be ready to afford his or their services on such Court Martial; and the proceedings of a Court Martial so constituted shall be valid and effectual.

VIII. The Clauses and Provisions of the said Act No. XII. of 1844, for regulating the places to which and persons to whom the same is to extend, and also the other Clauses and Provisions thereof shall apply to this Act, and the two Acts shall be construed together as one Act, and the same effect shall be given thereto, and to the several Articles and Provisions thereof respectively as if the Articles and Provisions contained in this Act had been originally contained in the said Act No. XII. of 1844, and had formed part of the Articles and Provisions of that Act.

41. The Government of Fort Saint George have been informed in regard to Vacancies in Office Establishments, that while in some few cases the gross amount has been drawn and the savings by vacancies credited in account the general practice has been to draw only the net amount.

Para. 11. The practice of drawing the gross amount allowed for Office Establishments notwithstanding that certain situations may be vacant in them, is a very improper one, and must be immediately abandoned in every case in which it is adopted.

Calcutta, General Post Office, the 24th August, 1848.

Office of the Post Master General, N. W. P., Agra, 18th November 1848.

NOTICE.—The public are informed, that the cost of forwarding Furniture by Bullock Train is very much greater than by Country Carts, the charge on each piece being calculated by the number of cubic feet contained in a case into which it could be packed.

H. B. RIDDELL,
Post Master General, N. W. P.

Agra, October 26, 1848.

NOTICE.—All persons writing to officers or men attached to the Staff or to any of the Regiments composing the Army of the Punjab are particularly requested to detail in the direction the Regiment and Brigade to which the addressee may be attached.

H. B. RIDDELL,
Post Master General, N. W. P.

NOTIFICATION.—An examination will be held early in April 1849, in the College of Fort William, for the purpose of filling up existing Vacancies in the Military class of the Medical College. All candidates will be expected to possess a knowledge of the Hindustanee Language adequate to enable them to read and write it in the Persian or Devanagri character.

2nd. All Interpreters of Regiments and Battalions will be requested, through the Military Departments, not to grant certificates of qualification to any candidate under the age of fifteen and above that of twenty years; and likewise to reject all who may not pass the prescribed ordeal with a sufficient degree of fluency and facility. Much disappointment, expense, and inconvenience have already been experienced by lads, from distant stations, being furnished with certificates, who were found, on examination, quite unqualified for admission, and it is with a view to prevent the recurrence of this, that the above measure has been adopted.

3rd. Candidates for admission will be required to present themselves before the Secretary to the Medical College, at least three days prior to the day of examination, in order that a proper descriptive roll may be prepared, for transmission to the Examiners of the College of Fort William.

4th. The preference in selection, attainments being equal, will be given to those who have already been attached to, or served in Civil or Regimental Hospitals.

5th. No candidate will be allowed to present himself for examination, who cannot produce a written testimonial of his conduct and character, or afford satisfactory evidence as to who and what he may be. A few individuals of decidedly bad character have, upon recent occasions, managed to obtain admittance, it is supposed, by producing false papers; the strictest care and scrutiny will therefore be exercised in examining the credentials of all future candidates, who will, in addition, require to be furnished with regular muster rolls, in order that they may be identified.

6th. All pupils must, as a condition of their appointment, reside within the College premises at all times, and never be absent from morning and evening muster without special leave.

7th. All students in the Military class are amenable to the Articles of War and regularly enlisted as Soldiers.

8th. No candidate will be admitted to the school, who is physically unfit for the duties of a Soldier.

(By order,)

Secretary.

Fort William, Master Attendt.'s Office, the 20th December, 1848.

Recommendation of the Court.

The Court having performed the painful duty imposed on it, begs respectfully to recommend the Defendant to the merciful consideration of Government on the ground of its being his first offence.

(Sd.) HENRY PIDDINGTON, President.

The proceedings of the Court having been submitted to Government, His Honor the Deputy Governor of Bengal has been pleased to approve and confirm the Finding and Sentence of the Court in the following terms:

Para. 2d. "His Honor approves and confirms the Finding and Sentence of the Court. He regrets that he is unable to accede to the Court's recommendation in favor of the accused. He cannot put in peril life and property, by restoring to his duties, as a Pilot, a person convicted of having been in such a state of drunkenness when in charge of a Vessel underweigh, that it was impossible to arouse him when the Vessel was running into danger, and whose intemperate habits are made manifest by the evidence of his medica attendant.

Para. 3d. Mate Pilot John North is dismissed the service."

In conformity to the above decision, the Master Attendant has been desired to see that the order for the dismissal of Mr. Mate Pilot John North is carried into immediate effect.

NOTICE.—All persons writing to officers or men attached to the Staff or to any of the Regiments composing the Army of the Punjab are particularly requested to detail in the direction the Regiment and Brigade to which the addressee may be attached.

NOTIFICATION.—An examination will be held early in April 1849, in the College of Fort William, for the purpose of filling up existing Vacancies in the Military class of the Medical College. All candidates will be expected to possess a knowledge of the Hindustani Language, adequate to enable them to read and write it in the Persian or Devanagri character.

2nd. All Interpreters of Regiments and Battalions will be requested, through the Military Departments, not to grant certificates of qualification to any candidate under the age of fifteen and above that of twenty years; and likewise to reject all who may not pass the prescribed ordeal with a sufficient degree of fluency and facility. Much disappointment, expense, and inconvenience have already been experienced by lads from distant stations being furnished with certificates, who were found, on examination, quite unqualified for admission; and it is with a view to prevent the recurrence of this, that the above measure has been adopted.

3rd. Candidates for admission will be required to present themselves before the Secretary to the Medical College, at least three days prior to the day of examination, in order that a proper descriptive roll may be prepared for transmission to the Examiners of the College of Fort William.

4th. The preference in selection, attainments being equal, will be given to those who have already been attached to, or served in Civil or Regimental Hospitals.

5th. No candidate will be allowed to present himself for examination, who cannot produce a written testimonial of his conduct and character, or afford satisfactory evidence as to who and what he is. A few individuals of decidedly bad character have, upon recent occasions, managed to obtain admittance, it is supposed, by producing false papers; the strictest care and scrutiny will therefore be exercised in examining the credentials of all future candidates, who will, in addition, require to be furnished with regular muster rolls, in order that they may be identified.

6th. All pupils must, as a condition of their appointment, reside within the College premises at all times, and never be absent from morning and evening muster without special leave.

7th. All students in the Military class are amenable to the Articles of War, and regularly enlisted as Soldiers.

8th. No candidate will be admitted to the school, who is physically unfit for the duties of a Soldier.

(By order,)

Secretary.

Steam Department, the 20th January, 1849.

NOTIFICATION.—An examination will be held early in April 1849, in the College of Fort William, for the purpose of filling up existing Vacancies in the Military class of the Medical College. All candidates will be expected to possess a knowledge of the Hindustani Language, adequate to enable them to read and write it in the Persian or Devanagri character.

2nd. All Interpreters of Regiments and Battalions will be requested, through the Military Departments, not to grant certificates of qualification to any candidate under the age of fifteen and above that of twenty years; and likewise to reject all who may not pass the prescribed ordeal with a sufficient degree of fluency and facility. Much disappointment, expense, and inconvenience have already been experienced by lads from distant stations being furnished with certificates, who were found, on examination, quite unqualified for admission; and it is with a view to prevent the recurrence of this, that the above measure has been adopted.

3rd. Candidates for admission will be required to present themselves before the Secretary to the Medical College, at least three days prior to the day of examination, in order that a proper descriptive roll may be prepared for transmission to the Examiners of the College of Fort William.

4th. The preference in selection, attainments being equal, will be given to those who have already been attached to, or served in Civil or Regimental Hospitals.

5th. No candidate will be allowed to present himself for examination, who cannot produce a written testimonial of his conduct and character, or afford satisfactory evidence as to who and what he is. A few individuals of decidedly bad character have, upon recent occasions, managed to obtain admittance, it is supposed, by producing false papers; the strictest care and scrutiny will therefore be exercised in examining the credentials of all future candidates, who will, in addition, require to be furnished with regular muster rolls, in order that they may be identified.

6th. All pupils must, as a condition of their appointment, reside within the College premises at all times, and never be absent from morning and evening muster without special leave.

7th. All students in the Military class are amenable to the Articles of War, and regularly enlisted as Soldiers.

8th. No candidate will be admitted to the school, who is physically unfit for the duties of a Soldier.

(Signed) C. G. MANSEL,

Offg. Accountant to the Govt. of Bengal.

By Order of the Hon'ble the Deputy Governor of Bengal,

J. P. GRANT,

Officiating Secretary to the Government of Bengal.

The following Resolution for regulating the promotion and increase of allowances of Sub-Assistant Surgeons, passed by the Government of India on the 6th instant, is published for general information:

Fort William, Home Department,
The 6th January 1849.

Read again the Extract from the Proceedings in the Financial Department, under date the 20th May 1848, containing a copy of the Despatch from the Court of Directors, No. 14 of 1848, dated the 4th April, and the communication made thereon to the Government of Bengal and the N. W. Provinces under date the 3rd June following.

Read again a letter from the Officiating Secretary to Government N. W. Provinces, dated 14th June 1848, and the orders issued thereon to the Medical Board, and to the Officiating Secretary to Government N. W. Provinces, under date the 29th July following.

Read a letter from the Medical Board No. 6, dated the 30th November last, containing a copy of the Resolution passed in the Financial Department, under date the 6th March 1846, and a Draft of the rules proposed by the Board for regulating the promotion and increase of allowances of Sub-Assistant Surgeons, in conformity with the Scheme sanctioned by the Hon'ble the Court of Directors, under date the 4th April 1848.

Resolution. The President in Council has been pleased to approve, with a few trifling modifications, the Rules prepared by the Medical Board, and they are declared to be in force, accordingly, from the present time.

As these Rules will provide for the gradual promotion of Sub-Assistant Surgeons, they will supersede the Resolution of Government of the 6th March 1846, under which an Extra allowance of 50 Rupees per mensem, has hitherto been passed to that class of Officers when placed in sole charge of the Medical duties of a Civil Station. Present incumbents of that allowance, however, if not entitled to immediate promotion to the 2nd Rank, shall be permitted to draw the Extra allowance while they continue to hold an independent charge or until promotion.

Rules for regulating the promotion and increase of allowances of Sub-Assistant Surgeons.

1. Students of the first Class of the Medical College of Bengal, in obtaining the diploma of the College, shall, if they desire it, be admitted to the Public service in the Rank of Sub-Assistant Surgeon.

2. Sub-Assistant Surgeons shall be classed in three ranks; the third rank to be the lowest or junior.

3. All Sub-Assistant Surgeons shall serve seven years in each of the two junior ranks, excepting in those instances in which the merits of the individual, as described in Rule 12, shall be considered to entitle him to promotion to a Superior Rank at an earlier period.

4. On obtaining the diploma of the Medical College the Graduate will, by the orders of Government, be placed at the disposal of the Medical Board, for employment in the Public Service, and from the date of the Government order, his rank of Sub-Assistant Surgeon of the 3rd rank, shall be held to commence; but he will not be considered as having claim to his salary, as such, (that is, at the rate of 100 rupees per month) until he has actually joined the Station to which he may be appointed, and entered on the duties assigned to him.

5. The following shall be the scale of allowances for each rank:

Under seven years' service,.....	Co.'s Rs. 100
Seven years and under fourteen,	Co.'s Rs. 150
Fourteen years and upwards,..	Co.'s Rs. 200

6. Sub-Assistant Surgeons, on completing each of those septennial periods, shall appear before a Committee, composed of three Medical Officers, for Examination as to their continued proficiency in the practical branches of their profession, viz. Practice of Medicine, Surgery, and Midwifery; as to their acquaintance with its past and current literature; and with the later improvements or discoveries on all points connected with their duties.

7. The Sub-Assistant Surgeon, on completing his septennial period, shall report the same to the Superintending Surgeon of the Division in which he may be serving, who will obtain the orders of the Officer commanding the Station itself, or the one nearest to it, where three resident Medical Officers may be available, for the assembly of the above Committee; the Superintending Surgeon himself serving on the Committee, at Stations where, as at Dacca for example, the number of Medical Officers present may be insufficient without him.

8. The Committee will forward their Report to the Superintending Surgeon of the Division for transmission to the Medical Board, whose duty it will be to submit it for the orders of the Government.

9. Should the Report of the Committee be favorable, the promotion of the Sub-Assistant Surgeon will be notified in Government Orders, and he will receive the salary of his new rank, from the day succeeding the date on which he may have completed his last septennial period.

10. Should the Report of the Committee on the other hand be unfavourable, the Sub-Assistant Surgeon will continue in the lower rank, and on its allowances, for the period for which the Committee may deem fit to remand him to his studies, and to the more diligent discharge of his duties.

11. Should the Sub-Assistant Surgeon still fail. at the close of that probationary period, to afford to the Examining Committee satisfactory proof of proficiency and diligence, his case will be submitted, in the manner prescribed in Rule 8, for the consideration and orders of Government, as to his removal, or otherwise, from the rank of Sub-Assistant Surgeon, or from the public Service.

12. Mere Seniority will, in no instance, constitute in itself a claim to promotion, and it is distinctly to be understood that high attainments, "whether the result of eminent talent or of labo-"rious industry," persevered in for a reasonable time, will give such claim at any time intermediate to the septennial periods; and the Medical Officer under whom a Sub-Assistant Surgeon may be serving, or the Superintending Surgeon himself, in case the Sub-Assistant Surgeon may be holding an independent charge, shall consider it to be his duty to bring every instance of distinguished merit under the notice of the Medical Board, accompanied by a Statement of the particular circumstances, which he may consider as entitling the individual to early promotion, to enable them to judge of the expediency, or otherwise, of recommending the case to the favorable consideration of Government.

The Hon'ble Court have ruled that Sub-Assistant Surgeons shall not, at any time, be admitted to the benefit of the rules under which pensions are granted to the Members of the Uncovenanted Service.

By order of the Hon'ble the Deputy Governor of Bengal,

J. P. GRANT,
Offg. Secy. to the Govt. of Bengal.

NOTIFICATION.—An examination will be held early in April 1849, in the College of Fort William, for the purpose of filling up existing Vacancies in the Military class of the Medical College. All candidates will be expected to possess a knowledge of the Hindustani Language, adequate to enable them to read and write it in the Persian or Devanagri character.

2nd. All Interpreters of Regiments and Battalions will be requested, through the Military Departments, not to grant certificates of qualification to any candidate under the age of fifteen and above that of twenty years; and likewise to reject all who may not pass the prescribed ordeal with a sufficient degree of fluency and facility. Much disappointment, expense, and inconvenience have already been experienced by lads from distant stations being furnished with certificates, who were found, on examination, quite unqualified for admission; and it is with a view to prevent the recurrence of this, that the above measure has been adopted.

3rd. Candidates for admission will be required to present themselves before the Secretary to the Medical College, at least three days prior to the day of examination, in order that a proper descriptive roll may be prepared for transmission to the Examiners of the College of Fort William.

4th. The preference in selection, attainments being equal, will be given to those who have already been attached to, or served in Civil or Regimental Hospitals.

5th. No candidate will be allowed to present himself for examination, who cannot produce a written testimonial of his conduct and character, or afford satisfactory evidence as to who and what he is. A few individuals of decidedly bad character have, upon recent occasions, managed to obtain admittance, it is supposed, by producing false papers; the strictest care and scrutiny will therefore be exercised in examining the credentials of all future candidates, who will, in addition, require to be furnished with regular muster rolls, in order that they may be identified.

6th. All pupils must, as a condition of their appointment, reside within the College premises at all times, and never be absent from morning and evening muster without special leave.

7th. All students in the Military class are amenable to the Articles of War, and regularly enlisted as Soldiers.

8th. No candidate will be admitted to the school, who is physically unfit for the duties of a Soldier.

(By order,)
Fred. Jas. Mouat, M. D.,
Secretary.

FRIDAY MORNING, FEBRUARY 2, 1849.

FOREIGN DEPARTMENT,

FORT WILLIAM, 2ND FEBRUARY, 1849.

The President of the Council of India in Council is pleased to direct the publication of the following General Order by the Right Honorable the Governor General with the Commander-in-Chief's Despatch, dated the 16th of January, detailing the operations of the Army under His Excellency's Command at Chillianwalla.

By order of the President of the Council of India in Council,

FRED. JAS. HALLIDAY,

Offg. Secretary to the Govt. of India.

GENERAL ORDER BY THE RIGHT HONORABLE THE GOVERNOR GENERAL OF INDIA.

FOREIGN DEPARTMENT,

Camp Mukkoo, the 24th January, 1849.

The Governor General, having received from the Commander-in-Chief in India a Despatch, dated the 16th instant, directs that it shall be published for the information of the Army and of the people of India.

In this Despatch, His Excellency reports the successful operations of the troops under his immediate command, on the afternoon of the 13th instant, when they attacked and defeated the Sikh Army under the command of Raja Shere Sing.

Notwithstanding great superiority in numbers, and the formidable position which he occupied, the enemy, after a severe and obstinate resistance, was driven back; and retreated from every part of his position in great disorder, with much slaughter, and with the loss of 12 pieces of Artillery.

The Governor General congratulates the Commander-in-Chief on the victory thus obtained by the Army under his command: and, on behalf of the Government of India, he desires cordially to acknowledge the gallant services which have been rendered on this occasion, by His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief, the Generals, the Officers, Non-Commissioned Officers and Soldiers of the Army in the field.

The Governor General offers his thanks to Major General Sir Joseph Thackwell, K. C. B. and K. H., for his services; and to Brigadier White, for his conduct of the Brigade of Cavalry on the left.

Major General Sir W. Gilbert, K. C. B., and Brigadier General Campbell, C. B., are entitled to the special thanks of the Governor General for the admirable manner in which they directed the Divisions under their orders.

To Brigadier Mountain, C. B., and to Brigadier Hoggan, the Governor General tenders his acknowledgments for the gallant example they offered in the lead of their men; and to them, to Brigadier Godby, C. B., and Brigadier Penny, C. B., for their able conduct of their respective Brigades.

The warm thanks of the Governor General are due to Brigadier General Tennant, Commanding the Artillery Division, to Brigadier Brooke, C. B., and Brigadier Huthwaite, C. B., for their direction of the operations of that distinguished Arm, and for the effective service which it rendered.

To the heads of the various Departments and to the Officers of the General and Personal Staff, whose services are acknowledged by the Commander-in-Chief, the Governor General offers his thanks.

The Governor General deeply regrets the loss of Brigadier Pennycuick, C. B., and of the gallant Officers and men who have honorably fallen in the service of the country.

It has afforded the Governor General the highest gratification to observe that the conduct of the troops generally was worthy of all praise.

The Governor General, indeed, is concerned to think that any order or misapprehension of an order could have produced the movements by the right Brigade of Cavalry which His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief reports.

To the Artillery, European and Native, to the Cavalry on the left, and to the European and Native Infantry, the Governor General offers his hearty thanks; especially to those Corps, European and Native, which His Excellency reports to have acted under trying circumstances with a gallantry worthy of the greatest admiration.

The Governor General will have sincere satisfaction in bringing the services of this Army under the favorable notice of Her Majesty's Government and the Hon'ble East India Company.

A salute of 21 Guns has been ordered to be fired from every principal Station of the Army in India.

The Governor General repeats to the Commander-in-Chief and to the Army the assurance of his cordial thanks: and expresses his confident belief that the victory which, under Divine Providence, they have won, will exercise a most important influence on the successful progress of the war in which they are engaged.

By order of the Right Hon'ble the Governor General of India,

H. M. ELLIOTT,

Secretary to the Govt. of India,

FROM HIS EXCELLENCY THE COMMANDER-IN-CHIEF,

TO THE RIGHT HON'BLE THE GOVERNOR GENERAL OF INDIA,

Dated, Head Quarters, Camp Chillianwalla, 16th January, 1849.

MY LORD,

Major Mackeson, your Lordship's Political Agent with my Camp, officially communicated to me on the 10th instant, the fall of Attock and the advance of Sirdar Chutter Sing in order to concentrate his force with the Army, in my front, under Shere Sing, already amounting to from thirty to forty thousand men with 62 Guns, concluding his letter thus, "I would urge, in the event "of your Lordship's finding yourself strong enough with the Army under your command to strike an "effectual blow at the Enemy in our front, that the blow should be struck with the least possible "delay."

Concurring entirely with Major Mackeson, and feeling that I was perfectly competent effectually to overthrow Shere Sing's Army, I moved from Loah Tibba at daylight on the 12th, to Dingee, about 12 miles. Having learnt from my spies, and from other sources of information, that Shere Sing still held with his right the village of Lukhneewalla and Futtehshah-ke-Chuck, having the great body of his force at the village of Loolianwalla, with his left at Russool, on the Jhelum, strongly occupying the Southern extremity of a low range of different hills, intersected by ravines, which extend nearly to that village. I made my arrangements accordingly that evening, and communicated them to the Commanders of the several Divisions; but to ensure correct information as to the nature of the country, which I believed to be excessively difficult and ill-adapted to the advance of a regular Army, I determined upon moving on this village with a view to reconnoitre.

On the morning of the 13th the force advanced. I made a considerable detour to my right, partly in order to distract the Enemy's attention, but principally to get as clear as I could of the jungle on which, it would appear, that the Enemy mainly relied.

We approached this village about 12 o'clock, and I found, on a mound, close to it a strong picquet of the Enemy's Cavalry and Infantry, which we at once dispersed, obtaining from the mound a very extended view of the country before us, and the Enemy drawn out in battle array, he having, either during the night or that morning, moved out of his several positions, and occupied the ground in our front, which though not a dense, was still a difficult jungle, his right in advance of Futtehshah-ke-Chuck, and his left on the furrowed hills before described.

The day being so far advanced, I decided upon taking up a position in rear of the village, in order to reconnoitre my front, finding that I could not turn the Enemy's flanks, which rested upon a dense jungle, extending nearly to Hailah, which I had previously occupied for some time, and the neighbourhood of which I knew, and upon the raviney hills near Russool, without detaching a force to a distance, this I considered both inexpedient and dangerous.

The Engineer Department had been ordered to examine the country before us, and the Quarter Master General was in the act of taking up ground for the encampment, when the Enemy advanced ome Horse Artillery, and opened a fire on the skirmishers in front of the village.

I immediately ordered them to be silenced by a few rounds from our heavy Guns, which advanced to an open space in front of the village. Their fire was instantly returned by that of nearly the whole of the Enemy's Field Artillery; thus exposing the position of his Guns, which the jungle had hitherto concealed.

It was now evident that the Enemy intended to fight, and would probably advance his Guns so as to reach the encampment during the night.

I therefore drew up, in order of battle, Sir Walter Gilbert's Division on the right, flanked by Brigadier Pope's Brigade of Cavalry, which I strengthened by the 14th Light Dragoons, well aware that the Enemy was strong in Cavalry upon his left. To this were attached 3 Troops of Horse Artillery under Lieut.-Col. Grant.

The heavy Guns were in the centre.

The Field Batteries were with the Infantry Divisions.

Thus formed, the troops were ordered to lie down, whilst the heavy Guns under Major Horsford, ably seconded by Brevet Majors Ludlow and Sir Richmond Shakespear, opened a well-directed and powerful fire upon the Enemy's centre, where his Guns appeared principally to be placed; and this fire was ably supported on the flanks by the Field Batteries of the Infantry Divisions.

After about an hour's fire, that of the Enemy appeared to be, if not silenced, sufficiently disabled to justify an advance upon his position and Guns.

I then ordered my left Division to advance, which had to move over a greater extent of ground, and in front of which the Enemy seemed not to have many Guns. Soon after I directed Sir Walter Gilbert to advance, and sent orders to Brigadier Pope to protect the flank and support the movement. Brigadier Penny's Brigade was held in reserve, while the Irregular Cavalry under Brigadier Hearsey, with the 20th Native Infantry, was ordered to protect the enormous amount of provision and baggage, that so hampers the movement of an Indian Army.

Some time after the advance, I found that Brigadier Pennycuick's Brigade had failed in maintaining the position it had carried, and immediately ordered Brigadier Penny's reserve to its support; but Brigadier General Campbell, with that steady coolness and military decision, for which he is so remarkable, having pushed on his left Brigade and formed line to his right, carried every thing before him, and soon overthrew that portion of the Enemy, which had obtained a temporary advantage over his right Brigade.

This last Brigade, I am informed, mistook for the signal to move in double time, the action of their brave leaders, Brigadier Pennycuick and Lieutenant Colonel Brooks, (two Officers not surpassed for sound judgment and military daring in this or any other Army,) who waived their swords over their heads as they cheered on their gallant comrades. This unhappy mistake led to the Europeans outstripping the Native Corps, which could not keep pace, and arriving completely blown at a belt of thicker jungle, where they got into some confusion, and Lieutenant Colonel Brooks, leading the 24th, was killed between the Enemy's Guns. At this moment a large body of Infantry, which supported their Guns, opened upon them so destructive a fire, that the Brigade was forced to retire, having lost their gallant and lamented leader, Brigadier Pennycuick, and the three other Field Officers of the 24th, and nearly half the Regiment before it gave way. The Native Regiment, when it came up, also suffering severely. In justice to this Brigade, I must be allowed to state, that they behaved heroically, and, but for their too hasty, and consequently disorderly advance, would have emulated the conduct of their left Brigade, which left unsupported for a time had to charge to their front and right, wherever an Enemy appeared. The Brigade of Horse Artillery on their left, under Lieutenant Colonel Brind, judiciously and gallantly aiding, maintained an effective fire.

Major General Sir J. Thackwell, on the extreme left and rear, charged the enemy's Cavalry wherever they showed themselves.

The right attack of Infantry, under that able Officer, Major General Sir Walter Gilbert, was most praiseworthy and successful. The left Brigade, under Brigadier Mountain, advanced under a heavy fire upon the enemy's Guns, in a manner that did credit to the Brigadier and his gallant Brigade, which came first into action and suffered severely: the right Brigade, under Brigadier Godby, ably supported the advance.

This Division nobly maintained the character of the Indian Army, taking and spiking the whole of the Enemy's Guns in their front, and dispersing the Seikhs wherever they were seen.

The Major General reports most favorably of the fire of his Field Battery.

The right Brigade of Cavalry, under Brigadier Pope, was not, I regret to say, so successful. Either by some order, or misapprehension of an order, they got into much confusion, hampered the fine Brigade of Horse Artillery, which, while getting into action, against a body of the Enemy's Cavalry that was coming down upon them, had their horses separated from their Guns by the false movements of our Cavalry and, notwithstanding the heroic conduct of the gunners, four of those Guns were disabled to an extent which rendered their withdrawal, at the moment, impossible. The moment the Artillery was extricated, and the Cavalry reformed, a few rounds put to flight the enemy that had occasioned this confusion.

With this exception, the conduct of the troops generally was most exemplary. Some Corps, both European and Native, acted under most trying circumstances, (from the temporary failure in our left centre and right, and the cover which the jungle afforded to the enemy's movements) and with a gallantry worthy of the highest admiration.

Although the Enemy, who defended not only his Guns but his position with desperation, was driven in much confusion, and with heavy loss from every part of it; and the greater part of his Field Artillery was actually captured: the march of Brigades to their flanks to repel parties that had rallied, and the want of numbers and consequent support to our right flank, aided by the cover of the jungle and the close of the day, enabled him, upon our further advance in pursuit, to return and carry off unobserved the greater portion of the Guns we had thus gallantly carried at the point of the Bayonet.

I remained with Brigadier General Campbell's Division, which had been reinforced by Brigadier Mountain's Brigade, until near 8 o'clock, in order to effect the bringing in of the captured Ordnance, and of the wounded, and I hoped to bring in the rest of the Guns next morning. But I did not feel justified in remaining longer out. The night was very dark. I knew not how far I had advanced. There were no wells nearer than the line of this village. The troops had been arduously employed all day, and there was every appearance of a wet night: rain did fall before morning.

I should have felt great satisfaction if I were enabled to state, that my expectations in regard to the Guns had been realized, but although a Brigade of Cavalry, under Brigadier White, with a troop of Horse Artillery, were on the ground soon after daylight, we found that the Enemy, assisted by the neighbouring villagers, had carried off their Guns, excepting 12, which we had brought in the night before. Most of the captured waggons I had caused to be blown up before leaving the ground.

The victory was complete as to the total overthrow of the Enemy and his sense of utter discomfiture and defeat, will, I trust, soon be made apparent, unless, indeed, the rumours, prevalent this day, of his having been joined by Chutter Sing, prove correct.

I am informed that the loss of the Seikhs has been very great, and chiefly amongst their old and tried soldiers. In no action do I remember seeing so many of an Enemy's slain upon the same space: Soobraon perhaps only excepted.

I have now, my Lord, stated the general movements of this Army previous to and during the action of Chillianwalla, and as that action was characterized by peculiar features, which rendered it impossible for the Commander-in-Chief to witness all the operations of the Force, I shall beg leave to bring prominently to your Lordship's notice, the names of the several Officers and Corps particularly mentioned by the Divisional Commanders.

I have already stated the obligations I am under to Major General Sir Joseph Thackwell, and Sir Walter Gilbert, and to Brigadier General Campbell, for their most valuable services. I warmly concur with them in the thanks which they have expressed to the several Brigadiers and Officers Commanding Corps, and to the Troops generally.

Sir Joseph Thackwell names, with much satisfaction, Brigadier White's conduct of his Brigade, Major Yerbury, commanding 3rd Light Dragoons, the gallant charge of Captain Unett, in command of a Squadron of that Corps, Major Mackenzie, commanding the 8th, and Captain Wheatley, commanding the 5th Light Cavalry, and the conduct of Captain Moore, of the 8th, with a Squadron detached in support of the Artillery. He further notices the assistance he derived from the zeal and activity of Captain Pratt, Assistant Adjutant General, and Lieutenant Tucker, Deputy Assistant Quarter Master General of his Division, of Captain Cautley, Major of Brigade, of his Aid-de-Camp, Lieutenant Thackwell, and of Lieutenant Simpson, Sub-Assistant Commissary General.

Brigadier General Campbell speaks in terms of admiration of the 5th Brigade, led on by that distinguished Officer, Brigadier Pennycuick, and particularly of the gallant exertions of H. M.'s 24th Foot, under the command of Lieutenant Colonel Brookes, and the good and steady advance of the 25th and 45th Native Infantry, under the command of Lieutenant Colonel Corbett and Major Williams. He particularizes the undaunted example set to his Brigade by Brigadier Hoggan, the continued steadiness and gallantry of Her Majesty's 61st Regiment, commanded by Lieutenant Colonel Macleod, under the most trying circumstances, the distinguished conduct of Major Fleming and the Officers of the 36th Native Infantry, and of the 46th Native Infantry under Major Tudor, as also the able and zealous exertions of the Brigade Major Captain Keiller. The Brigadier General also brings to notice his obligations to Major Tucker, Assistant Adjutant General of the Army and to Captain Goldie and Lieutenant Irwin, of the Engineers, who were sent to his assistance, and the cordial and able support, which he received from Major Ponsonby, his Assistant Adjutant General; and he particularly mentions the conduct of Ensign Garden, his Deputy Assistant Quarter Master General, and of Captain Haythorne, his Aid-de-Camp, further naming Lieutenant Grant, of H. M.'s 24th Regiment, Lieutenant Powys, of H. M.'s 61st, who attended him as Orderly Officers, and of Lieutenant and Adjutant Shadwell, of H. M.'s 98th, who was with him as a Volunteer.

Sir Walter Gilbert speaks warmly of the charge led by Brigadier Mountain, against a large Battery of the Enemy, and followed up on his right by Brigadier Godby, and of the subsequent conduct of these Officers, as also of the conduct of Major Chester, Assistant Adjutant General, and Lieutenant Galloway, Deputy Assistant Quarter Master General of the Division, of Lieutenant Colt, his Aid-de-Camp, of Captain Sherwill and Lieutenant Macdonnell, Majors of Brigade, and of Captain Glasfurd, and Lieutenant W. E. Morton, of the Engineers.

The Major General further mentions the undaunted bravery on this occasion of H. M.'s 29th Regiment, under Lieutenant Colonel Congreve, the distinguished conduct of the 2nd European Regiment, under Major Steel, and the manner in which Majors Smith and Way, of the 29th, and Major Talbot, of the 2nd Europeans, seconded their able Commanders. He also expresses his thanks to Lieutenant Colonel Jack, commanding the 30th Native Infantry, Major Bamfield, commanding the 56th Native Infantry, who was mortally wounded, Major Corfield, commanding the 31st Native Infantry, and Major McCausland, commanding the 70th Native Infantry, for the manner in which they led their Regiments into action, naming likewise Captain Nembhard, of the 56th, who succeeded to the command of that Corps, Captain Dawes, commanding the Field Battery of the Division, and Captain Robbins, of the 15th, who acted as his Aid-de-Camp.

The Reserve, consisting of the 15th Native Infantry, and 8 Companies of the 69th Native Infantry, was ably handled by Brigadier Penny, well seconded by Lieutenant Colonels Sibbald and Mercer, commanding the Corps. The Brigadier particularly mentions the steady conduct of the Rifle Company of the 69th, under Captain Sissmore, and acknowledges the services of Captain Macpherson, his Major of Brigade, and Brevet Captain Morris, of the 20th Native Infantry, who attended him as Orderly Officer.

Brigadier General Tennant, Commanding the Artillery Division, rendered me every aid, and presided over the noble arm, of which he is the head, most creditably to himself and most beneficially to the service. The Brigadier General particularly mentions Brigadier J. Brooke, who commanded the whole of the Horse Artillery, Brigadier Huthwaite, commanding the Foot Artillery, Lieutenant Colonels C. Grant and F. Brind, Major R. Horsford and Major Mowatt, all of whom were in important commands. He further brings to notice Captain J. Abercrombie, Deputy Assistant Adjutant General, Lieutenant Tombs, Deputy Assistant Quarter Master General, his Aid-de-Camp, Lieutenant Olpherts, Captain Hogge, Commissary of Ordnance, and Lieutenant de Tessier, who attended him as Orderly Officer.

I have, in the beginning of this Despatch, noticed the services of Brevet Major Sir Richmond Shakespear and Brevet Major Ludlow, in command of the heavy Batteries, under the general superintendence of Major Horsford, and it only remains for me to add, that the conduct of Major Fordyce, Captains Warner and Duncan, Lieutenants Robinson and Walker, commaning Troops and Field Batteries, as well as the Officers and men of the Artillery generally, have been named in terms of praise by the Divisional Commander.

Lieuts. C. V. Cox and E. Kaye, Brigade Majors of this arm, have been also named by their respective Brigadiers.

From the Engineer Department, under Major Tremenhere, I received active assistance, ably aided by Captain Durand, Lieuts. R. Baird, Smith and Goodwyn.

To the General Staff I am greatly indebted. Lieut.-Col. Gough, C. B., Quarter-Master General, and Major Lugard, Acting Adjutant General, and Captain C. Otter, Acting Assistant Adjutant General of H. M.'s Forces; Lieut.-Col. P. Grant, C. B., Adjutant General of the Army, Major C. Ekins (killed,) a valued and much regretted Officer, Deputy Adjutant General, and Major Tucker, Assistant Adjutant General of the Army; Lieut.-Col. W. Garden, C. B., Quarter-Master General of the Army, Lieut. W. F. Tytler, Assistant Quarter-Master General, and Lieut. Paton, Deputy Assistant Quarter-Master General of the Army; Lieut.-Col. Birch, Judge Advocate General, and Lieut. G. B. Johnson, Deputy Judge Advocate General; Major G. Thomson, Assistant Commissary General, Lieut.-Col. J. G. W. Curtis, Assistant Commissary General, Captain C. Campbell, Pay Master to the Army, Captain J. Lang, Post Master, and H. Franklyn, Esquire, Inspector General of H. M.'s Hospitals.

To my personal Staff I am also much indebted. Captain F. P. Haines, Military Secretary, Major H. Bates, Aid-de-Camp, Lieut. A. Bagot, Aid-de-Camp, Lieut. S. J. Hire, Aid-de-Camp, Captain Gabbett, Aid-de-Camp, Lieut. G. N. Hardinge, Aid-de-Camp, and Lieut. W. G. Prendergast, Persian Interpreter.

The unwearied exertions of Dr. Renny, Superintending Surgeon, and of Dr. MacRae, the Field Surgeon, in the care of the wounded, have been beyond all praise.

The Earl of Gifford kindly accompanied me throughout the operations, and was most useful in conveying my orders to the several Divisions and Brigades. I had also the advantage throughout the day of the active services of Lieut.-Col. Sir Henry M. Lawrence, Major Mackeson, Mr. Cocks, C. S., Captain Nicholson and Lieutenant Robinson, as well as of Major Anstruther, of the Madras Artillery, and Lieut. H. O. Mayne, of the 6th Madras Light Cavalry.

Captain Ramsay, Joint Deputy Commissary General, with the several Officers of that Department, has been most indefatigable, and has hitherto kept the Army well supplied.

Fort William, Home Department, Legislative, the 27th January, 1849.

The following Act is passed by the Hon'ble the President of the Council of India in Council on the 27th of January 1849, with the assent of the Right Hon'ble the Governor General of India, which has been read and recorded.

Ordered, that the Act be promulgated for general information.

Act No. I. of 1849.

An Act to provide more effectually for the punishment of offences committed in Foreign States.

Whereas divers Regulations of the Bengal, Madras and Bombay Codes have been made from time to time for the trial of Native Subjects of the British Government, committing criminal offences beyond the limits of the British Provinces, and it is expedient to make the same more effectual and uniform, and to extend the application thereof, It is enacted as follows:

I. The undermentioned Regulations and parts of Regulations are rescinded, that is to say:

Regulation V. of 1800, Regulation VIII. of 1813, Section VI. of Regulation I. and the whole of Regulation IX. of 1822, and Regulation VIII. of 1829, of the Bengal Code; Regulation II. of 1829, and Regulation XII. of 1832, of the Madras Code; Section IV. of Regulation XI. of 1827, of the Bombay Code; except so far as any of them rescinds any former Regulation.

II. All Subjects of the British Government, and also all persons in the Civil or Military Service of the said Government, while actually in such service, and for six months afterwards, and also all persons who shall have dwelt for six months within the British Territories under the Government of the East India Company, subject to the laws of the said Territories, who shall be apprehended within the said Territories, or delivered into the custody of a Magistrate within the said Territories, wherever apprehended, shall be amenable to the law for all offences committed by them within the Territory of any Foreign Prince or State; and may be bailed or committed for trial as hereafter provided, on the like evidence as would warrant their being held to bail or committed for the same offence, if it had been committed within the British Territories.

III. The Committing Magistrate, immediately, and before the trial, shall report every such case to the Government, and shall obey the orders which he shall receive thereon.

IV. The Government may order the trial to be had before one of the established Courts of Criminal Judicature, which would be competent to try the person charged for the offence, if it had been committed within the British Territories.

V. When the offence is charged to have been committed in the Territory of any Foreign Prince or State, administered by Officers acting under the authority of the East India Company, in which Territory a Court, competent to try the person charged for the offence, is established by authority of the Governor General of India in Council, the Government may order such person to be conveyed in custody, out of the British Territories, for the purpose of delivering him up for trial before such Court.

VI. When the person charged is committed, the form of the warrant shall specify the commitment to be until the orders of Government can be received and acted on; when he is bailed, the form of the bail-bond shall be, in the first instance, to appear before the Magistrate on a certain day assigned, allowing reasonable time for receipt of the orders of Government, and on such subsequent days as the Magistrate from time to time shall require, and if Government shall order the persons charged to be tried within the Presidency, the Magistrate may cause the bail-bond to be renewed in the usual form, to appear and take his trial at the Court appointed for the purpose.

VII. In either case, the special order of the Government shall be deemed full authority, either for the trial and punishment of the person charged within the British Territories, or for conveying him in custody, out of the British Territories, as aforesaid.

VIII. The word 'Government' as used in the third and following Sections of this Act, means the Governor or Governor in Council or other person or persons having Supreme executive authority in the Presidency or Place to which the committing Magistrate belongs.

IX. The authority herein-before given to the Government may be also exercised by any Commissioner or other person acting in the Civil Service of the East India Company, to whom the Governor General in Council shall have delegated authority to receive reports and give orders in cases within this Act.

ACT No. II OF 1849.

To abolish the practice of branding and exposing Convicts.

Whereas it is thought fit to abolish wholly the practice of branding and publicly exposing Convicts throughout the Territories under the Government of the East India Company, It is enacted as follows:

No. 112.

Foreign Department, Camp Mukkoo, the 26th January, 1849.

NOTIFICATION.—Lieutenant E. B. Ramsay, of the 31st Regiment M. N. I., joined his appointment as Junior Assistant to the Commissioner of Mysore, on the 1st of November last.

H. M. ELLIOT,
Secretary to the Govt. of India, with the Govr. Genl.

Fort William, Home Department, Legislative, the 27th January, 1849.

The following Act is passed by the Hon'ble the President of the Council of India in Council on the 27th of January 1849, with the assent of the Right Hon'ble the Governor General of India, which has been read and recorded.

Ordered, that the Act be promulgated for general information.

ACT No. I. OF 1849.

An Act to provide more effectually for the punishment of offences committed in Foreign States.

Whereas divers Regulations of the Bengal, Madras and Bombay Codes have been made from time to time for the trial of Native Subjects of the British Government, committing criminal offences beyond the limits of the British Provinces, and it is expedient to make the same more effectual and uniform, and to extend the application thereof, It is enacted as follows:

I. The undermentioned Regulations and parts of Regulations are rescinded, that is to say:

Regulation V. of 1809, Regulation VIII. of 1813, Section VI. of Regulation I. and the whole of Regulation IX. of 1822, and Regulation VIII. of 1829, of the Bengal Code; Regulation II. of 1829, and Regulation XII. of 1832, of the Madras Code; Section IV. of Regulation XI. of 1827, of the Bombay Code; except so far as any of them rescinds any former Regulation.

II. All Subjects of the British Government, and also all persons in the Civil or Military Service of the said Government, while actually in such service, and for six months afterwards, and also all persons who shall have dwelt for six months within the British Territories under the Government of the East India Company, subject to the laws of the said Territories, who shall be apprehended within the said Territories, or delivered into the custody of a Magistrate within the said Territories, wheresoever apprehended, shall be amenable to the law for all offences committed by them within the Territory of any Foreign Prince or State; and may be bailed or committed for trial as hereafter provided, on the like evidence as would warrant their being held to bail or committed for the same offence, if it had been committed within the British Territories.

III. The Committing Magistrate, immediately, and before the trial, shall report every such case to the Government, and shall obey the orders which he shall receive thereon.

IV. The Government may order the trial to be had before one of the established Courts of Criminal Judicature, which would be competent to try the person charged for the offence, if it had been committed within the British Territories.

V. When the offence is charged to have been committed in the Territory of any Foreign Prince or State, administered by Officers acting under the authority of the East India Company, in which Territory a Court, competent to try the person charged for the offence, is established by authority of the Governor General of India in Council, the Government may order such person to be conveyed in custody, out of the British Territories, for the purpose of delivering him up for trial before such Court.

VI. When the person charged is committed, the form of the warrant shall specify the commitment to be until the orders of Government can be received and acted on; when he is bailed, the form of the bail-bond shall be, in the first instance, to appear before the Magistrate on a certain day assigned, allowing reasonable time for receipt of the orders of Government, and on such subsequent days as the Magistrate from time to time shall require; and if Government shall order the person charged to be tried within the Presidency, the Magistrate may cause the bail-bond to be renewed in the usual form, to appear and take his trial at the Court appointed for the purpose.

VII. In either case, the special order of the Government shall be deemed full authority, either for the trial and punishment of the person charged within the British Territories, or for conveying him in custody, out of the British Territories, as aforesaid.

VIII. The word 'Government' as used in the third and following Sections of this Act, means the Governor or Governor in Council or other person or persons having Supreme executive authority in the Presidency or Place to which the committing Magistrate belongs.

IX. The authority herein-before given to the Government may be also exercised by any Commissioner or other person acting in the Civil Service of the East India Company, to whom the Governor General in Council shall have delegated authority to receive reports and give orders in cases within this Act.

ACT No. II OF 1849.

To abolish the practice of branding and exposing Convicts.

Whereas it is thought fit to abolish wholly the practice of branding and publicly exposing Convicts throughout the Territories under the Government of the East India Company, It is enacted as follows:

I. Section XI. Regulation IV. 1797, Section XXXV. Regulation VII. 1803, and Clauses Second, Third and Fourth, Section XII. Regulation XVII. 1817, of the Bengal Code, Section XXXV. Regulation XIV of 1827, of the Bombay Code, as authorizes any sentence of public disgrace, are rescinded.

II. After the passing of this Act it shall not be lawful for any Court or Magistrate within the Territories, under the Government of the East India Company, to order that any brand or indelible mark of any kind be made, or renewed on any part of the person of any convicted offender, or to sentence any offender to be publicly exposed by Tusheer, or to any other degrading exposure.

PILOT'S COURT.

At a Court assembled on Tuesday the Twenty-sixth day of December, One Thousand Eight Hundred and Forty Eight, under Act No. XXIV. of 1845, Mr. Senior 2nd Mate Thomas Andrew Boyce was tried on the following Charges:

1st Charge.—For highly disrespectful and insubordinate conduct, in having, between the hours of 12 at noon and 1 p. m., on the 13th of December 1848, when addressed by his superior Officer Mr. Branch Pilot J. W. Roberts Commander of the "Saugor" then in the execution of his duty in the Government Dock Yard at Kidderpore, told that Officer that "if he was not satisfied he had better get another mate."

2nd Charge.—For mutinous conduct, in having used violent and threatening language to the abovenamed Mr. Branch Pilot J. W. Roberts, his Commander then and there, as before described, in the exercise of his duty, saying to him that he would knock him (Mr. Branch Pilot J. W. Roberts) down.

3rd Charge.—For having, at or about the time and place above described, subsequently to making use of the above threat, addressed mutinous language to the aforesaid Mr. Branch Pilot J. W. Roberts, his superior Officer then and there in the execution of his duty as Commander of the Honorable Company's Pilot Brig "Saugor," telling him that he (Mr. Roberts) was "a mean man," and adding sundry other gross and insulting remarks and threats; the said Mr. Senior Second Mate Pilot Thomas Andrew Boyce, being at the time as the Mate of the aforesaid Pilot Brig, immediately under the command of Mr. Branch Pilot J. W. Roberts.

By order of the Superintendent of Marine,

(Sd.) JAMES SUTHERLAND, Secretary.

Fort William, the 22nd December 1848.

Finding.—The Court having maturely weighed and considered the evidence brought forward in support of the prosecution, together with that adduced on the Defence, is of opinion that the Defendant, Mr. Senior Second Mate Pilot Thomas Andrew Boyce, is

Guilty of the 1st Charge,

Guilty of the 2d Charge,

Guilty on the 3d Charge of using the words you are a "mean man" but not guilty of "adding sundry other gross and insulting remarks and threats."

Sentence.—The Court having found the Defendant Guilty to the extent above specified do adjudge him the said Mr. Senior Second Mate Pilot Thomas Andrew Boyce to lose five steps, and his name to be placed on the list immediately under that of Mr. Junior Second Mate Pilot C. W. Evanes.

„ H. HOWE, Judge Advocate.

Recommendation of the Court.

The Court having awarded what in its judgment appears an adequate amount of punishment under the circumstances, in consideration of the little self-control shewn by Mr. Roberts and more especially with reference to Mr. Boyce's former irreproachable conduct as an Officer, as shewn by the Certificates produced, begs respectfully and earnestly to recommend him to the merciful consideration of Government.

(Sd.) HENRY PIDDINGTON, President.

1. The proceedings of the Court having been submitted to Government, His Honor the Deputy Governor of Bengal has been pleased to communicate his decision on the case as follows:

"Para. 3rd. The Deputy Governor approves of the finding of the Court upon the first and third charges. He is of opinion that the finding on the second charge is incomplete to the disadvantage of the accused, in omitting a part of the expression used as proved by evidence, which qualified that part of the expression which is affirmed in the finding.

Para. 4th. Mr. Boyce, the Deputy Governor observes, is most highly to blame for his disrespectful and insubordinate answer to his Superior Officer, before the latter had said or done any thing that a Subordinate Officer can be allowed to plead in palliation of such a reply as forms the subject of the first charge. But the Deputy Governor cannot fail to see in the subsequent demeanour of Mr. Roberts as proved in evidence what palliates though it does not excuse the language which forms the subject of the second and third charges so far as the third charge is supported by the finding; and considering the expression mentioned in the second charge in connexion with the rest of the sentence and the threatening gesture proved to have been made by Mr. Roberts to which the rest of the sentence alluded.

Para. 5th. Taking into consideration the very good character which Mr. Boyce has borne; and the circumstances under which the worst part of the expressions used by him were drawn forth, the Deputy Governor feels himself authorized to yield to the earnest recommendation of the Court, and to remit the sentence of loss of rank.

Para. 6th. But you are requested to administer a severe reprimand to Mr. Boyce for the insubordination which he has manifested; and to warn him that any repitition of such misconduct will meet with its full penalty."

2. In conformity to the above decision the Master Attendant has been desired to reprimand Mr. Senior 2nd Mate Thomas Andrew Boyce severely, before all the officers of the Pilot Service in town, and to release him from arrest, and allow him to return to his duty.

By order of the Superintendant of Marine.

JAMES SUTHERLAND, Secretary.

OPIUM NOTIFICATION.—Notice is hereby given, that the fourth Sale of Opium, the Provision of 1847-48, will be held at the Exchange Hall on Monday, the 19th February 1849, at 11 A. M., and will comprise 3,040 Chests, viz:

Behar Opium,.....	2,220
Benares Ditto,.....	820
Total Chests,...	3,040

2. Out of the abovementioned quantity, 20 Chests of Behar Opium are reserved for the French Government.

3. The general conditions of the sale now advertized will be the same as usual. They may be ascertained by reference to the Notification issued on the 13th September 1848, and published in the Calcutta and Exchange Gazettes, or on application at the Office of the Board of Customs, Salt and Opium.

4. The latest dates for deposit and clearance will be the 24th February and 6th March 1849, respectively; that is to say, no Sub-Treasurer's Receipts, Company's Paper, or other Public Securities that may be tendered for Deposit, in redemption of Promissory Notes, given by purchasers at the Sale, will be received after 4 P. M. of Saturday, the 24th February 1849; and no Treasury Receipts in full payment of lots will be accepted after 4 P. M. of Tuesday, the 6th March 1849.

By order of the Board of Customs, Salt and Opium, the 2nd February, 1849,

CECIL BEADON, Secretary.

NOTIFICATION.—An examination will be held early in April 1849, in the College of Fort William, for the purpose of filling up existing Vacancies in the Military class of the Medical College. All candidates will be expected to possess a knowledge of the Hindustani Language, adequate to enable them to read and write it in the Persian or Devanagri character.

2nd. All Interpreters of Regiments and Battalions will be requested, through the Military Departments, not to grant certificates of qualification to any candidate under the age of fifteen and above that of twenty years; and likewise to reject all who may not pass the prescribed ordeal with a sufficient degree of fluency and facility. Much disappointment, expense, and inconvenience have already been experienced by lads from distant stations being furnished with certificates, who were found, on examination, quite unqualified for admission; and it is with a view to prevent the recurrence of this, that the above measure has been adopted.

3rd. Candidates for admission will be required to present themselves before the Secretary to the Medical College, at least three days prior to the day of examination, in order that a proper descriptive roll may be prepared for transmission to the Examiners of the College of Fort William.

4th. The preference in selection, attainments being equal, will be given to those who have already been attached to, or served in Civil or Regimental Hospitals.

5th. No candidate will be allowed to present himself for examination, who cannot produce a written testimonial of his conduct and character, or afford satisfactory evidence as to who and what he is. A few individuals of decidedly bad character have, upon recent occasions, managed to obtain admittance, it is supposed, by producing false papers; the strictest care and scrutiny will therefore be exercised in examining the credentials of all future candidates, who will, in addition, require to be furnished with regular muster rolls, in order that they may be identified.

6th. All pupils must, as a condition of their appointment, reside within the College premises at all times, and never be absent from morning and evening muster without special leave.

7th. All students in the Military class are amenable to the Articles of War, and regularly enlisted as Soldiers.

8th. No candidate will be admitted to the school, who is physically unfit for the duties of a Soldier.

GENERAL ORDERS BY THE RIGHT HON'BLE THE GOVERNOR GENERAL OF INDIA.

Camp Mullainwalla, the 27th January, 1849.

The following order published by the Right Hon'ble the Governor General in the Foreign Department is re-published for the information of the Army.

GENERAL ORDER BY THE RIGHT HONORABLE THE GOVERNOR GENERAL OF INDIA.

FOREIGN DEPARTMENT,

Camp Mukkoo, the 24th January, 1849.

The Governor General, having received from the Commander-in-Chief in India a Despatch, dated the 16th instant, directs that it shall be published for the information of the Army and of the people of India.

In this Despatch, His Excellency reports the successful operations of the troops under his immediate command, on the afternoon of the 13th instant, when they attacked and defeated the Sikh Army under the command of Raja Shere Sing.

Notwithstanding great superiority in numbers, and the formidable position which he occupied, the enemy, after a severe and obstinate resistance, was driven back; and retreated from every part of his position in great disorder, with much slaughter, and with the loss of 12 pieces of Artillery.

The Governor General congratulates the Commander-in-Chief on the victory thus obtained by the Army under his command: and, on behalf of the Government of India, he desires cordially to acknowledge the gallant services which have been rendered on this occasion, by his Excellency the Commander-in-Chief, the Generals, the Officers, Non-Commissioned Officers and Soldiers of the Army in the field.

The Governor General offers his thanks to Major General Sir Joseph Thackwell, K. C. B. and K. H., for his services; and to Brigadier White, for his conduct of the Brigade of Cavalry on the left

Major General Sir W. Gilbert, K. C. B., and Brigadier General Campbell, C. B., are entitled. to the special thanks of the Governor General for the admirable manner in which they directed the Divisions under their orders.

To Brigadier Mountain, C. B., and to Brigadier Hoggan, the Governor General tenders his acknowledgments for the gallant example they offered in the lead of their men, and to them, to Brigadier Godby, C. B., and Brigadier Penny, C. B., for their able conduct of their respective Brigades.

The warm thanks of the Governor General are due to Brigadier General Tennant, Commanding the Artillery Division, to Brigadier Brooke, C. B., and Brigadier Huthwaite, C. B., for their direction of the operations of that distinguished Arm, and for the effective service which it rendered.

To the Heads of the various Departments and to the Officers of the General and Personal Staff, whose services are acknowledged by the Commander-in-Chief, the Governor General offers his thanks.

The Governor General deeply regrets the loss of Brigadier Pennycuick, C. B., and of the gallant Officers and men who have honorably fallen in the service of the country.

It has afforded the Governor General the highest gratification to observe that the conduct of the troops generally was worthy of all praise.

The Governor General, indeed, is concerned to think that any order, or misapprehension of an order, could have produced the movements, by the right Brigade of Cavalry, which His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief reports.

To the Artillery, European and Native, to the Cavalry on the left, and to the European and Native Infantry, the Governor General offers his hearty thanks; especially to those Corps, European and Native, which His Excellency reports to have acted under trying circumstances with a gallantry worthy of the greatest admiration.

The Governor General will have sincere satisfaction in bringing the services of this Army under the favorable notice of Her Majesty's Government and the Hon'ble East India Company.

A salute of 21 Guns has been ordered to be fired from every principal Station of the Army in India.

The Governor General repeats to the Commander-in-Chief and to the Army the assurance of his cordial thanks: and expresses his confident belief that the victory which, under Divine Providence, they have won, will exercise a most important influence on the successful progress of the war in which they are engaged.

By order of the Right Hon'ble the Governor General of India,

(Signed) H. M. ELLIOT,

Secretary to the Govt. of India,
with the Governor General.

FROM HIS EXCELLENCY THE COMMANDER-IN-CHIEF,

TO THE RIGHT HON'BLE THE GOVERNOR GENERAL OF INDIA,

Dated, Head Quarters, Camp Chillianwalla, 16th January, 1849.

MY LORD,

Major Mackeson, your Lordship's Political Agent with my Camp, officially communicated to me on the 10th instant, the fall of Attock and the advance of Sirdar Chutter Sing in order to concentrate his force with the Army. in my front, under Shere Sing, already amounting to from thirty to forty thousand men with 62 Guns, concluding his letter thus, "I would urge, in the event "of your Lordship fin ling yourself strong enough, with the Army under your command, to strike an "effectual blow at the Enemy in our front, that the blow should be struck with the least possible "delay."

Concurring entirely with Major Mackeson, and feeling that I was perfectly competent effectually to overthrow Shere Sing's Army, I moved from Loah Tibba at daylight on the 12th, to Dingee, about 12 miles. Having learnt from my spies, and from other sources of information, that Shere Sing still held with his right the villages of Lukhneewalla and Futtehshah-ke-Chuck, having the great body of his force at the village of Loolianwalla, with his left at Russool, on the Jhelum, strongly occupying the Southern extremity of a low range of difficult hills, intersected by ravines, which extend nearly to that village. I made my arrangements accordingly that evening, and communicated them to the Commanders of the several Divisions; but to ensure correct information as to the nature of the country, which I believed to be exceedingly difficult and ill-adapted to the advance of a regular Army, I determined upon moving on this village with a view to reconnoitre.

On the morning of the 13th the force advanced. I made a considerable detour to my right, partly in order to distract the Enemy's attentions, but principally to get as clear as I could of the jungle, on which, it would appear, that the Enemy mainly relied.

We approached this village about 12 o'clock, and I found, on a mound, close to it, a strong picquet of the Enemy's Cavalry and Infantry, which we at once dispersed, obtaining from the mound a very extended view of the country before us, and the Enemy drawn out in battle array, he having, either during the night or that morning, moved out of his several positions, and occupied the ground in our front, which though not a dense, was still a difficult jungle, his right in advance of Futtehshah-ke-Chuck, and his left on the furrowed hills before described.

The day being so far advanced, I decided upon taking up a position in rear of the village, in order to reconnoitre my front, finding that I could not turn the Enemy's flanks, which rested upon a dense jungle, extending nearly to Hailah, which I had previously occupied for some time, and the neighbourhood of which I knew, and upon the ravinev hills near Russool, without detaching a force to a distance. This I considered both inexpedient and dangerous.

The Engineer Department had been ordered to examine the country before us, and the Quarter Master General was in the act of taking up ground for the encampment, when the Enemy advanced some Horse Artillery, and opened a fire on the skirmishers in front of the village.

I immediately ordered them to be silenced by a few rounds from our heavy Guns, which advanced to an open space in front of the village. Their fire was instantly returned by that of nearly the whole of the Enemy's Field Artillery ; thus exposing the position of his Guns, which the jungle had hitherto concealed.

It was now evident that the Enemy intended to fight, and would probably advance his Guns so as to reach the encampment during the night.

I therefore drew up, in order of battle,—Sir Walter Gilbert's Division on the right, flanked by Brigadier Pope's Brigade of Cavalry, which I strengthened by the 14th Light Dragoons, well aware that the Enemy was strong in Cavalry upon his left. To this were attached 3 Troops of Horse Artillery under Lieut.-Col. Grant.

The heavy Guns were in the centre.

The Field Batteries were with the Infantry Divisions.

Thus formed, the troops were ordered to lie down, whilst the heavy Guns under Major Horsford, ably seconded by Brevet Majors Ludlow and Sir Richmond Shakespear, opened a well-directed and powerful fire upon the Enemy's centre, where his Guns appeared principally to be placed ; and this fire was ably supported on the flanks by the Field Batteries of the Infantry Divisions.

After about an hour's fire, that of the Enemy appeared to be, if not silenced, sufficiently disabled to justify an advance upon his position and Guns.

I then ordered my left Division to advance, which had to move over a greater extent of ground, and in front of which the Enemy seemed not to have many Guns. Soon after I directed Sir Walter Gilbert to advance, and sent orders to Brigadier Pope to protect the flank and support the movement. Brigadier Penny's Brigade was held in reserve, while the Irregular Cavalry under Brigadier Hearsey, with the 20th Native Infantry, was ordered to protect the enormous amount of provision and baggage, that so hampers the movement of an Indian Army.

Some time after the advance, I found that Brigadier Pennycuick's Brigade had failed in maintaining the position it had carried, and immediately ordered Brigadier Penny's reserve to its support; but Brigadier General Campbell, with that steady coolness and military decision, for which he is so remarkable, having pushed on his left Brigade, and formed line to his right, carried every thing before him, and soon overthrew that portion of the Enemy, which had obtained a temporary advantage over the right Brigade.

This last Brigade, I am informed, mistook for the signal to move in double time, the action of their brave leaders, Brigadier Pennycuick and Lieutenant Colonel Brookes, (two Officers not surpassed for sound judgment and military daring in this or any other Army,) who waived their swords over their heads as they cheered on their gallant comrades. This unhappy mistake led to the Europeans outstripping the Native Corps, which could not keep pace, and arriving, completely blown, at a belt of thicker jungle, where they got into some confusion, and Lieutenant Colonel Brookes, leading the 24th, was killed between the Enemy's Guns. At this moment a large body of Infantry, which supported their Guns, opened upon them so destructive a fire, that the Brigade was forced to retire, having lost their gallant and lamented leader, Brigadier Pennycuick, and the three other Field Officers of the 24th, and nearly half the Regiment, before it gave way: the Native Regiment, when it came up, also suffering severely. In justice to this Brigade, I must be allowed to state, that they behaved heroically, and, but for their too hasty, and consequently disorderly advance, would have emulated the conduct of their left Brigade, which left unsupported, for a time, had to charge to their front and right, wherever an Enemy appeared. The Brigade of Horse Artillery on their left, under Lieutenant-Colonel Brind, judiciously and gallantly aiding, maintained an effective fire.

Major General Sir J. Thackwell, on the extreme left and rear, charged the enemy's Cavalry wherever they showed themselves.

The right attack of Infantry, under that able Officer, Major General Sir Walter Gilbert was most praiseworthy and successful. The left Brigade, under Brigadier Mountain, advanced under a heavy fire upon the enemy's Guns, in a manner that did credit to the Brigadier and his gallant Brigade, which came first into action and suffered severely: the right Brigade, under Brigadier Godby, ably supported the advance.

This Division nobly maintained the character of the Indian Army, taking and spiking the whole of the Enemy's Guns in their front, and dispersing the Seikhs wherever they were seen.

The Major General reports most favorably of the fire of his Field Battery.

The right Brigade of Cavalry, under Brigadier Pope, was not, I regret to say, so successful. Either by some order, or misapprehension of an order, they got into much confusion, hampered the fine Brigade of Horse Artillery, which, while getting into action, against a body of the Enemy's Cavalry that was coming down upon them, had their horses separated from their Guns by the false movements of our Cavalry, and, notwithstanding the heroic conduct of the gunners, four of those Guns were disabled to an extent which rendered their withdrawal, at the moment, impossible. The moment the Artillery was extricated, and the Cavalry reformed, a few rounds put to flight the enemy that had occasioned this confusion.

With this exception, the conduct of the troops, generally, was most exemplary. Some Corps, both European and Native, acted under most trying circumstances, (from the temporary failure in our left centre and right, and the cover which the jungle afforded to the enemy's movements) and with a gallantry worthy of the highest admiration.

Although the Enemy, who defended not only his Guns, but his position, with desperation, was driven in much confusion, and with heavy loss from every part of it, and the greater part of his Field Artillery was actually captured, the march of Brigades to their flanks to repel parties that had rallied, and the want of numbers and consequent support to our right flank, aided by the cover of the jungle and the close of the day, enabled him, upon our further advance in pursuit, to return and carry off, unobserved, the greater portion of the Guns we had thus gallantly carried at the point of the bayonet.

I remained with Brigadier General Campbell's Division, which had been reinforced by Brigadier Mountain's Brigade, until near 8 o'clock, in order to effect the bringing in of the captured Ordnance, and of the wounded, and I hoped to bring in the rest of the Guns next morning. But I did not feel justified in remaining longer out. The night was very dark,—I knew not how far I had advanced,—There were no wells nearer than the line of this village,—The troops had been arduously employed all day, and there was every appearance of a wet night: rain did fall before morning.

I should have felt great satisfaction if I were enabled to state, that my expectations in regard to the Guns had been realized, but although a Brigade of Cavalry, under Brigadier White, with a troop of Horse Artillery, were on the ground soon after daylight, we found that the Enemy, assisted by the neighbouring villagers, had carried off their Guns, excepting 12, which we had brought in the night before. Most of the captured waggons I had caused to be blown up before leaving the ground.

The victory was complete, as to the total overthrow of the Enemy, and his sense of utter discomfiture and defeat, will, I trust, soon be made apparent, unless, indeed, the rumours, prevalent this day, of his having been joined by Chutter Sing, prove correct.

I am informed that the loss of the Seikhs has been very great, and chiefly amongst their old and tried soldiers. In no action do I remember seeing so many of an Enemy's slain upon the same space; Soobraon, perhaps, only excepted.

I have now, my Lord, stated the general movements of this Army previous to, and during the action of Chillianwalla; and as that action was characterized by peculiar features, which rendered it impossible for the Commander-in-Chief to witness all the operations of the Force, I shall beg leave to bring prominently to your Lordship's notice, the names of the several Officers and Corps particularly mentioned by the Divisional Commanders.

I have already stated the obligations I am under to Major General Sir Joseph Thackwell, and Sir Walter Gilbert, and to Brigadier General Campbell, for their most valuable services. I warmly concur with them in the thanks which they have expressed to the several Brigadiers and Officers Commanding Corps, and to the Troops generally.

Sir Joseph Thackwell names, with much satisfaction, Brigadier White's conduct of his Brigade—Major Yerbury, commanding 3rd Light Dragoons—the gallant charge of Captain Unett, in command of a Squadron of that Corps—Major Mackenzie, commanding the 8th—and Captain Wheatly, commanding the 5th Light Cavalry—and the conduct of Captain Moore, of the 8th, with a Squadron detached in support of the Artillery. He further notices the assistance he derived from the zeal and activity of Captain Pratt, Assistant Adjutant General, and Lieutenant Tucker, Deputy Assistant Quarter Master General of his Division; of Captain Cautley, Major of Brigade; of his Aid-de-Camp, Lieutenant Thackwell, and of Lieutenant Simpson, Sub-Assistant Commissary General.

Brigadier General Campbell speaks in terms of admiration of the 5th Brigade, led on by that distinguished Officer, Brigadier Pennycuick; and particularly of the gallant exertions of H. M.'s 24th Foot, under the command of Lieutenant Colonel Brookes; and the good and steady advance of the 25th and 45th Native Infantry, under the command of Lieutenant Colonel Corbett and Major Williams. He particularizes the undaunted example set to his Brigade by Brigadier Hoggan; the continued steadiness and gallantry of Her Majesty's 61st Regiment, commanded by Lieutenant-Colonel Macleod, under the most trying circumstances; the distinguished conduct of Major Fleming and the Officers of the 36th Native Infantry; and of the 46th Native Infantry under Major Tudor; as also the able and zealous exertions of the Brigade Major Captain Keiller. The Brigadier General also brings to notice his obligations to Major Tucker, Assistant Adjutant General of the Army, and to Captain Goldie and Lieutenant Irwin, of the Engineers, who were sent to his assistance, and the cordial and able support, which he received from Major Ponsonby, his Assistant Adjutant General; and he particularly mentions the conduct of Ensign Garden, his Deputy Assistant Quarter Master General, and of Captain Haythorne, his Aid-de-Camp; further naming Lieutenant Grant, of H. M.'s 24th Regiment, Lieutenant Powys, of H. M.'s 61st, who attended him as Orderly Officers, and of Lieutenant and Adjutant Shadwell, of H. M.'s 98th, who was with him as a Volunteer.

Sir Walter Gilbert speaks warmly of the charge led by Brigadier Mountain, against a large Battery of the Enemy, and followed up, on his right, by Brigadier Godby, and of the subsequent conduct of these Officers; as also of the conduct of Major Chester, Assistant Adjutant General, and Lieutenant Galloway, Deputy Assistant Quarter Master General of the Division; of Lieutenant Colt, his Aid-de-Camp, of Captain Sherwill and Lieutenant Macdonnell, Majors of Brigade, and of Captain Glasfurd, and Lieutenant W. E. Morton, of the Engineers.

The Major General further mentions the undaunted bravery on this occasion of H. M.'s 29th Regiment, under Lieutenant-Colonel Congreve; the distinguished conduct of the 2nd Eurogean Regiment, under Major Steel; and the manner in which Majors Smith and Way, of the 29th, and Major Talbot, of the 2nd Europeans, seconded their able Commanders. He also expresses his thanks to Lieutenant Colonel Jack, commanding the 30th Native Infantry; Major Bamfield, commanding the 56th Native Infantry, who was mortally wounded; Major Corfield, commanding the 31st Native Infantry, and Major McCausland, commanding the 70th Native Infantry, for the manner in which they led their Regiments into action; naming likewise Captain Nembhard, of the 56th, who succeeded to the command of that Corps; Captain Dawes, commanding the Field Battery of the Division, and Captain Robbins, of the 15th, who acted as his Aid-de-Camp.

The Reserve, consisting of the 15th Native Infantry, and 8 Companies of the 69th Native Infantry, was ably handled by Brigadier Penny, well seconded by Lieutenant-Colonels Sibbald and Mercer, commanding the Corps. The Brigadier particularly mentions the steady conduct of the Rifle Company of the 69th, under Captain Sissmore, and acknowledges the services of Captain Macpherson, his Major of Brigade; and of Brevet Captain Morris, of the 20th Native Infantry, who attended him as Orderly Officer.

Brigadier General Tennant, Commanding the Artillery Division, rendered me every aid, and presided over the noble arm, of which he is the head, most creditably to himself and most beneficially to the service. The Brigadier General particularly mentions Brigadier J. Brooke, who commanded the whole of the Horse Artillery, Brigadier Huthwaite, commanding the Foot Artillery, Lieutenant-Colonels C. Grant and F. Brind, Major R. Horsford and Major Mowatt, all of whom were in important commands. He further brings to notice Captain J. Abercrombie, Deputy Assistant Adjutant General; Lieutenant Tombs, Deputy Assistant Quarter Master General; his Aid-de-Camp, Lieutenant Olpherts; Captain Hogge, Commissary of Ordnance; and Lieutenant de Tessier, who attended him as Orderly Officer.

I have, in the beginning of this Despatch, noticed the services of Brevet Major Sir Richmond Shakespear and Brevet Major Ludlow, in command of the heavy Batteries, under the general superintendence of Major Horsford, and it only remains for me to add, that the conduct of Major Fordyce, Captains Warner and Duncan, Lieutenants Robinson and Walker, commanding Troops and Field Batteries, as well as the Officers and men of the Artillery generally, have been named in terms of praise by the Divisional Commander.

Lieuts. C. V. Cox and E. Kaye, Brigade Majors of this arm, have been also named by their respective Brigadiers.

From the Engineer Department, under Major Tremenhere, I received active assistance, ably aided by Captain Durand, Lieuts. R. Baird, Smith and Goodwyn.

To the General Staff I am greatly indebted. Lieut.-Col. Gough, C. B., Quarter-Master General, and Major Lugard, Acting Adjutant General, and Captain C. Otter, Acting Assistant Adjutant General of H. M.'s Forces; Lieut.-Col. P. Grant, C. B., Adjutant General of the Army, Major C. Ekins (killed,) a valued and much regretted Officer, Deputy Adjutant General; and Major Tucker, Assistant Adjutant General of the Army; Lieut.-Col. W. Garden, C. B., Quarter-Master General of the Army; Lieut. W. F. Tytler, Assistant Quarter-Master General, and Lieut. Paton, Deputy Assistant Quarter-Master General of the Army; Lieut.-Col. Birch, Judge Advocate General, and Lieut. G. B. Johnson, Deputy Judge Advocate General; Major G. Thomson, Assistant Commissary General; Lieut.-Col. J. G. W. Curtis, Assistant Commissary General; Captain C. Campbell, Pay Master to the Army; Captain J. Lang, Post Master, and H. Franklyn, Esquire, Inspector General of H. M.'s Hospitals.

To my personal Staff I am also much indebted. Captain F. P. Haines, Military Secretary, Major H. Bates, Aid-de-Camp, Lieut. A. Bagot, Aid-de-Camp, Lieut. S. J. Hire, Aid-de-Camp, Captain Gabbett, Aid-de-Camp, Lieut. G. N. Hardinge, Aid-de-Camp, and Lieut. W. G. Prendergast, Persian Interpreter.

The unwearied exertions of Dr. Renny, Superintending Surgeon, and of Dr. MacRae, the Field Surgeon, in the care of the wounded, have been beyond all praise.

The Earl of Gifford kindly accompanied me throughout the operations, and was most useful in conveying my orders to the several Divisions and Brigades. I had also the advantage throughout the day of the active services of Lieut.-Col. Sir Henry M. Lawrence; Major Mackeson; Mr. Cooke, C. S.; Captain Nicholson and Lieutenant Robinson; as well as of Major Anstruther, of the Madras Artillery, and Lieut. H. O. Mayne, of the 6th Madras Light Cavalry.

Captain Ramsay, Joint Deputy Commissary General, with the several Officers of that Department, has been most indefatigable, and has hitherto kept the Army well supplied.

I have, &c.,

Fort William, Home Department, Legislative, the 27th January, 1849.

The following Act is passed by the Hon'ble the President of the Council of India in Council on the 27th of January 1849, with the assent of the Right Hon'ble the Governor General of India, which has been read and recorded.

Ordered, that the Act be promulgated for general information.

ACT No. I. OF 1849.

An Act to provide more effectually for the punishment of offences committed in Foreign States.

Whereas divers Regulations of the Bengal, Madras and Bombay Codes have been made from time to time for the trial of Native Subjects of the British Government, committing criminal offences beyond the limits of the British Provinces, and it is expedient to make the same more effectual and uniform, and to extend the application thereof, It is enacted as follows:

I. The undermentioned Regulations and parts of Regulations are rescinded, that is to say:

Regulation V. of 1809, Regulation VIII. of 1813, Section VI. of Regulation I. and the whole of Regulation IX. of 1822, and Regulation VIII. of 1829, of the Bengal Code; Regulation II. of 1829, and Regulation XII. of 1832, of the Madras Code; Section IV. of Regulation XI. of 1827, of the Bombay Code; except so far as any of them rescinds any former Regulation.

II. All Subjects of the British Government, and also all persons in the Civil or Military Service of the said Government, while actually in such service, and for six months afterwards, and also all persons who shall have dwelt for six months within the British Territories under the Government of the East India Company, subject to the laws of the said Territories, who shall be apprehended within the said Territories, or delivered into the custody of a Magistrate within the said Territories, wherever apprehended, shall be amenable to the law for all offences committed by them within the Territory of any Foreign Prince or State; and may be bailed or committed for trial as hereafter provided, on the like evidence as would warrant their being held to bail or committed for the same offence, if it had been committed within the British Territories.

III. The Committing Magistrate, immediately, and before the trial, shall report every such case to the Government, and shall obey the orders which he shall receive thereon.

IV. The Government may order the trial to be had before one of the established Courts of Criminal Judicature, which would be competent to try the person charged for the offence, if it had been committed within the British Territories.

V. When the offence is charged to have been committed in the Territory of any Foreign Prince or State, administered by Officers acting under the authority of the East India Company, in which Territory a Court, competent to try the person charged for the offence, is established by authority of the Governor General of India in Council, the Government may order such person to be conveyed in custody, out of the British Territories, for the purpose of delivering him up for trial before such Court.

VI. When the person charged is committed, the form of the warrant shall specify the commitment to be until the orders of Government can be received and acted on; when he is bailed, the form of the bail-bond shall be, in the first instance, to appear before the Magistrate on a certain day assigned, allowing reasonable time for receipt of the orders of Government, and on such subsequent days as the Magistrate from time to time shall require; and if Government shall order the person charged to be tried within the Presidency, the Magistrate may cause the bail-bond to be renewed in the usual form, to appear and take his trial at the Court appointed for the purpose.

VII. In either case, the special order of the Government shall be deemed full authority, either for the trial and punishment of the person charged within the British Territories, or for conveying him in custody, out of the British Territories, as aforesaid.

VIII. The word 'Government' as used in the third and following Sections of this Act, means the Governor or Governor in Council or other person or persons having Supreme executive authority in the Presidency or Place to which the committing Magistrate belongs.

IX. The authority herein-before given to the Government may be also exercised by any Commissioner or other person acting in the Civil Service of the East India Company, to whom the Governor General in Council shall have delegated authority to receive reports and give orders in cases within this Act.

NOTIFICATION.—Notice is hereby given, that, in pursuance of instructions received from the Hon'ble the Court of Directors, the Governments of Bengal, Madras and Bombay, have been authorized, in any case in which they may consider such a course to be expedient, to dispense with the obligation to insure, which is imposed by the existing terms and conditions upon parties who may obtain Advances from the respective Governments, on the Security of Goods hypothecated to the East India Company—intimating to them that the Hon'ble Court will make the Insurance in England,—and requiring a Declaration binding the parties to re-pay the premium upon Insurances, which the Court may effect before the Bills of Lading and other Shipping documents are handed over to their Agents.

It is to be understood, that the Insurance to be effected, will only be to the amount of the Advance in each case, so as to cover the East India Company's risk.

NOTIFICATION.—An examination will be held early in April 1849, in the College of Fort William, for the purpose of filling up existing Vacancies in the Military class of the Medical College. All candidates will be expected to possess a knowledge of the Hindustani Language, adequate to enable them to read and write it in the Persian or Devanagri character.

2nd. All Interpreters of Regiments and Battalions will be requested, through the Military Departments, not to grant certificates of qualification to any candidate under the age of fifteen and above that of twenty years; and likewise to reject all who may not pass the prescribed ordeal with a sufficient degree of fluency and facility. Much disappointment, expense, and inconvenience have already been experienced by lads from distant stations being furnished with certificates, who were found, on examination, quite unqualified for admission; and it is with a view to prevent the recurrence of this, that the above measure has been adopted.

3rd. Candidates for admission will be required to present themselves before the Secretary to the Medical College, at least three days prior to the day of examination, in order that a proper descriptive roll may be prepared for transmission to the Examiners of the College of Fort William.

4th. The preference in selection, attainments being equal, will be given to those who have already been attached to, or served in Civil or Regimental Hospitals.

5th. No candidate will be allowed to present himself for examination, who cannot produce a written testimonial of his conduct and character, or afford satisfactory evidence as to who and what he is. A few individuals of decidedly bad character have, upon recent occasions, managed to obtain admittance, it is supposed, by producing false papers; the strictest care and scrutiny will therefore be exercised in examining the credentials of all future candidates, who will, in addition, require to be furnished with regular muster rolls, in order that they may be identified.

6th. All pupils must, as a condition of their appointment, reside within the College premises at all times, and never be absent from morning and evening muster without special leave.

7th. All students in the Military class are amenable to the Articles of War, and regularly enlisted as Soldiers.

8th. No candidate will be admitted to the school, who is physically unfit for the duties of a Soldier.

FORT WILLIAM,
FOREIGN DEPARTMENT,
The 14th February, 1849.

NOTIFICATION.

The President in Council is pleased to direct the publication of the following Notification and General Order, issued by the Right Hon'ble the Governor General, at His Lordship's Head Quarters, under date the 1st Instant.

FRED. JAS. HALLIDAY,
Offg. Secy. to the Govt. of India.

NOTIFICATION.
FOREIGN DEPARTMENT,

Camp Ferozepore, the 1st February 1849.

The Right Honorable the Governor General directs the publication of the following Despatch, from His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief, for public information.

By order of the Right Hon'ble the Governor General,

H. M. ELLIOT,
Secretary to the Govt. of India, with the Governor General.

(Copies.)

FROM THE RIGHT HON'BLE THE COMMANDER-IN-CHIEF,
TO THE RIGHT HON'BLE THE GOVERNOR GENERAL OF INDIA,

Head Quarters, Camp Ramnuggur, 10th December 1848.

MY LORD,

In continuation of my letter of the 5th instant, I have now the honor to enclose to your Lordship a copy of Major General Sir Joseph Thackwell's Despatch, dated the 6th idem, but only received last night, detailing the operations of the Force under his command after it had been detached from my Head Quarters.

I can only repeat the warm approval I have already expressed of the conduct of the Major General and of every Officer and Man under his command, and I beg your Lordship's favorable consideration of the services of those named by Sir Joseph Thackwell.

I beg to enclose a rough sketch of the operations of the 3rd instant.

I have, &c.,

FROM MAJOR GENERAL SIR JOSEPH THACKWELL, K. C. B. and K. H.

TO LIEUT. COLONEL GRANT, C. B., Adjutant General of the Army.

Head Quarters, Camp Ramnuggur.

Camp Heyleh, 6th December 1848.

SIR,

I have the honor to report for the information of the Right Hon'ble the Commander-in-Chief, that, agreeably to His Excellency's orders, I left the Camp at Ramnuggur with the Troops named in the margin, at about half past 3 o'Clock, on the morning of the 1st December 1848, instead of at one o'Clock as I had ordered, some of the troops having lost their way among the intricacies of the rear of the encampment, and proceeded to the vicinity of the ford on the Chenab at Runnee-Khan-ke-Puttun, distant 13 miles from Ramnuggur, which, owing to the broken ground, and narrow roads, where any existed for the first four miles, I did not reach before 11 o'Clock. The Enemy had Infantry at this ford, which report afterwards magnified to 4,000 men, but the villagers said it was much deeper than the one at Allee Shere-ke-Chuck, a mile higher up the river. I am much indebted to Lieutenant Paton, Deputy Assistant Quarter Master General, for his anxious exertions in examining this ford; and from his report I came to the conclusion that this ford of Allee Shere-ke-Chuck could not have Artillery on the left bank of the river to cover the passage of the Troops, from the insecure bottom of the first ford, neither could the Pontoon Train be of much use, for the same reason, and the deep sands which lay between the fords. The Pontoon Train might have been laid over the main stream under cover of a Battery, near the Enemy's Infantry, but beyond the river the sands seemed wet and insecure, and a branch of the river beyond them was said to be deep with a muddy bottom. Under all these disadvantages I came to the decision that it was more advisable to try the passage of the river near Wuzzerabad, where Captain Nicholson, Assistant to the Resident at Lahore, informed me that at the ferry were seventeen boats, and a ford not more than 3 feet 10 inches deep, with a good bottom, than to run the risk of a severe loss by passing the river near the Enemy. This survey of the ford occupied three hours, and at 2 o'Clock I put the column in movement to the ford and ferry at Wuzzerabad, which was in the possession of Lieutenant Nicholson's Pattans, where the leading Infantry arrived about 5 o'Clock in the afternoon, having made a march of about 25 miles. The 6th Brigade of Infantry and some of the Guns were passed over the Chenab immediately, and I am indebted to Brigadier General Campbell, Lieutetant Colonel Grant, H. A., and Captain Smith of the Engineers for their great exertions in forwarding this object. Brigadier Eckford I hoped would have crossed the river by the three fords that evening, but as it became too dark and hazy for such an operation he halted for the night on the dry sands near the last branch of the river. Major Tait, 3rd Irregular Cavalry, was enabled to pass over three of his Rissallahs,—in doing which I am sorry to say, three Sowars and one Horse were drowned. On the morrow the Infantry, Cavalry and all the Troops were soon over the river by ferry and ford, and all the baggage and Commissariat animals passed the same by 12 o'clock, without any further loss.

Of the above detail the following returned in charge of the two 18-Pounders and Pontoon Train:

2 Guns of No. 10 Lt. Field Battery.
12th Irregular Cavalry.
2 Companies 22nd N. I.

At 2 P. M. after the Troops had dined, I marched in order of battle, three Brigade columns of Companies, at half distance left in front, at deploying interval. The 1st Brigade of Cavalry, in the same order, on the right, with strong flanking parties and rear guard, and the 3rd Irregular Cavalry on the left, with orders to patrole to the river and clear the right bank, aided by Infantry, if necessary: in this order I arrived at Doorawal at dusk about 12 miles from the ferry, and halted for the night. On Sunday, December the 3rd, at daylight, the Troops proceeded in the same order towards the Sikh position, and I intended to have reconnoitred and commenced an attack upon it by 11 o'Clock: hearing, however, when within about 4 miles of it or less, that reinforcements were expected to pass over the Chenab at the ford near Ghurree ke Puttun, it became necessary to secure that post, and which had been found without an Enemy an hour before, but to which it now seemed that a body of about 600 of the Enemy were seen approaching, and I detached a Wing of the 56th N. I., and two Ressallahs, of the 3d Irregular Cavalry, under Major Tait, who secured the post and frustrated the attempt of the Enemy. This caused so much delay that enough of daylight would not be left for the advance and attack on the left and rear of the Enemy's position. About 2 P. M. some of the Enemy's guns opened on a patrole of the 5th Light Cavalry, and he was seen advancing in large bodies of Cavalry and Infantry, and the picquets, which occupied three villages with large plantations of sugar-cane, being too much in advance to be supported, fell back without any loss, and the Enemy occupied these villages with Cavalry on the right; guns and bodies of Infantry and the main body of their Cavalry with Horse Artillery, were on their left. When the Enemy's guns opened, I ordered Brigadier General Campbell to deploy the Infantry into line in front of the village of Sudoolapoor. Brigadier Eckford and part of Brigadier Hoggan's Brigade being extended in order not to be out-flanked. It was not until the Enemy came well within range of our guns that I caused them to open their fire, which they then did with great effect. The enemy tried to turn both our flanks, which having foreseen, I had caused Captain Warner to move his troop of Artillery to the left of the Infantry, and had sent the 5th Light Cavalry to the left to support these guns, and to act in conjunction with the two Ressalahs of the 3rd Irregular Cavalry under Captain Biddulph, who were posted on open ground, and these soon drove the Enemy back. The attempt to turn our right was met by extending the 8th Light Cavalry and H. M.'s 3rd Light Dragoons, supported by Major Christie's troop of Artillery. As the Cavalry of the right advanced the Enemy's sowars gave way, and they fell back on their Infantry having lost some men by the skirmishers of the 3rd Light Dragoons. After a cannonade of about two hours the fire of the Enemy slackened, and I sent Lieut. Paton to desire the Cavalry on the right to charge and take the Enemy's guns if possible, intending to support them by moving the Brigades in eschellon, from the right at intervals, according to circumstances, but as no opportunity offered for the Cavalry to charge and so little of day-light remained, I deemed it safer to remain in my position than attempt to drive back an Enemy so strongly posted on their right and centre, with the prospect of having to attack their entrenched position afterwards. From this position the Sikhs began to retire at about 12 o'Clock at night as was afterwards ascertained, and as was conjectured by the barking of dogs in their rear. I have every reason to believe that Shere Sing attacked with 20 guns; and nearly the whole of the Sikh Army were emyloyed against my position, which was by no means what I could have wished it, but the fire of our Artillery was so effective that he did not dare to bring his masses to the front, and my brave, steady and ardent Infantry, whom I had caused to lay down to avoid the heavy fire, had no chance of firing a shot, except a few Companies on the left of the line. The Enemy's loss has been severe, ours comparatively very small. I regret not being able to capture the enemy's guns, but with the small force of Cavalry, two regiments on the right only, it would have been a matter of difficulty for tired Cavalry to overtake Horse Artillery, fresh and well mounted. In these operations the conduct of all has merited my warmest praise, and the patient endurance of the Artillery, Cavalry, European Infantry and Sepoys under privations of no ordinary nature has been most praiseworthy.

To Brigadier General Campbell I am much indebted for his able assistance during these movements, and to Lieut. Colonel Grant, Commanding the Artillery, Major Christie, Captains Huish, Warner, Austin and Kinleside, and the Officers and men under their command, I cannot bestow too much praise for their skill and gallantry in overcoming the fire of a numerous Artillery, some of which were of heavy callibre. I am also greatly indebted to Captain Smith of the Engineers, for his exertions in passing over guns at the Wuzzeerabad Ferry, and for his assistance in conveying my orders, on various occasions. And my thanks are due to Lieutenants Yule and Crommelin of the same Corps, and to Lieutenant Bacon of the Sappers; to Lieutenant Paton, Deputy Assistant Quarter Master General, my best thanks are due for his exertions and assistance in the advance of the troops and during the action, and to Captain Nicholson, Assistant to the Resident at Lahore, I beg to offer my best thanks for his endeavours to procure intelligence of the enemy's movements, for his endeavours to procure supplies for the Troops, and for his able assistance on all occasions. Captain Pratt, my Deputy Assistant Adjutant General, Lieutenant Tucker, Deputy Assistant Quarter Master General, and Lieutenant Thackwell, A. D. C., have been most zealous in performing their respective duties and have rendered me every assistance, and I feel assured that if the Cavalry and Infantry had been brought into close action, I should have had the great satisfaction of thanking Brigadiers, Commanding Officers of Corps, and the Officers and Men for their gallantry, and noble bearing in action, as I now do for their steadiness and good conduct. To Major Mainwaring, Captains Gerrard, Simpson, Faddy and James, I am much indebted for their exertions in their respective Departments.

I beg further to state, that on the morning of the 4th, I put the Troops in motion to pursue the Enemy, who had retreated during the preceding night and encamped about 11 miles from the Chenab, on the road to Jullalpore, the 9th Lancers having been pushed to the front, but without seeing any thing of the Enemy who had retreated by the Jelum, Jullalpore and Pind Dadun Khan roads, and on the following day I arrived at this place and sent two Regiments of Cavalry on the road to Dingee, one of them, the 14th Light Dragoons, and two Regiments of Cavalry and a Troop of Horse Artillery on the road to Jullalpore; the latter party observed two bodies of the Enemy of about 800 and 400 Men each, imagined to be a strong rear guard, about 8 miles from this, and behind a thick jungle which reaches to the river; and the former went to Dingee, which place the Enemy had left, and the villagers said had gone over the Jelum. Both parties returned to this Camp without, I am sorry to say, having overtaken any of the Enemy's Troops or Guns. I beg leave to enclose a return of the Killed and Wounded.

I have, &c.,

GENERAL ORDER BY THE RIGHT HONORABLE THE GOVERNOR GENERAL OF INDIA.

FOREIGN DEPARTMENT.

Camp Ferozepore, the 1st February, 1849.

The Governor General, having received a Despatch, reporting the surrender, on the morning of the 22nd instant. of the Citadel and Garrison of Mooltan, directs that together with other Despatches relating to the operations against the City and Fort, it shall be published for the information of the Army and of the people of India.

The capture of this important Fortress, which, during a protracted period, has resisted the powerful Armament brought against it, and has been defended with gallantry and endurance, is a just subject of congratulation to the Government of India and to the Army.

The Governor General desires to convey to Major General Whish, C. B., his warmest thanks for the valuable service which has thus, under Providence, been rendered to the Government by the united Forces which he commands; for the steady and skilful and successful prosecution of a Siege, which, at comparatively small loss to ourselves, has inflicted most heavy loss upon the Enemy, and has utterly destroyed his strongest Fortress.

Brigadier Cheape, C. B., the Chief Engineer of the Army, is entitled to the best thanks of the Governor General for the zeal and ability with which he has fulfilled the important duty entrusted to him; and in the discharge of which he has been well supported by Major Napier, Chief Engineer of the Bengal Division, and Major Scott, Chief Engineer of the Bombay Division of the Force.

To Brigadier Markham, whose services have been conspicuous, to Brigadier Salter, and to Brigadier Hervey, the Governor General tenders his warm acknowledgments.

To Brigadier the Honorable H. Dundas, C. B., Commanding the Bombay Division, to Brigadier Capon and Brigadier Stalker the best thanks of the Governor General are due for the ready and effective assistance they have rendered upon all occasions; as well in the attack upon the Suberbs on 27th December, as in the assault of the City, which their Troops were the first to enter, and in all the subsequent operations of the Siege.

To Major Garbett and to Major Leeson, Commanding the Artillery of the Bengal and Bombay Divisions, to Commander Powell of the Indian Navy and to the heads of the various Departments, the Governor General offers his thanks.

And to all the Troops of each Division, European and Native, to the Officers, Non-Commissioned Officers and men, the Governor General renders his hearty thanks for the gallantry, perseverance, skill and discipline, which they have displayed throughout the service on which they have been employed.

With equal cordiality the Governor General offers his best thanks to Major Edwards, C. B., with the Irregular Force under his orders, and to Lieutenant Lake, who has commanded the Forces of our Ally, the Nawaub of Bhawulpore. The Governor General congratulates these Officers on their having been enabled, with their Native Troops, to witness, in the capture of Mooltan, the complete vindication of the supremacy of British power, which, during the past summer, their own gallantry and enterprise so materially contributed to sustain.

The Governor General will have the utmost satisfaction in bringing the services of the Force at Mooltan under the favorable consideration of Her Majesty's Government and the Honorable East India Company.

A Salute of 21 Guns has been ordered to be fired at every principal Station of the Army in India.

By Order of the Right Honorable the Governor General of India,

H. M. ELLIOT,

Secy. to the Govt. of India, with the Govr. Genl.

No. 165.

Foreign Department, Camp Ferozepore, the 3rd February, 1849.

NOTIFICATION.—The Right Hon'ble the Governor General is pleased to appoint Ensign B. W. Ryall, 63rd Regiment Bengal Native Infantry, to act as Adjutant in the 2nd Regiment of Infantry, Scindiah's Contingent, during the time that Lieutenant and Adjutant Adams, officiates as 2nd in Command of the Regiment.

H. M. ELLIOT,
Secretary to the Govt. of India, with the Govr. Genl.

Fort William, Home Department, Legislative, the 10th February, 1849.

The following Act is passed by the Hon'ble the President of the Council of India in Council on the 10th of February 1849, with the assent of the Right Hon'ble the Governor General of India, which has been read and recorded.

Ordered, that the Act be promulgated for general information.

ACT No. III OF 1849.

An Act to confirm an Agreement between certain Shareholders and Creditors of the Union Bank of Calcutta.

Whereas by Act XXIII. 1845, certain persons, therein declared to have formed themselves into a Company or Co-partnership by the name of "The Union Bank of Calcutta," and those who should thereafter become Members and Proprietors of the said Union Bank, were enabled to sue, and to be sued, at law and in equity, in the name of the person who should be the Secretary or the Treasurer of the said Bank, for the time being, and certain provisions are therein contained for the recovery of debts and demands due by the said Co-partnership:

And whereas a Memorial has been presented to the Governor General of India in Council, signed by Thomas Charles Morton, Esquire,—Henry Burkinyoung, Esquire,—Jeremiah James Homfray, Esquire,—and Baboo Prosunnocoomar Tagore,—all therein described as Members of the Executive Committee of Management of the said Union Bank, and also by certain persons, therein described as Members of the Committee of Creditors of the Union Bank,—that is to say, Charles Hogg, Esquire, therein described as constituted Attorney for Glyn, Halifax, Mills and Company, by Henry Cowie, Esquire, and by Thomas Seddon Kelsall, Esquire, setting forth, that the said Joint Stock Banking Company, or Union Bank of Calcutta suspended payment about the close of the year 1847, and that the remaining assets of the said Bank are insufficient to satisfy the outstanding debts and liabilities: that several Creditors of the Bank have obtained judgment against the public Officer under the said Act XXIII. 1845, and the assets of the Bank being insufficient, certain of the said judgments are put in suit against individual Shareholders; and that the Memorialists fear that, unless some mutually satisfactory arrangement can be immediately made between the Creditors and the Shareholders, an enormous sacrifice of property will speedily take place, and a great number of persons be involved in utter ruin; that many of the creditors are willing to agree with the Shareholders, and to give as complete a discharge as the law will allow, to those Shareholders who will pay such reasonable sums of money as have been assessed on them respectively, on account of the said debts and liabilities, by a Committee of Creditors, appointed at a public meeting of the Creditors, provided that such discharge do not work a release or otherwise affect their claims, in respect of the said debts and liabilities, against other persons liable to make good the same, who shall refuse or neglect to pay the sums so assessed on them respectively; and that many of the said Shareholders are willing to pay the sums so assessed on them, provided that they may be thereby secured from all proceedings at law or in equity, in respect of the said debts and liabilities, at the suit of any Creditor who shall have executed such agreement as aforesaid, and accepted any payment out of the sums so contributed; that doubts have been entertained of the legal effect of such an agreement and discharge: and praying, therefore, that the effect of it may be established and defined by authority of the Governor General of India in Council, without prejudice to the rights of any Creditor of the said Bank executing the same, against any present or past Shareholder of the said Bank, who shall not have paid up, in the manner prescribed by the said agreement, the full amount of the sum assessed on him or her as aforesaid, or to the rights of any Creditor who shall not execute the same, It is declared and enacted as follows:

I. The agreement of which a copy is annexed to this Act, being the agreement referred to in the said Memorial, shall be of full force as between those Creditors of the said Union Bank who shall execute the same, and those persons named in the Schedule hereinafter mentioned, and in the said agreement described as the Schedule thereunto annexed, marked A, being the Schedule of Assessment or Contribution toward the liquidation of the debts of the said Bank, who shall, in the manner mentioned in the said agreement, pay the several sums at which they are severally assessed in the said Schedule of Assessment; but shall be of no force to affect the rights or liabilities of any persons other than such as are party or privy thereunto, or the rights or liabilities of the persons named in the said Schedule, as against each other.

II. If any Creditor of the said Bank, who shall have executed the said agreement, shall thereafter sue out any Writ of Scire Facias, or take any other proceeding at law or in equity, on account of any debt or liability of the said Union Bank, against any person named in the said Schedule of Assessment, who shall have paid in the manner mentioned in the said agreement the full sum at which he or she is assessed in the said Schedule of Assessment, the execution of the said agreement by such Creditor, and payment of the said Assessment by the person against whom such Writ or other proceeding shall be sued out, or taken, may be pleaded in bar thereof: and all costs incurred by any such defendant in resisting such Writ or proceeding shall be paid by the Creditor at whose suit the same shall have been sued forth or instituted.

III. If any Creditor of the said Bank, who shall not have executed the said agreement, shall sue out any Writ of Scire Facias, or take any other proceeding at law or in equity, on account of any debt or liability of the said Union Bank, against any person liable to make good the same or any part thereof; or if any Creditor of the said Bank, who shall have executed the said agreement, shall sue out any Writ of Scire Facias, or take any other proceeding at law or in equity, on account of any debt or liability of the said Union Bank, against any person liable to make good the same, or any part thereof, who shall not pay in the manner mentioned in the said agreement the full sum at which he or she is assessed in the said Schedule of Assessment, the said agreement shall not be pleadable to such Writ or proceeding, nor shall the contents thereof be received in evidence, in any court of law or equity, in any proceeding had for the recovery of such debt or liability from any such person.

IV. Provided always, that nothing, hereinbefore contained, shall be construed to prevent any Writ of Scire Facias, which shall have been issued, or any action or suit which shall have been actually commenced against any Shareholder, before payment of his Assessment, from being prosecuted and continued afterwards, if the party instituting such proceeding, chooses so to do.

V. Within one month after the passing of this Act, a copy of the said Schedule of Assessment, signed by the said Thomas Charles Morton, Henry Burkinyoung, Jeremiah James Homfray, Prosunnocoomar Tagore, Charles Hogg, Henry Cowie, and Thomas Seddon Kelsall, shall be filed and enrolled among the Records of Office of the Record Keeper of the Supreme Court of Judicature at Fort William in Bengal; and the Schedule so filed shall be deemed the Schedule referred to by this Act, and by the said agreement, and shall be conclusive evidence of the amounts severally assessed against the persons named therein, according, to the true intent and meaning of this Act.

Copy of Agreement.

We, the undersigned, Creditors of the Union Bank of Calcutta, hereby undertake and promise, upon payment by the Executive Committee of the said Union Bank of an immediate first dividend of twenty-five (25) per cent. upon our respective claims, to accept the Schedule hereunto annexed, marked A, (which has been framed by a committee of Creditors of the Bank) as the Schedule of Assessment or Contribution towards the liquidation of the debts of the said Bank, of the several Shareholders, past and present, therein named; and we promise and agree not to sue out any Writ of Scire Facias against, or otherwise to molest the person or property of any Shareholder or Shareholders of the said Union Bank, named in the said Schedule, who shall pay up the full sum placed opposite his or her name in the said Schedule, as and for his or her Assessment or Contribution as aforesaid. Provided, however, that nothing herein contained, shall be construed to protect any of the said parties from being proceeded against, unless and until he shall have actually paid his said Assessment in full, nor to prevent any Writ of Scire Facias which shall have been issued, or any action or suit which shall have been actually commenced against any Shareholder, before payment of his Assessment from being prosecuted, and continued afterwards, if the party instituting such proceeding chooses so to do. Provided, further, that if any Shareholder in the said Schedule named, shall not have paid or given security to the Executive Committee of the said Bank, certified by them to be sufficient, for the payment of his Assessment, within three months from this date, if he, be resident in India, or within five months, if resident out of India, the same shall be increased ten per cent; and that a further per-centage of the like amount shall be added after every succeeding period of three months, during which the same shall remain unpaid or unsecured. Provided also, that the said Executive Committee, of the said Bank, do engage to pay, from time to time, such further dividends upon our respective claims, until full satisfaction thereof, respectively, as the sums realized from the said Contribution shall enable them to do; and whenever the realization shall amount to ten per cent. upon the remaining claims, to declare and pay a new dividend at that rate. Provided always, and it is hereby expressly declared and agreed, that we, the undersigned, reserve to ourselves, all our rights and remedies whatsoever, against the assets of the said Bank, legal and equitable, and against all Shareholders, present and past, not paying up the full amount of their said Assessments, respectively, as aforesaid: In witness whereof we have hereunto set our respective hands, this Twenty-fifth day of September, in the year of Christ, one thousand eight hundred and forty-eight.

Fort William, Home Department, Legislative, the 10th February, 1849.

The following Act is passed by the Hon'ble the President of the Council of India in Council, on the 10th of February 1849, with the assent of the Right Hon'ble the Governor General of India, which has been read and recorded.

Ordered, that the Act be promulgated for general information.

Act No. IV. of 1849.

An Act for the Safe Custody of Criminal Lunatics.

Whereas it is expedient to declare what unsoundness of mind excuses the commission of criminal acts, and to provide for the safe custody of persons found to have committed such acts, but acquitted by reason of unsoundness of mind, It is enacted as follows:

I. No person, who does an act which, if done by a person of sound mind, is an offence, shall be acquitted of such offence for unsoundness of mind, unless the court or Jury, as the case may be, in which according to the constitution of the Court, the power of conviction or acquittal is vested, shall find that, by reason of unsoundness of mind, not wilfully caused by himself, he was unconscious, and incapable of knowing, at the time of doing the said act, that he was doing an act forbidden by the Law of the land.

II. Whenever a person charged with any offence shall be acquitted, because he is within the exception made by the foregoing Section, the Court or Jury shall give a special judgment or verdict, that he did the act charged against him, being then of unsound mind, so as to excuse him according to law.

III. Whenever such special judgment or verdict, as aforesaid, shall have been given against any person, the court, before which the trial was had, shall order him to be kept in safe custody, in such place and manner as to the Court shall seem fit, until the pleasure of the Government can be known thereon: and thereupon the Government may order such person to be kept in strict custody, for such time and in such manner as to the Government shall seem fit.

IV. In all cases in which, before the passing of this Act, any person has been acquitted of any offence, on the ground of insanity, lunacy, idiocy, or unsoundness of mind, such person may be kept in the same strict custody in which persons may be kept, who shall be hereafter acquitted, for unsoundness of mind.

V. No person, against whom any such special judgment or verdict shall have been given, shall be entitled to be discharged out of custody, on being restored to soundness of mind, unless by order and at the discretion of the Government.

VI. Whenever it shall appear to the Government that any person, imprisoned by the sentence of any Court, is of unsound mind, the Government, by a warrant which shall set forth the grounds of belief that such prisoner is of unsound mind, may order the removal of such prisoner to a Lunatic Asylum, or other fit place of safe custody, there to be kept and treated as the Government shall order; and, when it shall appear to the Government that such prisoner has become of sound mind, the Government, by a warrant directed to the person having charge of him, shall remand such prisoner to the prison from which he was removed, if then still liable to be kept in custody, or if not, shall order him to be discharged out of custody.

VII. The word 'Government' in this Act shall be taken to mean the Governor, or Governor in Council, or other person or persons administering the Government of the Presidency or place where the trial is had.

NOTIFICATION.—An examination will be held early in April 1849, in the College of Fort William, for the purpose of filling up existing Vacancies in the Military class of the Medical College. All candidates will be expected to possess a knowledge of the Hindustani Language, adequate to enable them to read and write it in the Persian or Devanagri character.

2nd. All Interpreters of Regiments and Battalions will be requested, through the Military Departments, not to grant certificates of qualification to any candidate under the age of fifteen and above that of twenty years; and likewise to reject all who may not pass the prescribed ordeal with a sufficient degree of fluency and facility. Much disappointment, expense, and inconvenience have already been experienced by lads from distant stations being furnished with certificates, who were found, on examination, quite unqualified for admission; and it is with a view to prevent the recurrence of this, that the above measure has been adopted.

3rd. Candidates for admission will be required to present themselves before the Secretary to the Medical College, at least three days prior to the day of examination, in order that a proper descriptive roll may be prepared for transmission to the Examiners of the College of Fort William.

4th. The preference in selection, attainments being equal, will be given to those who have already been attached to, or served in Civil or Regimental Hospitals.

5th. No candidate will be allowed to present himself for examination, who cannot produce a written testimonial of his conduct and character, or afford satisfactory evidence as to who and what he is. A few individuals of decidedly bad character have, upon recent occasions, managed to obtain admittance, it is supposed, by producing false papers; the strictest care and scrutiny will therefore be exercised in examining the credentials of all future candidates, who will, in addition, require to be furnished with regular muster rolls, in order that they may be identified.

6th. All pupils must, as a condition of their appointment, reside within the College premises at all times, and never be absent from morning and evening muster without special leave.

7th. All students in the Military class are amenable to the Articles of War, and regularly enlisted as Soldiers.

8th. No candidate will be admitted to the school, who is physically unfit for the duties of a Soldier.

GENERAL ORDERS BY THE RIGHT HON'BLE THE GOVERNOR GENERAL OF INDIA.

CAMP FEROZEPORE; 2ND FEBRUARY 1849.

The following General Orders by the Right Hon'ble the Governor General in the Foreign Department, is republished for the information of the Army:

GENERAL ORDER BY THE RIGHT HONORABLE THE GOVERNOR GENERAL OF INDIA.

FOREIGN DEPARTMENT.

Camp Ferozepore, the 1st February, 1849.

The Governor General, having received a Despatch, reporting the surrender, on the morning of the 22nd ultimo, of the Citadel and Garrison of Mooltan, directs that together with other Despatches relating to the operations against the City and Fort, it shall be published, for the information of the Army and of the people of India.

The capture of this important Fortress, which, during a protracted period, has resisted the powerful Armament brought against it, and has been defended with gallantry and endurance, is a just subject of congratulation to the Government of India and to the Army.

The Governor General desires to convey to Major General Whish, C. B., his warmest thanks for the valuable service which has thus, under Providence, been rendered to Government by the united Forces which he commands; for the steady and skilful and successful prosecution of a Siege, which, at comparatively small loss to ourselves, has inflicted most heavy loss upon the Enemy, and has utterly destroyed his strongest Fortress.

Brigadier Cheape, C. B., the Chief Engineer of the Army, is entitled to the best thanks of the Governor General for the zeal and ability with which he has fulfilled the important duty entrusted to him; and in the discharge of which he has been well supported by Major Napier, Chief Engineer of the Bengal Division, and Major Scott, Chief Engineer of the Bombay Division of the Force.

To Brigadier Markham, whose services have been conspicuous, to Brigadier Salter, and to Brigadier Hervey, the Governor General tenders his warm acknowledgments.

To Brigadier the Honorable H. Dundas, C. B., Commanding the Bombay Division, to Brigadier Capon and Brigadier Stalker the best thanks of the Governor General are due for the ready and effective assistance they have rendered upon all occasions; as well in the attack upon the Suburbs on the 27th December, as in the assault of the City, which their Troops were the first to enter, and in all the subsequent operations of the Siege.

To Major Garbett and to Major Leeson, Commanding the Artillery of the Bengal and Bombay Divisions, to Commander Powell of the Indian Navy and to the heads of the various Departments, the Governor General offers his thanks.

And to all the Troops of each Division, European and Native, to the Officers, Non-Commissioned Officers and men, the Governor General renders his hearty thanks for the gallantry, perseverance, skill and discipline, which they have displayed throughout the service on which they have been employed.

With equal cordiality the Governor General offers his best thanks to Major Edwardes, C. B., with the Irregular Force under his orders, and to Lieutenant Lake, who has commanded the Forces of our Ally, the Nawaub of Bhawulpore. The Governor General congratulates these Officers on their having been enabled, with their Native Troops, to witness, in the capture of Mooltan, the complete vindication of the supremacy of British power, which, during the past summer, their own gallantry and enterprise so materially contributed to sustain.

The Governor General will have the utmost satisfaction in bringing the services of the Force at Mooltan under the favorable consideration of Her Majesty's Government and the Honorable East India Company.

A Salute of 21 Guns has been ordered to be fired at every principal Station of the Army in India.

By Order of the Right Honorable the Governor General of India,

In continuation of my letter No. 863, of the 1st instant, I have the honor, by direction of the Right Hon'ble the Commander-in-Chief, to enclose for the information of the Right Hon'ble the Governor General of India, copy of a despatch No. 857, of the 28th ultimo, from Major General W. S. Whish, C. B., Commanding Mooltan Field Force, furnishing a more detailed report of the Troops employed on the 27th ultimo, and of the various positions of the Enemy captured and retained by the combined Force on that date.

FROM MAJOR-GENERAL W. S. WHISH, C. B.,
Commanding Mooltan Field Force.

TO THE ADJUTANT GENERAL OF THE ARMY,

Dated, Camp Mooltan, 28th December, 1848.

SIR,

In furtherance of the letter I had the gratification of forwarding to you yesterday, by express, I beg to report, for the information of His Excellency the Right Hon'ble the Commander-in-Chief, that the Force employed performed the duty assigned to it in the best spirit and style.

LEFT COLUMN.

Capt. Abercrombie, Bengal Engineers, conducting the column.

RIGHT CENTRE COLUMN.

Lieutenant Colonel NASH, C. B., 72nd N. I., Comg.

6 Co.'s 72nd N. I. (Capt. Lloyd) comg.

RIGHT COLUMN.

Lieutenant Colonel YOUNG, H. M.'s 10th Foot, Comg.

Major Napier and Capt. Western, conducting Engineers.

The portion on the extreme left was under the immediate command of Brigadier the Honorable H. Dundas, C. B., who appointed Brigadier Capon to the charge of the 2nd column of the Bombay Division, next to which was a detail under Lieutenant Colonel Nash, C. B., 72nd Native Infantry; and on the extreme right (to reach its destination ¾ of an hour later) was a detachment under the command of Lieutenant Colonel Young, Her Majesty's 10th Foot.

The latter was under any circumstances to make a real attack upon the Enemy's position, as stated in my letter of yesterday, and in the margin I have specified separately the Troops employed under the gallant leaders above named, to whom, as well as to the Troops respectively under their immediate Command, who so steadily effected the duty assigned to them, I feel much indebted.

It was intended that a portion of the Irregular Force under Major Edwardes, C. B., and Lieutenant Lake should make a demonstration to the west of the Town and Grand Canal at noon. A little delay, however ensued, but without detriment to the object in view, and I propose to-morrow availing myself of the Services of those Officers and their Troops, to relieve the details of the Bombay Division in charge of the Seedee-loll-ki-Bed, which had been with their usual zeal tendered simultaneously with a requisition I had made in a private note to Major Edwardes.

The course pursued by the two centre columns came more particularly under my observation, but the gratifying result of all was the acquisition, with but little loss, of the very strong positions designated "Seedee-lall-ki-Beyd" "Mundee Owa." The Suburbs east of it, and to the north east angle of the Citadel; the "Amkhass"; Sawun Mull's Tomb"; the "Brick Kilns" with strong entrenchments; the "Shums to breeze," or Blue Mosque; the (village or rather) Fort of Wuzeerabad, all of which the Enemy had evidently determined to defend manfully, but were deterred, when the time came, by previously witnessing the discomfiture of their friends from the triple and earlier attack on the left.

I hope to-morrow morning to have an 8 inch Mortar Battery of 6 pieces playing on the Citadel, (at 5 or 6 hundred yards distance) from the north of the "Shums to breeze."

FROM MAJOR HERBERT B. EDWARDES, C. B.,
Assistant Resident,

TO MAJOR-GENERAL WHISH, C. B.,
Commanding Mooltan Field Force.

Dated, Camp Soonij Koond, 28th December, 1848.

SIR,

I have the honor to report for your information, that having received your orders to open fire from the "Sheesh Muhul," at 12 o'clock yesterday, and retire at ½ past one, Lieutenant Lake's force and my own left this Camp at 10 A. M., but I regret to say that from the delay of getting the Bullock Artillery over the nullahs, the length of the road, and the difficulty of preserving the formation of Irregular Troops, it was a quarter to one before we had occupied the line of suburbs in advance of the "Seesh Muhul," and "Fyz Bagh." The diversion, however, was effectually made at half past twelve, from which time the Guns of the Enemy played upon us. At one o'clock we opened our Guns upon the "Bohur Gate" and "Sherala." The Enemy in no great force came out, but were driven in immediately by the Guns. At half past three we withdrew our Guns, at four the Infantry, and the Cavalry at half past four.

2. About four o'clock Lieutenant Lake, whose force reached nearly to the nullah, had got into communication with Brigadier Dundas at "Seedee-lall-ke-Beyd," and the Brigadier sent word that he should be glad if we could remain on his flank a little longer, to prevent the Enemy from turning it. We accordingly halted again for half an hour in the rear of "Sheesh Muhul" where I wrote a note to Brigadier Dundas, informing him that as my Camp was distant two hours' march, and my men had made no preparations for remaining out all night, it was necessary that I should retire. It was quite dusk when we reached Camp again.

3. As the operations of the British Troops have, from accidental circumstances, taken a turn more to the southward than was expected, and thus almost of themselves cover the Bhawulpore communication, and overlap my Camp, I have the honor to solicit your orders to take up my new position, either at the "Ruttee Bairagee," or to the west of the nullah which in your opinion will enable the Irregular Force to render you more efficient assistance.

4. Both my own and Lieutenant Lake's men are most anxious to share more actively in your operations, and though I am fully aware of the difficulties, in the way of Irregulars co-operating with Regulars, I believe, Brigadier Dundas himself would be glad if "Seedee-lall-ke-Beyd," and the posts near it, were made over to us, so as to enable him to advance against the City, without any fear of his left flank being turned.

FROM MAJOR HERBERT B. EDWARDES. C. B.,
Assistant-Resident,

TO MAJOR-GENERAL WHISH C. B.,
Commanding Mooltan Field Force,

Dated, Camp Beyghee Bagh, night, 29th December, 1848.

SIR,

I have the honor to inform you that agreeable to the instructions conveyed in your demi-official note and public letter No. 854, of yesterday's date, the forces of Lieut. Lake and myself relieved the Bombay division of the charge of 'Seedee-lall-ke-Beyd,' and all the posts on the left of it (including 'Beyghee Bagh,' the village of Daira, Jog Mayuh, &c., &c.) at 3 P. M. yesterday evening.

2. We remained undisturbed during the night, but were attacked about 1 P. M. to-day by 2,000 of the enemy almost all foot, and chiefly regulars, among whom the Kuthar Mookkee deserters were conspicous.

3. They issued from the Delhi gate, filed behind the suburbs in front of the 'Seedee-lall-ke-Beyd,' and made their appearance suddenly on the left front pushing boldly on into the gardens, which were unoccupied, and opening a heavy musketry fire from behind the walls; a position, however, from which they were rapidly dislodged by our Rohillas and other irregulars, aided by 2 Companies of General Cortlandt's Regiments, who expelled them and followed them up to the city walls.

4. Lieut. Lake at the head of his own men, Lieut. Pollock with mine, Lieut. Pearse of the Madras Artillery foremost with the Daoodpootras, and Lieut. Young of the Engineers, wherever the presence of a European Officer could be useful, were all actively and most gallantly engaged in this little affair, as was also Mr. Quin with the Soorujmookkie Company; and a new volunteer Mr. McMahon, who earned his title to be brought specially to your notice, by encountering in single combat the leader of the enemy's infantry, a powerful Sikh, whom he killed with one blow, which divided his head.

5. The attack and repulse occupied an hour and a half (P. S. 30th Decr.)

6. At half-past 4 P. M. the enemy renewed their attack on the right, and opened a sharp fire on the Daoodpootras from a village, which, in the morning, had been occupied by the Bombay Troops, but evacuated during the day without our being aware of it. This might have led to the turning of our right flank, and the left of the Bombay Division, had not Lieutenant Lake brought up the whole of his reserve, and himself cleared the village with considerable difficulty and some loss. Lieutenant Lake then occupied the village and passed the night there; but I have the honor to represent, that every thing to the east of the 'Seedee-lall-ke-Beyd,' by the terms of your instructions, falls to the charge of Brigadier Dundas' Division, as every thing to the left, or west of 'Seedee-lall' falls to ours. I have communicated this to the Brigadier, who says he cannot hold the village in question, as he has only two reliefs in Camp, Lieutenant Lake and I have only one; half of our whole force being on duty for 24 hours, and relieved at noon each day, from a Camp distant 3 miles.

TO THE ADJUTANT GENERAL OF THE ARMY.

Dated, Camp Mooltan, 7th January, 1849.

SIR,

Having now received the report of the proceedings of the Bombay Column during the assault of the city on the 2nd instant, I have the honor of forwarding that received from Brigadier Markham on the 3rd instant, and associating with it the letter of this date, received from Brigadier the Honorable H. Dundas, C. B., Commanding the Bombay Division of the Field Force, both of which I shall be obliged by your submitting to the Right Honorable the Commander-in-Chief. The steady advance of both columns under their respective Commanders, Brigadier Stalker, C. B., and Brigadier Markham, (which, as regarded that under the latter, was but temporarily checked from the necessity of entering the city by the left breach), ensured the early realization of what each had been directed to aim at; and by sunset the city was in complete possession of our gallant troops, whose conduct throughout was remarkable for humanity to the unarmed inhabitants they occassionally met; and not less so for the severity with which the opposition of the enemy was overcome, from street to street,—many of which were narrow and intricate, and several barricaded.

In the letters accompanying, the gallantry and good services of various officers are particularized, and on the fall of the citadel it will be my pleasing duty to take up that strain regarding many. It will, however, be better timed now to mention the spirited proposition on the 1st instant, of Lieutenant Colonel Franks, C. B., to escalade the citadel during the assault of the city, provided I placed 500 of each Regiment of the 1st Brigade under his command. After due consideration of this suggestion, I demeed it most eligible to forego it, as I had not time to examine into the difficulties that might have attended it; nor would the hour fixed for the assault have been auspicious, unless I had deferred it till dawn of the 3d.

Brigadier Stalker has brought to Brigadier Dundas' notice the conduct of Color Sergeant John Bennett, 1st Fusiliers, on the 2nd instant, and I cannot forbear my testimony to the joyful feelings which it excited in myself and Officers of the Staff around me, when noticing his planting the British standard on the Crest of the Breach, and maintaining it there in the midst of the musquetry fire of the Enemy, until the Troops had passed.

The Troops of the Bombay Column suffered much from an explosion, during the night, of a Magazine in the city.

To MAJOR-GENERAL W. S. WHISH, C. B.,
Commanding the Mooltan Field Force,
Dated, Camp Mooltan, 3rd January, 1849.

Sir,

I have the honor to report, for your information that, according to Division Orders, at 1 o'clock, on the 2nd I proceeded with the Brigade under my command to the Mundee Awa, the point of rendezvous with the left column; at 2 o'clock we received orders to move to the Delhie Gate from whence the assault was to be made. At a quarter past 3 o'clock a salvo being fired from the Delhie Gate Battery, (the signal agreed upon for the assault) the leading companies of Her Majesty's 32nd Regiment, under Captain Smith commanding the Grenadier Company, moved on to storm the Breach: upon passing the broken ground and mined outworks of the Gate under a heavy fire of matchlocks, they descended a deep hollow and found to their surprise the City wall in front, about 30 feet in height unbreached, and totally impracticable, being fairly concealed from view from the nature of the ground until directly upon it.

Captain Smith immediately, and with great judgment and promptitude, decided upon retiring and rejoining the Column with the loss of several men, which loss, however, would have been very seriously increased both to the leading Companies and the Column, had there been any hesitation on his part.

I proceeded at once to the Breach at the "Khoonee Boorj" which I found had already been entered by the left Column, and made our way down the Ramparts and streets on our right to the Delhie Gate, and from thence to that part of the city close to the Dowlut Gate, and directly in front of the Fort.

The Enemy offered considerable opposition in the narrow streets and on the Ramparts which were strongly barricaded; but the Troops carried all before them, and before dark that part of the city was in our possession, and we connected our posts with those thrown out from the left Column.

To Colonel Brooke, Major Lloyd and Captain Lloyd in command of Regiments, and to all under my command, both Officers and men, I have to return my thanks for their steadiness and prompt obedience throughout to my orders.

To Major Napier of the Engineers who accompanied me, I am deeply indebted for the very valuable services he rendered me throughout the afternoon.

FROM BREVET-MAJOR H. B. EDWARDES, C. B.,
Assistant Resident,

TO MAJOR-GENERAL W. S. WHISH, C. B.,
Comg. Mooltan Field Force.

Camp Beyghee Bagh, 3rd January, 1849.

SIR,

I have the honor to report that, in conformity with your instructions to create a diversion on the south and west of the city, preparatory to the storm of the Breaches by the regular force, Lieut. Lake threw out a large skirmishing party directly in his front, and close up to the Pak Gate. General Cortlandt, another on the left of the Daoodpootras, and I a third on the left of General Cortlandt's: thus opening a smart fire nearly down to the Bohar Gate, and securing the attention of a large portion of the enemy's soldiers on the walls. In front of the village of Daira, I also moved out a large body of Cavalry and a Troop of Horse Artillery, while the remainder and main body of the Infantry were in reserve at the "Beyghee Bagh" and "Seedee-lall-ke-Beyd."

2. At about half past one P. M., the Daoodpootras, under direction of Lieut. Lake, and my own and General Cortlandt's, under direction of Lieut. Young of the Engineers, Mr. Hugo James, and Mr. Quin, opened their fire from the most advanced suburbs, and drew a smart return from the ramparts and the gun on the Mootee Bastion. This was kept up until the advance of the British to the Breach, and was I trust of service in distracting the enemy's attention.

3. When the city was completely in your possession, Lieut. Lake and I withdrew our men to their respective posts, but subsequently, on being applied to by Major Scott, of Bombay Engineers, Lieut. Lake occupied the Pak Gate with Daoodpootras, and a small party from the company of 3rd Bombay Native Infantry which was on duty at "Seedee-lall." The vigilance of this detachment of Daoodpootras while in charge of the Gate, I was myself a witness to, at night, when I visited the post with Lieut. Lake, and it did great credit to Irregular Troops.

4. After withdrawing our skirmishers, I ordered the Cavalry from "Daira" to make a patrol to the westward, and they succeeded in intercepting a party of the enemy's Infantry, who had escaped from the city, 20 of whom they killed, when the rest surrendered and were disarmed.

5. I cannot conclude this report without bringing to your notice the zeal of Lieut. Pollock, Assistant Resident, and Mr. MacMahon, Volunteer: the former joined his corps hearing it was in the storming party at the Delhi Gate Breach, and the latter volunteered to accompany Capt. Smyth who led the right assault.

No. 17.

FROM BRIGADIER THE HON'BLE H. DUNDAS, C. B.,
H. M.'s 60th Rifles,
Commdg. Bombay Column, Mooltan Field Force.

TO BREVET-CAPTAIN G. P. WHISH,
Deputy Asst. Adjt. General, Bengal Column,

Camp Mooltan, 7th January, 1849.

SIR,

I have the honor to forward the report of Brigadier Stalker, C. B., commanding the 2nd Brigade Bombay Division, which was engaged in storming the city of Mooltan on the afternoon of the 2nd instant.

The Brigade formed in three columns, as directed in the instructions from the Assistant Adjutant General, assembled in rear of the "Mundee Awa" and about 3 P. M. moved down to storm the left trench at the angle of the "Khoonee Boorj."

The storming party, headed by Captain Leith, of the 1st Bombay Fusiliers, speedily mounted the Breach, but on arriving at the summit, found some difficulty in descending, the enemy having retrenched the Breach, and dug deep ditches into which several of the leading men and officers fell. The obstacles to the advance of the party having been overcome and the column having succeeded in passing the Breach, pushed on to the ramparts and streets of the town through a very narrow passage, and by the aid of some scaling ladders placed against a house by a party of the Bengal Sappers under Lieut. Oliphant. I regret to state that soon after mounting the Breach, Capt. Leith was severely wounded, and Lieut. Gray taking command of the party, moved to the right towards the Delhi Gate, to clear away obstacles between the Breach and that point at which it was intended the Bengal Column should enter.

Major Mignon with the 1st column, moved to the left, clearing the rampart, while the columns under Major Mant, and Major Honner, pushing for the centre of the town, established themselves in the grain market.

The narrowness of the streets rendering the preservation of regular formation impossible, the enemy was followed up by the troops in the best mode in which they could move, and without giving him time to halt, until the town was completely carried, and the several columns established, the left having succeeded in reaching the Lahore Gate.

Brigadier Stalker speaks most highly of the conduct of the troops, and nothing can be more honorable to their character than the humanity and kind treatment shewn by them towards the unoffending inhabitants.

I have great pleasure in bringing to the notice of the Major General the conduct of Major Mignon, commanding 1st Fusiliers: Major Mant, commanding 19th Regiment, and Brevet Major Honner, commanding the 4th N. I. (Rifles.) Brigadier Stalker also reports most favorably of the conduct of Major Hobson, 1st Fusiliers, and of the assistance he received from Captain Tapp, Deputy Assistant Adjutant General, who was unfortunately wounded in capturing a gun. Captain Hart, Major of Brigade, Lieut. Pollexfen, Deputy Assistant Quarter Master General, and Lieut. Henry, of the 19th Regiment Native Infantry, Post Master to the Division. To the commanding Engineer, Major Scott, every praise is due for his untiring exertions during the operation, as well as to the several officers of that corps employed with the Bombay Division. The conduct of Captain Leith, Lieuts. Dansey, Daly, Gray and Mules, is particularly noticed by Brigadier Stalker. I am sorry to add, that Lieut. Gray was severely wounded after entering the town, and has lost his right arm. Lieuts. Dansey, Herne and Law, are also among the wounded, as also Lieut. Warden of the 4th Rifles, and Ensign Gordon, of the 19th Regiment N. I.

Several acts of gallantry have been brought to my notice, particularly on the part of Color Sergeant Bennett, of the 1st Fusiliers, which I shall take an opportunity of reporting to the proper quarter.

The suburbs between the Delhi Gate and the left Breach were occupied by pickets, from the 1st Brigade under Major Dennis, 60th Rifles. A Company of the 60th Rifles, under Captain Douglass, being stationed in the houses opposite the Breach, in the "Khoonee Boorj," to cover the advance of the storming party, and two Companies under Captains Yonge and Sibthorpe, to cover the advance of the Bengal Column.

Returns of Casualties are herewith enclosed.

From BRIGADIER F. STALKER, C. B.,

Commanding 2nd Infantry Brigade, Bombay Column,

To the ASSISTANT ADJUTANT GENERAL,

Bombay Column, Mooltan Field Force, Camp before Mooltan, 7th January, 1849.

Sir,—I do myself the honor to report for the information of Brigadier the Hon'ble H. Dundas, C. B., Commanding the Bombay Column Mooltan Field Force, that on the afternoon of the 2nd January, the Brigade under my command was formed in the order laid down for them (vide instructions A. and B.) under cover within about two hundred yards of the Breach, the approach to which was fully exposed to a fire from musketry Zumbooruks.

The Column gained the top of the Breach at about ½ past 3 P. M., with much regularity, under a very galling fire, but, when they reached the summit, found themselves in a sort of enclosure, from which there was only one regular exit by a narrow lane on the right and over a low house into the Khoonee Boorj, the enemy had excavated a trench parallel to the Breach, which contracted the space still more; the nature of the ground therefore rendered it utterly impossible to preserve any regular formation, and the Officers pushed on, with the men nearest them, to carry out as far as possible, the instructions to advance in three Columns. The Column was detained nearly twenty minutes by the obstacles at the top of the Breach. The leading Column of three companies of the Fusiliers, having lost their Commander Captain Leith, who was dangerously wounded soon after crossing the Breach, pushed down the lane to the right under Lieutenant Gray, and was, in part, the cause of the enemy abandoning the Khoonee Boorj. It fortunately happened that two short ladders were procured and placed by Bengal Sappers under Lieutenant Oliphant, against the house on the left, just as the enemy found their communication with the town threatened; they were therefore obliged to defend both the lane and the tower, and their resistance was consequently less energetic. As soon as the ladders were placed, the Column which had to advance by the ramparts to the South, pushed its way along for some distance, but fortunately followed the retreating enemy along one of the streets, which eventually led them to the end of the town near the Lahore Gate. A company being left at this point, the Column returned along the streets nearest the ramparts to the Bohur Gate, where it remained during the night, as it was known that the Pak Gate was in possession of the Bengal 72nd, and a Company of the 4th Rifles was sent back to the Hurn Gate. During the night one of the enemy's powder magazines close to the Gateway blew up, burying several of our men in the ruins, it was impossible to guard against such an accident, indeed it is only surprising it was the only one on the south side, for the enemy's ammunition was lying about in great quantities, and there was nothing to distinguish their magazines from the other houses. In the morning Lieutenants Pollard and Maxwell with the Bengal Sappers, removed a considerable quantity of powder from another magazine close to a burning house, and threw it over the wall, where it exploded without doing any mischief.

The proceedings of the other column were similar; they all pushed quite through the town, left parties in advance posts, and retired to more open ground in the centre of the town.

When the left column, which was intended to go by the ramparts, and leave guards at the Gates, had struck into the town, an application was made to Colonel Dundas who sent two Companies, Her Majesty's 60th Rifles to hold the Gates.

The other columns had, however, exceeded their instructions, for a Company of the 72nd Bengal Native Infantry had crossed the town and obtained possession of the Pak, and the road to the Hurn Gates, before the 60th Rifles arrived.

The Pak Gate was cleared during the night by the Bengal Sappers, the Hurn Gate by the Bombay Sappers, and the Bohur Gate was nearly opened, when the explosion took place which rendered it impossible to go on. It was opened next morning by the Bengal Sappers.

It is quite imposible to say where the Engineer Officers were; the Troops were so scattered by the narrow lanes that there were no distinct Columns. The only real guide was to follow the retreating enemy, which was done. Not only are the ramparts so incomplete as to render a passage round them by a Column of men quite impracticable, but the parts which are complete were at the time of the assault crossed by traverses, and cut up by small trenches.

The night closed before the communication between the different bodies could be effected, but by morning the troops were in communication with each other.

It is to be regretted that we had not a couple of hours' daylight, as we should then have probably avoided the explosion of the magazine, but the town was as completely cleared of the enemy by dark, as it is at the present moment.

The steady and well directed fire of her Majesty's 60th Rifles, kept down that of the enemy very considerably while the Troops were approaching the Breach, and a discharge of Grape thrown on the top of the Breach by Lieutenant Kier, Bombay Artillery, just over the heads of the Fusiliers, as they advanced, was of the utmost advantage to us; but when the top was gained, and our men became mingled with the enemy, the fate of the day depended on the steadiness and courage of the Fusiliers, and both men and Officers answered nobly to the call.

Where all behaved so well, and the operations were on such an extended scale, it would be impossible for me to particularize each act of gallantry. I would therefore beg to refer the Brigadier Commanding the Division to the reports of Officers Commanding Regiments and posts, and merely mention such as came under my notice.

The gallantry of the following Officers was conspicuous. Captain Tapp, Deputy Assistant Adjutant General, attached to my Staff, who was wounded in capturing a Gun on our first entering the town, whereby I was early deprived of his valuable assistance.

Captain Leith, 1st Fusiliers, Commanding the storming party, who was very severely wounded, Lieutenants Daly and Mules, 1st Fusiliers, I would also bring to special notice; the conduct of Color Sergeant John Bennett, 1st Fusiliers, who volunteered to accompany the storming party, and rushing up the Breach planted the Union Jack on its Crest, standing beside it, until the whole Brigade had passed. The Color and Staff are riddled with balls.

I beg to mention the names of Major Mignon, Commanding 1st Fusiliers, Major Mant, Commanding 19th Regiment Native Infantry, Major Honner, Commanding 4th Rifles, and Major Hobson, 1st Fusiliers, all of whom exerted themselves to the utmost, and were most successful in their different arrangements.

To Major Scott, Commanding Engineer, I am particularly indebted for his able assistance and untiring zeal throughout the operations.

My best thanks are also due to the following Engineer Officers for the zeal and activity they displayed in the different duties on which they were employed.

Captain Abercrombie and Lieutenant Tayler, and other Officers of the Bengal Engineers, whose names I am unfortunately unable to give.

Lieutenants Kendall and Berthon, of the Bombay Sappers, and 2nd Lieutenants Playfair and Fuller of the same corps.

To the following Officers temporarily attached to my staff my best thanks are due.

Lieutenant Pollexfen, Deputy Assistant Quarter Master General.

Lieutenant Henry, Post Master to the Force.

I am much indebted to my Major of Brigade, Captain Hart, for the able and zealous assistance he afforded me in his arduous office throughout the operations.

I have the greatest pleasure in bearing testimony to the humanity and forbearance of the troops under my command; not a single instance of wanton cruelty or ill-treatment of the peaceable inhabitants of the town has been brought to my notice.

No. 901.

FROM MAJOR-GENERAL, W. S. WHISH, C. B.,
Commanding Mooltan Field Force.

TO THE ADJUTANT GENERAL OF THE ARMY,

Dated, Camp Mooltan, 21st January, 1849.

SIR,

In my letter of 19th instant (No. 898.) I mentioned having had another messenger from Dewan Moolraj, with a note, requesting permission to send a confidential Agent to me. In reply I desired his unconditional surrender at 8 A. M. next day, and when I received the answer from Major Edwardes to sign and send, I took occasion to notice emphatically to the messenger, that I should confine to the guard any men that brought any documents or message from the Dewan, who were not authorized to the above effect. Nothing transpired regarding it yesterday, and I issued the orders for making the assault at both Breaches at day light this morning. The counterscarp on the city side not having, however been blown in as was calculated upon, I postponed the attack till 6 A. M. to-morrow. However at 11 A. M. to-day, just as Major Edwardes had called to speak on matters connected with our march hence, the vakeel who had waited on me on the 9th instant, Dia Bux, came under a guard from our picquets, with a letter from the Dewan to each of us, the purport of which was, that he required assurance of his life, and that the females of his family should not be disgraced. I said in reply, that regarding the former, I had only authority to require the Dewan's unconditional submission to the justice of the British Government, and that no stipulation was necessary regarding the latter; for women and children, as a matter of course, would not be molested. Dia Bux, then said, his master would certainly come in, and suggested 9 A. M. to-morrow for the time of his doing so; but I could not agree to so late an hour. I told him the fire of all my Batteries would continue until five o'clock to-morrow morning, and that the Dewan must at latest present himself and garrison at the Dowlut Gate of the City at sunrise, where arrangements would be ready to facilitate their surrender, and to afford protection to their families.

I will, in conclusion, venture my opinion, that the Dewan is now sincere in his desire to submit. His followers are leaving him in large numbers, and our Cavalry took prisoners about 300, who stole from the Citadel last night; but if it prove otherwise, I shall have nothing to regret in having attended to a third reference from him for the sake of humanity, and for the welfare of my Troops; and the only difference it will make in my arrangements will be that the assault on the Citadel will commence an hour later and be equally attended, under Providence, with, I trust, complete success.

FROM THE ADJUTANT GENERAL OF THE ARMY,

TO THE SECRETARY TO THE GOVERNMENT OF INDIA,
FOREIGN DEPARTMENT,
With the Right Hon'ble the Governor General.

SIR,

By direction of the Right Hon'ble the Commander-in-Chief, I have the honor to enclose, for the information of the Right Hon'ble the Governor General of India, copy of a Despatch, No. 902 of the 22nd instant, from Major General W. S. Whish, C. B., commanding the Mooltan Field Force, reporting the surrender on the morning of that day, of the Garrison and Citadel of Mooltan.

I am further to add, for communication to His Lordship, that on the receipt of this Despatch, His Excellency was pleased to issue to the Army of the Punjaub an order (copy of which is herewith transmitted) expressive of his sense of the great services, thus brought to a brilliant and successful termination by the Major General, and the admirable Troops under his command.

Head Quarters, Camp Chilianwalla, 28th January, 1849.

(No. 902)

FROM MAJOR-GENERAL W. S. WHISH, C. B.,
Commanding Mooltan Field Force.

TO THE ADJUTANT GENERAL OF THE ARMY,

Dated, Camp Mooltan, 22nd Jany., 1849.

SIR,

I have the satisfaction of reporting to you, for the information of the Right Honorable the Commander-in-Chief, that in accordance with the expectation I expressed in my letter, No. 901, of yesterday, Dewan Moolraj came into my Camp this morning under charge of Major Becher, Assistant Quarter Master General.

The Garrison at the same time, between 3 and 4000, surrendering and laying down their arms to the Columns under Brigadiers Hervy and Capon, that had been in orders for the assault of the Citadel. This successful termination to our seige operations, after the laborious and gallant exertions of the Troops since the 27th ultimo, will, I have no doubt, be very gratifying to his Lordship, and to the Government, and I am grateful to Divine Providence for having permitted, in this way, the accomplishment of such an important result.

On the 1st instant with my letter, No. 860, I had the satisfaction of forwarding Brigadier the Honorable H. Dundas' report of the conduct of the Troops of his Division, engaged in the attack on the suburbs on the 27th ultimo, of the left Column of which he took personal command, particularizing many Officers in command of Corps or Departments, or on the Staff, whose services had been valuable; also on the 7th instant with my letter, No. 876, I transmitted similar reports of the proceedings of the two Columns under Brigadiers Stalker and Markham, that had taken the City by assault on the 2nd instant, and which will I trust meet with the favorable consideration of his Lordship, but not having hitherto availed myself of any occasion to notice in just terms of commendation, various officers of the Bengal Division who have been with me the last six months, I beg permission to do so now.

To Brigadier Cheape, C. B., Chief Engineer of the Army of the Punjaub, and Major Napier, Chief Engineer of the Bengal Division; to Captains Abercrombie, Western and Siddons; to Lieut. Garforth, Brigade Major of Engineers, dangerously wounded on the 2d instant; to all the Officers of the Engineer Department, and of the Corps of Sappers and Pioneeers, I am much indebted for their zealous, scientific and persevering exertions; as also to Major Scott, Chief Engineer of the Bombay Division, and the Officers under him.

The practice of the Artillery was the theme of admiration with all. My thanks are particularly due to Majors Garbett and Leeson respectively, commanding the Artillery of the Bengal and Bombay Division, and to the Officers under them, Major Day and Brevet Major Blood and Captains Turnbull, Daniel, Anderson, Master, and McKenzie; Lieut. Mill, Brigade Major of the Artillery, Bengal Division, since July has been particularly brought to my notice by Major Garbett, for his useful services, and as contributing essentially to the advance of our operations. I must particularly commend those of Captain Hicks, Bombay Artillery, and Lieutenant P. Christie, Bengal Artillery, Commissaries of Ordnance, who were unremitting in attention to their important duties.

The services of Brigadiers Hervey and Markham, commanding Infantry Brigades, and of Brigadier Salter, Commanding the Cavalry, as also of their Brigade Majors, Capts. Wiggins and Balfour, and Lieut. Warner, have been very valuable; and it will be in the recollection of His Lordship, that Brigadier Markham had the good fortune on the 7th November last, and on the 2nd instant, to command Columns of attack that were eminently successful. In my letter of the 7th instant, No. 876, I noticed the gallant proposition of Lieutenant Colonel Franks, C. B., commanding Her Majesty's 10th Regiment, for a party being given him to escalade the Citadel on the 2nd instant, and I am much indebted to that Officer on other accounts.

It is also proper for me to notice in terms of commendation, the other Officers commanding Corps in the Bengal Division, and under canvas the last six months, viz. Lieutenant Colonel Brooke, Her Majesty's 32nd Regiment; Major Farquharson, Commanding 8th Native Infantry; Major Lloyd, Commanding the 49th Regiment; Major Finnis, Commanding 51st Native Infantry; Capt. Jamieson, Commanding 52d Native Infantry; Capt. Lloyd, Commanding 72nd Native Infantry; relieved on 30th November, by Lt. Col. Nash, C. B., who was severely wounded in the attack of the 27th ultimo; Captain Inglis, Commanding 11th Regiment Light Cavalry; Major Wheler, Commanding 7th Irregular Cavalry; Captain Masters, Commanding 11th Irregular Cavalry; and Lieut. Roberts, Commanding Squadron 14th Irregular Cavalry, who relieved from that charge on the 30th November Lieut. Plowden, 50th Regiment Native Infantry.

Lieut. Colonel Drummond, C. B., Deputy Quarter Master General, and Major Becher, Assistant Quarter Master General, have uniformly given me the most efficient aid, and with a willingness that much enhanced it, and the Assistant Adjutant General, Brevet Captain Whish, has performed his laborious duties with a promptness, intelligence and zeal, that much lessened mine.

Captain Lloyd, in charge of the Commissariat Department, assisted by Captains Cooper and Turner, Lieuts. Tombs, Robertson and Willis, has uniformly made such excellent arrangements, that the Troops have never been inconvenienced for want of supplies, and that Department has in every respect been conducted most satisfactorily.

Mr. Superintending Surgeon Dempster has uniformly and successfully applied his talents and assiduity to the promotion of the health and comfort of our sick and wounded, and been ably supported by the Medical Officers of every Corps and Department.

The Officers of my personal staff Captain Clark Kennedy, H. M.'s 18th Regiment, and Lieut. Need, H. M. 14th Light Dragoons, Aides-de-Camp, have been so unremiting in their exertions to promote the service, that I cannot convey a correct idea of the grateful feeling their conduct has impressed on me. They both merit my warmest commendation and thanks.

I have written this despatch in much haste, and fear I have omitted the names of some to whom I feel much indebted, in which case I shall not fail to repair the omission.

It is very satisfactory to me to add in conclusion, that I have always experienced from Brigadier the Hon'ble H. Dundas, C. B., Commanding the Bombay division, and from the Brigadiers and Officers in command under him the most willing assistance.

The services of Commander Powell, Indian Navy, with the steamers under his orders, have been of much value to the objects of the expedition, and a detail of seamen from the vessels have afforded material relief at the Batteries on several occasions.

I have had the greatest satisfaction in directing a royal salute to be fired from the Citadel at noon in honor of His Lordship's victory over the Sikhs on the 13th instant, and shall order another to be fired at sunset for the happy termination of Military operations in this quarter.

39 Guns and 4 Mortars taken.

Head Quarters, Camp Chilianwalla, 26th January, 1849.

The Officer Commanding the Artillery will be so good as to direct a Royal salute to be immediately fired, from the heavy guns, in honor of the capture of Mooltan by the British Force under command of Major General W. S. Whish, C. B., on the morning of 22nd instant.

The Right Hon'ble the Commander-in-Chief most heartily congratulates Major General Whish and the brave Officers and Troops under his command on the very important success their intrepidity, valor and exemplary discipline have thus achieved.

No. 909.

To the ADJUTANT GENERAL of the ARMY, Head Quarters.

Camp Mooltan, 23rd January, 1849.

Sir,

Although I have in due course taken leave to bring to the notice of the Right Honorable the Commander-in-Chief, from time to time, the services rendered by the Allied Troops under Major Edwardes, C. B., Assistant Resident, as I am about to part with that Officer, whose willing and valuable aid I have frequently experienced since our first encamping before Mooltan; I will venture upon a brief recapitulation of what has been done by the forces under him, and Liutenant Lake, Engineers, respectively, the latter Officer having had unassisted charge of the Contingent of the Nawab of Bhawulpore, until he was wounded on the 12th September last, when he was for a month relieved by Lieutenant Taylor, 11th Light Cavalry, Assistant Resident, who was prevented from continuing during the siege, by a chivalrous expedition he undertook to recover our captives from Peshawur.

General Van Cortlandt commanded the Regular Regiments and Artillery of the Durbar, and as far as came under my observation, executed an arduous trust under occasionally critical circumstances with much judgment and zeal. Lieut. Lumsden, Assistant Resident, with a Detachment of the Guide Corps, performed useful service for the two months he was in the Allied Camp. Lieut. Pollock, (49th Native Infantry,) Assistant Resident, has more than once distinguished himself at the head of a detachment during the siege, and joined his Corps for the storm of the City on the 2nd instant. Lieutenant Young, Engineers, had charge of the Irregular Sappers and Miners and under the orders of Major Scott, Chief Engineer, Bombay Division, was eminently useful on the line of attack on the city side. Dr. Cole has been as usual foremost in the cause of humanity, and after attending to his own sick, a very large Hospital of the wounded of the enemy experience the benefit of his skill and care.

Before I conclude this brief notice of the Officers attached to the Allied Forces, that, exclusive of, on various occasions, haying been succesfully engaged with the enemy, maintained our communication with the Sutlej and Chenab, and furnished Escorts for our supplies, &c., I beg to notice two gentlemen (at present non-Military) who have done good service, Messrs. Hugo James, and McMahon, Volunteers.

The former having joined Major Edwardes in the hot season, and thence done duty with 3 Companies of Infantry that he raised and drilled, the latter having joined early last month, on the 29th ultimo, distinguished himself when the enemy twice unsuccessfully attacked the Troops commanded by Major Edwardes and Lieutenant Lake, by cutting down the leader of the Sikh Infantry, in single combat: and by joining the storming column of Brigadier Markham, in the assault of the city on the 2nd instant.

As the Detachment of Bombay Troops under Major Hallet, consisting of 5 Troops of Scind Horse, (under Lieutenants Malcolm and Merewether,) Captain Turnbull's Light Field Battery and 3d Regiment Native Infantry, joined me a fortnight before the main body, and performed during that time most useful service, I beg to acknowledge my obligations to Major Hallett for the same.

NOTIFICATION. — The Governor General is pleased to invest Lieutenant F. C. Jackson, Joint Magistrate of Kalka, with the powers of an Assistant, for the trial of Civil Suits arising at Kalka, Kussowlee, Dugshae and Soonawur, as described in Section I. Clause 1, of the Rules for the administration of Civil Justice, in the Cis and Trans Sutlej States.

H. M. ELLIOT,
Secretary to the Govt. of India, with the Govr. Genl.

Fort William, Home Department, Legislative, the 10th February, 1849.

The following Act is passed by the Hon'ble the President of the Council of India in Council on the 10th of February 1849, with the assent of the Right Hon'ble the Governor General of India, which has been read and recorded.

Ordered, that the Act be promulgated for general information.

ACT No. III OF 1849.

An Act to confirm an Agreement between certain Shareholders and Creditors of the Union Bank of Calcutta.

Whereas by Act XXIII. 1845, certain persons, therein declared to have formed themselves into a Company or Co-partnership by the name of "The Union Bank of Calcutta," and those who should thereafter become Members and Proprietors of the said Union Bank, were enabled to sue, and to be sued, at law and in equity, in the name of the person who should be the Secretary or the Treasurer of the said Bank, for the time being, and certain provisions are therein contained for the recovery of debts and demands due by the said Co-partnership:

And whereas a Memorial has been presented to the Governor General of India in Council, signed by Thomas Charles Morton, Esquire,—Henry Burkinyoung, Esquire,—Jeremiah James Homfray, Esquire,—and Baboo Prosunnocoomar Tagore,—all therein described as Members of the Executive Committee of Management of the said Union Bank, and also by certain persons, therein described as Members of the Committee of Creditors of the Union Bank,—that is to say, Charles Hogg, Esquire, therein described as constituted Attorney for Glyn, Halifax, Mills and Company, by Henry Cowie, Esquire, and by Thomas Seddon Kelsall, Esquire, setting forth, that the said Joint Stock Banking Company, or Union Bank of Calcutta suspended payment about the close of the year 1847, and that the remaining assets of the said Bank are insufficient to satisfy the outstanding debts and liabilities: that several Creditors of the Bank have obtained judgment against the public Officer under the said Act XXIII. 1845, and the assets of the Bank being insufficient, certain of the said judgments are put in suit against individual Shareholders; and that the Memorialists fear that, unless some mutually satisfactory arrangement can be immediately made between the Creditors and the Shareholders, an enormous sacrifice of property will speedily take place, and a great number of persons be involved in utter ruin; that many of the creditors are willing to agree with the Shareholders, and to give as complete a discharge as the law will allow, to those Shareholders who will pay such reasonable sums of money as have been assessed on them respectively, on account of the said debts and liabilities, by a Committee of Creditors, appointed at a public meeting of the Creditors, provided that such discharge do not work a release or otherwise affect their claims, in respect of the said debts and liabilities, against other persons liable to make good the same, who shall refuse or neglect to pay the sums so assessed on them respectively; and that many of the said Shareholders are willing to pay the sums so assessed on them, provided that they may be thereby secured from all proceedings at law or in equity, in respect of the said debts and liabilities, at the suit of any Creditor who shall have executed such agreement as aforesaid, and accepted any payment out of the sums so contributed; that doubts have been entertained of the legal effect of such an agreement and discharge: and praying, therefore, that the effect of it may be established and defined by authority of the Governor General of India in Council, without prejudice to the rights of any Creditor of the said Bank executing the same, against any present or past Shareholder of the said Bank, who shall not have paid up, in the manner prescribed by the said agreement, the full amount of the sum assessed on him or her as aforesaid, or to the rights of any Creditor who shall not execute the same, It is declared and enacted as follows:

I. The agreement of which a copy is annexed to this Act, being the agreement referred to in the said Memorial, shall be of full force as between those Creditors of the said Union Bank who shall execute the same, and those persons named in the Schedule hereinafter mentioned, and in the said agreement described as the Schedule thereunto annexed, marked A, being the Schedule of Assessment or Contribution toward the liquidation of the debts of the said Bank, who shall, in the manner mentioned in the said agreement, pay the several sums at which they are severally assessed in the said Schedule of Assessment; but shall be of no force to affect the rights or liabilities of any persons other than such as are party or privy thereunto, or the rights or liabilities of the persons named in the said Schedule, as against each other.

II. If any Creditor of the said Bank, who shall have executed the said agreement, shall thereafter sue out any Writ of Scire Facias, or take any other proceeding at law or in equity, on account of any debt or liability of the said Union Bank, against any person named in the said Schedule of Assessment, who shall have paid in the manner mentioned in the said agreement the full sum at which he or she is assessed in the said Schedule of Assessment, the execution of the said agreement by such Creditor, and payment of the said Assessment by the person against whom such Writ or other proceeding shall be sued out, or taken, may be pleaded in bar thereof: and all costs incurred by any such defendant in resisting such Writ or proceeding shall be paid by the Creditor at whose suit the same shall have been sued forth or instituted.

III. If any Creditor of the said Bank, who shall not have executed the said agreement, shall sue out any Writ of Scire Facias, or take any other proceeding at law or in equity, on account of any debt or liability of the said Union Bank, against any person liable to make good the same or any part thereof; or if any Creditor of the said Bank, who shall have executed the said agreement, shall sue out any Writ of Scire Facias, or take any other proceeding at law or in equity, on account of any debt or liability of the said Union Bank, against any person liable to make good the same, or any part thereof, who shall not pay in the manner mentioned in the said agreement the full sum at which he or she is assessed in the said Schedule of Assessment, the said agreement shall not be pleadable to such Writ or proceeding, nor shall the contents thereof be received in evidence, in any court of law or equity, in any proceeding had for the recovery of such debt or liability from any such person.

IV. Provided always, that nothing, hereinbefore contained, shall be construed to prevent any Writ of Scire Facias, which shall have been issued, or any action or suit which shall have been actually commenced against any Shareholder, before payment of his Assessment, from being prosecuted and continued afterwards, if the party instituting such proceeding, chooses so to do.

V. Within one month after the passing of this Act, a copy of the said Schedule of Assessment, signed by the said Thomas Charles Morton, Henry Burkinyoung, Jeremiah James Homfray, Prosunnocoomar Tagore, Charles Hogg, Henry Cowie, and Thomas Seddon Kelsall, shall be filed and enrolled among the Records of Office of the Record Keeper of the Supreme Court of Judicature at Fort William in Bengal; and the Schedule so filed shall be deemed the Schedule referred to by this Act, and by the said agreement, and shall be conclusive evidence of the amounts severally assessed against the persons named therein, according, to the true intent and meaning of this Act.

COPY OF AGREEMENT.

We, the undersigned, Creditors of the Union Bank of Calcutta, hereby undertake and promise, upon payment by the Executive Committee of the said Union Bank of an immediate first dividend of twenty-five (25) per cent. upon our respective claims, to accept the Schedule hereunto annexed, marked A, (which has been framed by a committee of Creditors of the Bank) as the Schedule of Assessment or Contribution towards the liquidation of the debts of the said Bank, of the several Shareholders, past and present, therein named; and we promise and agree not to sue out any Writ of Scire Facias against, or otherwise to molest the person or property of any Shareholder or Shareholders of the said Union Bank, named in the said Schedule, who shall pay up the full sum placed opposite his or her name in the said Schedule, as and for his or her Assessment or Contribution as aforesaid. Provided, however, that nothing herein contained, shall be construed to protect any of the said parties from being proceeded against, unless and until he shall have actually paid his said Assessment in full, nor to prevent any Writ of Scire Facias which shall have been issued, or any action or suit which shall have been actually commenced against any Shareholder, before payment of his Assessment from being prosecuted, and continued afterwards, if the party instituting such proceeding chooses so to do. Provided, further, that if any Shareholder in the said Schedule named, shall not have paid or given security to the Executive Committee of the said Bank, certified by them to be sufficient, for the payment of his Assessment, within three months from this date, if he, be resident in India, or within five months, if resident out of India, the same shall be increased ten per cent; and that a further per-centage of the like amount shall be added after every succeeding period of three months, during which the same shall remain unpaid or unsecured. Provided also, that the said Executive Committee, of the said Bank, do engage to pay, from time to time, such further dividends upon our respective claims, until full satisfaction thereof, respectively, as the sums realized from the said Contribution shall enable them to do; and whenever the realization shall amount to ten per cent. upon the remaining claims, to declare and pay a new dividend at that rate. Provided always, and it is hereby expressly declared and agreed, that we, the undersigned, reserve to ourselves, all our rights and remedies whatsoever, against the assets of the said Bank, legal and equitable, and against all Shareholders, present and past, not paying up the full amount of their said Assessments, respectively, as aforesaid: In witness whereof we have hereunto set our respective hands, this Twenty-fifth day of September, in the year of Christ, one thousand eight hundred and forty-eight.

FRED. JAS. HALLIDAY,

Fort William, Home Department, Legislative, the 10th February, 1849.

The following Act is passed by the Hon'ble the President of the Council of India in Council, on the 10th of February 1849, with the assent of the Right Hon'ble the Governor General of India, which has been read and recorded.

Ordered, that the Act be promulgated for general information.

An Act for the Safe Custody of Criminal Lunatics.

Whereas it is expedient to declare what unsoundness of mind excuses the commission of criminal acts, and to provide for the safe custody of persons found to have committed such acts, but acquitted by reason of unsoundness of mind, It is enacted as follows:

I. No person, who does an act which, if done by a person of sound mind, is an offence, shall be acquitted of such offence for unsoundness of mind, unless the court or Jury, as the case may be, in which according to the constitution of the Court, the power of conviction or acquittal is vested, shall find that, by reason of unsoundness of mind, not wilfully caused by himself, he was unconscious, and incapable of knowing, at the time of doing the said act, that he was doing an act forbidden by the Law of the land.

II. Whenever a person charged with any offence shall be acquitted, because he is within the exception made by the foregoing Section, the Court or Jury shall give a special judgment or verdict, that he did the act charged against him, being then of unsound mind, so as to excuse him according to law.

III. Whenever such special judgment or verdict, as aforesaid, shall have been given against any person, the court, before which the trial was had, shall order him to be kept in safe custody, in such place and manner as to the Court shall seem fit, until the pleasure of the Government can be known thereon: and thereupon the Government may order such person to be kept in strict custody, for such time and in such manner as to the Government shall seem fit.

IV. In all cases in which, before the passing of this Act, any person has been acquitted of any offence, on the ground of insanity, lunacy, idiocy, or unsoundness of mind, such person may be kept in the same strict custody in which persons may be kept, who shall be hereafter acquitted, for unsoundness of mind.

V. No person, against whom any such special judgment or verdict shall have been given, shall be entitled to be discharged out of custody, on being restored to soundness of mind, unless by order and at the discretion of the Government.

VI. The Right Hon'ble the Governor General is pleased to promote Captain J. Bracken, of the 29th Regiment of Native Infantry, Deputy Assistant Adjutant General of the Presidency Division, to the situation of Assistant Adjutant General of Division, in succession to Brevet Major C. Chester, appointed Second Assistant Adjutant General of the Army, in General Orders by the Governor General, of the 27th ultimo.

J. Stuart, Col.,

Fort William, Home Department, Legislative, the 10th February, 1849.

The following Act is passed by the Hon'ble the President of the Council of India in Council on the 10th of February 1849, with the assent of the Right Hon'ble the Governor General of India, which has been read and recorded.

Ordered, that the Act be promulgated for general information.

Act No. III of 1849.

An Act to confirm an Agreement between certain Shareholders and Creditors of the Union Bank of Calcutta.

Whereas by Act XXIII. 1845, certain persons, therein declared to have formed themselves into a Company or Co-partnership by the name of "The Union Bank of Calcutta," and those who should thereafter become Members and Proprietors of the said Union Bank, were enabled to sue, and to be sued, at law and in equity, in the name of the person who should be the Secretary or the Treasurer of the said Bank, for the time being, and certain provisions are therein contained for the recovery of debts and demands due by the said Co-partnership:

And whereas a Memorial has been presented to the Governor General of India in Council, signed by Thomas Charles Morton, Esquire,—Henry Burkinyoung, Esquire,—Jeremiah James Homfray, Esquire,—and Baboo Prosunnocoomar Tagore,—all therein described as Members of the Executive Committee of Management of the said Union Bank, and also by certain persons, therein described as Members of the Committee of Creditors of the Union Bank,—that is to say, Charles Hogg, Esquire, therein described as constituted Attorney for Glyn, Halifax, Mills and Company, by Henry Cowie, Esquire, and by Thomas Seddon Kelsall, Esquire, setting forth, that the said Joint Stock Banking Company, or Union Bank of Calcutta suspended payment about the close of the year 1847, and that the remaining assets of the said Bank are insufficient to satisfy the outstanding debts and liabilities: that several Creditors of the Bank have obtained judgment against the public Officer under the said Act XXIII. 1845, and the assets of the Bank being insufficient, certain of the said judgments are put in suit against individual Shareholders; and that the Memorialists fear that, unless some mutually satisfactory arrangement can be immediately made between the Creditors and the Shareholders, an enormous sacrifice of property will speedily take place, and a great number of persons be involved in utter ruin; that many of the creditors are willing to agree with the Shareholders, and to give as complete a discharge as the law will allow, to those Shareholders who will pay such reasonable sums of money as have been assessed on them respectively, on account of the said debts and liabilities, by a Committee of Creditors, appointed at a public meeting of the Creditors, provided that such discharge do not work a release or otherwise affect their claims, in respect of the said debts and liabilities, against other persons liable to make good the same, who shall refuse or neglect to pay the sums so assessed on them respectively; and that many of the said Shareholders are willing to pay the sums so assessed on them, provided that they may be thereby secured from all proceedings at law or in equity, in respect of the said debts and liabilities, at the suit of any Creditor who shall have executed such agreement as aforesaid, and accepted any payment out of the sums so contributed; that doubts have been entertained of the legal effect of such an agreement and discharge: and praying, therefore, that the effect of it may be established and defined by authority of the Governor General of India in Council, without prejudice to the rights of any Creditor of the said Bank executing the same, against any present or past Shareholder of the said Bank, who shall not have paid up, in the manner prescribed by the said agreement, the full amount of the sum assessed on him or her as aforesaid, or to the rights of any Creditor who shall not execute the same, It is declared and enacted as follows:

I. The agreement of which a copy is annexed to this Act, being the agreement referred to in the said Memorial, shall be of full force as between those Creditors of the said Union Bank who shall execute the same, and those persons named in the Schedule hereinafter mentioned, and in the said agreement described as the Schedule thereunto annexed, marked A, being the Schedule of Assessment or Contribution toward the liquidation of the debts of the said Bank, who shall, in the manner mentioned in the said agreement, pay the several sums at which they are severally assessed in the said Schedule of Assessment; but shall be of no force to affect the rights or liabilities of any persons other than such as are party or privy thereunto, or the rights or liabilities of the persons named in the said Schedule, as against each other.

II. If any Creditor of the said Bank, who shall have executed the said agreement, shall thereafter sue out any Writ of Scire Facias, or take any other proceeding at law or in equity, on account of any debt or liability of the said Union Bank, against any person named in the said Schedule of Assessment, who shall have paid in the manner mentioned in the said agreement the full sum at which he or she is assessed in the said Schedule of Assessment, the execution of the said agreement by such Creditor, and payment of the said Assessment by the person against whom such Writ or other proceeding shall be sued out, or taken, may be pleaded in bar thereof: and all costs incurred by any such defendant in resisting such Writ or proceeding shall be paid by the Creditor at whose suit the same shall have been sued forth or instituted.

III. If any Creditor of the said Bank, who shall not have executed the said agreement, shall sue out any Writ of Scire Facias, or take any other proceeding at law or in equity, on account of any debt or liability of the said Union Bank, against any person liable to make good the same or any part thereof; or if any Creditor of the said Bank, who shall have executed the said agreement, shall sue out any Writ of Scire Facias, or take any other proceeding at law or in equity, on account of any debt or liability of the said Union Bank, against any person liable to make good the same, or any part thereof, who shall not pay in the manner mentioned in the said agreement the full sum at which he or she is assessed in the said Schedule of Assessment, the said agreement shall not be pleadable to such Writ or proceeding, nor shall the contents thereof be received in evidence, in any court of law or equity, in any proceeding had for the recovery of such debt or liability from any such person.

IV. Provided always, that nothing, hereinbefore contained, shall be construed to prevent any Writ of Scire Facias, which shall have been issued, or any action or suit which shall have been actually commenced against any Shareholder, before payment of his Assessment, from being prosecuted and continued afterwards, if the party instituting such proceeding, chooses so to do.

V. Within one month after the passing of this Act, a copy of the said Schedule of Assessment, signed by the said Thomas Charles Morton, Henry Burkinyoung, Jeremiah James Homfray, Prosunnocoomar Tagore, Charles Hogg, Henry Cowie, and Thomas Seddon Kelsall, shall be filed and enrolled among the Records of Office of the Record Keeper of the Supreme Court of Judicature at Fort William in Bengal; and the Schedule so filed shall be deemed the Schedule referred to by this Act, and by the said agreement, and shall be conclusive evidence of the amounts severally assessed against the persons named therein, according, to the true intent and meaning of this Act.

Copy of Agreement.

We, the undersigned, Creditors of the Union Bank of Calcutta, hereby undertake and promise, upon payment by the Executive Committee of the said Union Bank of an immediate first dividend of twenty-five (25) per cent. upon our respective claims, to accept the Schedule hereunto annexed, marked A, (which has been framed by a committee of Creditors of the Bank) as the Schedule of Assessment or Contribution towards the liquidation of the debts of the said Bank, of the several Shareholders, past and present, therein named; and we promise and agree not to sue out any Writ of Scire Facias against, or otherwise to molest the person or property of any Shareholder or Shareholders of the said Union Bank, named in the said Schedule, who shall pay up the full sum placed opposite his or her name in the said Schedule, as and for his or her Assessment or Contribution as aforesaid. Provided, however, that nothing herein contained, shall be construed to protect any of the said parties from being proceeded against, unless and until he shall have actually paid his said Assessment in full, nor to prevent any Writ of Scire Facias which shall have been issued, or any action or suit which shall have been actually commenced against any Shareholder, before payment of his Assessment from being prosecuted, and continued afterwards, if the party instituting such proceeding chooses so to do. Provided, further, that if any Shareholder in the said Schedule named, shall not have paid or given security to the Executive Committee of the said Bank, certified by them to be sufficient, for the payment of his Assessment, within three months from this date, if he, be resident in India, or within five months, if resident out of India, the same shall be increased ten per cent; and that a further per-centage of the like amount shall be added after every succeeding period of three months, during which the same shall remain unpaid or unsecured. Provided also, that the said Executive Committee, of the said Bank, do engage to pay, from time to time, such further dividends upon our respective claims, until full satisfaction thereof, respectively, as the sums realized from the said Contribution shall enable them to do; and whenever the realization shall amount to ten per cent. upon the remaining claims, to declare and pay a new dividend at that rate. Provided always, and it is hereby expressly declared and agreed, that we, the undersigned, reserve to ourselves, all our rights and remedies whatsoever, against the assets of the said Bank, legal and equitable, and against all Shareholders, present and past, not paying up the full amount of their said Assessments, respectively, as aforesaid: In witness whereof we have hereunto set our respective hands, this Twenty-fifth day of September, in the year of Christ, one thousand eight hundred and forty-eight.

Offg. Secy. to the Govt. of India.

Fort William, Home Department, Legislative, the 10th February, 1849.

The following Act is passed by the Hon'ble the President of the Council of India in Council, on the 10th of February 1849, with the assent of the Right Hon'ble the Governor General of India, which has been read and recorded.

Ordered, that the Act be promulgated for general information.

An Act for the Safe Custody of Criminal Lunatics.

Whereas it is expedient to declare what unsoundness of mind excuses the commission of criminal acts, and to provide for the safe custody of persons found to have committed such acts, but acquitted by reason of unsoundness of mind, It is enacted as follows:

I. No person, who does an act which, if done by a person of sound mind, is an offence, shall be acquitted of such offence for unsoundness of mind, unless the court or Jury, as the case may be, in which according to the constitution of the Court, the power of conviction or acquittal is vested, shall find that, by reason of unsoundness of mind, not wilfully caused by himself, he was unconscious, and incapable of knowing, at the time of doing the said act, that he was doing an act forbidden by the Law of the land.

II. Whenever a person charged with any offence shall be acquitted, because he is within the exception made by the foregoing Section, the Court or Jury shall give a special judgment or verdict, that he did the act charged against him, being then of unsound mind, so as to excuse him according to law.

III. Whenever such special judgment or verdict, as aforesaid, shall have been given against any person, the court, before which the trial was had, shall order him to be kept in safe custody, in such place and manner as to the Court shall seem fit, until the pleasure of the Government can be known thereon: and thereupon the Government may order such person to be kept in strict custody, for such time and in such manner as to the Government shall seem fit.

IV. In all cases in which, before the passing of this Act, any person has been acquitted of any offence, on the ground of insanity, lunacy, idiocy, or unsoundness of mind, such person may be kept in the same strict custody in which persons may be kept, who shall be hereafter acquitted, for unsoundness of mind.

V. No person, against whom any such special judgment or verdict shall have been given, shall be entitled to be discharged out of custody, on being restored to soundness of mind, unless by order and at the discretion of the Government.

VI. Whenever it shall appear to the Government that any person, imprisoned by the sentence of any Court, is of unsound mind, the Government, by a warrant which shall set forth the grounds of belief that such prisoner is of unsound mind, may order the removal of such prisoner to a Lunatic Asylum, or other fit place of safe custody, there to be kept and treated as the Government shall order; and, when it shall appear to the Government that such prisoner has become of sound mind, the Government, by a warrant directed to the person having charge of him, shall remand such prisoner to the prison from which he was removed, if then still liable to be kept in custody, or if not, shall order him to be discharged out of custody.

VII. The word 'Government' in this Act shall be taken to mean the Governor, or Governor in Council, or other person or persons administering the Government of the Presidency or place where the trial is had.

NOTICE.—The General Treasury will be closed on Wednesday, the 21st, Thursday, the 22nd, and Friday the 23rd instant, on account of the Hindoo Holidays, Seebo Rattree and Surjo Grohon.

G. Udny, Sub-Treasurer.

General Treasury, the 9th February, 1849.

NOTIFICATION.—An examination will be held early in April 1849, in the College of Fort William, for the purpose of filling up existing Vacancies in the Military class of the Medical College. All candidates will be expected to possess a knowledge of the Hindustani Language, adequate to enable them to read and write it in the Persian or Devanagri character.

2nd. All Interpreters of Regiments and Battalions will be requested, through the Military Departments, not to grant certificates of qualification to any candidate under the age of fifteen and above that of twenty years; and likewise to reject all who may not pass the prescribed ordeal with a sufficient degree of fluency and facility. Much disappointment, expense, and inconvenience have already been experienced by lads from distant stations being furnished with certificates, who were found, on examination, quite unqualified for admission; and it is with a view to prevent the recurrence of this, that the above measure has been adopted.

3rd. Candidates for admission will be required to present themselves before the Secretary to the Medical College, at least three days prior to the day of examination, in order that a proper descriptive roll may be prepared for transmission to the Examiners of the College of Fort William.

4th. The preference in selection, attainments being equal, will be given to those who have already been attached to, or served in Civil or Regimental Hospitals.

5th. No candidate will be allowed to present himself for examination, who cannot produce a written testimonial of his conduct and character, or afford satisfactory evidence as to who and what he is. A few individuals of decidedly bad character have, upon recent occasions, managed to obtain admittance, it is supposed, by producing false papers; the strictest care and scrutiny will therefore be exercised in examining the credentials of all future candidates, who will, in addition, require to be furnished with regular muster rolls, in order that they may be identified.

6th. All pupils must, as a condition of their appointment, reside within the College premises at all times, and never be absent from morning and evening muster without special leave.

7th. All students in the Military class are amenable to the Articles of War, and regularly enlisted as Soldiers.

8th. No candidate will be admitted to the school, who is physically unfit for the duties of a Soldier.

Secretary.

Read again the Draft of a proposed Act, dated the 25th November 1848, and published in the Calcutta Gazette of the 29th November 1848, for the appointment of an Administrator General of unrepresented Estates in Bengal, and for the regulation of that office.

Resolution.—The President in Council resolves, that the following amended Draft on the subject be published for general information.

Act No. —— of 1848.

An Act for the appointment of an Administrator General in Bengal.

Whereas it is expedient to disconnect the administration of the Estates of British Subjects dying intestate in the Presidency of Fort William in Bengal from the Office of Ecclesiastical Registrar of the Supreme Court and to appoint an Administrator General there, It is enacted as follows:

I. Whenever after the passing of this Act any British Subject shall die intestate within the Presidency of Fort William in Bengal, or the Territories which are or shall be subordinate to the said Presidency, and on the return of the citation issued from the proper Ecclesiastical Court, no next of Kin shall appear, and make out their claim to the Administration of the Effects of the deceased to the satisfaction of the said Court, and also, whenever the Executor or Executors, appointed by the Will of any British Subject dying therein, shall refuse to prove the Will, the Administrator General created by this Act shall, except in the case hereinafter excepted, apply for, and the said Court shall grant to him, instead of the Ecclesiastical Registrar, such Letters of Administration or Ad Colligenda Bona as to such Court shall seem meet; by virtue whereof the said Administrator General shall collect the assets of the deceased, and account for them as herein provided.

II. All Letters of Administration or Ad Colligenda Bona, granted to the Ecclesiastical Registrar of the Supreme Court; and all Probates, granted to such Officer, of Wills appointing the Ecclesiastical Registrar of the Supreme Court by that description, or him and his successors, Executors thereof; and all Estates, Effects and Interests, vested in the said Ecclesiastical Registrar by virtue thereof; and all books, papers and documents belonging to him or in his possession, or under his controul by virtue of such Letters or Probates, shall, by this Act, and without other grant, be transferred to the Administrator General by this Act created; who shall be to all intents and purposes such Administrator, Executor, or Grantee, in his new character of Administrator General, as the Ecclesiastical Registrar of the Supreme Court was; and shall have all the same powers as the said Ecclesiastical Registrar might exercise at the time of the passing of this Act, as such Administrator, Executor or Grantee.

III. The Ecclesiastical Registrar at the time of the passing of this Act shall be the first Administrator General, and upon the passing of this Act shall cease to be Ecclesiastical Registrar; and as such Administrator General shall be entitled to receive or retain all Commission to which he was entitled as Ecclesiastical Registrar at the time of the passing of this Act on any such grants as aforesaid.

IV. On all future vacancies of the Office, the Administrator General shall be appointed by the Governor General of India in Council; and shall be one, who either has been admitted and is at the time of such appointment an Advocate or an Attorney of the said Supreme Court, or at the time of such appointment is qualified to be so admitted.

V. After the passing of this Act, the Administrator General shall not be deemed in that capacity an Officer of the said Supreme Court, and shall not be otherwise accountable to it than any ordinary Executor, Administrator, or Grantee of Letters Ad Colligenda Bona, as the case may be.

VI. Every Administrator General shall give Security by bond to the East India Company, himself for one lack of Rupees, with two or more Sureties jointly and severally for another lack of Rupees, for the due execution of his said Office; and shall not be required by the said Supreme Court to enter into any Administration Bond, or to give other Security to that Court on the grant of any such Letters as aforesaid.

VII. The Administrator General shall receive for the discharge of his duties as such Administrator General under all such grants of Letters as aforesaid made after the passing of this Act or on Probates of Wills so granted after the passing of this Act, wherein he is named Executor by virtue of his Office, instead of the Commission heretofore received by the Ecclesiastical Registrar, a Commission calculated after the rate of Three Rupees in every Hundred Rupees which he shall actually distribute, or which he shall set apart and invest as herein provided, for the benefit of the parties ultimately entitled thereto, if the same are not immediately payable; and, out of the said Commission of Three Rupees in the Hundred, shall defray the expences of the necessary Establishment, and all other charges, to which the said Office may be subject.

VIII. No person, other than the Administrator General, shall be entitled to charge any Commission or Agency, as Executor of any Will, of which Probate shall have been granted in the said Presidency after the passing of this Act, or as Administrator of any Effects whereof Administration shall have been granted in the said Presidency after the passing of this Act: but this enactment is not to be deemed to hinder any Executor from having the benefit of any legacy bequeathed to him, either of a specific sum or residuary bequest, or by way of Commission, or in any other manner.

IX. The Assets belonging to the Estates administered by the said Administrator General shall be kept by him in the Treasury of the East India Company, or otherwise kept and invested by him, in such manner as the Governor General of India in Council shall from time to time order; which order shall be published in the Calcutta Gazette, and shall be full authority, protection and indemnity in all Courts whatsoever for such keeping and investing.

X. The said Administrator General shall enter into books to be kept by him for that purpose separate and distinct accounts of each Estate, and of all such sums of money, Bonds and other Securities for Money, Goods, Effects and things, as shall come to his hands or to the hands of any person employed by him, or in trust for him under this Act; and likewise of all payments made by him on account of the said Estates and of all debts due by or to the same, specifying the dates of such receipts and payments respectively; which said books shall be kept in the Administrator General's Office, and shall be open for the inspection of all such persons, practitioners in the said Courts and others, as may have occasion to inspect the same, at office hours; paying only such reasonable fee as may be from time to time fixed therefore by the Governor General of India in Council and published in the Calcutta Gazette.

XI. The Administrator General shall twice in every year, that is, on the First day of March and on the Tenth day of August, or on the First day on which the said Court shall be sitting after those days, exhibit and deliver in open Court a true Schedule, shewing the gross amount of all sums of Money received or paid by him on account of each Estate in his charge, and the balances, during the period of six months ending severally on the Thirty-first day of December and Thirtieth day of June next before the day of delivering such Schedule, and a true list of all Bonds or other Securities received on account of each of the said Estates during the same period; and also a true Schedule of all Administrations whereof the final balances shall have been paid over to the persons entitled to the same, during the same period; specifying the amount of such balances, and the persons to whom paid; which Schedules shall be filed of record in the said Court, and shall, within fourteen days afterwards, be published in the Calcutta Gazette by the said Administrator General; and copies thereof in triplicate shall be delivered to the Secretary of the said Presidency, and sent by the Governor of the said Presidency to the Court of Directors of the East India Company for publication in the London Gazette.

XII. The Governor General of India in Council shall from time to time appoint an Auditor or Auditors to examine the Accounts of the Administrator General at the time of the delivery of the said Schedules, and also at any other time when the Governor General in Council shall think fit.

XIII. The Auditor or Auditors shall examine the Schedules and accounts, and report to the said Governor General in Council whether they contain a full and true account of every thing which ought to be inserted therein, and whether the Books by this Act directed to be kept by the Administrator General are duly and regularly kept, and whether the Assets are duly kept and invested in such manner as is by Law prescribed.

XIV. Every Auditor shall have power to summon as well the Administrator General as any other person or persons whose presence he may think necessary, to attend him from time to time; and to examine the Administrator General or other party or parties if he shall think fit on Oath or Solemn Affirmation to be by him administered; and to call for all Books, Papers and Documents which may appear to him to be necessary for the purposes of the said reference: and if the Administrator General, or other person or persons when summoned shall refuse or without reasonable cause neglect to attend, or to produce any Books, Papers or Documents required, or shall attend and refuse to be sworn or make a Solemn Affirmation when by law an Affirmation may be substituted for an Oath, or shall refuse to be examined, the Auditor or Auditors shall certify such neglect or refusal in writing to the Supreme Court of Judicature at Fort William in Bengal; and every person so refusing or neglecting shall thereupon be punishable, in like manner as if such refusal or neglect had been in contempt of the said Supreme Court.

XV. The costs and expenses of preparing and publishing the said Schedules and copies thereof and of every such reference and examination shall be defrayed proportionably by all the Estates, the accounts of which are then under examination, which costs and proportions shall be ascertained and settled by the Auditor or Auditors, subject to the approval of the Governor General in Council; and shall be paid out of the said Estates accordingly by the Administrator General.

XVI. If upon any such reference and examination the Auditor or Auditors shall see reason to believe that the said Schedules do not contain a true and correct account of the matters therein, or which ought to be therein contained, he or they shall report accordingly to the Governor General of India in Council, specifying the substance of the objections thereto.

XVII. The Governor General in Council shall refer every such report as last aforesaid to the consideration of the Advocate General of the East India Company in Bengal, who shall thereupon if he shall think fit proceed summarily by petition for an account against the said Administrator General, or against the late Administrator General after his removal from Office, or against his personal representatives in case of his death, in respect of all or any of the Estates then or formerly under his care as the said Advocate General shall think fit; and shall have power to exhibit interrogatories to the said Administrator General, or other person or persons defendants, who shall be bound to answer the same as fully as if the same had been contained in a Bill filed for the like purpose; and the Court shall have power on any such petition filed to examine orally the parties before it and all witnesses, or to refer the accounts to be taken in the ordinary way.

XVIII. The costs of the reference and examination, and those of the Advocate General, when such are directed to be paid, shall be defrayed either by the defendant or defendants, in case he or they shall be decreed to pay the costs, or out of the Estates rateably as the said Court shall direct; and whenever the costs of any reference and examination shall be recovered from the defendant or defendants, the same shall be repaid to the Estates by which the same were in the first instance contributed, and the Court shall have power to order the Administrator General, or other person or persons defendants, to receive his or her costs out of the said Estates if it shall think fit.

XIX. The said Court shall have power on such petition to make such original and subsequent orders as upon a Bill filed; and such Orders shall have the same effect, and be executed in the same manner as Decretal Orders.

XX. Whenever any British subject shall die within the said Presidency intestate, and Letters of Administration to his or her Effects shall not be taken out for three months after the death, and the Administrator General shall be satisfied that such Effects do not exceed in the whole Five Hundred Rupees, he may, if he shall think fit, grant, to any person claiming to be entitled to a principal share of the Effects of the deceased, Certificates under his hand entitling the claimant to receive the sums or securities for money therein severally mentioned belonging to the Effects of the deceased, to the value of any sum not exceeding in the whole Five Hundred Rupees.

XXI. The Administrator General shall not be bound to grant any such Certificate unless he is satisfied of the title of the claimant, and of the value of the Effects of the deceased, either by the Oath or Affidavit of the claimant, or by such other evidence as he shall require.

XXII. Any such Certificate, with a receipt annexed under the hand of the person to whom the Certificate is granted, shall be a full receipt and discharge for payment or delivery to him or her of the money or security for money therein mentioned, with respect to the claim of any other person upon the person paying or delivering the same: but any next of Kin or representative or creditor of the deceased shall have remedy for recovery thereof against the person receiving the same.

XXIII. The Administrator General shall not be bound to take out Letters of Administration to the Effects of any deceased person on account of whose Estate he shall grant any such Certificate, but may do so, if he shall discover any fraud or misrepresentation made to him, or that the value of the Estate exceeded Five Hundred Rupees.

XXIV. For every such Certificate the Administrator General shall be entitled to charge a fee calculated after the rate of Three Rupees in the Hundred on the amount mentioned in the Certificate.

XXV. Calcutta, Genl. Post Office, the 17th February, 1849.

NOTIFICATION.—An examination will be held early in April 1849, in the College of Fort William, for the purpose of filling up existing Vacancies in the Military class of the Medical College. All candidates will be expected to possess a knowledge of the Hindustani Language, adequate to enable them to read and write it in the Persian or Devanagri character.

2nd. All Interpreters of Regiments and Battalions will be requested, through the Military Departments, not to grant certificates of qualification to any candidate under the age of fifteen and above that of twenty years; and likewise to reject all who may not pass the prescribed ordeal with a sufficient degree of fluency and facility. Much disappointment, expense, and inconvenience have already been experienced by lads from distant stations being furnished with certificates, who were found, on examination, quite unqualified for admission; and it is with a view to prevent the recurrence of this, that the above measure has been adopted.

3rd. Candidates for admission will be required to present themselves before the Secretary to the Medical College, at least three days prior to the day of examination, in order that a proper descriptive roll may be prepared for transmission to the Examiners of the College of Fort William.

4th. The preference in selection, attainments being equal, will be given to those who have already been attached to, or served in Civil or Regimental Hospitals.

5th. No candidate will be allowed to present himself for examination, who cannot produce a written testimonial of his conduct and character, or afford satisfactory evidence as to who and what he is. A few individuals of decidedly bad character have, upon recent occasions, managed to obtain admittance, it is supposed, by producing false papers; the strictest care and scrutiny will therefore be exercised in examining the credentials of all future candidates, who will, in addition, require to be furnished with regular muster rolls, in order that they may be identified.

6th. All pupils must, as a condition of their appointment, reside within the College premises at all times, and never be absent from morning and evening muster without special leave.

7th. All students in the Military class are amenable to the Articles of War, and regularly enlisted as Soldiers.

8th. No candidate will be admitted to the school, who is physically unfit for the duties of a Soldier.

No. 779.

PILOT'S COURT.

At a Court assembled on Monday, the Fourteenth day of January, One Thousand Eight Hundred and Forty-Nine, under Act No. XXIV. of 1845, Mr. Branch Pilot Benjamin Heritage was tried on the following Chorge:

Neglect of Duty in the following instance:—

For that on the 11th of October 1848, between the hours of noon and 3 P. M., whilst in command of the H. Co's Pilot Brig "Fame," riding at anchor at the Sandheads, and having the white flag up at the Fore, the signal for taking Pilots out of outward bound vessels, he, Mr. Branch Pilot Benjamin Heritage, failed in his duty, and neglected to take Mr. Master Pilot J. P. T. Porter out of the Arab Ship "Shaw in Shaw," when the weather was such that he could have done so, when that vessel passed within or about a mile of the "Fame," with the signal up at the Main that the Pilot had to be taken out, whereby the said Mr. Master Pilot J. P. T. Porter and his leadsman, Mr. Volunteer Pilot G. Lord, were taken to sea in the "Shaw in Shaw," and eventually landed at Point de Galle many days after, causing considerable expense, and the loss of the Services of the two last named Officers from the 12th of October to the 8th of December, the day on which the "Haddington" brought them back to Calcutta.

By order of the Superintendent of Marine,

Fort William the 9th January, 1849.

Finding.—The Court having maturely weighed and considered the evidence brought forward in support of the prosecution, together with that adduced on the defence, is of opinion that the Defendant, Mr. Branch Pilot Benjamin Heritage, is Not Guilty of the charge preferred against him; and do therefore fully acquit him the said Mr. Branch Pilot Benjamin Heritage of all and every part of the charge.

Fort William, Master Attendt.'s Office, The 19th of January, 1849.

Remarks by the Court.

The Court desires to remark, in explanation of its finding, that, although there can be no doubt that Mr. Porter might have been taken out of the "Shaw in Shaw," so far as the mere possibility of so doing is meant, yet that it is satisfied that had Mr. Heritage, weighed for that purpose from his already leewardly position, the heavy westerly set and easterly winds must have carried the Fame so far to leeward, that the Buoy Station would have been deserted at a most critical time in threatening weather; and it therefore considers that Mr. Heritage exercised only a due and a praiseworthy discretion in endeavouring to keep his station to the last moment.

(Sd.) HENRY PIDDINGTON, President.

2. The proceedings of the Court having been submitted to Government, His Honor the Deputy Governor of Bengal has been pleased to approve and confirm the acquittal of Mr. Branch Pilot Benjamin Heritage, and the Master Attendant, has been requested to release that Officer from arrest, and allow him to return to his duty.

Light House on Cape Otway.

The Light House on Cape Otway, Bass's Straits, latitude 38 degrees 51 minutes South, longitude 143 degrees 29 minutes East, having been completed and lighted on the 29th August, 1848, a light is burning, and will continue from sunset until sunrise.

The reef off Cape Otway is one-half to three-quarters of a mile distant, bearing south-east to south south-west, and extends 1¼ miles westward.

The Light House is erected on a cliff 251 feet 6 inches above highwater mark; the supporting column is 45 feet high, and the lantern 7 feet high.

From highwater mark to the centre of the light is 300 feet.

The light is a revolving catoptric of three groups of lamps, each group containing 7 lamps; the entire revolves round once in 2 minutes 39 seconds, shewing a flash of light of 3 seconds duration, and 50 seconds of darkness.

It is estimated that the light will be seen 8 leagues.

CAMP FEROZEPORE, 13TH FEBRUARY, 1849.

The following Notification from the Foreign Department, is re-published for the information of the Army :

NOTIFICATION.

FOREIGN DEPARTMENT,

Camp Ferozepore, the 1st February 1849.

The Right Honorable the Governor General directs the publication of the following Des-

Dated 10th December, 1848. patch, from His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief, for public information.

(Sd.) H. M. ELLIOT,

FROM THE RIGHT HON'BLE THE COMMANDER-IN-CHIEF IN INDIA,

TO THE RIGHT HON'BLE THE GOVERNOR GENERAL OF INDIA,

MY LORD,

In continuation of my letter of the 5th instant, I have now the honor to enclose to your Lordship a copy of Major General Sir Joseph Thackwell's Despatch, dated the 6th idem, but only received last night, detailing the operations of the Force under his command after it had been detached from my Head Quarters.

I can only repeat the warm approval I have already expressed of the conduct of the Major General, and of every Officer and Man under his command, and I beg your Lordship's favorable consideration of the services of those named by Sir Joseph Thackwell.

I beg to enclose a rough sketch of the operations of the 3rd instant.

I have, &c.,

To LIEUT. COLONEL P. GRANT, C. B., Adjutant General of the Army.

Head Quarters, Camp Ramnuggur.

SIR,

I have the honor to report for the information of the Right Hon'ble the Commander-in-Chief, that, agreeably to His Excellency's orders, I left the Camp at Ramnuggur with the Troops named in the margin, at about half past 3 o'Clock, on the morning of the 1st December 1848, instead of at one o'Clock as I had ordered, some of the troops having lost their way among the intricacies of the rear of the encampment, and proceeded to the vicinity of the ford on the Chenab at Runnee-Khan-ke-Puttun, distant 13 miles from Ramnuggur, which, owing to the broken ground, narrow roads where any existed, for the first four miles, I did not reach before 11 o'Clock. The Enemy had Infantry at this ford, which report afterwards magnified to 4,000 men, but the villagers said it was much deeper than the one at Allee-Shere-ke-Chuck, a mile higher up the river. I am much indebted to Lieutenant Paton, Deputy Assistant Quarter Master General, for his anxious exertions in examining this ford; and from his report I came to the conclusion that this ford of Allee-Shere-ke-Chuck could not have Artillery on the left bank of the river to cover the passage of the Troops, from the insecure bottom of the first ford, neither could the Pontoon Train be of much use, for the same reason, and the deep sands which lay between the fords. The Pontoon Train might have been laid over the main stream under cover of a Battery, near the Enemy's Infantry, but beyond the river the sands seemed wet and insecure, and a branch of the river beyond them was said to be deep with a muddy bottom. Under all these disadvantages I came to the decision that it was more advisable to try the passage of the river near Wuzzerabad, where Captain Nicholson, Assistant to the Resident at Lahore, informed me that at the ferry were seventeen boats, and a ford not more than 3 feet 10 inches deep, with a good bottom, than to run the risk of a severe loss by passing the river near the Enemy. This survey of the ford occupied three hours, and at 2 o'Clock I put the column in movement to the ford and ferry at Wuzzerabad, which was in the possession of Lieutenant Nicholson's Pattans, where the leading Infantry arrived about 5 o'Clock in the afternoon, having made a march of about 25 miles. The 6th Brigade of Infantry and some of the Guns were passed over the Chenab immediately, and I am indebted to Brigadier General Campbell, Lieutenant Colonel Grant, H. A., and Captain Smith of the Engineers for their great exertions in forwarding this object. Brigadier Eckford I hoped would have crossed the river by the three fords that evening, but as it became too dark and hazy for such an operation he halted for the night, on the dry sands, near the last branch of the river. Major Tait, 3rd Irregular Cavalry, was enabled to pass over three of his Rissallahs,—in doing which I am sorry to say, three Sowars and one Horse were drowned. On the morrow the Infantry, Cavalry and all the Troops were soon over the river by ferry and ford, and all the baggage and Commissariat animals passed the same by 12 o'clock, without any further loss.

12th Irregular Cavalry.
2 Companies 22nd N. I.

At 2 P. M. after the Troops had dined, I marched, in order of battle, three Brigade columns of Companies, at half distance left in front, at deploying interval. The 1st Brigade of Cavalry, in the same order, on the right, with strong flanking parties and rear guard, and the 3rd Irregular Cavalry on the left, with orders to patrole to the river and clear the right bank, aided by Infantry, if necessary: in this order I arrived at Doorawal at dusk about 12 miles from the ferry, and halted for the night. On Sunday, December the 3rd, at daylight, the Troops proceeded in the same order towards the Sikh position, and I intended to have reconnoitred and commenced an attack upon it by 11 o'Clock: hearing, however, when within about 4 miles of it or less, that reinforcements were expected to pass over the Chenab at the ford near Ghurree-ke-Puttun, it became necessary to secure that post, and which had been found without an Enemy an hour before, but to which it now seemed that a body of about 600 of the Enemy were seen approaching, and I detached a Wing of the 56th N. I., and two Ressallahs, of the 3rd Irregular Cavalry, under Major Tait, who secured the post and frustrated the attempt of the Enemy. This caused so much delay that enough of daylight would not be left for the advance and attack on the left and rear of the Enemy's position. About 2 P. M. some of the Enemy's guns opened on a patrole of the 5th Light Cavalry, and he was seen advancing in large bodies of Cavalry and Infantry, and the picquets, which occupied three villages with large plantations of sugar-cane, being too much in advance to be supported, fell back without any loss, and the Enemy occupied these villages with Cavalry on the right; guns and bodies of Infantry and the main body of their Cavalry with Horse Artillery, were on their left. When the Enemy's guns opened, I ordered Brigadier General Campbell to deploy the Infantry into line, in front of the village of Sudoolapoor. Brigadier Eckford and part of Brigadier Hoggan's Brigade being extended in order not to be out-flanked. It was not until the Enemy came well within range of our guns that I caused them to open their fire, which they then did with great effect. The Enemy tried to turn both our flanks, which having foreseen, I had caused Captain Warner to move his troop of Artillery to the left of the Infantry, and had sent the 5th Light Cavalry to the left to support these guns, and to act in conjunction with the two Ressalahs of the 3rd Irregular Cavalry under Captain Biddulph, who were posted on open ground, and these soon drove the Enemy back. The attempt to turn our right was met by extending the 8th Light Cavalry and H. M.'s 3rd Light Dragoons, supported by Major Christie's troop of Artillery. As the Cavalry of the right advanced, the Enemy's sowars gave way, and they fell back on their Infantry having lost some men by the skirmishers of the 3rd Light Dragoons. After a cannonade of about two hours the fire of the Enemy slackened, and I sent Lieut. Paton to desire the Cavalry on the right to charge and take the Enemy's guns if possible, intending to support them by moving the Brigades in eschellon, from the right at intervals, according to circumstances, but as no opportunity offered for the Cavalry to charge and so little of daylight remained, I deemed it safer to remain in my position than attempt to drive back an Enemy so strongly posted on their right and centre, with the prospect of having to attack their entrenched position afterwards. From this position the Sikhs began to retire at about 12 o'Clock at night, as was afterwards ascertained, and as was conjectured by the barking of dogs in their rear. I have every reason to believe that Shere Sing attacked with 20 guns; and nearly the whole of the Sikh Army were emyloyed against my position, which was by no means what I could have wished it, but the fire of our Artillery was so effective that he did not dare to bring his masses to the front, and my brave, steady and ardent Infantry, whom I had caused to lay down to avoid the heavy fire, had no chance of firing a shot, except a few Companies on the left of the line. The Enemy's loss has been severe, ours comparatively very small. I regret not being able to capture the Enemy's guns, but with the small force of Cavalry, two regiments on the right only, it would have been a matter of difficulty for tired Cavalry to overtake Horse Artillery, fresh and well mounted. In these operations the conduct of all has merited my warmest praise, and the patient endurance of the Artillery, Cavalry, European Infantry and Sepoys, under privations of no ordinary nature, has been most praiseworthy.

To Brigadier General Campbell I am much indebted for his able assistance during these movements, and to Lieut. Colonel Grant, Commanding the Artillery, Major Christie, Captains Huish, Warner, Austin and Kinleside, and the Officers and men under their command, I cannot bestow too much praise for their skill and gallantry in overcoming the fire of a numerous Artillery, some of which were of heavy callibre. I am also greatly indebted to Captain Smith of the Engineers, for his exertions in passing over guns at the Wuzzerabad Ferry, and for his assistance in conveying my orders, on various occasions. And my thanks are due to Lieutenants Yule and Crommelin of the same Corps, and to Lieutenant Bacon of the Sappers; to Lieutenant Paton, Deputy Assistant Quarter Master General, my best thanks are due for his exertions and assistance in the advance of the troops and during the action, and to Captain Nicholson, Assistant to the Resident at Lahore, I beg to offer my best thanks for his endeavours to procure intelligence of the Enemy's movements, for his endeavours to procure supplies for the Troops, and for his able assistance on all occasions. Captain Pratt, my Deputy Assistant Adjutant General, Lieutenant Tucker, Deputy Assistant Quarter Master General, Lieutenant Thackwell, A. D. C., have been most zealous in performing their respective duties, and have rendered me every assistance, and I feel assured that if the Cavalry and Infantry had been brought into close action, I should have had the great satisfaction of thanking Brigadiers, Commanding Officers of Corps, and the Officers and Men for their gallantry and noble bearing in action, as I now do for their steadiness and good conduct. To Major Mainwaring, Captains Gerrard, Simpson, Faddy and James, I am much indebted for their exertions in their respective Departments.

I beg further to state, that on the morning of the 4th, I put the Troops in motion to pursue the Enemy, who had retreated during the preceding night and encamped about 11 miles from the Chenab, on the road to Jullalpore, the 9th Lancers having been pushed to the front, but without seeing any thing of the Enemy who had retreated by the Jelum, Jullalpore and Pind Dadun Khan roads, and on the following day I arrived at this place and sent two Regiments of Cavalry on the road to Dingee, one of them, the 14th Light Dragoons, and two Regiments of Cavalry and a Troop of Horse Artillery on the road to Jullalpore; the latter party observed two bodies of the Enemy of about 800 and 400 Men each, imagined to be a strong rear guard, about 8 miles from this, and behind a thick jungle which reaches to the river; and the former went to Dingee, which place the Enemy had left, and the villagers said had gone over the Jelum. Both parties returned to this Camp without, I am sorry to say, having overtaken any of the Enemy's Troops or Guns. I beg leave to enclose a return of the Killed and Wounded.

No. 857.

FROM MAJOR-GENERAL W. S. WHISH, C. B., Commanding Mooltan Field Force,

TO THE ADJUTANT GENERAL OF THE ARMY.

Dated, Camp Mooltan, 28th December, 1848.

SIR,

In furtherance of the letter I had the gratification of forwarding to you yesterday, by Express, I beg to report, for the information of His Excellency the Right Hon'ble the Commander-in-Chief, that the Force employed performed the duty assigned to it in the best spirit and style.

LEFT COLUMN.

Brigadier the Hon'ble H. DUNDAS, C. B., Commanding.

5 Compys. 1st Bby. Fusiliers (Major Mignon.)
4th Regt. Bby. N. I. Rifles (Major Honner.)
No. 7, Lt. Fd. Battery (Capt. Turnbull.)
Squadn. Scinde Horse (Lieut. Merewether.)
1 Compy. Sappers (Lieut. Kendall.)

5 Compys. H. M.'s 60th Rifles (Major Dennis.)
3rd Regt. Bby. N. I. (Major Hallet.)
No. 5, Lt. Fd. Battery (Capt. Bailey.)
Squadn. 1st Bby. Lancers (Capt. Curtis.)
1 Compy. Sappers (Lieut. Walker.)
Capt. Abercrombie, Bengal Engineers, conducting the column.

RIGHT CENTRE COLUMN.

Lieutenant Colonel NASH, C. B., 72nd N. I., Comg.

3 Compys. H. M.'s 32nd (Major Case comg.)
6 Compys. 72nd N. I. (Capt. Lloyd comg.)
4 Guns, 4th T., 3rd Bde., H. A. (Capt. Anderson comg.)
3rd Compy. Pioneers (Lieut. Gordon comg.)

RIGHT COLUMN.

Lieutenant Colonel YOUNG, H. M.'s 10th Foot, Comg.

5 Compys. H. M.'s 10th Foot (Capt. Longden comg.)
52nd Regt. N. I. (Capt. Jamieson comg.)
4 Guns 4th T., 1st Bde., H. A. (Capt. Mackenzie comg.)
1 Squadn. 11th Irr. Cavy. (Capt. Dawson comg.)
Major Napier and Capt. Western, conducting Engineers.

The portion on the extreme left was under the immediate command of Brigadier the Honorable H. Dundas, C. B., who appointed Brigadier Capon to the charge of the 2nd column of the Bombay Division, next to which was a detail under Lieutenant Colonel Nash, C. B., 72nd Native Infantry; and on the extreme right (to reach its destination ¾ of an hour later) was a detachment under the command of Lieutenant Colonel Young, Her Majesty's 10th Foot.

The latter was under any circumstances to make a real attack upon the Enemy's position, as stated in my letter of yesterday, and in the margin I have specified separately the Troops employed under the gallant leaders above named, to whom, as well as to the Troops respectively under their immediate Command, who so steadily effected the duty assigned to them, I feel much indebted.

It was intended that a portion of the Irregular Force under Major Edwardes, C. B., and Lieutenant Lake should make a demonstration to the west of the Town and Grand Canal at noon. A little delay however ensued, but without detriment to the object in view, and I propose to-morrow availing myself of the Services of those Officers and their Troops, to relieve the details of the Bombay Division in charge of the Seedee-loll-ki-Beyd, which had been with their usual zeal tendered simultaneously with a requisition I had made in a private note to Major Edwardes.

The course pursued by the two centre columns came more particularly under my observation, but the gratifying result of all was the acquisition, with but little loss, of the very strong positions designated "Seedee-lall-ki-Beyd" "Mundee Owa." The Suburbs east of it, and to the north-east angle of the Citadel; the "Amkhass"; Sawun Mull's Tomb"; the "Brick Kilns" with strong entrenchments; the "Shums-to-breeze," or Blue Mosque; the (village or rather) Fort of Wuzeerabad, all of which the Enemy had evidently determined to defend manfully, but were deterred, when the time came, by previously witnessing the discomfiture of their friends from the triple and earlier attack on the left.

I hope to-morrow morning to have an 8-inch Mortar Battery of 6 pieces playing on the Citadel, (at 5 or 6 hundred yards distance) from the north of the "Shums-to-breeze."

No. 165.

FROM MAJOR HERBERT B. EDWARDES, C. B., Assistant Resident,

TO MAJOR-GENERAL WHISH, C. B., Commanding Mooltan Field Force.

Dated, Camp Soonij Koond, 28th December, 1848.

SIR,

I have the honor to report, for your information, that having received your orders to open fire from the "Sheesh Muhul," at 12 o'clock yesterday, and retire at half past one, Lieutenant Lake's force and my own left this Camp at 10 A. M., but I regret to say that from the delay of getting the Bullock Artillery over the nullahs, the length of the road, and the difficulty of preserving the formation of Irregular Troops, it was a quarter to one before we had occupied the line of suburbs in advance of the "Sheesh Muhul," and "Fyz Bagh." The diversion, however, was effectually made at half-past twelve, from which time the Guns of the Enemy played upon us. At one o'clock we opened our Guns upon the "Bohur Gate" and "Sherala." The Enemy in no great force came out, but were driven in immediately by the Guns. At half-past three we withdrew our Guns, at four the Infantry, and the Cavalry at half-past four.

2. About four o'clock, Lieutenant Lake, whose force reached nearly to the nullah, had got into communication with Brigadier Dundas at "Seedee-lall-ke-Beyd," and the Brigadier sent word that he should be glad if we could remain on his flank a little longer, to prevent the Enemy from turning it. We accordingly halted again for half an hour in the rear of "Sheesh Muhul," where I wrote a note to Brigadier Dundas, informing him that as my Camp was distant two hours' march, and my men had made no preparations for remaining out all night, it was necessary that I should retire. It was quite dusk when we reached Camp again.

3. As the operations of the British Troops have, from accidental circumstances, taken a turn more to the southward than was expected, and thus almost of themselves cover the Bhawulpore communication, and overlap my Camp, I have the honor to solicit your orders to take up my new position, either at the "Ruttee Bairagee," or to the west of the nullah, which in your opinion will enable the Irregular Force to render you more efficient assistance.

4. Both my own and Lieutenant Lake's men are most anxious to share more actively in your operations, and though I am fully aware of the difficulties, in the way of Irregulars co-operating with Regulars, I believe Brigadier Dundas himself would be glad if "Seedee-lall-ke-Beyd," and the posts near it, were made over to us, so as to enable him to advance against the City, without any fear of his left flank being turned.

I have, &c.,

FROM MAJOR HERBERT B. EDWARDES, C. B., Assistant Resident,

TO MAJOR-GENERAL WHISH, C. B., Commanding Mooltan Field Force.

Dated, Camp Beyghee Bagh, night, 29th December, 1848.

SIR,

I have the honor to inform you that agreeable to the instructions conveyed in your demi-official note and public letter No. 854, of yesterday's date, the forces of Lieut. Lake and myself relieved the Bombay division of the charge of 'Seedee-lall-ke-Beyd,' and all the posts on the left of it (including 'Beyghee Bagh,' the village of Daira, Jog Mayuh, &c. &c.) at 3 P. M. yesterday evening.

2. We remained undisturbed during the night, but were attacked about 1 P. M. to-day by 2,000 of the enemy almost all foot, and chiefly regulars, among whom the Kuthar Mookkee deserters were conspicuous.

3. They issued from the Delhi gate, filed behind the suburbs in front of the 'Seedee-lall-ke-Beyd,' and made their appearance suddenly on the left front pushing boldly on into the gardens, which were unoccupied, and opening a heavy musketry fire from behind the walls; a position, however, from which they were rapidly dislodged by our Rohillas and other Irregulars, aided by 2 Companies of General Cortlandt's Regiments, who expelled them and followed them up to the city walls.

4. Lieut. Lake at the head of his own men, Lieut. Pollock with mine, Lieut. Pearse of the Madras Artillery foremost with the Daoodpootras, and Lieut. Young of the Engineers, wherever the presence of a European Officer could be useful, were all actively and most gallantly engaged in this little affair, as was also Mr Quin with the Soorujmookkie Company; and a new volunteer Mr. McMahon, who earned his title to be brought specially to your notice, by encountering in single combat the leader of the enemy's infantry, a powerful Sikh, whom he killed with one blow, which divided his head.

5. The attack and repulse occupied an hour and a half.

(P. S. 30th December.)

6. At half-past 4 P. M. the enemy renewed their attack on the right, and opened a sharp fire on the Daoodpootras from a village, which, in the morning, had been occupied by the Bombay Troops, but evacuated during the day without our being aware of it. This might have led to the turning of our right flank, and the left of the Bombay Division, had not Lieutenant Lake brought up the whole of his reserve, and himself cleared the village with considerable difficulty and some loss. Lieutenant Lake then occupied the village and passed the night there; but I have the honor to represent, that every thing to the east of the 'Seedee-lall-ke-Beyd,' by the terms of your instructions, falls to the charge of Brigadier Dundas' Division, as every thing to the left, or west of 'Seedee-lall' falls to ours. I have communicated this to the Brigadier, who says he cannot hold the village in question, as he has only two reliefs in Camp, Lieutenant Lake and I have only one; half of our whole force being on duty for 24 hours, and relieved at noon each day, from a Camp distant 3 miles.

With the Right Hon'ble the Governor General.

Dated, Camp Chilianawala, 23rd January, 1849.

SIR,

I have the honor, by direction of His Excellency the Right Honorable the Commander-in-Chief, to transmit, for the information of the Right Honorable the Governor General of India, copy of a Despatch No. 876, of the 7th instant, from Major-General W. S. Whish, C. B., Commanding the Mooltan Field Force, and of the detailed reports which accompanied it, of the assault upon that city on the 2nd instant; and I am to add, that His Excellency has instructed me to communicate to the Major-General his cordial approval of the arrangements ordered for the attack, which appears to have been made with a spirit and gallantry highly creditable to the Officers and Troops of every arm employed.

I have, &c.,

No. 876.

FROM MAJOR-GENERAL W. S. WHISH, C. B., Commanding Mooltan Field Force,

TO THE ADJUTANT GENERAL OF THE ARMY.

Dated, Camp Mooltan, 7th January, 1849.

SIR,

Having now received the report of the proceedings of the Bombay Column during the assault of the city on the 2nd instant, I have the honor of forwarding that received from Brigadier Markham on the 3rd instant, and associating with it the letter of this date, received from Brigadier the Honorable H. Dundas, C. B., Commanding the Bombay Division of the Field Force, both of which I shall be obliged by your submitting to the Right Honorable the Commander-in-Chief. The steady advance of both columns under their respective Commanders, Brigadier Stalker, C. B., and Brigadier Markham, (which, as regarded that under the latter, was but temporarily checked from the necessity of entering the city by the left breach,) ensured the early realization of what each had been directed to aim at; and by sunset the city was in complete possession of our gallant troops, whose conduct throughout was remarkable for humanity to the unarmed inhabitants they occasionally met; and not less so for the severity with which the opposition of the enemy was overcome, from street to street,—many of which were narrow and intricate, and several barricaded.

In the letters accompanying, the gallantry and good services of various officers are particularized, and on the fall of the Citadel it will be my pleasing duty to take up that strain regarding many. It will, however, be better timed now to mention the spirited proposition on the 1st instant, of Lieutenant Colonel Franks, C. B., to escalade the Citadel during the assault of the City, provided I placed 500 of each Regiment of the 1st Brigade under his command. After due consideration of this suggestion, I deemed it most eligible to forego it, as I had not time to examine into the difficulties that might have attended it; nor would the hour fixed for the assault have been auspicious, unless I had deferred it till dawn of the 3rd.

Brigadier Stalker has brought to Brigadier Dundas' notice the conduct of Color Sergeant John Bennett, 1st Fusiliers, on the 2nd instant, and I cannot forbear my testimony to the joyful feelings which it excited in myself and Officers of the Staff around me, when noticing his planting the British standard on the Crest of the Breach, and maintaining it there in the midst of the musquetry fire of the Enemy, until the Troops had passed.

The Troops of the Bombay Column suffered much from an explosion, during the night, of a Magazine in the city.

From BRIGADIER F. MARKHAM, Commanding 2nd Brigade of Infantry, Mooltan Field Force,

To MAJOR-GENERAL W. S. WHISH, C. B., Commanding the Mooltan Field Force.

Dated, Camp Mooltan, 3rd January, 1849.

Sir,

I have the honor to report, for your information that, according to Division Orders, at 1 o'clock, on the 2nd I proceeded with the Brigade under my command to the Mundee Awa, the point of rendezvous with the left column; at 2 o'clock we received orders to move to the Delhie Gate from whence the assault was to be made. At a quarter past 3 o'clock a salvo being fired from the Delhie Gate Battery, (the signal agreed upon for the assault) the leading companies of Her Majesty's 32nd Regiment, under Captain Smith commanding the Grenadier Company, moved on to storm the Breach: upon passing the broken ground and mined outworks of the Gate under a heavy fire of matchlocks, they descended a deep hollow and found to their surprise the City wall in front, about 30 feet in height unbreached, and totally impracticable, being fairly concealed from view, from the nature of the ground, until directly upon it.

Captain Smith immediately, and with great judgment and promptitude, decided upon retiring and rejoining the Column with the loss of several men, which loss, however, would have been very seriously increased both to the leading Companies and the Column, had there been any hesitation on his part.

I proceeded at once to the Breach at the "Khoonee Boorj," which I found had already been entered by the left Column, and made our way down the Ramparts and streets on our right to the Delhie Gate, and from thence to that part of the city close to the Dowlut Gate, and directly in front of the Fort.

The Enemy offered considerable opposition in the narrow streets and on the Ramparts which were strongly barricaded; but the Troops carried all before them, and before dark that part of the city was in our possession, and we connected our posts with those thrown out from the left Column.

To Colonel Brooke, Major Lloyd and Captain Lloyd in command of Regiments, and to all under my command, both Officers and men, I have to return my thanks for their steadiness and prompt obedience throughout to my orders.

To Major Napier of the Engineers who accompanied me, I am deeply indebted for the very valuable services he rendered me throughout the afternoon.

FROM BREVET-MAJOR H. B. EDWARDES, C. B., Assistant Resident,

TO MAJOR-GENERAL W. S. WHISH, C. B., Commanding Mooltan Field Force.

Camp Beyghee Bagh, 3rd January, 1849.

SIR,

I have the honor to report that, in conformity with your instructions to create a diversion on the south and west of the city, preparatory to the storm of the Breaches by the regular force, Lieut. Lake threw out a large skirmishing party directly in his front, and close up to the Pak Gate. General Cortlandt, another on the left of the Daoodpootras, and I a third on the left of General Cortlandt's: thus opening a smart fire nearly down to the Bohar Gate, and securing the attention of a large portion of the enemy's soldiers on the walls. In front of the village of Daira, I also moved out a large body of Cavalry and a Troop of Horse Artillery, while the remainder and main body of the Infantry were in reserve at the "Beyghee Bagh" and "Seedee-lall-ke-Beyd."

2. At about half-past one P. M., the Daoodpootras, under direction of Lieut. Lake, and my own and General Cortlandt's, under direction of Lieut. Young of the Engineers, Mr. Hugo James, and Mr. Quin, opened their fire from the most advanced suburbs, and drew a smart return from the ramparts and the gun on the Mootee Bastion. This was kept up until the advance of the British to the Breach, and was, I trust, of service in distracting the enemy's attention.

3. When the city was completely in your possession, Lieut. Lake and I withdrew our men to their respective posts, but subsequently, on being applied to by Major Scott, of Bombay Engineers, Lieut. Lake occupied the Pak Gate with Daoodpootras, and a small party from the Company of 3rd Bombay Native Infantry which was on duty at "Seedee-lall." The vigilance of this detachment of Daoodpootras while in charge of the Gate, I was myself a witness to, at night, when I visited the post with Lieut. Lake, and it did great credit to Irregular Troops.

4. After withdrawing our skirmishers, I ordered the Cavalry from "Daira" to make a patrol to the westward, and they succeeded in intercepting a party of the Enemy's Infantry, who had escaped from the city, 20 of whom they killed, when the rest surrendered and were disarmed.

5. I cannot conclude this report without bringing to your notice the zeal of Lieut. Pollock, Assistant Resident, and Mr. MacMahon, Volunteer: the former joined his corps hearing it was in the storming party at the Delhi Gate Breach, and the latter volunteered to accompany Capt. Smyth who led the right assault.

FROM BRIGADIER THE HON'BLE H. DUNDAS, C. B., H. M.'s 60th Rifles, Commanding Bombay Column, Mooltan Field Force,

TO BREVET-CAPTAIN G. P. WHISH, Deputy Assistant Adjutant General, Bengal Column.

Camp Mooltan, 7th January, 1849.

SIR,

I have the honor to forward the report of Brigadier Stalker, C. B., commanding the 2nd Brigade Bombay Division, which was engaged in storming the city of Mooltan on the afternoon of the 2nd instant.

The Brigade formed in three columns, as directed in the instructions from the Assistant Adjutant General, assembled in rear of the "Mundee Awa" and about 3 P. M. moved down to storm the left trench at the angle of the "Khoonee Boorj."

The storming party, headed by Captain Leith, of the 1st Bombay Fusiliers, speedily mounted the Breach, but on arriving at the summit, found some difficulty in descending, the enemy having retrenched the Breach, and dug deep ditches into which several of the leading men and officers fell. The obstacles to the advance of the party having been overcome and the column having succeeded in passing the Breach, pushed on to the ramparts and streets of the town through a very narrow passage, and by the aid of some scaling ladders placed against a house by a party of the Bengal Sappers under Lieut. Oliphant. I regret to state that soon after mounting the Breach, Capt. Leith was severely wounded, and Lieut. Gray taking command of the party, moved to the right towards the Delhi Gate, to clear away obstacles between the Breach and that point at which it was intended the Bengal Column should enter.

Major Mignon with the 1st column, moved to the left, clearing the rampart, while the columns under Major Mant, and Major Honner, pushing for the centre of the town, established themselves in the grain market.

The narrowness of the streets rendering the preservation of regular formation impossible, the enemy was followed up by the troops in the best mode in which they could move, and without giving him time to halt, until the town was completely carried, and the several columns established, the left having succeeded in reaching the Lahore Gate.

Brigadier Stalker speaks most highly of the conduct of the troops, and nothing can be more honorable to their character than the humanity and kind treatment shewn by them towards the unoffending inhabitants.

I have great pleasure in bringing to the notice of the Major General the conduct of Major Mignon, commanding 1st Fusiliers: Major Mant, commanding 19th Regt., and Brevet Major Honner, commanding the 4th N. I. (Rifles.) Brigadier Stalker also reports most favorably of the conduct of Major Hobson, 1st Fusiliers, and of the assistance he received from Captain Tapp, Deputy Assistant Adjutant General, who was unfortunately wounded in capturing a gun. Captain Hart, Major of Brigade, Lieut. Pollexfen, Deputy Assistant Quarter Master General, and Lieut. Henry, of the 19th Regiment Native Infantry, Post Master to the Division. To the commanding Engineer, Major Scott, every praise is due for his untiring exertions during the operation, as well as to the several officers of that corps employed with the Bombay Division. The conduct of Captain Leith, Lieuts. Dansey, Daly, Gray and Mules, is particularly noticed by Brigadier Stalker. I am sorry to add, that Lieut. Gray was severely wounded after entering the town, and has lost his right arm. Lieuts. Dansey, Herne and Law, are also among the wounded, as also Lieut. Warden, of the 4th Rifles, and Ensign Gordon, of the 19th Regiment N. I.

Several acts of gallantry have been brought to my notice, particularly on the part of Color Sergeant Bennett, of the 1st Fusiliers, which I shall take an opportunity of reporting to the proper quarter.

The suburbs between the Delhi Gate and the left Breach were occupied by pickets, from the 1st Brigade under Major Dennis, 60th Rifles. A Company of the 60th Rifles, under Captain Douglass, being stationed in the houses opposite the Breach, in the "Khoonee Boorj," to cover the advance of the storming party, and two Companies under Captains Yonge and Sibthorpe, to cover the advance of the Bengal Column.

Returns of Casualties are herewith enclosed.

TO THE ASSISTANT ADJUTANT GENERAL, Bombay Column, Mooltan Field Force.

Camp before Mooltan, 7th January, 1849.

SIR,—I do myself the honor to report, for the information of Brigadier the Hon'ble H. Dundas, C. B., Commanding the Bombay Column Mooltan Field Force, that on the afternoon of the 2nd January, the Brigade under my command was formed in the order laid down for them (vide instructions A. and B.) under cover within about two hundred yards of the Breach, the approach to which was fully exposed to a fire from musketry Zumbooruks.

The Column gained the top of the Breach at about ½ past 3 P. M., with much regularity, under a very galling fire, but, when they reached the summit, found themselves in a sort of enclosure, from which there was only one regular exit by a narrow lane on the right and over a low house into the Khoonee Boorj, the enemy had excavated a trench parallel to the Breach, which contracted the space still more; the nature of the ground therefore rendered it utterly impossible to preserve any regular formation, and the Officers pushed on, with the men nearest them, to carry out as far as possible, the instructions to advance in three Columns. The Column was detained nearly twenty minutes by the obstacles at the top of the Breach. The leading Column of three companies of the Fusiliers, having lost their Commander Captain Leith, who was dangerously wounded soon after crossing the Breach, pushed down the lane to the right under Lieutenant Gray, and was, in part, the cause of the enemy abandoning the Khoonee Boorj. It fortunately happened that two short ladders were procured and placed by the Bengal Sappers under Lieutenant Oliphant, against the house on the left, just as the enemy found their communication with the town threatened; they were therefore obliged to defend both the lane and the tower, and their resistance was consequently less energetic. As soon as the ladders were placed, the Column which had to advance by the ramparts to the south, pushed its way along for some distance, but fortunately followed the retreating enemy along one of the streets, which eventually led them to the end of the town near the Lahore Gate. A company being left at this point, the Column returned along the streets nearest the ramparts to the Bohur Gate, where it remained during the night, as it was known that the Pak Gate was in possession of the Bengal 72nd, and a Company of the 4th Rifles was sent back to the Hurn Gate. During the night one of the enemy's powder magazines close to the Gateway blew up, burying several of our men in the ruins, it was impossible to guard against such an accident, indeed it is only surprising it was the only one on the south side, for the enemy's ammunition was lying about in great quantities, and there was nothing to distinguish their magazines from the other houses. In the morning Lieutenants Pollard and Maxwell with the Bengal Sappers, removed a considerable quantity of powder from another magazine close to a burning house, and threw it over the wall, where it exploded without doing any mischief.

The proceedings of the other column were similar; they all pushed quite through the town, left parties in advance posts, and retired to more open ground in the centre of the town.

When the left column, which was intended to go by the ramparts, and leave guards at the Gates, had struck into the town, an application was made to Colonel Dundas who sent two Companies, Her Majesty's 60th Rifles to hold the Gates.

The other columns had, however, exceeded their instructions, for a Company of the 72nd Bengal Native Infantry had crossed the town and obtained possession of the Pak, and the road to the Hurn Gates, before the 60th Rifles arrived.

The Pak Gate was cleared during the night by the Bengal Sappers, the Hurn Gate by the Bombay Sappers, and the Bohur Gate was nearly opened, when the explosion took place, which rendered it impossible to go on. It was opened next morning by the Bengal Sappers.

It is quite impossible to say where the Engineer Officers were; the Troops were so scattered by the narrow lanes that there were no distinct Columns. The only real guide was to follow the retreating enemy, which was done. Not only are the ramparts so incomplete as to render a passage round them by a Column of men quite impracticable, but the parts which are complete were at the time of the assault crossed by traverses, and cut up by small trenches.

The night closed before the communication between the different bodies could be effected, but by morning the troops were in communication with each other.

It is to be regretted that we had not a couple of hours' daylight, as we should then have probably avoided the explosion of the magazine, but the town was as completely cleared of the enemy by dark, as it is at the present moment.

The steady and well-directed fire of Her Majesty's 60th Rifles, kept down that of the enemy very considerably while the Troops were approaching the Breach, and a discharge of Grape thrown on the top of the Breach by Lieutenant Kier, Bombay Artillery, just over the heads of the Fusiliers, as they advanced, was of the utmost advantage to us; but when the top was gained, and our men became mingled with the enemy, the fate of the day depended on the steadiness and courage of the Fusiliers, and both men and Officers answered nobly to the call.

Where all behaved so well, and the operations were on such an extended scale, it would be impossible for me to particularise each act of gallantry. I would therefore beg to refer the Brigadier Commanding the Division, to the reports of Officers Commanding Regiments and posts, and merely mention such as came under my notice.

The gallantry of the following Officers was conspicuous. Captain Tapp, Deputy Assistant Adjutant General, attached to my Staff, who was wounded in capturing a Gun on our first entering the town, whereby I was early deprived of his valuable assistance.

Captain Leith, 1st Fusiliers, Commanding the storming party, who was very severely wounded, Lieutenants Daly and Mules, 1st Fusiliers, I would also bring to special notice; the conduct of Color Sergeant John Bennett, 1st Fusiliers, who volunteered to accompany the storming party, and rushing up the Breach planted the Union Jack on its Crest, standing beside it, until the whole Brigade had passed. The Color and Staff are riddled with balls.

I beg to mention the names of Major Mignon, Commanding 1st Fusiliers, Major Mant, Commanding 19th Regiment Native Infantry, Major Honner, Commanding 4th Rifles, and Major Hobson, 1st Fusiliers, all of whom exerted themselves to the utmost, and were most successful in their different arrangements.

To Major Scott, Commanding Engineer, I am particularly indebted for his able assistance and untiring zeal throughout the operations.

My best thanks are also due to the following Engineer Officers for the zeal and activity they displayed in the different duties on which they were employed.

Captain Abercrombie and Lieutenant Tayler, and other Officers of the Bengal Engineers, whose names I am unfortunately unable to give.

Lieutenants Kendall and Berthon, of the Bombay Sappers, and 2nd Lieutenants Playfair and Fuller, of the same corps.

To the following Officers temporarily attached to my staff my best thanks are due.—

Lieutenant Pollexfen, Deputy Assistant Quarter Master General,

Lieutenant Henry, Post Master to the Force.

I am much indebted to my Major of Brigade, Captain Hart, for the able and zealous assistance he afforded me in his arduous office throughout the operations.

I have the greatest pleasure in bearing testimony to the humanity and forbearance of the troops under my command; not a single instance of wanton cruelty or ill-treatment of the peaceable inhabitants of the town has been brought to my notice.

No. 901.

FROM MAJOR-GENERAL, W. S. WHISH, C. B., Commanding Mooltan Field Force,

TO THE ADJUTANT GENERAL OF THE ARMY.

Dated, Camp Mooltan, 21st January, 1849.

SIR,

In my letter of 19th instant (No. 898.) I mentioned having had another messenger from Dewan Moolraj, with a note, requesting permission to send a confidential Agent to me. In reply, I desired his unconditional surrender at 8 A. M. next day, and when I received the answer from Major Edwardes to sign and send, I took occasion to notice emphatically to the messenger, that I should confine to the guard any men that brought any documents or message from the Dewan, who were not authorized to the above effect. Nothing transpired regarding it yesterday, and I issued the orders for making the assault at both Breaches at daylight this morning. The counterscarp on the city side not having however been blown in, as was calculated upon, I postponed the attack till 6 A. M. to-morrow. However at 11 A. M. to-day, just as Major Edwardes had called to speak on matters connected with our march hence, the vakeel who had waited on me on the 9th instant, Dia Bux, came under a guard from our picquets, with a letter from the Dewan to each of us, the purport of which was, that he required assurance of his life, and that the females of his family should not be disgraced. I said in reply, that regarding the former, I had only authority to require the Dewan's unconditional submission to the justice of the British Government, and that no stipulation was necessary regarding the latter; for women and children, as a matter of course, would not be molested. Dia Bux, then said, his master would certainly come in, and suggested 9 A. M. to-morrow for the time of his doing so; but I could not agree to so late an hour. I told him the fire of all my Batteries would continue until five o'clock to-morrow morning, and that the Dewan must at latest present himself and garrison at the Dowlut Gate of the City at sunrise, where arrangements would be ready to facilitate their surrender, and to afford protection to their families.

I will, in conclusion, venture my opinion, that the Dewan is now sincere in his desire to submit. His followers are leaving him in large numbers, and our Cavalry took prisoners about 300, who stole from the Citadel last night; but if it prove otherwise, I shall have nothing to regret in having attended to a third reference from him for the sake of humanity, and for the welfare of my Troops; and the only difference it will make in my arrangements will be that the assault on the Citadel will commence an hour later and be equally attended, under Providence, with, I trust, complete success.

FROM THE ADJUTANT GENERAL OF THE ARMY,

TO THE SECRETARY TO THE GOVERNMENT OF INDIA, FOREIGN DEPARTMENT,

With the Right Hon'ble the Governor General.

SIR,

By direction of the Right Hon'ble the Commander-in-Chief, I have the honor to enclose, for the information of the Right Hon'ble the Governor General of India, copy of a Despatch, No. 902, of the 22nd instant, from Major General W. S. Whish, C. B., commanding the Mooltan Field Force, reporting the surrender on the morning of that day, of the Garrison and Citadel of Mooltan.

I am further to add, for communication to His Lordship, that on the receipt of this Despatch, His Excellency was pleased to issue to the Army of the Punjaub an order (copy of which is herewith transmitted) expressive of his sense of the great services, thus brought to a brilliant and successful termination by the Major General, and the admirable Troops under his command.

Head Quarters, Camp Chilianwalla, 28th January, 1849.

(No. 902.)

FROM MAJOR-GENERAL W. S. WHISH, C. B., Commanding Mooltan Field Force,

TO THE ADJUTANT GENERAL OF THE ARMY.

Dated, Camp Mooltan, 22nd Jany., 1849.

SIR,

I have the satisfaction of reporting to you, for the information of the Right Honorable the Commander-in-Chief, that in accordance with the expectation I expressed in my letter, No. 901, of yesterday, Dewan Moolraj came into my Camp this morning under charge of Major Becher, Assistant Quarter Master General.

The Garrison at the same time, between 3 and 4000, surrendering and laying down their arms to the Columns under Brigadiers Hervey and Capon, that had been in orders for the assault of the Citadel. This successful termination to our siege operations, after the laborious and gallant exertions of the Troops since the 27th ultimo, will, I have no doubt, be very gratifying to His Lordship, and to the Government, and I am grateful to Divine Providence for having permitted, in this way, the accomplishment of such an important result.

On the 1st instant with my letter, No. 860, I had the satisfaction of forwarding Brigadier the Honorable H. Dundas' report of the conduct of the Troops of his Division, engaged in the attack on the suburbs on the 27th ultimo, of the left Column of which he took personal command, particularizing many Officers in command of Corps or Departments, or on the Staff, whose services had been valuable; also on the 7th instant with my letter, No. 876, I transmitted similar reports of the proceedings of the two Columns under Brigadiers Stalker and Markham, that had taken the City by assault on the 2nd instant, and which will I trust meet with the favorable consideration of his Lordship; but not having hitherto availed myself of any occasion to notice in just terms of commendation, various Officers of the Bengal Division, who have been with me the last six months, I beg permission to do so now.

To Brigadier Cheape, C. B., Chief Engineer of the Army of the Punjaub, and Major Napier, Chief Engineer of the Bengal Division; to Captains Abercrombie, Western and Siddons; to Lieut. Garforth, Brigade Major of Engineers, dangerously wounded on the 2nd instant; to all the Officers of the Engineer Department, and of the Corps of Sappers and Pioneers, I am much indebted for their zealous, scientific and persevering exertions; as also to Major Scott, Chief Engineer of the Bombay Division, and the Officers under him.

The practice of the Artillery was the theme of admiration with all. My thanks are particularly due to Majors Garbett and Leeson, respectively, commanding the Artillery of the Bengal and Bombay Division, and to the Officers under them, Major Day and Brevet Major Blood, and Captains Turnbull, Daniel, Anderson, Master, and McKenzie; Lieut. Mill, Brigade Major of the Artillery, Bengal Division, since July has been particularly brought to my notice by Major Garbett, for his useful services, and as contributing essentially to the advance of our operations. I must particularly commend those of Captain Hicks, Bombay Artillery, and Lieutenant P. Christie, Bengal Artillery, Commissaries of Ordnance, who were unremitting in attention to their important duties.

The services of Brigadiers Hervey and Markham, commanding Infantry Brigades, and of Brigadier Salter, Commanding the Cavalry, as also of their Brigade Majors, Capts. Wiggins and Balfour, and Lieut. Warner, have been very valuable; and it will be in the recollection of His Lordship, that Brigadier Markham had the good fortune on the 7th November last, and on the 2nd instant, to command Columns of attack that were eminently successful. In my letter of the 7th instant, No. 876, I noticed the gallant proposition of Lieutenant Colonel Franks, C. B., commanding Her Majesty's 10th Regiment, for a party being given him to escalade the Citadel on the 2nd instant, and I am much indebted to that Officer on other accounts.

It is also proper for me to notice in terms of commendation, the other Officers commanding Corps in the Bengal Division, and under canvas the last six months, viz. Lieutenant Colonel Brooke, Her Majesty's 32nd Regiment; Major Farquharson, Commanding 8th Native Infantry; Major Lloyd, Commanding the 49th Regiment; Major Finnis, Commanding 51st Native Infantry; Capt. Jamieson, Commanding 52nd Native Infantry; Capt. Lloyd, Commanding 72nd Native Infantry; relieved on 30th November, by Lt. Col. Nash, C. B., who was severely wounded in the attack of the 27th ultimo; Captain Inglis, Commanding 11th Regiment Light Cavalry; Major Wheler, Commanding 7th Irregular Cavalry; Captain Masters, Commanding 11th Irregular Cavalry; and Lieut. Roberts, Commanding Squadron 14th Irregular Cavalry, who relieved from that charge, on the 30th November, Lieut. Plowden, 50th Regiment Native Infantry.

Lieut. Colonel Drummond, C. B., Deputy Quarter Master General, and Major Becher, Assistant Quarter Master General, have uniformly given me the most efficient aid, and with a willingness that much enhanced it; and the Assistant Adjutant General, Brevet Captain Whish, has performed his laborious duties with a promptness, intelligence and zeal, that much lessened mine.

Captain Lloyd, in charge of the Commissariat Department, assisted by Captains Cooper and Turner, Lieuts. Tombs, Robertson and Willis, has uniformly made such excellent arrangements, that the Troops have never been inconvenienced for want of supplies, and that Department has in every respect been conducted most satisfactorily.

Mr. Superintending Surgeon Dempster has uniformly and successfully applied his talents and assiduity to the promotion of the health and comfort of our sick and wounded, and been ably supported by the Medical Officers of every Corps and Department.

The Officers of my personal Staff, Captain Clark Kennedy, H. M.'s 18th Regiment, and Lieut. Need, H. M. 14th Light Dragoons, Aides-de-Camp, have been so unremitting in their exertions to promote the service, that I cannot convey a correct idea of the grateful feeling their conduct has impressed on me. They both merit my warmest commendation and thanks.

I have written this Despatch in much haste, and fear I have omitted the names of some to whom I feel much indebted, in which case I shall not fail to repair the omission.

It is very satisfactory to me to add in conclusion, that I have always experienced from Brigadier the Hon'ble H. Dundas, C. B., Commanding the Bombay division, and from the Brigadiers and Officers in command under him, the most willing assistance.

The services of Commander Powell, Indian Navy, with the Steamers under his orders, have been of much value to the objects of the Expedition, and a detail of seamen from the vessels have afforded material relief at the Batteries on several occasions.

I have had the greatest satisfaction in directing a royal salute to be fired from the Citadel at noon in honor of His Lordship's victory over the Sikhs on the 13th instant, and shall order another to be fired at sunset for the happy termination of Military operations in this quarter.

39 Guns and 4 Mortars taken.

Head Quarters, Camp Chilianawalla, 26th January, 1849.

The Officer Commanding the Artillery will be so good as to direct a Royal salute to be immediately fired, from the heavy guns, in honor of the capture of Mooltan by the British Force under command of Major General W. S. Whish, C. B., on the morning of 22nd instant.

The Right Hon'ble the Commander-in-Chief most heartily congratulates Major General Whish and the brave Officers and Troops under his command, on the very important success their intrepidity, valor and exemplary discipline have thus achieved.

No. 909.

To the ADJUTANT GENERAL of the ARMY, Head Quarters.

Camp Mooltan, 23rd January, 1849.

Sir,

Although I have in due course taken leave to bring to the notice of the Right Honorable the Commander-in-Chief, from time to time, the services rendered by the Allied Troops under Major Edwardes, C. B., Assistant Resident, as I am about to part with that Officer, whose willing and valuable aid I have frequently experienced since our first encamping before Mooltan; I will venture upon a brief recapitulation of what has been done by the forces under him, and Lieutenant Lake, Engineers, respectively, the latter Officer having had unassisted charge of the Contingent of the Nawab of Bhawulpore, until he was wounded on the 12th September last, when he was for a month relieved by Lieutenant Taylor, 11th Light Cavalry, Assistant Resident, who was prevented from continuing during the siege, by a chivalrous expedition he undertook to recover our captives from Peshawur.

General Van Cortlandt commanded the Regular Regiments and Artillery of the Durbar, and, as far as came under my observation, executed an arduous trust, under occasionally critical circumstances, with much judgment and zeal. Lieut. Lumsden, Assistant Resident, with a Detachment of the Guide Corps, performed useful service for the two months he was in the Allied Camp. Lieut. Pollock, (49th Native Infantry,) Assistant Resident, has more than once distinguished himself at the head of a detachment during the siege, and joined his Corps for the storm of the City on the 2nd instant. Lieutenant Young, Engineers, had charge of the Irregular Sappers and Miners, and under the orders of Major Scott, Chief Engineer, Bombay Division, was eminently useful on the line of attack on the city side. Dr. Cole has been, as usual, foremost in the cause of humanity, and after attending to his own sick, a very large Hospital of the wounded of the Enemy experience the benefit of his skill and care.

Before I conclude this brief notice of the Officers attached to the Allied Forces, that, exclusive of, on various occasions, having been successfully engaged with the Enemy, maintained our communication with the Sutlej and Chenab, and furnished Escorts for our supplies, &c., I beg to notice two gentlemen (at present non-Military) who have done good service,—Messrs. Hugo James, and McMahon, Volunteers.

The former having joined Major Edwardes in the hot season, and thence done duty with 3 Companies of Infantry that he raised and drilled, the latter having joined early last month, on the 29th ultimo, distinguished himself when the Enemy twice unsuccessfully attacked the Troops commanded by Major Edwardes and Lieutenant Lake, by cutting down the leader of the Sikh Infantry, in single combat: and by joining the storming column of Brigadier Markham, in the assault of the city on the 2nd instant.

As the Detachment of Bombay Troops under Major Hallett, consisting of 5 Troops of Scind Horse, (under Lieutenants Malcolm and Merewether,) Captain Turnbull's Light Field Battery and 3rd Regiment Native Infantry, joined me a fortnight before the main body, and performed during that time most useful service, I beg to acknowledge my obligations to Major Hallett for the same.

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 28, 1849.

Fort William, Home Department, Legislative, the 17th February, 1849.

The following Extract from the Proceedings of the Hon'ble the President of the Council of India in Council, in the Legislative branch of the Home Department, under date the 17th February 1849, is published for general information.

Read again the Draft of a proposed Act, dated the 25th November 1848, and published in the Calcutta Gazette of the 29th November 1848, for the appointment of an Administrator General of unrepresented Estates in Bengal, and for the regulation of that office.

Resolution.—The President in Council resolves, that the following amended Draft on the subject be published for general information.

ACT No. —— OF 1848.

An Act for the appointment of an Administrator General in Bengal.

Whereas it is expedient to disconnect the administration of the Estates of British Subjects dying intestate in the Presidency of Fort William in Bengal from the Office of Ecclesiastical Registrar of the Supreme Court and to appoint an Administrator General there, It is enacted as follows:

I. Whenever after the passing of this Act any British Subject shall die intestate within the Presidency of Fort William in Bengal, or the Territories which are or shall be subordinate to the said Presidency, and on the return of the citation issued from the proper Ecclesiastical Court, no next of Kin shall appear, and make out their claim to the Administration of the Effects of the deceased to the satisfaction of the said Court, and also, whenever the Executor or Executors, appointed by the Will of any British Subject dying therein, shall refuse to prove the Will, the Administrator General created by this Act shall, except in the case hereinafter excepted, apply for, and the said Court shall grant to him, instead of the Ecclesiastical Registrar, such Letters of Administration or Ad Colligenda Bona as to such Court shall seem meet; by virtue whereof the said Administrator General shall collect the assets of the deceased, and account for them as herein provided.

II. All Letters of Administration or Ad Colligenda Bona, granted to the Ecclesiastical Registrar of the Supreme Court; and all Probates, granted to such Officer, of Wills appointing the Ecclesiastical Registrar of the Supreme Court by that description, or him and his successors, Executors thereof; and all Estates, Effects and Interests, vested in the said Ecclesiastical Registrar by virtue thereof; and all books, papers and documents belonging to him or in his possession, or under his controul by virtue of such Letters or Probates, shall, by this Act, and without other grant, be transferred to the Administrator General by this Act created; who shall be to all intents and purposes such Administrator, Executor, or Grantee, in his new character of Administrator General, as the Ecclesiastical Registrar of the Supreme Court was; and shall have all the same powers as the said Ecclesiastical Registrar might exercise at the time of the passing of this Act, as such Administrator, Executor or Grantee.

III. The Ecclesiastical Registrar at the time of the passing of this Act shall be the first Administrator General, and upon the passing of this Act shall cease to be Ecclesiastical Registrar; and as such Administrator General shall be entitled to receive or retain all Commission to which he was entitled as Ecclesiastical Registrar at the time of the passing of this Act on any such grants as aforesaid.

IV. On all future vacancies of the Office, the Administrator General shall be appointed by the Governor General of India in Council; and shall be one, who either has been admitted and is at the time of such appointment an Advocate or an Attorney of the said Supreme Court, or at the time of such appointment is qualified to be so admitted.

V. After the passing of this Act, the Administrator General shall not be deemed in that capacity an Officer of the said Supreme Court, and shall not be otherwise accountable to it than any ordinary Executor, Administrator, or Grantee of Letters Ad Colligenda Bona, as the case may be.

VI. Every Administrator General shall give Security by bond to the East India Company, himself for one lack of Rupees, with two or more Sureties jointly and severally for another lack of Rupees, for the due execution of his said Office; and shall not be required by the said Supreme Court to enter into any Administration Bond, or to give other Security to that Court on the grant of any such Letters as aforesaid.

VII. The Administrator General shall receive for the discharge of his duties as such Administrator General under all such grants of Letters as aforesaid made after the passing of this Act or on Probates of Wills so granted after the passing of this Act, wherein he is named Executor by virtue of his Office, instead of the Commission heretofore received by the Ecclesiastical Registrar, a Commission calculated after the rate of Three Rupees in every Hundred Rupees which he shall actually distribute, or which he shall set apart and invest as herein provided, for the benefit of the parties ultimately entitled thereto, if the same are not immediately payable; and, out of the said Commission of Three Rupees in the Hundred, shall defray the expences of the necessary Establishment, and all other charges, to which the said Office may be subject.

VIII. No person, other than the Administrator General, shall be entitled to charge any Commission or Agency, as Executor of any Will, of which Probate shall have been granted in the said Presidency after the passing of this Act, or as Administrator of any Effects whereof Administration shall have been granted in the said Presidency after the passing of this Act: but this enactment is not to be deemed to hinder any Executor from having the benefit of any legacy bequeathed to him, either of a specific sum or residuary bequest, or by way of Commission, or in any other manner.

IX. The Assets belonging to the Estates administered by the said Administrator General shall be kept by him in the Treasury of the East India Company, or otherwise kept and invested by him, in such manner as the Governor General of India in Council shall from time to time order; which order shall be published in the Calcutta Gazette, and shall be full authority, protection and indemnity in all Courts whatsoever for such keeping and investing.

X. The said Administrator General shall enter into books to be kept by him for that purpose separate and distinct accounts of each Estate, and of all such sums of money, Bonds and other Securities for Money, Goods, Effects and things, as shall come to his hands or to the hands of any person employed by him, or in trust for him under this Act; and likewise of all payments made by him on account of the said Estates and of all debts due by or to the same, specifying the dates of such receipts and payments respectively; which said books shall be kept in the Administrator General's Office, and shall be open for the inspection of all such persons, practitioners in the said Courts and others, as may have occasion to inspect the same, at office hours; paying only such reasonable fee as may be from time to time fixed therefore by the Governor General of India in Council and published in the Calcutta Gazette.

XI. The Administrator General shall twice in every year, that is, on the First day of March and on the Tenth day of August, or on the First day on which the said Court shall be sitting after those days, exhibit and deliver in open Court a true Schedule, shewing the gross amount of all sums of Money received or paid by him on account of each Estate in his charge, and the balances, during the period of six months ending severally on the Thirty-first day of December and Thirtieth day of June next before the day of delivering such Schedule, and a true list of all Bonds or other Securities received on account of each of the said Estates during the same period; and also a true Schedule of all Administrations whereof the final balances shall have been paid over to the persons entitled to the same, during the same period; specifying the amount of such balances, and the persons to whom paid; which Schedules shall be filed for record in the said Court, and shall, within fourteen days afterwards, be published in the Calcutta Gazette by the said Administrator General; and copies thereof in triplicate shall be delivered to the Secretary of the said Presidency, and sent by the Governor of the said Presidency to the Court of Directors of the East India Company for publication in the London Gazette.

XII. The Governor General of India in Council shall from time to time appoint an Auditor or Auditors to examine the Accounts of the Administrator General at the time of the delivery of the said Schedules, and also at any other time when the Governor General in Council shall think fit.

XIII. The Auditor or Auditors shall examine the Schedules and accounts, and report to the said Governor General in Council whether they contain a full and true account of every thing which ought to be inserted therein, and whether the Books by this Act directed to be kept by the Administrator General are duly and regularly kept, and whether the Assets are duly kept and invested in such manner as is by Law prescribed.

XIV. Every Auditor shall have power to summon as well the Administrator General as any other person or persons whose presence he may think necessary, to attend him from time to time; and to examine the Administrator General or other party or parties if he shall think fit on Oath or Solemn Affirmation to be by him administered; and to call for all Books, Papers and Documents which may appear to him to be necessary for the purposes of the said reference: and if the Administrator General, or other person or persons when summoned shall refuse or without reasonable cause neglect to attend, or to produce any Books, Papers or Documents required, or shall attend and refuse to be sworn or make a Solemn Affirmation when by law an Affirmation may be substituted for an Oath, or shall refuse to be examined, the Auditor or Auditors shall certify such neglect or refusal in writing to the Supreme Court of Judicature at Fort William in Bengal; and every person so refusing or neglecting shall thereupon be punishable, in like manner as if such refusal or neglect had been in contempt of the said Supreme Court.

XV. The costs and expenses of preparing and publishing the said Schedules and copies thereof and of every such reference and examination shall be defrayed proportionably by all the Estates, the accounts of which are then under examination, which costs and proportions shall be ascertained and settled by the Auditor or Auditors, subject to the approval of the Governor General in Council; and shall be paid out of the said Estates accordingly by the Administrator General.

XVI. If upon any such reference and examination the Auditor or Auditors shall see reason to believe that the said Schedules do not contain a true and correct account of the matters therein, or which ought to be therein contained, he or they shall report accordingly to the Governor General of India in Council, specifying the substance of the objections thereto.

XVII. The Governor General in Council shall refer every such report as last aforesaid to the consideration of the Advocate General of the East India Company in Bengal, who shall thereupon if he shall think fit proceed summarily by petition for an account against the said Administrator General, or against the late Administrator General after his removal from Office, or against his personal representatives in case of his death, in respect of all or any of the Estates then or formerly under his care as the said Advocate General shall think fit; and shall have power to exhibit interrogatories to the said Administrator General, or other person or persons defendants, who shall be bound to answer the same as fully as if the same had been contained in a Bill filed for the like purpose; and the Court shall have power on any such petition filed to examine orally the parties before it and all witnesses, or to refer the accounts to be taken in the ordinary way.

XVIII. The costs of the reference and examination, and those of the Advocate General, when such are directed to be paid, shall be defrayed either by the defendant or defendants, in case he or they shall be decreed to pay the costs, or out of the Estates rateably as the said Court shall direct; and whenever the costs of any reference and examination shall be recovered from the defendant or defendants, the same shall be repaid to the Estates by which the same were in the first instance contributed, and the Court shall have power to order the Administrator General, or other person or persons defendants, to receive his or her costs out of the said Estates if it shall think fit.

XIX. The said Court shall have power on such petition to make such original and subsequent orders as upon a Bill filed; and such Orders shall have the same effect, and be executed in the same manner as Decretal Orders.

XX. Whenever any British subject shall die within the said Presidency intestate, and Letters of Administration to his or her Effects shall not be taken out for three months after the death, and the Administrator General shall be satisfied that such Effects do not exceed in the whole Five Hundred Rupees, he may, if he shall think fit, grant, to any person claiming to be entitled to a principal share of the Effects of the deceased, Certificates under his hand entitling the claimant to receive the sums or securities for money therein severally mentioned belonging to the Effects of the deceased, to the value of any sum not exceeding in the whole Five Hundred Rupees.

XXI. The Administrator General shall not be bound to grant any such Certificate unless he is satisfied of the title of the claimant, and of the value of the Effects of the deceased, either by the Oath or Affidavit of the claimant, or by such other evidence as he shall require.

XXII. Any such Certificate, with a receipt annexed under the hand of the person to whom the Certificate is granted, shall be a full receipt and discharge for payment or delivery to him or her of the money or security for money therein mentioned, with respect to the claim of any other person upon the person paying or delivering the same: but any next of kin or representative or creditor of the deceased shall have remedy for recovery thereof against the person receiving the same.

XXIII. The Administrator General shall not be bound to take out Letters of Administration to the Effects of any deceased person on account of whose Estate he shall grant any such Certificate, but may do so, if he shall discover any fraud or misrepresentation made to him, or that the value of the Estate exceeded Five Hundred Rupees.

XXIV. For every such Certificate the Administrator General shall be entitled to charge a fee calculated after the rate of Three Rupees in the Hundred on the amount mentioned in the Certificate.

XXV. Every person who, having been sworn or having taken a Solemn Affirmation under this Act, shall wilfully give false testimony upon any examination authorized by this Act, shall be deemed guilty of perjury; and if convicted thereof, shall be liable to fine and imprisonment, or to fine or imprisonment; which imprisonment may be at the discretion of the Court with or without hard labour, and may extend to two years.

Ordered, that the said Draft be re-considered at the first meeting of the Legislative Council of India, after the 2nd day of April 1849.

The Light House on Cape Otway, Bass's Straits, latitude 38 degrees 51 minutes South, longitude 143 degrees 29 minutes East, having been completed and lighted on the 29th August, 1848, a light is burning, and will continue from sunset until sunrise.

The reef off Cape Otway is one-half to three-quarters of a mile distant, bearing south-east to south-south-west, and extends 1¼ miles westward.

The Light House is erected on a cliff 251 feet 6 inches above highwater mark; the supporting column is 45 feet high, and the lantern 7 feet high.

From highwater mark to the centre of the light is 300 feet.

The light is a revolving catoptric of three groups of lamps, each group containing 7 lamps; the entire revolves round once in 2 minutes 39 seconds, shewing a flash of light of 3 seconds duration, and 50 seconds of darkness.

Fort William, the 17th February, 1849.

NOTIFICATION.—An examination will be held early in April 1849, in the College of Fort William, for the purpose of filling up existing Vacancies in the Military class of the Medical College. All candidates will be expected to possess a knowledge of the Hindustani Language, adequate to enable them to read and write it in the Persian or Devanagri character.

2nd. All Interpreters of Regiments and Battalions will be requested, through the Military Departments, not to grant certificates of qualification to any candidate under the age of fifteen and above that of twenty years; and likewise to reject all who may not pass the prescribed ordeal with a sufficient degree of fluency and facility. Much disappointment, expense, and inconvenience have already been experienced by lads from distant stations being furnished with certificates, who were found, on examination, quite unqualified for admission; and it is with a view to prevent the recurrence of this, that the above measure has been adopted.

3rd. Candidates for admission will be required to present themselves before the Secretary to the Medical College, at least three days prior to the day of examination, in order that a proper descriptive roll may be prepared for transmission to the Examiners of the College of Fort William.

4th. The preference in selection, attainments being equal, will be given to those who have already been attached to, or served in Civil or Regimental Hospitals.

5th. No candidate will be allowed to present himself for examination, who cannot produce a written testimonial of his conduct and character, or afford satisfactory evidence as to who and what he is. A few individuals of decidedly bad character have, upon recent occasions, managed to obtain admittance, it is supposed, by producing false papers; the strictest care and scrutiny will therefore be exercised in examining the credentials of all future candidates, who will, in addition, require to be furnished with regular muster rolls, in order that they may be identified.

6th. All pupils must, as a condition of their appointment, reside within the College premises at all times, and never be absent from morning and evening muster without special leave.

7th. All students in the Military class are amenable to the Articles of War, and regularly enlisted as Soldiers.

8th. No candidate will be admitted to the school, who is physically unfit for the duties of a Soldier.

(By order,)

FRED. JAS. MOUAT, M. D.,
Secretary.

Fort William, Home Department, Legislative, the 17th February, 1849.

The following Extract from the Proceedings of the Hon'ble the President of the Council of India in Council, in the Legislative branch of the Home Department, under date the 17th February 1849, is published for general information.

Read again the Draft of a proposed Act, dated the 25th November 1848, and published in the Calcutta Gazette of the 29th November 1848, for the appointment of an Administrator General of unrepresented Estates in Bengal, and for the regulation of that office.

Resolution.—The President in Council resolves, that the following amended Draft on the subject be published for general information.

ACT NO. —— OF 1848.

An Act for the appointment of an Administrator General in Bengal.

Whereas it is expedient to disconnect the administration of the Estates of British Subjects dying intestate in the Presidency of Fort William in Bengal from the Office of Ecclesiastical Registrar of the Supreme Court and to appoint an Administrator General there, It is enacted as follows:

I. Whenever after the passing of this Act any British Subject shall die intestate within the Presidency of Fort William in Bengal, or the Territories which are or shall be subordinate to the said Presidency, and on the return of the citation issued from the proper Ecclesiastical Court, no next of Kin shall appear, and make out their claim to the Administration of the Effects of the deceased to the satisfaction of the said Court, and also, whenever the Executor or Executors, appointed by the Will of any British Subject dying therein, shall refuse to prove the Will, the Administrator General created by this Act shall, except in the case hereinafter excepted, apply for, and the said Court shall grant to him, instead of the Ecclesiastical Registrar, such Letters of Administration or Ad Colligenda Bona as to such Court shall seem meet; by virtue whereof the said Administrator General shall collect the assets of the deceased, and account for them as herein provided.

II. All Letters of Administration or Ad Colligenda Bona, granted to the Ecclesiastical Registrar of the Supreme Court; and all Probates, granted to such Officer, of Wills appointing the Ecclesiastical Registrar of the Supreme Court by that description, or him and his successors, Executors thereof; and all Estates, Effects and Interests, vested in the said Ecclesiastical Registrar by virtue thereof; and all books, papers and documents belonging to him or in his possession, or under his controul by virtue of such Letters or Probates, shall, by this Act, and without other grant, be transferred to the Administrator General by this Act created; who shall be to all intents and purposes such Administrator, Executor, or Grantee, in his new character of Administrator General, as the Ecclesiastical Registrar of the Supreme Court was; and shall have all the same powers as the said Ecclesiastical Registrar might exercise at the time of the passing of this Act, as such Administrator, Executor or Grantee.

III. The Ecclesiastical Registrar at the time of the passing of this Act shall be the first Administrator General, and upon the passing of this Act shall cease to be Ecclesiastical Registrar; and as such Administrator General shall be entitled to receive or retain all Commission to which he was entitled as Ecclesiastical Registrar at the time of the passing of this Act on any such grants as aforesaid.

IV. On all future vacancies of the Office, the Administrator General shall be appointed by the Governor General of India in Council; and shall be one, who either has been admitted and is at the time of such appointment an Advocate or an Attorney of the said Supreme Court, or at the time of such appointment is qualified to be so admitted.

V. After the passing of this Act, the Administrator General shall not be deemed in that capacity an Officer of the said Supreme Court, and shall not be otherwise accountable to it than any ordinary Executor, Administrator, or Grantee of Letters Ad Colligenda Bona, as the case may be,

VI. Every Administrator General shall give Security by bond to the East India Company, himself for one lack of Rupees, with two or more Sureties jointly and severally for another lack of Rupees, for the due execution of his said Office; and shall not be required by the said Supreme Court to enter into any Administration Bond, or to give other Security to that Court on the grant of any such Letters as aforesaid.

VII. The Administrator General shall receive for the discharge of his duties as such Administrator General under all such grants of Letters as aforesaid made after the passing of this Act or on Probates of Wills so granted after the passing of this Act, wherein he is named Executor by virtue of his Office, instead of the Commission heretofore received by the Ecclesiastical Registrar, a Commission calculated after the rate of Three Rupees in every Hundred Rupees which he shall actually distribute, or which he shall set apart and invest as herein provided, for the benefit of the parties ultimately entitled thereto, if the same are not immediately payable; and, out of the said Commission of Three Rupees in the Hundred, shall defray the expences of the necessary Establishment, and all other charges, to which the said Office may be subject.

VIII. No person, other than the Administrator General, shall be entitled to charge any Commission or Agency, as Executor of any Will, of which Probate shall have been granted in the said Presidency after the passing of this Act, or as Administrator of any Effects whereof Administration shall have been granted in the said Presidency after the passing of this Act: but this enactment is not to be deemed to hinder any Executor from having the benefit of any legacy bequeathed to him, either of a specific sum or residuary bequest, or by way of Commission, or in any other manner.

IX. The Assets belonging to the Estates administered by the said Administrator General shall be kept by him in the Treasury of the East India Company, or otherwise kept and invested by him, in such manner as the Governor General of India in Council shall from time to time order; which order shall be published in the Calcutta Gazette, and shall be full authority, protection and indemnity in all Courts whatsoever for such keeping and investing.

X. The said Administrator General shall enter into books to be kept by him for that purpose separate and distinct accounts of each Estate, and of all such sums of money, Bonds and other Securities for Money, Goods, Effects and things, as shall come to his hands or to the hands of any person employed by him, or in trust for him under this Act; and likewise of all payments made by him on account of the said Estates and of all debts due by or to the same, specifying the dates of such receipts and payments respectively; which said books shall be kept in the Administrator General's Office, and shall be open for the inspection of all such persons, practitioners in the said Courts and others, as may have occasion to inspect the same, at office hours; paying only such reasonable fee as may be from time to time fixed therefore by the Governor General of India in Council and published in the Calcutta Gazette.

XI. The Administrator General shall twice in every year, that is, on the First day of March and on the Tenth day of August, or on the First day on which the said Court shall be sitting after those days, exhibit and deliver in open Court a true Schedule, shewing the gross amount of all sums of Money received or paid by him on account of each Estate in his charge, and the balances, during the period of six months ending severally on the Thirty-first day of December and Thirtieth day of June next before the day of delivering such Schedule, and a true list of all Bonds or other Securities received on account of each of the said Estates during the same period; and also a true Schedule of all Administrations whereof the final balances shall have been paid over to the persons entitled to the same, during the same period; specifying the amount of such balances, and the persons to whom paid; which Schedules shall be filed for record in the said Court, and shall, within fourteen days afterwards, be published in the Calcutta Gazette by the said Administrator General; and copies thereof in triplicate shall be delivered to the Secretary of the said Presidency, and sent by the Governor of the said Presidency to the Court of Directors of the East India Company for publication in the London Gazette.

XII. The Governor General of India in Council shall from time to time appoint an Auditor or Auditors to examine the Accounts of the Administrator General at the time of the delivery of the said Schedules, and also at any other time when the Governor General in Council shall think fit.

XIII. The Auditor or Auditors shall examine the Schedules and accounts, and report to the said Governor General in Council whether they contain a full and true account of every thing which ought to be inserted therein, and whether the Books by this Act directed to be kept by the Administrator General are duly and regularly kept, and whether the Assets are duly kept and invested in such manner as is by Law prescribed.

XIV. Every Auditor shall have power to summon as well the Administrator General as any other person or persons whose presence he may think necessary, to attend him from time to time; and to examine the Administrator General or other party or parties if he shall think fit on Oath or Solemn Affirmation to be by him administered; and to call for all Books, Papers and Documents which may appear to him to be necessary for the purposes of the said reference: and if the Administrator General, or other person or persons when summoned shall refuse or without reasonable cause neglect to attend, or to produce any Books, Papers or Documents required, or shall attend and refuse to be sworn or make a Solemn Affirmation when by law an Affirmation may be substituted for an Oath, or shall refuse to be examined, the Auditor or Auditors shall certify such neglect or refusal in writing to the Supreme Court of Judicature at Fort William in Bengal; and every person so refusing or neglecting shall thereupon be punishable, in like manner as if such refusal or neglect had been in contempt of the said Supreme Court.

XV. The costs and expenses of preparing and publishing the said Schedules and copies thereof and of every such reference and examination shall be defrayed proportionably by all the Estates, the accounts of which are then under examination, which costs and proportions shall be ascertained and settled by the Auditor or Auditors, subject to the approval of the Governor General in Council; and shall be paid out of the said Estates accordingly by the Administrator General.

XVI. If upon any such reference and examination the Auditor or Auditors shall see reason to believe that the said Schedules do not contain a true and correct account of the matters therein, or which ought to be therein contained, he or they shall report accordingly to the Governor General of India in Council, specifying the substance of the objections thereto.

XVII. The Governor General in Council shall refer every such report as last aforesaid to the consideration of the Advocate General of the East India Company in Bengal, who shall thereupon if he shall think fit proceed summarily by petition for an account against the said Administrator General, or against the late Administrator General after his removal from Office, or against his personal representatives in case of his death, in respect of all or any of the Estates then or formerly under his care as the said Advocate General shall think fit; and shall have power to exhibit interrogatories to the said Administrator General, or other person or persons defendants, who shall be bound to answer the same as fully as if the same had been contained in a Bill filed for the like purpose; and the Court shall have power on any such petition filed to examine orally the parties before it and all witnesses, or to refer the accounts to be taken in the ordinary way.

XVIII. The costs of the reference and examination, and those of the Advocate General, when such are directed to be paid, shall be defrayed either by the defendant or defendants, in case he or they shall be decreed to pay the costs, or out of the Estates rateably as the said Court shall direct; and whenever the costs of any reference and examination shall be recovered from the defendant or defendants, the same shall be repaid to the Estates by which the same were in the first instance contributed, and the Court shall have power to order the Administrator General, or other person or persons defendants, to receive his or her costs out of the said Estates if it shall think fit.

XIX. The said Court shall have power on such petition to make such original and subsequent orders as upon a Bill filed; and such Orders shall have the same effect, and be executed in the same manner as Decretal Orders.

XX. Whenever any British subject shall die within the said Presidency intestate, and Letters of Administration to his or her Effects shall not be taken out for three months after the death, and the Administrator General shall be satisfied that such Effects do not exceed in the whole Five Hundred Rupees, he may, if he shall think fit, grant, to any person claiming to be entitled to a principal share of the Effects of the deceased, Certificates under his hand entitling the claimant to receive the sums or securities for money therein severally mentioned belonging to the Effects of the deceased, to the value of any sum not exceeding in the whole Five Hundred Rupees.

XXI. The Administrator General shall not be bound to grant any such Certificate unless he is satisfied of the title of the claimant, and of the value of the Effects of the deceased, either by the Oath or Affidavit of the claimant, or by such other evidence as he shall require.

XXII. Any such Certificate, with a receipt annexed under the hand of the person to whom the Certificate is granted, shall be a full receipt and discharge for payment or delivery to him or her of the money or security for money therein mentioned, with respect to the claim of any other person upon the person paying or delivering the same: but any next of kin or representative or creditor of the deceased shall have remedy for recovery thereof against the person receiving the same.

XXIII. The Administrator General shall not be bound to take out Letters of Administration to the Effects of any deceased person on account of whose Estate he shall grant any such Certificate, but may do so, if he shall discover any fraud or misrepresentation made to him, or that the value of the Estate exceeded Five Hundred Rupees.

XXIV. For every such Certificate the Administrator General shall be entitled to charge a fee calculated after the rate of Three Rupees in the Hundred on the amount mentioned in the Certificate.

XXV. Every person who, having been sworn or having taken a Solemn Affirmation under this Act, shall wilfully give false testimony upon any examination authorized by this Act, shall be deemed guilty of perjury; and if convicted thereof, shall be liable to fine and imprisonment, or to fine or imprisonment; which imprisonment may be at the discretion of the Court with or without hard labour, and may extend to two years.

Ordered, that the said Draft be re-considered at the first meeting of the Legislative Council of India, after the 2nd day of April 1849.

FROM HIS EXCELLENCY THE COMMANDER-IN-CHIEF IN INDIA,

TO THE RIGHT HONORABLE THE GOVERNOR GENERAL OF INDIA,

Camp, in front of Goojerat, 21st February, 1849.

MY LORD,

I have the honor to report to your Lordship that I have this day obtained a victory of no common order either in its character, or I trust, in its effects.

I was joined yesterday by Brigadier Markham's Brigade, Brigadier General Dundas having joined late the preceding night. I moved on in the afternoon of yesterday, as soon as these Troops were refreshed, from Trikur to the Village of Sheediwal, and at seven this morning I moved to the attack, which commenced at half-past eight o'Clock, and by one o'Clock I was in possession of the whole Sikh position with all his Camp Equipage, Baggage, Magazines, and I hope a large proportion of his Guns; the exact number I cannot at present state, from the great extent of his position and length of pursuit, as I followed up the Enemy from four to five miles on the Bimbur road, and pushed on Sir Joseph Thackwell with the Cavalry. The rout has been most complete; the whole road for 12 miles is strewed with Guns, Ammunition Waggons, Arms and Baggage.

My loss was comparatively small (I hope within 300 killed and wounded) when it is considered I had to attack 60,000 Sikhs, in a very strong position, armed with upwards of sixty Guns. The loss of the Enemy must have been very severe.

The conduct of the whole Army, in every Arm, was conspicuous for steadiness in movement, and gallantry in action. The details I shall furnish hereafter.

I have, &c.

I have the honor to report to your Lordship that I have this day obtained a victory of no common order either in its character, or I trust, in its effects.

I was joined yesterday by Brigadier Markham's Brigade, Brigadier General Dundas having joined late the preceding night. I moved on in the afternoon of yesterday, as soon as these Troops were refreshed, from Trikur to the Village of Sheediwal, and at seven this morning I moved to the attack, which commenced at half-past eight o'Clock, and by one o'Clock I was in possession of the whole Sikh position with all his Camp Equipage, Baggage, Magazines, and I hope a large proportion of his Guns; the exact number I cannot at present state, from the great extent of his position and length of pursuit, as I followed up the Enemy from four to five miles on the Bimbur road, and pushed on Sir Joseph Thackwell with the Cavalry. The rout has been most complete; the whole road for 12 miles is strewed with Guns, Ammunition Waggons, Arms and Baggage.

My loss was comparatively small (I hope within 300 killed and wounded) when it is considered I had to attack 60,000 Sikhs, in a very strong position, armed with upwards of sixty Guns. The loss of the Enemy must have been very severe.

The conduct of the whole Army, in every Arm, was conspicuous for steadiness in movement, and gallantry in action. The details I shall furnish hereafter.

I. Whenever by any Regulation or Act now or hereafter to be in force, not containing any direction to the contrary, a certain duty of Customs or Excise, or in the nature thereof, is leviable on any given quantity, by weight, measure or value, of any goods or merchandise, a like duty is leviable according to the same rate on any greater or less quantity.

Provided, that the Board of Customs, Salt and Opium may direct, by General Order, what class of Abkaree Officers shall receive rewards, and what classes shall have no title to share therein.

XXXI. All fines levied under this Act, the disposal of which is not specially provided for, shall belong to Government; but the Board of Customs, Salt and Opium may grant any portion thereof, not exceeding one-half, as rewards to Informers, or as compensation to parties injured by any proceedings under this Act.

XXXII. No Writ of Certiorari shall be issued at the suit of any party out of the Supreme Court of Judicature, to supersede, stay, remove or in anywise affect any information or judicial proceeding before any Justice of the Peace, in pursuance of this Act; and no judgment thereupon shall be quashed, except for error of law apparent on the face of the judgment.

XXXIII. When any penalty or confiscation shall be adjudged by a Justice of the Peace under this Act, the Commissioner of Abkaree, and, in his absence, the Board of Customs, Salt and Opium, within ten days after judgment given, may call for the proceedings of the case (with which requisition the Justice of the Peace shall be bound to comply) and, if he or they shall see cause, may direct that the seizure, or any part thereof, be restored, and may remit or mitigate any penalty, and discharge the party.

Fort William, Home Department, Legislative, the 24th February, 1849.

The following Draft of a proposed Act was read in Council for the first time on the 24th of February, 1849:

ACT No. —— OF 1849.

To prevent the Smuggling of Salt into Calcutta.

For the prevention of smuggled salt in Calcutta, It is enacted as follows:

I. The Governor of Bengal may establish as many Chokies as he shall deem necessary for preventing the smuggling of alimentary salt into the Town of Calcutta, and upon that part of the River Hooghly, which lies within the local jurisdiction of the Supreme Court, and such Chokies shall be under the charge of an Officer to be styled "The Superintendent of Salt Chokies," who, in the exercise of his functions, shall be subject to the control of the Board of Customs, Salt and Opium.

II. The Superintendent may appoint Darogahs, Mohurrers, Jemadars, Burkundauzes, and other Officers to assist him in the discharge of his duties; and the Officers so appointed, beside their ordinary respective designations, shall be styled "Officers of Salt Chokies."

III. Excepting salt imported by sea, and stored under bond, as provided by Act No. XXV. of 1836, it shall not be lawful to import alimentary salt into the Town of Calcutta, or to carry such salt within the said Town or upon the River Hooghly as aforesaid, in excess of the quantity of ten seers of eighty Tolahs to the seer; or to store such salt within the said Town in quantities exceeding one maund, except under a Rowannah or Special Pass from the Board of Customs, Salt and Opium, or a Charchittee or Pass from the said Superintendent, to be granted under such rules, and on the payment of such fees, as the said Board shall direct.

IV. All alimentary salt, found within the said Town, or upon the River Hooghly as aforesaid, in contravention of this Act, shall be deemed contraband and liable to seizure and confiscation; and if several persons shall be found carrying salt, unprotected by a Rowannah, or Charchittee, as aforesaid, in gangs or companies, which salt shall exceed in the whole quantity ten seers, such salt shall be deemed contraband; but no salt, found in store in any house or warehouse, shall be deemed to be contraband, unless, when the search is made, there shall be found more thereof than one maund, and the owner or person in charge shall be unable to account, satisfactorily, for the manner of its being found in his possession.

V. VI. Whenever any salt shall be seized, as contraband, under Section IV., the vessels, packages and coverings in which such salt shall be found, and the animals and conveyances used in carrying it, shall also be liable to seizure and confiscation.

VII. All persons in whose possession contraband salt shall be found shall be liable to a fine, calculated at a rate, not exceeding five Rupees for each maund, upon the quantity so found; and each one of a party of smugglers, or of the parties to the fraud on the Revenue, shall be liable to the whole fine.

VIII. The Superintendent of Salt Chokies, and any of his Subordinate Officers, and any Officer of any other Department, whom the Governor of Bengal shall authorize in that behalf, may stop and detain any person removing or carrying any salt, without a Rowannah or Charchittee, or otherwise liable to confiscation under this Act; and may seize the salt, with the vessels, packages and coverings, in which the salt is found, and the animals and conveyances used in carrying it.

Provided that, where there is ground to suspect that such contraband salt as aforesaid is concealed in any zenana, the Superintendent or Officer authorized as aforesaid, shall follow, as closely as may be the rules for the seizure of property so concealed, adopted by the Supreme Court of Judicature at Fort William.

X. All Constables, and other Ministerial Officers of the Peace, are required to help the Superintendent and his Subordinate Officers and other Officers authorized to make a seizure of salt, in the due execution of this Act, upon notice given or request made by the Superintendent or any such Officer.

XI. Whenever a seizure of salt in store, in any place, shall be made by the Superintendent, the facts of the seizure shall be recorded in an Official proceeding to be placed on record in his Office; and if the seizure shall be made by a Subordinate Officer, such Officer shall report the circumstances, within twenty-four hours, to the Superintendent.

XII. Every person, who shall maliciously give false information against any person for importing or transporting or in respect of there being in any house or shop any salt, in contravention of this Act, shall be liable to a fine, not exceeding five hundred Rupees.

XIII. Every person, who shall obstruct or molest the Superintendent, or any Officer of Salt Chokies, or any Officer of another Department duly authorized to make a seizure of salt, or any person acting in aid of the Superintendent or any Officer as aforesaid, in the due execution of this Act, shall be liable to a fine, not exceeding five hundred Rupees: and such person shall be further liable, if an affray or breach of the peace shall happen in consequence of his resistance, on conviction of the same before a competent tribunal, to such punishment as is prescribed by law for cases of affray and breach of the peace, in addition to the penalty above prescribed for resistance of process.

XIV. Any Officer of Salt Chokies, or any Officer of another Department, duly empowered to make a seizure of salt, who shall delay carrying any person arrested, or any illicit articles seized, under this Act, to the Superintendent, or who shall neglect to report the particulars of an arrest, seizure or search, within twenty-four hours thereafter shall be liable to a fine, not exceeding two hundred Rupees.

XV. XVII. Any Officer employed in the Department of Salt Chokies, or any Officer of another Department as aforesaid, who shall ask or take any gratuity, not authorised by any law or order of Government, or of the Board of Customs, Salt and Opium, in consideration of doing or of omitting to do any act in his Official capacity, and any person who shall offer a bribe to any such Officer, in order to induce such Officer to act in a manner inconsistent with his duty, shall be liable, for every such offence, to a fine, not exceeding five hundred Rupees.

XVIII. Whenever the Superintendent shall arrest any person, or shall seize any contraband salt, he shall, with all convenient despatch, carry the person arrested, with the salt, and any other chattels liable to confiscation, seized therewith, before any Justice of the Peace for the Town of Calcutta, nominated by the Governor of Bengal to adjudicate cases under this Act; and if the arrest or seizure shall be made by any of his Subordinate Officers or other Officer duly empowered, such Officer shall immediately carry the person arrested, and the articles seized, to the Superintendent, who shall thereupon proceed as if the arrest or seizure had been made by himself. Provided that nothing in this Section shall be construed to prevent the Superintendent releasing any persons arrested, or property seized, when he considers such persons or property to have been improperly arrested or seized.

XIX. Whenever any salt or other chattel shall be seized by the Superintendent, or other duly authorized Officer, as liable to confiscation under this Act, such seizure shall, upon information exhibited by the Superintendent, be heard and determined in a summary way by such Justice of the Peace as aforesaid; and such Justice shall cause the persons, to whom such salt or other chattels belong, to be summoned to appear before him, and, upon their appearance or default, shall examine into the cause of the seizure thereof, and give judgment; and upon confiscation thereof shall issue his Warrant to the Superintendent for the disposal thereof, according to the orders of the Board of Customs, Salt, and Opium.

XX. Whenever any salt or other chattel shall be seized as aforesaid, and no person shall appear before the Superintendent, within one calendar month, to claim the same, the Justice shall examine into the cause of the seizure, at a place and time of which notice shall have been given by the Superintendent in the Calcutta Gazette, and give judgment for the confiscation of such salt and other chattels, as, upon such examination, shall appear to him confiscable; and, upon confiscation thereof shall issue his warrant for the disposal of them, as if the owner had been summoned to attend the said Justice.

XXI. All fines, leviable under this Act, shall be adjudged by any Justice of the Peace nominated as aforesaid, and the said Justice, upon information exhibited before him by the Superintendent, shall within three calendar months after the act for which the fine may be demandable, summon the parties accused, and, upon their appearance or default shall examine into the matter, and upon due proof made thereof, by the voluntary confession of the parties, or by the oath or solemn affirmation, in cases wherein a solemn affirmation is receivable by law instead of an oath, of one or more credible witnesses, shall give judgment accordingly; and, in default of payment of any fine to which an offender is adjudged, he shall be liable, by order of the said Justice, to imprisonment in the Common Jail, for a period not exceeding six months, or until the fine is sooner paid.

XXII. Whenever any person shall be convicted before any Justice as aforesaid, of an offence against this Act, after having been previously convicted of a like offence, he shall be liable, in addition to the penalty attached to such offence, to imprisonment in the Common Jail, for a period not exceeding six months; and a like punishment of imprisonment, not exceeding six months, shall be incurred, in addition to the punishment which may be inflicted for a first offence, upon every subsequent conviction after the second.

XXIII. One-half of all fines levied from persons convicted of the illicit importation, transportation or storing of salt, and of the proceeds from sale of articles confiscated, shall, upon adjudication of the case, be awarded to the Officer or Officers subordinate to the Superintendent, or other duly authorized Officer of another Department, who apprehended the offender or seized the illicit articles; and the other half of all such fines and proceeds shall be given to the Informer; and if no fine is realized, the Board of Customs, Salt and Opium may grant such reasonable reward, not exceeding the sum of two hundred Rupees, as may appear to them fit; and such Officers and Informers shall further be entitled to the rewards specified in Section IV. Act No. IX. of 1835. Provided that the Board of Customs, Salt and Opium may direct, by General Order, what classes of Officers of Salt Chokies shall receive rewards, and what classes shall have no title to participate in them.

XXIV. All fines, levied under this Act, the disposal of which is not specially provided for, shall belong to Government; but the Board of Customs, Salt and Opium may grant any portion thereof, not exceeding one-half, as rewards to Informers, or as compensation to parties injured by any proceedings under this Act.

XXV. No Writ of Certiorari shall be issued at the suit of any party, out of the Supreme Court of Judicature, to supersede, stay, remove or in anywise affect any information or judicial proceeding before any Justice of the Peace in pursuance of this Act; and no judgment thereupon shall be quashed, except for error of law apparent on the face of the judgment.

XXVI. When any penalty or confiscation shall be adjudged by a Justice of the Peace under this Act, the Board of Customs, Salt and Opium, within ten days after judgment given, may call for the proceedings of the case, (with which requisition the Justice of the Peace shall be bound to comply) and, if they shall see cause, may direct that the seizure or any part thereof be restored, and remit or mitigate the penalty and discharge the party.

XXVII. All actions and prosecutions to be commenced against the Superintendent or any Officer of Salt Chokies, or any Officer of another Department duly empowered to seize contraband salt, or any person acting in aid of the Superintendent or other Officer as aforesaid, for any thing done in pursuance of this Act, shall be commenced within three calendar months after the fact committed, and not afterwards; and notice in writing of such action, and of the cause thereof, shall be given to the Defendant, one calendar month at least, before the commencement of the action; and no Plaintiff shall recover, in any such action, if tender of sufficient amends shall have been made before such action brought, or if after action brought, a sufficient sum of money shall have been paid into Court, with costs, by or on behalf of the Defendant.

CIVIL SERVICE ANNUITY FUND.

At a General Meeting of Subscribers to the Civil Service Annuity Fund, held on Thursday, the 1st March, 1849.

PRESENT.

Messrs. E. M. Gordon, George Udny, J. I. Harvey, E. Currie, F. J. Halliday, G. Adams, B. J. Colvin, H. C. Hamilton, A. C. Bidwell, W. H. Elliott, J. G. Campbell, Cecil Beadon, W. Grey, W. Seton-karr, J. W. Dalrymple.

F. J. HALLIDAY, Esq. in the Chair.

The Accounts of the Fund for the past year 1847-48 were approved and passed.

The question proposed at the General Meeting of 1st January last for the consideration of this Meeting was then taken into consideration—it was as follows: "that this Meeting is of opinion "that the practice of requiring from Annuitants "who have more than completed the prescribed "total value of their Annuities (as entered in the "last column of the table in page 21 of the "printed rules) an additional cash payment, to "secure to themselves the advantage of quarterly "receipts and payments to date of decease, is not "borne out by the intention of Rule 34; and "that it be submitted for the sense of the next "General Meeting, that no such additional sum "in cash shall be levied for the future, in cases "in which the value of quarterly payments has "already been made good by subscription, or may "be available out of the Bonus to which any "Annuitant may be entitled on his retirement "from the service."

Proposed by Mr. Hamilton, and seconded by Mr. Elliott:—

That the honorable Court of Directors be solicited to authorize the discontinuance of the practice which is now enforced by the Managers, of demanding from retiring Subscribers cash payment for payment of Pensions quarterly and to date of decease, in excess of the sum specified in column 5 of the Table in page 21 of the printed Rules.

That the calculations on which the Fund is based require that the additional sum for quarterly payments of the Annuity, and payment of it to the date of decease, should be continued, to guarantee the stability of the Fund; and further that the payment of this additional sum out of the Bonus would be an advantage to some of the Subscribers to the Fund at the expense of others, contrary to the purposes for which the Bonus was originally established.

Note—the proceedings of the Managers on the question under date 28th August 1843, were referred to.

The votes on the amendment were—

For—6; Against—5 and 1 proxy.

The amendment was lost under rule 26.

The votes on the original motion were—

For—6 and 1 proxy; Against—5.

The motion was lost under rule 26.

Thanks were unanimously accorded to the Chairman.

Fort William, Home Department, Legislative, the 8th March, 1849.

ACT No. —— OF 1849.

An Act for the encouragement of Merchant Seamen.

For the encouragement and protection of Merchant Seamen, It is enacted as follows:

I. The Master of any Vessel navigated from any port of Registry within the Territories under the Government of the East India Company, and registered as a British Vessel, under the Statutes of Parliament and Acts of the Governor General of India in Council, in force for the time being, for the Registry of British Vessels shall not carry to Sea any Seaman, as one of his Crew, (Apprentices excepted), unless he shall first make and enter into an agreement in writing with such Seaman, specifying what wages such Seaman is to receive, and the quantity and quality of provisions he is to receive, the capacity in which he is to act, or serve, and the voyage in which the Vessel is to be employed.

II. Every such agreement shall be in the form set forth in Schedule (A) annexed to this Act, or such other form as shall be from time to time approved by the Governor General of India in Council, and shall be properly dated, and shall be signed by the Master and Seamen respectively in the presence of the Registrar of Seamen, or by some one appointed by him for that purpose, who, after hearing the agreement read over and explained to each Seaman, in a language understood by him, shall, if the Seaman assent, cause him to put his signature or mark thereunto, and shall attest the same by his own signature, and shall keep recorded in his office a duplicate of such agreement executed and attested as aforesaid.

III. Every copy of such an agreement, certified by the Registrar to be a true copy, shall in all cases be taken as evidence of the contents thereof on behalf of the Seaman, and no Seaman shall in any case be required to produce such agreement, or such copy as aforesaid, or to give notice for the production thereof; but, if the agreement shall not be produced and proved, he shall be at liberty to prove the contents or purport thereof, or to establish his claim by other evidence according to the nature of the case.

IV. No Seamen, shipped under this Act, shall, by reason of any agreement, forfeit his lien upon the Ship, or be deprived of any remedy for the recovery of his wages to which he would otherwise be entitled against any person or persons whatever; and no agreement contrary to or inconsistent with this Act, nor any clause, contract, or engagement, whereby any Seaman shall consent or promise to forego, or give up any right or claim to wages in the case of Freight earned by a Ship afterwards lost, or any right or claim to salvage or reward for salvage services, or such share of salvage or reward for salvage services as may be due to him by decree or award, or otherwise shall be binding on such Seaman.

V. The wages of any Seaman engaged to serve on any Vessel under this Act, shall be calculated by the calendar month.

VI. No Seaman shall be entitled to have more than one, two, or three months' wages in advance, when the destination of the Vessel is clearly specified, and does not extend beyond a Port, which is usually reached within those periods respectively; and if any dispute shall arise between the Master or Owner, and any Seaman as to the amount of advance to be received, the amount of such advance shall be determined by the Registrar, whose decision shall be final.

VII. If any Seaman, serving under the provisions of this Act, shall by a writing according to a form set forth in Schedule (B,) annexed to this Act, or such other form as shall be from time to time approved by the Governor General of India in Council, attested by the signature of the Registrar or his Assistant, and by the signature of the Master of the Vessel on which he is engaged to serve, and in which writing the purpose shall be stated, authorise the said Registrar to receive monthly from the Owner of the said Vessel or his Agent, any part of his wages, not exceeding one-third thereof, for the time for which he shall not have received any advance, for the purpose of paying the same to such person or persons as he may have appointed in such writing, the said Owner or his Agent shall on demand of the said Registrar pay such sum to him, to be applied as aforesaid, without requiring any proof from the said Registrar that the said Seaman is still on board the said Vessel.

VIII. All such payments whether by the Owner, his Agent or by the Registrar, shall cease from and after the production of a certificate from the Master of the Vessel, of the death, desertion or discharge of the said Seaman; but no payment actually made by the Registrar to the party appointed by the said Seaman, shall be reclaimable by reason of his death, desertion, or discharge.

IX. All such receipts and payments shall be entered in a book, and all entries in the said book shall be authenticated by the Registrar under his signature, or the signature of his Assistant, and the said book shall be at all times open to the inspection of t he parties concerned.

X. At the time of witnessing the execution of the agreement for service, the Registrar shall explain to the Seamen parties thereunto the conditions on which they can allot a part of their pay to their families during their service; and it shall be the duty of the Registrar to see that all Seamen leaving the port have the option of allotting part of their pay as aforesaid.

XI. The Master of every such Vessel before leaving the port of Registry shall deliver to the Registrar a list signed by himself of the name of every Seaman engaged by him at that port (including Apprentices) with their rating and the number of their Register Tickets according to the form of Schedule (B) annexed to this Act, or such other form as shall be from time to time appear by the Governor General of India in Council; and, if he shall not have engaged any Seaman at that port, the Master shall deliver to the Registrar a certificate of the fact signed by himself; and on receiving the said list or certificate, and, on being satisfied of its truth, the Registrar shall give to the Master a certificate under his hand that the Master of such Vessel has complied with the regulations of the Registry Office.

XII. For the purpose of preventing any Seaman from being shipped on board of any Vessel in any Port of Registry, contrary to the provisions of this Act, the Registrar of the port by himself, or his Agents, in a peaceable manner, may enter at any time on board of any such Vessel, and muster and examine the several Seamen employed therein, and any person, who shall obstruct the said Registrar or his Agents in such duty, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding One Hundred Rupees.

XIII. In cases when the Registrar shall have reason to believe that any of the provisions of this Act has been evaded or neglected by the Master, Owner or Agent of any Ship about to go to sea, the Registrar, by a writing under his hand, may order the Pilot not to move with such Ship, until leave is given by the Master Attendant; and every Pilot in charge of an outward-bound Ship shall obey the written order of the Registrar in this respect.

XIV. The Master of every such Vessel, on which any Seamen, engaged under this Act, may be serving, shall, within seven days after the arrival of such Vessel at the port, where the voyage ends, according to the agreement entered into in accordance with this Act, pay or cause to be paid to such Seamen the wages remaining due to them for their services during the said voyage, taking a receipt from each man for the amount paid to him, either separately or on a general list, which receipt shall be certified by the Chief or second Officer, or other credible witness, and otherwise shall be of no force or validity.

XV. If any Seaman, to whom any wages are due, die before the wages due have been paid, then the wages shall be paid to the Registrar, and the Registrar shall pay the same to his legal representative, and failing such legal representative, after the expiration of twelve months, from the First of January next ensuing from the day on which he shall have received the said balance, into the Treasury of the East India Company, after having given due notice of such unclaimed balance being in his possession, by advertisement in the Gazette, at least twice during such period.

XVI. Every Master of a Vessel, who shall be convicted before a Magistrate of having neglected to pay to the Registrar within ten days of the Ship's arrival in the port as aforesaid, the wages due to deceased Seamen, shall forfeit three times the amount of wages so neglected to be paid. And further shall be subject to such fine not exceeding One Hundred Rupees for each case of neglect, as to such Magistrate shall seem fit.

XVII. The Master Attendant at every port shall be bound to furnish, on application, to any Seaman belonging to any Vessel, whose voyage is ended, or which has been safely anchored for forty-eight hours, a certificate of the fact; and no Master or Owner of any Vessel so certified, shall detain any Seaman, not being a Mate, Gunner, or Steward, against his will, who has served the time for which he has received the regulated advance.

XVIII. If any Vessel on board of which there shall be any Seaman, who has received an advance under this Act, shall, before going on the voyage for which such advance shall have been paid, be destroyed or injured by fire or other cause so as to prevent her going on her then intended voyage, or if such voyage shall be discomfited at the beginning, the Master, Owner, or Agent of such Vessel may demand from such Seaman, unless he shall pay back the amount so advanced to him, service to the full amount of the advance received by him, on board of any other Vessel; and such Seaman, until he has worked out such advance, shall not be entitled, without the consent of such Master, Owner, or Agent, to take service in any Vessel other than that on which he is so required to serve; and any such Seaman, who, on being taken to the Registrar either for the purpose of such transfer or for employment in another Vessel, shall refuse to go on board such Vessel, or to sign such agreements as are required by this Act, on summary conviction of such refusal before any Magistrate or Justice of the Peace, shall be liable to be imprisoned with hard labour for any term not exceeding six months.

XIX. The Registrar of Seamen may grant from time to time to such persons as he may deem fit, a license to act as broker for procuring Seamen for Vessels shipping men under this Act, and also may revoke and annul such license on the misconduct of any such person: and every such license shall be granted for such term upon such conditions and upon such security given, as the said Registrar shall from time to time appoint.

XX. Every person not licensed as aforesaid, and not being the Owner, part Owner, Master, or person in charge of the Vessel, on board which the men are to serve, who shall hire, engage, supply, or provide a Seaman to be entered on board any Merchant Ship, at any port of Registry, and every person, whether licensed or not, other than the Owner, part Owner, Master, or person in charge of the Merchant Ship on board of which the men are to serve, who shall demand or obtain the Register ticket of any Seaman, for the purpose or under the pretence of engaging him on board of any Merchant Ship, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding five hundred Rupees.

XXI. Every Ghaut Serang, Crimp or other person, who shall persuade or endeavour to persuade, or hinder any Seaman from complying with any of the provisions of this Act, or who shall counsel such Seaman to desert, or who shall conceal, or aid in concealing or maintaining any Seaman, who has deserted, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding five hundred Rupees.

XXII. Any parents or guardians having the lawful charge of any boy, who has attained the age of twelve years, may bind him by Indenture, of the form set forth in Schedule (B) annexed in to this Act, or such other form as shall be from time to time approved by the Governor General of India in Council, to be an Apprentice in the Sea-Service, to any Owner of such Vessel as aforesaid, for a term not exceeding five years, nor less than three years.

XXIII. Every such Indenture shall be executed by the contracting parties in the presence of the Registrar, who, on the personal appearance of the Apprentice, shall countersign the same, and make an entry thereof, with all the particulars of the said binding in a book to be kept for that purpose, and shall endorse such entry on the said Indenture; and the said Registrar shall be entitled to demand such fee for every such entry, as may be fixed by the Governor or Governor in Council of the Presidency or place, and shall be entitled to withhold such Indenture till such fee be paid.

XXIV. No Master of any Vessel, sailing under the provisions of this Act, shall carry to sea any Apprentice from any Port of Registry, until he shall have obtained such Indenture in the manner herein provided; and in case of default shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding five hundred Rupees.

XXV. All Indentures under this Act shal cease to be binding when the Apprentice has attained his legal age of majority, but, if any apprenticeship end during a voyage, and before the Ship's return to the port of departure, such Apprentice shall notwithstanding continue until the return of the Ship to the said port; but, after one calendar month from the end of such apprenticeship, the Apprentice shall receive the same wages as a Seaman of the Ship according to his qualifications.

XXVI. Any Magistrate or Justice of the Peace, residing at, or near any port within the Territories subject to the East India Company, to which any such Vessel, having on board any Apprentice, shall at any time arrive, shall have full power to hear, and determine all claims of Apprentices upon their Masters under their Indentures, and all complaints of ill usage by their respective Masters toward any such Apprentices, or of misbehaviour on the part of any such Apprentices; and, if it shall appear to such Magistrate or Justice of the Peace, after due enquiry, that either party has been guilty of misbehaviour toward the other, he shall record a summary conviction of the same, and in his discretion may cancel the Indentures, and levy a fine not exceeding two hundred Rupees on the offender, any part of which he may give by an order in writing, by way of amends to the party injured. Provided always, in case of the Indentures being cancelled, that the Magistrate or Justice of the Peace shall forthwith send them to the Registrar of the port at which they were executed.

XXVII. Any Master of any such vessel, who shall refuse or neglect without reasonable cause to send on shore, in charge of the Mate or other trustworthy person, any Apprentice desirous of complaining to a Magistrate, so soon as the service of the vessel will allow, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding one hundred Rupees.

XXVIII. If a Seaman, whether before or during any voyage, shall at any time neglect or refuse to join the vessel, on board of which he shall have engaged to serve, or shall refuse to go to sea in such vessel, or shall absent himself therefrom without leave, or shall desert, any Justice of the Peace or Magistrate in the Territories under the Government of the East India Company at or near to the place, where such vessel shall happen to be, or where such Seamen shall be found, upon complaint made upon oath, by the Master, Mate, or Owner, or his Agent, may issue his warrant, and cause such Seaman to be taken into custody, and brought before him; and, upon due proof of such neglect, refusal, or absence, without reasonable excuse, or of desertion, may commit such Seaman to prison, or to the House of Correction, there to be imprisoned with or without hard labour for a term not exceeding thirty days; or, if he shall think fit, at the request of the Master, Mate, or Owner, or his Agent, instead of committing such Seaman, may cause him to be taken on board the said vessel, or to be delivered to the Master, Mate or Owner, or his Agent, for the purpose of being so taken and going on the voyage; and also may award to the Master, or Owner, or his Agent, such costs incurred in the apprehension of the Seaman, as to such Justice or Magistrate shall seem reasonable, not exceeding in any case the sum of twenty Rupees, which shall be chargeable against, and may be deducted from the wages of such Seaman.

XXIX. Every Seaman engaged under this Act, who, during the term of his service, shall wilfully, and, without leave, absent himself from the vessel, or otherwise from his duty, shall, (in all cases, not of desertion, or not treated as such by the Master), forfeit out of his wages the amount of two days' pay, and for every twenty-four hours of such absence the amount of six days' pay, or, at the option of the Master, the amount of such expences as shall have been necessarily incurred in hiring a substitute; and every Seaman, who, while he shall belong to the vessel, shall without sufficient cause neglect or refuse to perform his duty reasonably required of him by the Master, or other person in command of the vessel, shall be subject to a like forfeiture in respect of every such offence, and of every twenty-four hours' continuance thereof; and every such Seaman, who, after the vessel's arrival at her port of delivery, shall leave the vessel without a discharge, or leave from the Master, shall forfeit one month's pay out of his wages: Provided always, that no such forfeiture shall be incurred unless the fact of the Seaman's absence, neglect, or refusal shall be duly entered in the Log Book, the truth of which entry the Owner, Master or Agent in all cases of dispute, shall be bound to substantiate by the evidence of the Mate, or some other credible witness.

XXX. Every Seaman engaged under this Act, who shall desert his vessel, shall forfeit to the Owner all his clothes and effects which he may leave on board, and also all wages and emoluments to which he might otherwise be entitled; provided always, that every desertion be entered in the Log Book at the time, and certified by the signatures of the Master and the Mate, or the Master and one credible witness.

XXXI. If any Seaman shall desert, during the term for which he has engaged to serve, in any place beyond the port where he was engaged, and the Master of the vessel shall engage a substitute at a higher rate of wages than that stipulated in the agreement to be paid to the Seaman so deserting, the Owner, Agent or Master of the vessel shall be entitled to recover from the Deserter, by summary proceeding in the same manner as penalties are by this Act made recoverable, (so far as the same can be applied), any excess of wages or portion thereof, which such Owner, Agent, or Master shall pay to such substitute, beyond the amount which would have been payable to the Deserter, if he had duly performed his service: Provided always, that no Seaman shall be imprisoned longer than three calendar months for non-payment of any such excess of wages.

XXXII. The absence of a Seaman from his vessel for any time within twenty-four hours immediately before the sailing of a vessel from any port, whether before or during any voyage, wilfully or knowingly, without leave, or the wiful absence of a Seaman from his vessel, at or for any time, without leave, and in such manner as to shew an intention to abandon his vessel and not return thereto, shall be deemed desertion.

XXXIII. Every person, who shall wilfully harbour or conceal any Seaman or Apprentice, who shall have deserted, knowing or having reason to believe such Seaman or Apprentice to be a Deserter, shall for every such Seaman or Apprentice so harboured or concealed, be liable to a penalty not exceeding one hundred Rupees.

XXXIV. No debt exceeding in amount three Rupees, incurred by any Seaman after he shall have engaged to serve under this Act, shall be recoverable until the service agreed for shall be ended; nor shall any Keeper of a Public House, or of a Lodging House for Seaman be entitled to detain any chest, tools, or other property of any Seaman for any debt alleged to have been contracted by him, and in case of such detention of the chest, tools, or other property of a Seaman, any Justice of the Peace or Magistrate at or near the place, upon complaint upon oath to be made by such Seaman, or by any person on his behalf, may enquire into the matter upon oath, in a summary way; and by warrant under his hand and seal may cause such property to be seized and delivered over to such Seaman; and the person so detaining the same shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding one hundred Rupees.

XXXV. Any Justice of the Peace or Magistrate within the Territories subject to the East India Company, upon complaint made by any three or more of the Crew of any such vessel shall survey and examine, or cause to be surveyed and examined, the provisions, water, and medicines, put or supplied on board of the vessel for the use and consumption of the Crew; and, if on such survey and examination, it shall be found that such provisions, water, or medicines are of a bad quality or unfit for use, or not such as should be provided, or there shall not appear to be a sufficient quantity thereof, the Surveying Officer shall signify the same in writing to the Master of the vessel; and, if such Master shall not thereupon provide other fit provisions, water or medicines, instead of any which may be signified by the said Surveying Officer to be of a bad quality or unfit, or if any such Master shall not thereupon procure the needful quantity of provisions, water and medicines, or shall use any provisions, water, and medicines, which shall have been signified by the Surveying Officer to be of a bad quality, or unfit, he shall in each of such cases be liable to a penalty not exceeding five hundred Rupees.

XXXVI. A place of shelter shall be provided below a well caulked and substantial deck for the men engaged under this Act, to the extent of six superficial feet for every two men; and if the place allotted be under the Top-gallant Forecastle, such Forecastle deck be not less than four feet six inches above the one below it.

XXXVII. All penalties, which may be imposed by this Act may be recovered with costs on summary conviction before a Magistrate or Justice of the Peace as if they were imposed by a Magistrate under Act II. of 1839.

XXXVIII. All claims for wages or forfeitures due and incurred under the agreements entered into under this Act, may be heard and determined by any Justice of the Peace or Magistrate, and the amount, with costs awarded by such Justice or Magistrate, shall be recovered from the party against whom the award is made, in the same manner as fines levied under the provisions of Act II. of 1839.

XXXIX. Every person having the charge or command of any vessel sailing under this Act, shall be deemed to be the Master of such vessel, within the meaning of this Act, and every other person (Apprentices excepted) who shall be employed or engaged to serve in any capacity on board, except as Surgeon, shall be deemed to be a Seaman within the meaning of this Act; and the term "Owner" shall be deemed to comprehend all the several persons, if more than one, to whom the vessel belongs, and the term "Agent" shall be deemed to comprehend all the several persons, if more than one, who are Agents of the "Owner."

NOTIFICATION.

FORT WILLIAM.

FOREIGN DEPARTMENT, THE 9TH MARCH, 1849.

The President in Council is pleased to direct the publication of the following Notification issued by the Right Hon'ble the Governor General at his His Lordship's Head Quarters, with a Despatch from His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief, reporting the details of the complete Victory which was gained over the Sikh Forces at Goojerat, on the 21st ultimo by the Army under His Excellency's Command.

By order of the President of the Council of India in Council,

FRED. JAS. HALLIDAY,
Offg. Secretary to the Govt. of India.

FOREIGN DEPARTMENT, CAMP FEROZEPORE, 1ST MARCH, 1849.

The Governor General, having received from His Excellency the Commander in Chief a Despatch, reporting the details of the brilliant Victory which was gained by the British Army at Goojerat on the 21st ultimo, directs that it be published for the information of the Army, and of the people of India.

The Sikh Army, under the command of Sirdar Chutter Sing and of Raja Shere Sing, combined with the Afghan Troops in the service of the Ameer of Cabool, were posted in great strength near to the town of Goojerat.

Their numbers were estimated at 60,000 men, and 59 guns were brought by them into action.

On the morning of the 21st they were attacked by the forces under the personal Command of His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief. A powerful and sustained cannonade by the British Artillery compelled them, after some time, to retire from the positions they had well and resolutely maintained.

The subsequent advance of the British Army drove them back at once from every point, and retreat having been speedily converted into rout, they fled in the utmost disorder, and abandoning their guns and throwing away their arms, were pursued by the Artillery and Cavalry till the evening for many miles beyond the town.

Fifty-three pieces of the Enemy's Artillery—his Camp—his Baggage—his Magazines, and vast store of Ammunition, left in the hands of the British Troops, bear testimony to the completeness and to the importance of the Victory that has been won.

The Governor General, in the name and on behalf of the Government of India, most cordially congratulates His Excellency the Commander in Chief and the whole Army on the glorious success which, under the blessing of Divine Providence, their skill and gallantry have achieved :—and he offers to His Excellency, to the Generals, the Officers, Non-Commissioned Officers and Soldiers of the Force, his grateful acknowledgments of the service they have thus rendered to the Government and to their country.

The Governor General begs especially to thank Major General Sir Joseph Thackwell, K. C. B. and K. H.; Major General Sir W. Gilbert, K. C. B.; Major General Whish, C. B.; Brigadier General Campbell, C. B., and Brigadier General the Hon'ble H. Dundas, C. B., for the ability and judgment with which they directed the operations of the Divisions respectively under their command.

To the Chief Engineer, Brigadier Cheape, C. B., to the Officers Commanding Brigades, Brigadier Brooke, C. B.; Brigadier Huthwaite, C. B.; and Brigadier Leeson;—to Brigadier White, C. B.; Brigadier Hearsey and Brigadier Lockwood, C. B.; to Brigadier Hervey and Brigadier Markham; to Brigadier Mountain, C. B.; Brigadier Penny, C. B.; Brigadier Capon and Brigadier Hoggan; Brigadier Carnegy and Brigadier McLeod—the best thanks of the Governor General are due.

The services of Brigadier General Tennant and of the Artillery of the Force have been recorded in the Despatch of the Commander-in-Chief in terms of which they may justly be proud.

The Governor General cordially joins with His Excellency in acknowledging their merit and in bestowing upon them the praise they have earned so well.

To Major Lugard, to Lieutenant Colonel Gough, C. B., and to the Officers of the General Staff of Her Majesty's Army; to Lieutenant Colonel Grant, C. B.; to Lieutenant Colonel Garden, C. B.; and to the Officers of the General Staff of the Army; to Captain Ramsay and the Officers of the Commissariat Department; to Mr. Franklin, Inspector General of H. M.'s Hospitals, to Dr. Renny and the Officers of the Medical Department and to the Officers of His Excellency's personal Staff, the Governor General offers his best thanks, and assures them of his full appreciation of their services.

And to all the Troops of every Arm, European and Native, the Governor General desires to convey his entire approbation of their steady and gallant conduct throughout the day; particularly to a portion of the 9th Lancers and the Scinde Horse for their charge against the Afghan Cavalry; to the 3rd Brigade of Infantry under Brigadier Penny, C. B., for their attack on the village of Kabra; and to a portion of Brigadier Hervey's Brigade for their charge led by Lieutenant Colonel Franks, C. B., all of which have been specially reported by His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief.

The Governor General estimates highly the important results, which the battle gained on the 21st ultimo, is calculated to produce. He entertains a hope that the conviction, which the events of that day must force upon all, of the vast superiority, which the British Army derived from the possession of Science and Military resource, will induce the Enemy shortly to abandon a contest which is a hopeless one.

The war, in which we are engaged, must be prosecuted with vigor and determination, to the entire defeat and dispersion of all who are in arms against us, whether Sikhs or Afghans.

The Governor General has ever felt, and feels, unbounded confidence in the Army which serves in India. He relies fully on the conviction that their services will be given cheerfully and gallantly, as heretofore, whatever may be the obstacles opposed to them; and he does not doubt that, with the blessing of Heaven, such full success will continue to follow their efforts, as shall speedily give to the Government of India the Victory over its Enemies, and restore the country to the enjoyment of peace.

The Governor General will not fail earnestly to commend the past services of this Army to the favorable consideration of Her Majesty's Government and of the Hon'ble East India Company.

A salute of 21 guns has been ordered at every principal Station of the Army in India.

By order of the Right Hon'ble the Governor General of India,

H. M. ELLIOT,

Secretary to the Govt. of India, with the Governor General.

(Copies,)

FROM THE RIGHT HONORABLE THE COMMANDER-IN-CHIEF IN INDIA,

TO THE RIGHT HONORABLE THE GOVERNOR GENERAL OF INDIA.

Head Quarters, Camp Goojerat, 26th February, 1849.

MY LORD,

By my letter of the 21st instant, written on the field of battle immediately after the action, your Lordship will have been made acquainted with the glorious result of my operations on that day against the Sikh Army, calculated from all credible reports at 60,000 men of all arms and 59 pieces of Artillery, under the command of Sirdar Chuttur Singh and Rajah Shere Singh with a body of 1,500 Afghan Horse led by Akram Khan, son of the Ameer Dost Mahomed Khan—a result, my Lord, glorious indeed for the ever victorious Army of India! The ranks of the Enemy broken, their position carried, their Guns, Ammunition, Camp Equipage and Baggage captured, their flying masses driven before the victorious pursuers from mid-day to dusk, receiving most severe punishment in their flight, and, my Lord, with gratitude to a merciful Providence, I have the satisfaction of adding, that, notwithstanding the obstinate resistance of the Enemy, this triumphant success, this brilliant victory has been achieved with comparatively little loss on our side.

The number of Guns taken in action and captured in the line of pursuit, I now find to be fifty-three (53.)

The Official Report, made by the Adjutant General of the Army, on the 20th instant, will have informed your Lordship that I had directed Brigadier General the Honorable H. Dundas to join me by forced marches, and that I had closed up to so short a distance of the Sikh Army, that they could not possibly attempt the passage of the Chenab, in order to put into execution their avowed determination of moving upon Lahore, make a retrograde movement by the Kooree Pass, (the only practicable one for Guns,) or indeed quit their position without my being able to attack them and defeat their movement.

On the 18th instant, Brigadier Markham had proceeded from Ramnuggur up the left bank of the river to Kanokee, to which I had directed 47 boats to be sent up. On the morning of the 20th, this Officer crossed the Chenab, by my instructions, and joined me at 11 o'Clock A. M. At the same time Lieutenant Colonel Byrne was directed to move down the left bank, from the position he held in front of Wuzeerabad with two Corps of Infantry and 4 Guns, leaving two Regiments of Irregular Cavalry to watch the fords, and to prevent any marauding parties or bodies of the routed Enemy from effecting a passage.

On the same day a reconnoisance was made of the Enemy's position, and it was ascertained that their Camp nearly encircled the town of Goojerat, their regular troops being placed immediately fronting us between the town and a deep watercourse, the dry bed of the river Dwara. This nullah, which is very tortuous, passing round nearly two sides of the town of Goojerat—diverging to a considerable distance on the north and west faces, and then taking a southerly direction, running through the centre of the ground I occupied at Shadiwal. Thus the Enemy's position on the right was greatly strengthened, the nullah giving cover to his Infantry in front of his Guns, whilst another deep, though narrow wet nullah running from the east of the town and falling into the Chenab, in the direction of Wuzeerabad, covered his left.

The ground between these nullahs for a space of nearly three miles being well calculated for the operations of all arms, and presenting no obstacle to the movement of my heavy Guns, I determined to make my principal attack in that direction and dispose my force accordingly.

On the extreme left, I placed the Bombay Column, commanded by the Hon'ble H. Dundas, supported by Brigadier White's Brigade of Cavalry and the Scinde Horse, under Sir Joseph Thackwell, to protect the left and to prevent large bodies of Sikh and Afghan Cavalry from turning that flank: with this Cavalry I placed Captains Duncan and Huish's Troops of Horse Artillery, whilst the Infantry was covered by the Bombay Troop of Horse Artillery under Major Blood.

On the right of the Bombay Column, and with its right resting on the nullah, I placed Brigadier General Campbell's Division of Infantry covered by No. 5 and No. 10, Light Field Batteries under Major Ludlow and Lieutenant Robertson, having Brigadier Hoggan's Brigade of Infantry in reserve.

Upon the right of the nullah, I placed the Infantry Division of Major General Sir Walter Gilbert, the heavy Guns, 18 in number, under Majors Day and Horsford with Captain Shakespear and Brevet Major Sir Richmond Shakespear, Commanding Batteries being disposed in two Divisions upon the flanks of his left Brigade.

This line was prolonged by Major General Whish's Division of Infantry with one Brigade of Infantry under Brigadier Markham in support in second line, and the whole covered by three Troops of Horse Artillery, Major Fordyce's, Captains Mackenzie's and Anderson's and No. 17 Light Field Battery, under Captain Dawes with Lieutenant Colonel Lane's and Captain Kinleside's Troops of Horse Artillery, in a second line in reserve under Lieutenant Colonel Brind.

My right flank was protected by Brigadiers Hearsey's and Lockwood's Brigades of Cavalry with Captain Warner's Troop of Horse Artillery.

The 5th and 6th Light Cavalry with the Bombay Light Field Battery and the 45th and 69th Regiments, under the command of Lieutenant Colonel Mercer, most effectually protected my rear and baggage.

With my right wing I proposed penetrating the centre of the Enemy's line, so as to turn the position of their force in rear of the nullah, and thus enable my left wing to cross it with little loss and in co-operation with the right to double upon the centre the wing of the Enemy's force opposed to them.

At half-past seven o'Clock the Army advanced in the order described with the precision of a parade movement. The Enemy opened their fire at a very long distance, which exposed to my Artillery both the position and range of their Guns. I halted the Infantry just out of fire, and advanced the whole of my Artillery covered by skirmishers.

The Cannonade now opened upon the Enemy was the most magnificent I ever witnessed, and as terrible in its effect.

The Seikh Guns were served with their accustomed rapidity, and the Enemy well and resolutely maintained his position; but the terrific force of our fire obliged them, after an obstinate resistance, to fall back. I then deployed the Infantry, and directed a general advance covering the movement by my Artillery as before.

The Village of Burra-kabra, the left one of those of that name in which the Enemy had concealed a large body of Infantry, and which was apparently the key of their position, lay immediately in the line of Major General Sir Walter Gilbert's advance, and was carried in the most brilliant style by a spirited attack of the 3rd Brigade under Brigadier Penny, consisting of the 2nd Europeans, 31st and 70th Regiments of Native Infantry, which drove the Enemy from their cover with great slaughter.

A very spirited and successful movement was also made about the same time against a heavy body of the Enemy's Troops in and about second or Chota-kabra by part of Brigadier Hervey's Brigade most gallantly led by Lieutenant Colonel Franks of H. M.'s 10th Foot.

The Heavy Artillery continued to advance with extraordinary celerity, taking up successive forward position, driving the Enemy from those they had retired to, whilst the rapid advance and beautiful fire of the Horse Artillery and Light Field Batteries, which I strengthened by bringing to the front the two reserved Troops of Horse Artillery under Lieutenant Colonel Brind, Brigadier Brooke having the general superintendence of the whole of the Horse Artillery, broke the ranks of the Enemy at all points. The whole Infantry line now rapidly advanced and drove the Enemy before it, the nullah was cleared, several Villages stormed, the Guns that were in position carried, the Camp captured, and the Enemy routed in every direction! The right wing and Brigadier General Campbell's Division passing in pursuit to the eastward—the Bombay Column to the westward of the Town.

The retreat of the Seikh Army thus hotly pressed, soon became a perfect flight, all Arms dispersing over the country, rapidly pursued by our Troops for a distance of 12 miles, their track strewed with their wounded, their Arms and Military Equipments, which they threw away to conceal that they were Soldiers.

Throughout the operations thus detailed, the Cavalry Brigades on the flanks were threatened, and occasionally attacked by vast masses of the Enemy's Cavalry, which were, in every instance, put to flight by the steady movements and spirited manœuvres of our Cavalry, most zealously and judiciously supported by the Troops of Horse Artillery attached to them, from whom the Enemy received the severest punishment.

On the left, a most successful and gallant charge was made upon the Afghan Cavalry and a large body of Ghoorchurras, by the Scinde Horse and a party of the 9th Lancers, when some standards were captured.

The determined front shown by the 14th Light Dragoons and the other Cavalry Regiments on the right, both Regular and Irregular, completely overawed the Enemy, and contributed much to the success of the day; the conduct of all in following up the fugitive Enemy was beyond all praise.

A competent force, under the Command of Major General Sir Walter Gilbert, resumed the pursuit towards the Jhelum on the following morning with a view of cutting off the Enemy from the only practicable Gun road to the Jhelum. Another Division of Infantry, under Brigadier General Campbell, advanced on the road to Bimber, scouring the Country in that direction to prevent their carrying off the Guns by that route, and a body of Cavalry, under Lieutenant Colonel Bradford, successfully pushed on several miles into the hills and 24 from Goojerat, accompanied by that most energetic Political Officer, Captain Nicholson, for the same purpose, whilst I remained in possession of the Field for the purpose of supporting these operations, covering the fords of the Chenab, and destroying the vast magazine of Ammunition left scattered in all directions. I am happy to add that these combinations have been entirely successful, the detached parties coming at every step on the wreck of the dispersed and flying foe.

Having thus endeavoured to convey to your Lordship the particulars of the operations of the Battle of "Goojerat," I beg now to offer my heartfelt congratulations to your Lordship and to the Government of India upon this signal victory acheived under the blessing of Divine Providence by the united efforts and indomitable gallantry of the Noble Army under my Command, a Victory, my Lord, as glorious to the Army that gained it, as it must be satisfactory to yourself and the Government of India from the very important and decisive results to be expected from it.

It is quite impossible for me sufficiently to express my admiration of the gallant and steady conduct of the Officers and Men, as well Native as European upon this occasion.

The brilliant service they have performed in so signally defeating so vastly a superior force, amongst whom were the elite of the old Khalsa Army, making a last, united, and desperate struggle, will speak for itself and will, I am confident, be justly estimated by your Lordship.

I cannot too strongly express to your Lordship my deep sense of obligation to the General Officers and Brigadier Generals in Command of Divisions, who so ably carried out my views and directed the operations of their Troops on this day.

I beg to annex for your Lordship's information the reports I have received from them, and to bring most prominently to your Lordship's notice the Brigadiers commanding Brigades, the Commanding Officers of Regiments and of Troops of Horse Artillery and Light Field Batteries, and the several Officers of the Divisional and Brigade Staff enumerated in these reports, in terms of such just commendation.

I feel much indebted to Major General Sir Joseph Thackwell for the able and judicious manner he manœuvred the Cavalry with Horse Artillery attached, on the left, keeping in check the immensely superior Force of the Enemy, whose main object was to turn my flanks. I am also greatly indebted to this tried and gallant Officer for his valuable assistance and untiring exertions throughout the present and previous operations as second in command with this Force.

To Major General Sir Walter Gilbert, whose services upon this as on all former occasions, were invaluable, and ever marked by energy, zeal, and devotion; as well as to Major General Whish, Brigadier Generals Campbell and Dundas, for their able assistance, I am deeply indebted.

To Brigadier General Tennant commanding that splendid Arm, the Artillery, to whose irresistible power I am mainly indebted for the glorious victory of Goojerat, I am indeed most grateful. Conpicuous as the Artillery has ever proved itself, never was its superiority over that of the Enemy, its irresistible and annihilating power more truthfully shown than in this battle. The Heavy Batteries manœuvred with the celerity of Light Guns and the rapid advance, the scientific and judicious selection of points of attack, the effective and well directed fire of the Troops of Horse Artillery and Light Field Batteries, merit my warmest praise, and I beg most earnestly to recommend their brave and gallant Commanders, with the several Officers named in Brigadier General Tennant's Report, to your Lordship's most favorable notice.

From Brigadier Cheape, the Chief Engineer, and the talented Officers in that Department as named in the Brigadier's report, I have received the most valuable assistance in reconnoitring the Enemy's position and on the Field of battle. The Sappers and Pioneers, under that most able Officer,

Captain Siddon's, did excellent service, and were ever in front to overcome any obstacle to the advance of the Artillery.

To the Officers of the General Staff of Her Majesty's Service, Major Lugard, Acting Adjutant General, and Lieutenant Colonel Gough, Quarter Master General of Her Majesty's Troops in India, my best thanks are due; their exertions upon the present occasion and throughout the recent operations were most valuable, and I beg to bring them under Your Lordship's favourable notice. I am equally indebted to Captain Otter, Acting Assistant Adjutant General of H. M.'s Forces, for his valuable services.

To the Officers of the General Staff of the Army, Lieutenant Colonel Grant, Adjutant General, and Lieutenant Colonel Garden, Quarter Master General, whose most onerous and very important duties have invariably been conducted to my entire satisfaction, I am under the greatest obligation. Their valuable assistance in the Field, and their indefatigable exertions throughout operations of no ordinary character, deserve my warmest thanks and your Lordship's approbation.

To Lieutenant Colonel Birch, Judge Advocate General, I am much indebted for his assistance upon every occasion.

To Major Tucker, Deputy Adjutant General, a most gallant, energetic, and valuable Officer, to Lieutenant Colonel Drummond, Deputy Quarter Master General, whose services have been very praiseworthy, to Major Chester, Assistant Adjutant General, and Lieutenant Tytler, Assistant Quarter Master General, Lieutenant Johnston, Deputy Judge Advocate General, Major G. Thomson and Lieutenant Colonel Curtis, Assistant Commissary General, Captain C. Campbell, Pay Master to the Army, I offer my best thanks for their services whilst attending me in the Field, and the efficient manner they have performed their several duties.

Mr. Franklin, Inspector General of H. M.'s Hospitals, has been unceasing in his exertions in rendering every aid to the sick and wounded of the Royal Service, and giving the benefit of his long professional experience in such duties; as has Doctor Renny, Superintending Surgeon of this Army, who has been indefatigable in his professional exertions and well-organized medical arrangements.

I feel I cannot too prominently bring to notice the valuable exertions of Doctor MacRae, Field Surgeon, and of the Medical Officers of the Army generally, they have been most unwearied and praiseworthy.

To Captain Ramsay, Deputy Commissary General and to the Officers of his Department, I am much indebted and feel grateful for their unceasing and successful exertions amidst all difficulties to supply the Troops and thus preserve the efficiency of the Army.

The Officers of my Personal Staff have well merited my best thanks and your Lordship's favorable notice. Captain Haines, Military Secretary, who has rendered me most valuable aid; Brevet Major Bates, A. D. C.; Lieut. A. Bagot. A. D. C.; Lieut. S. J. Hire, A. D. C.; Captain Gabbett, A. D. C.; Lieut. G. Hardinge, A. D. C.; and Lieut. W. G. Prendergast, my Persian Interpreter.

I beg also to acknowledge the valuable assistance I have received from the Political Officers, Major Mackeson, Mr. Cocks, Captain Nicholson and Lieut. Robison, both in the Field and throughout the operations. I regret to add that Mr. Cocks was seriously wounded during the action in a rencounter with a Sikh Horseman.

I would also bring to your Lordship's notice the name of Lieut. Stannus, of the 5th Light Cavalry, this Officer has commanded the Cavalry party attached to my Escort throughout the operations to my entire satisfaction. He was severely wounded on the 21st, when gallantly charging a party of the Enemy's Horsemen.

Major Anstruther, of the Madras Artillery, Lieut. Mayne, of the Madras Cavalry, and Captain Showers, of the 14th N. I., attended me in the Field.

I have most unwillingly been delayed from sooner forwarding this Despatch from the circumstance of having only this day received Brigadier General the Hon'ble H. Dundas' report, and some of the Casualty Returns have not even yet reached me. As soon as the whole come in, a full amended General Return shall be transmitted without loss of time for your Lordship's information.

I have the pleasure to enclose a plan of the battle of Goojerat. Also a return of the captured Ordnance.

I have, &c.,

Commander-in-Chief in India.

P. S. The Casualty Lists having arrived, I have the honor to enclose the Return of killed and wounded, which I am sorry to see is so much heavier than I at first anticipated. Several of these were occasioned by accidental explosions of the Enemy's Tumbrils and Magazines after the action.

These Batteries engaged in action by those attached to the 1st and 2nd Divisions, advancing within about 600 yards, and the heavy Guns within 800 or 1,000 yards of the Enemy's Artillery on which they opened their fire about 9 o'Clock A. M., shortly after the action commenced an opportunity was observed of enfilading one of the Enemy's Batteries, when the reserve Artillery under Lieutenant Colonel F. Brind was advanced, and placed by Brigadier G. Brooke, C. B., so as to do so. The Batteries of the 3rd Division engaged as they came up, and those with the Cavalry Brigades supported their movements as opportunity offered. Nearly the whole engagement being a Cannonade, no movement of importance took place among the Batteries, which maintained their fire until ½ past 11 A. M., when many of the Enemy's guns were observed to be dismounted and their line broke, and an advance was ordered in pursuit.

I have the honor to state for the Commander-in-Chief's information my perfect satisfaction with the professional exertions of the Officers and my high approbation of the steady conduct of both Officers and men during the day.

To Brigadiers Brooke, C. B. and Huthwaite, C. B., in general direction of the Horse and Foot Artillery respectively under my orders, Lieutenant Colonel C. Grant and E. Brind, Majors R. Horsford, E. F. Day and J. L. Mowatt all of whom held commands as well as to all the Officers commanding Troops and Batteries above enumerated. I have to acknowledge my best thanks for their exertions by which these results were obtained. To the Divisional Staff Captain, J. Abercrombie, Deputy Assistant Adjutant General, and Lieutenant H. Tombs, Deputy Assistant Quarter Master General, and to Lieutenant H. A. Olpherts, my Aid-de-Camp, I am much indebted for their exertions and also to Captain C. Hogge, the Commissary, and Lieutenant P. Christie, Deputy Commissary of Ordnance, for their excellent arrangement of their Department as well as for their assistance in the Field.

Brigadiers Brooke and Huthwaite mention their Majors of Brigade Lieut. C. V. Cox and Lieutenant E. Kaye respectively as having afforded them able assistance, I have great pleasure finally particularly to bring to His Excellency's notice the zeal and attention of Mr. Deputy Commissary Spencer during the day, and beg to recommend that old and deserving Warrant Officer to his kind consideration.

Camp Goojerat, the 22nd February 1849.

To Lieutenant Colonel P. GRANT, C. B.,
Adjutant General of the Army.

Head Quarters, Camp Goojerat, 26th February, 1849.

Sir,

In reference to General Orders of the 21st instant, I beg to submit for the information of the Right Hon'ble the Commander in Chief, a report on the conduct of the Engineer Department, during the late operations and the engagement of the 21st.

Major Napier attended by Lieutenant Greathead, and Major Tremenheere attended by Lieutenant Glover, were employed on the 21st, the former with the right, the latter with the left Column of attack, and were very useful from their previous examination of the ground, and in particular of the position of the nullah on our right flank.

Captain Western, Lieutenants Goodwyn, Crommeline and Taylor accompanied me, and to all those Officers, my acknowledgments are due for conveying communications, and obtaining information on every point required during the day.

I have also the gratification to report to His Excellency the zealous and able manner in which Captain Cunningham and Lieutenant C. Paton, performed the duty assigned to them of bringing up the fleet of boats ordered by His Excellency from Ramnuggur, and placing them so as to enable the portion of the Army on the other side of the Chenab to co-operate and to come up: the former Officer arrived before the close of the Action and joined Brigadier General Campbell's Division.

The other Officers of Engineers were detached with the different Divisions of the Army, and no mention of these Officers is needed from me, as whatever service they may have had an opportunity of rendering will be more appropriately reported to His Excellency, or acknowledged by the General Officers commanding each Division.

Captain Siddons, commanding the Sappers and Pioneers, was attached to the Heavy Guns, with a portion of his Corps, the remainder being detached by Companies to the different Divisions; such duty, as was required from them, I need hardly say, was effectively performed; and I trust it may not be considered by His Lordship out of place, my mentioning here the gallant behaviour and unwearied exertion displayed by these men throughout the present service. I allude, in particular, to the siege operations at Mooltan, and the conduct of that portion of the Corps, who were employed there.

Prior to the engagement, on the 21st instant, the Officers of Engineers were employed in collecting information and in surveying and reconnoitering; and it is due to Captain Longden, of H. M's 10th Regiment, who is attached to the Engineer Department, as Surveyor and Field Engineer, to state the very able assistance he has rendered in all these duties during the whole operations, since I have joined the Army.

I beg to add that I am much indebted to Lieutenant J. H. Maxwell, for the very zealous performance of his duties on all occasions, as Major of Brigade of Engineers, and to Lieutenant J. E. Cracroft, Brigade Quarter Master, my acknowledgments are also due; and, I hope, I may be permitted to recommend to His Excellency's favor, Lieutenant Hutchinson, of Engineers, a very promising young Officer, who has been lately acting as my Aid-de-Camp, and who was very severely wounded on the 21st instant.

Head-Quarters, dated Camp Goojerat, 25th February, 1849.

Sir,

I have the honor to report, for the information of His Excellency the Right Hon'ble the Commander-in-Chief, the operations of the Division of Cavalry under my Command, in the battle fought on the 21st instant, near the town of Goojerat.

H. M.'s 3rd Dragoons.—Major Yerbury.
H. M.'s 9th Lancers.—Lieut.-Col. Fullerton.
8th Light Cavalry.—Major Mackenzie.
Scinde Horse.—Capt. Malcolm.
Capt. Duncan's Troop.—Horse Artillery.
Capt. Huish's Troop.—Horse Artillery.

Right Column, 2nd Brigade of Cavalry.

Brigadier Lockwood, C. B., Commanding.

H. M's 14th Lt. Dragoons.—Lt.-Col. King.
1st Lt. Cavalry.—Lt. Col. Bradford.
2 Ressalas, 11th Irregular Cavalry.—Capt. Masters.
2 Ressalas, 14th Irregular Cavalry.—Lieut. Roberts.
Captain Warner's Troop Horse Artillery,
4th Brigade Cavalry.

Brigadier Hearsey, Commanding.

9th Irregular Cavalry.—Major Christie.

The 5th and 6th Light Cavalry were left in the rear to protect the Baggage.

The 3rd Division of Infantry and the Bombay Brigade, all on the left of the nullah, leading towards Goojerat, being under my immediate superintendence, I remained on the left flank of the Army, and I make, no doubt, Brigadier General Dundas and Campbell have made you fully acquainted with the operations of the Troop under their command.

On approaching the village of Nurrawalla, just without the range of the Enemy's Batteries the Infantry deployed into line, and Brigadier White formed his Cavalry in front of that village with its left back, and parallel to a gentle rising of the ground, on which was posted the Enemy's right, consisting of a large body of Afghans and Goorchurra Horse. From this position a fire of round shot was opened, and the Enemy's Cavalry extended to the right, so as to threaten to turn our left flank. To oppose the Enemy's Guns, I ordered Captain Duncan to move his Troop of Horse Artillery to the front, which he did in good style, and opened his fire within 5 or 600 yards. This movement was followed by the advance of Captain Huish's Troop, and both did considerable execution upon the Enemy, but did not prevent the attempt of the Afghans to outflank our left. The Scinde Horse were on the left of my line, and I ordered them to advance with a Squadron of the 9th Lancers, under Captain Campbell, a part of the former to be in reserve and supported by a Squadron of the 9th Lancers, under Major Grant, C. B., in echellon on the right. These Troops made a most brilliant charge upon the Enemy, at the same time I advanced the Guns and Cavalry towards the Enemy's line. The fire of the Guns soon put the Goorchurras in retreat, and the glorious charge of the Troops on the left caused their whole force to seek safety in retreat by the Burraduree. A Gun was captured during these proceedings, but as we were then considerably in advance of the left of the Infantry. Although Captain Duncan was enabled to enfilade a Battery opposed to them, and ignorant of the force the Enemy might have between the Burradurree and the town, a space covered with trees—it became necessary to proceed with caution, yet I soon was enabled to open a fire upon the Enemy, both on the right and left of the former place, which caused them considerable loss and hastened their retreat.

I may here observe, that all the Enemy's tents were left standing near the Burradurree, and on the Sikh right of the town, with probably much Baggage in them, all of which were probably plundered by the Camp followers.

The Enemy being now in full retreat, I moved Brigadier White's Brigade well to the left front, and soon forced the Enemy from the Jeelum road, and eventually from that of Beembur, also cutting off large bodies of the Enemy, much Baggage and many Guns, which were secured by this Brigade, as well as the Troops of the 2nd and 4th Brigades, which had been ordered to join in the pursuit. At 20 minutes past 4 P. M., none of the Enemy being in sight, and being, as was said by the villagers, nine or ten miles from Goojerat, I discontinued the pursuit and returned to Camp at this place. In this pursuit Captains Duncan and Huish's Troops of Artillery, latterly joined by Major Leeson and Major Blood's Troop of the same Arm, brought their Guns to bear upon the Enemy with good effect on several occasions, and their advance was as rapid as the intersected nature of the ground (by nullahs) would admit, and the 9th Lancers and 8th Light Cavalry made gallant attempts to close with the Enemy's Cavalry, which, however, were frustrated by the rapid retreat of the latter, yet a great number of the Enemy were slain by this Brigade in the pursuit. I witnessed the activity of Captain Unett, and part of his Squadron of the 3rd Light Dragoons and Brigadier White mentions that the whole of that Regiment was actively engaged in this work of retribution.

Being an eye-witness to all the movements of the 1st Brigade, I have great satisfaction in stating, that Brigadier White conducted them very much to my satisfaction. I am also well satisfied with the manner in which Lieutenant Colonel Fullerton, Majors Yerbury and Mackenzie commanded their respective Regiments, and in which Major Grant supported the charge of Cavalry on the left. The charge of the Scinde Horse reflects the highest credit on Captain Malcolm, and I have great pleasure in having witnessed the gallant bearing of all the Officers and men of this Brigade, during the operations of the day; and I feel sure that their only regret was that the Enemy's Cavalry so often declined the attack.

To Captains Duncan and Huish and Majors Leeson and Blood, I am much indebted for the manner in which they brought their Guns into action whenever an opportunity occurred, and the steadiness and good conduct of both Officers and men were very conspicuous.

I have now the pleasing duty to state, that I have received every assistance and support from my Deputy Assistant Adjutant General, Capt. Pratt, on the present occasion, as well as during the campaign. To my Deputy Assistant Quarter Master General, Lieut. Tucker, I am greatly indebted for his zeal, activity, intelligence and successful endeavors to procure intelligence of the movements of the Enemy during the operations, he as well as my Aid-de-Camp, Lieut. Thackwell, Lieut. Young, of the Engineers, Lieut. Carter, of the Pioneers and Cornet Beatson, of the 6th Light Cavalry, accompanied me during the Battle, and afforded me essential service in carrying my orders on various occasions during the operations of the day.

Brigadier White states how greatly he was satisfied with the conduct of his Brigade Major, Capt. Cautley, and the whole of the Officers and men of his Brigade.

As the operations of the 2nd and 4th Brigades of Cavalry did not come under my observations, except towards the latter end of the pursuit, I have the honor to forward Brigadier Lockwood's report, and it would appear therefrom that he conducted his Brigade judiciously; and I am gratified to learn that both Officers and men behaved greatly to his satisfaction, and that the 14th Light Dragoons and 1st Light Cavalry conducted themselves gallantly, and evinced every anxiety to close with the Enemy. I am happy to observe that the Brigadier has mentioned with great approbation the conduct of Lieut. Colonels Bradford and King, in Command of their Regiments; and I cannot avoid here stating, for the information of His Lordship, that I observed with much satisfaction, the zeal and judgment evinced by both Officers, when in Command of considerable bodies of Cavalry detached from the Camp at Chillianwalla on important duties.

I regret that I have not yet received any report from Brigadier Hearsey, or return of Casualties from his Brigade, or the Scinde Horse: these will be forwarded when they arrive.

I have, &c.,

DEPUTY ASSISTANT ADJUTANT GENERAL CAVALRY DIVISION ARMY OF THE PUNJAUB.

Camp Goojerat, 22d February 1849.

SIR,

I have the honor to report, for the information of Major General Sir Joseph Thackwell, commanding the Cavalry Division, that, on the morning of the 21st, I formed my Brigade as directed by his Excellency the Commander-in-Chief on the right rear of the 1st Division of Infantry, and parallel to Brigadier Markham's reserve; advancing in this Order until the Enemy opened their fire.

I then deployed the Brigade in the following manner: In the first line 5 troops H. M.'s 14th Light Dragoons, two Squadrons 1st Light Cavalry with the 1st Troop, 3rd Brigade Horse Artillery, on the left escorted by a Troop of the 14th and a Resillah 11th Irregular Cavalry. In support, the remainder of the 11th Irregular Cavalry, and in reverse, one Squadron 14th and one Squadron 1st Light Cavalry.

In the commencement of the Action I directed Captain Warner to open his fire upon a large body of the Enemy near a village in our front; but as they returned a heavy fire within accurate range I changed position left back, and the Horse Artillery ceased firing.

The Enemy's Horsemen now appeared in great force upon our right threatening to turn our flank, so I changed front to the right, directing the reserve to retain its front, and communicate with the Infantry.

Captain Warner's Guns opened with great effect upon the Horsemen and turned them, but they only retired a short distance, and then a Regiment of their Regular Cavalry moved round by a circuitous route, and got completely into our rear. I immediately detached towards them 3 Guns with a Squadron of the 14th, who, in conjunction with Major Christie's Corps of Irreg. Cavalry, drove them off.

About this time a large Gal of Horse came on towards me, and I prepared to charge, but as they turned at once from the fire of the Guns, and as there was a nullah in our front, I refrained from advancing after them. The Reserve also now advanced in support of Colonel Hervey's Brigade of Infantry.

I then received Orders from the Commander-in-Chief to bring on the Brigade, which I did and followed in pursuit of the Enemy, until I found myself parallel to the Cavalry under the Major General, when I placed myself in communication with him.

In the pursuit, the 14th Dragoons and 1st Light Cavalry cut down, or shot, a considerable number of the Sikh Infantry both Regular and Irregular, and Corporal William Pain, of the 14th Dragoons, captured a red silk standard, killing, in single combat, the Horseman who bore it.

I beg to state to the Major General that I had the greatest satisfaction in witnessing the steadiness of the Troops composing the Brigade, in performing several manœuvres under a heavy fire of Artillery.

My best thanks are due to Captain Warner, Horse Artillery, for the able and efficient manner in which he employed his Guns; also to Lieutenant Colonel Bradford, Commanding the 1st Light Cavalry; Lieutenant Colonel King, 14th Light Dragoons; Captain Masters, 11th Irregular Cavalry, and Lieutenant Robarts, 14th Irregular Cavalry; and Lieutenant Colonel Doherty, who commanded the Reserve.

I am also under the greatest obligations to my Brigade Major, Captain Yule, 9th Lancers, for the essential assistance he rendered me, not only during the action, but during the period I have commanded the 2nd Brigade.

I have, &c.,

TO CAPTAIN PRATT,
Assistant Adjutant General Cavalry Division,

Camp near Koree, 23rd February, 1849.

SIR,

I have the honor to report to Sir Joseph Thackwell, K. C. B., and K. H., Commanding the Cavalry Division of the Army of the Punjab, for the information of His Excellency the Right Hon'ble the Commander-in-Chief, that agreeable to instructions received from Captain Pratt, Assistant Adjutant General Cavalry Division; I joined at about 8-30 A. M. of the morning of the 21st instant; the Brigade of Cavalry on the right, under Brigadier Lockwood, with the 3rd and 9th Irregular Cavalry, and as Senior Cavalry Officer in the field on that flank. I assumed command of the whole of that arm as detailed in the margin, and a troop of Horse Artillery under Captain Warner, soon after the action commenced, by a cannonade and heavy bodies of Horse amongst them, apparently a regular regiment, showed in our front. The Cavalry under my command advanced towards them, and the Troop of Horse Artillery was sent to the front with its support (a Squadron of H. M. 14th Dragoons and a Squadron of Irregular Horse,) and opened a well directed fire of round and shrapnell, which made the Enemy fall back to a respectable distance. On this very numerous bodies of Horse went off to our right, apparently with the intention of turning that flank. I manœuvred to the right with the Irregular Brigade and kept them in check. About this time I received orders from His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief not to separate the left of the Cavalry too far from the column of Infantry advancing in that direction. I was therefore necessitated to close to the left, which I did with Brigadier Lockwood's Brigade. At the same time as they again pressed on my right, I ordered three guns to support it, the fire from which made the Enemy again draw off. I now observed it was their determination to turn the right, and as I had been joined by Colonel Doherty with two Squadrons, I placed him to fill the gap on my left, and ordered Brigadier Lockwood's Brigade and three guns to join the Irregulars on that flank. This checked the Enemy, but a very large body now advanced on the space on our left, I immediately opposed it with the Irregular Brigade and Brigadier Lockwood's with a half Battery, and the Enemy was again foiled, but they perceiving I had only the Artillery supports and Rissalah of Horse under the command of Lieutenant Robart's on my extreme right, made a last effort to turn it.

This was promptly met by the 3rd and 9th Irregulars being sent in that direction, the 9th advancing to meet them with the half Battery, thus foiled, they returned to our left; Major Christie following their movement. This was their last attempt, a Troop of Horse Artillery with supports of 1 Squadron of 9th Irregulars, commanded by Lieutenant and Adjutant Tytler, pushed to the front and got under the fire of their Artillery, when several men and horses suffered from round shot. It was now apparent from the distance of the sound of our guns that the Enemy were in retreat and Major Mackeson informed me it was His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief's wish, that all the Cavalry should pursue and prevent the Enemy carrying off their guns, I immediately directed Brigadier Lockwood's Brigade to take a sweep to the right and pushed on myself with the 3rd Irregulars and Lieutenant Robart's Rissalah with Captain Warner's Troop of Horse Artillery, the 9th Irregulars and 11th under Captain Masters, following as soon as they could get clear off a deep and quaggy nullah, and we perceived the Enemy in full retreat, after a canter of four miles. The Artillery opened upon the masses of men whilst the Cavalry advanced on the flank and overtook them near the villlage of Runnewall, where a great many of the Bunnoo Troops were sabred and shot. In this manner the pursuit continued until a deep nullah prevented the Horse Artillery getting on without delay. Here I left them with two Squadrons and pushed on again, overtaking another body and punishing them. I detached Captain Biddulph with half a Rissalah to ascertain the cause of a heavy cloud of dust to our left. He reported it was Sir J. Thackwell's Division, and I soon after heard his Battery of Horse Artillery open. Both Divisions of Cavalry were now closing on the Enemy, and Captain Biddulph was so fortunate as to capture five guns, and Major Christie another, that had been left in a nullah by the retreating foe. (Major Christie informs me that, this gun would have been left behind if he had not made great exertions in having it brought into Camp. He disclaims the capture of it J. B. H.) The pursuit continued to the village of Sainthul, when I met and reported to Sir J. Thackwell and from whence we returned to Camp. The distance, the Cavalry under my command went over in pursuit, was 15 miles. We did not get to the Camp of the Irregulars, near the Baradurree of Goojerat until 10 o'Clock at night, and had thus been 15 hours on horseback.

I have every reason to be pleased with the conduct of all the Officers under my command. Some difference arose as to carrying my orders into effect by Brigadier Lockwood, in consequence of his receiving directions from supreme authority of which I was not at the time aware, but I found him most zealous and desirous of having an opportunity to charge the Enemy at the head of H. M. 14th Dragoons. The conduct of that Regiment throughout the day was most exemplary and steady, and I have not the least doubt, had an opportunity occurred, it would have been most eagerly seized, to the utter destruction of any body opposed to it. Brigadier Lockwood's report will bear testimony to the energy of the Officers commanding Regiments in his Brigade, as I do most assuredly of those Officers commanding and in the Regiments of Irregular Cavalry. My thanks are due to Major Tait, C. B., commanding 3rd Irregulars, Major Christie, commanding 9th Irregulars, Captain Master, commanding 11th Irregulars, and Lieut. Robarts, commanding a Risallah of the 14th Irregulars. The conduct of the Horse Artillery was beyond all praise, and I feel much indebted to Captain Warner, his Officers and Men, for the able manner in which that noble Arm was employed.

I feel myself much indebted also to Lieutenant Neville Chamberlain, Brigade Major 4th Brigade Irregular Cavalry, for his assistance in the field during the forenoon, which I cannot too much appreciate, and for the example he set in several hand-to-hand affairs with a furious and exasperated Enemy during the pursuit. Lieutenant Crawford Chamberlain, 2nd in Command 9th Irregular Horse, although still suffering from his wound, was present with the Regiment the whole day, thus showing his usual energy.

Lieutenant and Adjutant Tytler, 9th Irregulars also brought to my notice the steadiness of a Squadron of that Regiment when under severe Artillery fire, by which one Sowar was killed, and several men and horses wounded.

I shall forward a List of Casualties as soon as I can get them from the different Officers in command of Regiments and parties, but from the constant marching we have had since the Battle of Goojerat, and the inclement weather we are now enduring, I have not as yet been able to get them.

I have, &c.

3 Company of Pioneers, Lieut. McMullin.

In Reserve.

2nd Infantry Brig. { 51st Regt. N I. / H. M's 32nd Foot. / 72nd Regt. N. I.

The 2nd Brigade in reserve, commanded by Brigadier Markham, and three to four hundred yards in rear, proceeded in contiguous quarter distance columns.

After advancing about two miles or more, the Enemy opened their fire, and after the Army had made some further progress, both Brigades, agreeably to His Lordship's orders, (and taken up from the left), deployed the Horse Artillery conforming thereto. Immediately afterwards the Troops of Horse Artillery and Skirmishers (of the 1st Brigade) were ordered to the front, the latter at 300 yards distance. I then requested Brigadier Markham to take ground to the left, that the interval made by the advance of Capt. Anderson's 4 guns, might be covered by the 72nd N. I. Both Troops began a spirited cannonade and continued it for about three hours, at the rate of 40 rounds per gun per hour, until the Enemy's guns, in our front, (like those, I believe, in front of every part of the line through a similar treatment) were silenced.

During the cannonade, on first receiving an order for the further advance of both troops, I learnt from Major Garbett, who was in command of them, that the guns in our left front had had so many horses killed and disabled, that they must await the arrival of others from the rear, which, I observed, were making quick progress to their Troop; and which shortly afterwards, I regret to say, lost its gallant Captain, who was mortally wounded by a cannon ball. The duties continued, however, to be efficiently prosecuted under the superintendence of Lieutenants Francis and Mecham, to the former of whom the command immediately devolved.

After this, both troops being well advanced to the front, and the Enemy making one or two threatening demonstrations, I thought it right to make a requisition in the Cavalry for a small Detachment for their protection, which was promptly complied with by Brigadier Lockwood.

On the advance of the line being directed, the right Brigade found the Enemy's Infantry in great force in its front, with a strong body of Cavalry in their left, which rendered it necessary for Brigadier Hervey to make a short flank movement to the right, and throw back the 52nd N. I. in order to counteract any attack the Enemy might have in contemplation.

As this unavoidably caused a great gap in the line, I thought it advisable to direct Brigadier Markham at once to occupy it by his Brigade, which was accordingly done, and the arrangement immediately reported to His Excellency. The Enemy were otherwise preparing to take advantage of this opening, but on seeing the 2nd Brigade advancing to it, halted and gave a few rounds of grape and matchlock fire, which was returned with full effect by file firing from the right of Divisions and Lieutenant Francis's guns, which latter were being replenished with ammunition, and for the moment in rear of the Infantry. Lieutenant Need, Aid-de-Camp, on noticing the Enemy's Cavalry and Infantry, immediately in front of the 2nd Brigade, had made known the same to Lieutenants Francis and Mecham, who, on his suggestion, instantly galloped to the front through an interval made for the purpose by H. M.'s 32nd Regiment, and with a few rounds of grape, co-operated with the Infantry (who were advancing to charge) in sending back the Enemy in great confusion.

In the flank movement by the 1st Brigade, already adverted to, and which under a heavy fire from the Enemy of round, grape and matchlock, with the reformation to line (on discovering that the Enemy did not make the anticipated attack) was effected in the most steady and orderly manner. Capt. Mackenzie, by his able and judicious co-operation, made his Troop particularly useful, and on the Enemy's declining to receive the charge of H. M's. 10th and the 8th and 52nd N. I. poured in such a continued fire of shrapnell and round upon their retiring masses as with what had occurred from the 2nd Brigade, effectually to prevent any further threat or molestation to the Division under my command, and as far as I could observe every part of the line had been gradually successful in defeating the purposes of the Enemy, who, long before noon, must have discovered that the entire loss of their Guns, Ammunition, Camp Equipage and Cattle was inevitable.

On reaching Goojerat the 2nd Brigade, agreeably to His Lordship's orders, commenced collecting the Enemy's abandoned guns, 19 of which were sent in by them forthwith, and occupied the town with the following details, under Major Case, H. M.'s 32nd Regt. (which was afterwards reinforced by the 36th Regt. N. I.)

2 Companies H.M's. 32nd Regt. under Capt. Pigott.
2 Companies 51st Regt. N. I. under Lieutenant Wallace.

Possession of the 8 gates was first taken, and then of the fort, where about 80 of the Enemy laid down their arms, and were made over as prisoners to the 36th Regt. N. I. with other small parties found in different parts of the town, that with few exceptions, made no resistance. The above four Companies captured a gun, standard, and some horses, with the loss of one man killed of H. M.'s 32nd and an Officer of the same corps wounded, Lieut. Jeffry. The 1st Brigade, on halting here, detached a sub-division o H. M.'s 10th Regt. and the Grenadier Company of 52nd N. I. to expel a party of 200 of the Enemy in occupation of the temple and garden, in rear of which the 8th Regt N. I. is now encamped, which was effected with trifling loss on our side, but the Enemy had 30 or 40 killed and wounded, and a great number taken prisoners.

It is particularly satisfactory to me to bring to the favorable notice of the Right Hon'ble the Commander-in-Chief the conduct of the Division under my command during the services of, yesterday, performed under His Lordship's immediate orders and direction, and consisting of in fact, the Horse Artillery and Infantry of the (Bengal) Mooltan Field Force, with the exception of the 49th Regiment Native Infantry on detached duty. Brigadiers Hervey and Markham conducted their Brigades, under the various circumstances of the day, (some of which I have briefly specified,) in a manner that merits the strongest commendation, and they were, as heretofore, admirably supported by the Officers in command of Regiments, viz,:

Lieutenant Colonel Franks, C. B., Her Majesty's 10th Regiment.
„ Brooke, ditto 32nd ditto.

Brevet Major Griffin, 51st Regiment Native Infantry.
Captain Jamieson, 52nd ditto ditto ditto.
„ Lloyd, 72nd ditto ditto ditto.

I cordially unite with both Brigadiers, in the expression of thanks to the above Officers for the intelligence and zeal with which they carried out their orders, and to all the Officers and men, under their command for the steadiness and prompt obedience so uniformly evinced throughout the Division.

Brigadier Hervey acknowledges the services of his Brigade Major Captain Wiggins, in high terms of commendation; and the active assistance he received throughout the day from Lieutenant B. Reid, (34th Regiment Native Infantry) Interpretor to Her Majesty's 10th Regiment; as does Brigadier Markham those of his Brigade Major Captain Balfour Her Majesty's 32nd Regiment (who has happily recovered from the wound he received in the action of the 12th September last,) and of Ensign Fraser 23rd Regiment, appointed acting Interpreter of 49th Regiment Native Infantry, who (is awaiting the arrival of this Regiment from Mooltan, and who) gladly made his services useful to the Brigadier.

To Major Garbett, commanding the Horse Artillery attached to my Division, my best acknowledgments are due for his unremitting attention to both troops under his command, and particularly in matters, the Officers Commanding them were not so able of themselves to give directions about. He mentions in the highest terms (as does Brigadier Harvey) Captain Mackenzie and his Troop, and notices that, after the lamented death of Captain J. Anderson, the 4 guns of his Troop were well commanded by Lieutenant Francis; and I heartily concur in the testimony he bears to the admirable conduct of the Officers and men of both Troops who worked their Guns with a rapidity and precision that would have been impracticable except from their uniform coolness and steadiness under a heavy fire from the Enemy at both positions, 1st at 1,000 yards, and 2dly at 500 yards. Major Garbett also notices in most favorable terms the able assistance rendered him by Lieutenant De Feissier, Acting Adjutant, 1st Brigade Horse Artillery.

Lieutenant McMullin and his Company of Pioneers deserve much credit, having continued with the 4th Troop 1st Brigade Horse Artillery, and rendered useful service whenever called upon.

Having but recently had my attention drawn to the circumstances I am about to mention, I think, in justice to the gallant Officer affected by them, I may be permitted so to do though they refer to anterior conflicts with the Enemy. On the 12th September last after Lieutenant Colonel Pattoun was mortally wounded, the command of the 6 Companies, Her Majesty's 32nd Regiment, devolved on Major Inglis, and through the exertions of the gallant Troops employed, the Enemy's strong position was carried: and a similar result occurred on the 7th of November last, when, from Lieutenant Colonel Brooke, having the command of one of the two Columns of attack; that of Her Majesty's 32nd Regiment again devolved on Major Inglis, whose conduct in that important trust was highly satisfactory to the Brigadier Commanding, and I have accordingly great satisfaction in soliciting the favorable notice of His Excellency to the same.

Major Napier, (attended by Lieutenant Greathed) of Engineers, who was attached for the day to the two Divisions on the right, aided me much by occasionally reconnoitring positions we were approaching; and in giving me the advantage of his reconnoissance of the preceding day. Captain Glasfurd and Lieutenant J. B. Smith, of Engineers, having been directed to join me, were extremely useful during the day; and I feel much indebted to both; as also to Captain Cheape (51st Native Infantry) late Treasurer to the Mooltan Field Force, who attended me throughout, and for whom, it was not difficult to find frequent and active employment.

Major Becher, Assistant Quarter Master General, and Captain Whish, Deputy Assistant Adjutant General of the Division, as also my Aides-de-Camp, Captain J. C. Kenedy, Her Majesty's 18th Foot, and Lieutenant A. Need, Her Majesty's 14th Light Dragoons, afforded me every assistance, and are entitled to my best thanks for their attention and zeal. The Horse of the Deputy Assistant Adjutant General from which he had just dismounted, having on the commencement of our cannonade been severely wounded by a cannon shot, it was some time before another could join from the rear, and intermediately, a Camel served him as a tolerable substitute.

I beg respectfully in conclusion, to offer to the Right Honorable the Commander-in-Chief my hearty congratulations on the complete success of His Lordship's arrangements for the day, and on an issue, which, under Divine Providence, has been permitted to be most triumphant.

I have, &c.,

To Lieutenant Colonel P. GRANT, C. B., Adjutant General of the Army.

Camp Nowrungabad, 24th February, 1849.

Sir,

I have to apologize for the delay which has taken place in complying with General Orders of the 21st instant, directing reports of the proceedings of the Troops employed against the Enemy to be forwarded for the information of His Excellency the Right Hon'ble the Commander-in-Chief; but having been, as you are aware, constantly on the move since the morning after the action near Goojerat, in pursuit of the fugitive Sikh Army, I have not had an opportunity of doing so.

I have now to report for the information of His Lordship, that the 2nd Infantry Division, consisting of the Troops mentioned in the margin, advanced from Shadawalla on the morning of the 21st instant, in line of quarter distance columns, at deploying distance, leaving a Battery of Heavy Guns under Major Horsford of Artillery between the two Brigades, No. 17, Light Field Battery under Command of Captain Dawes, and Bt. Major Fordyce's Troop of Horse Artillery, between the Right Regiments of the Left and Right Brigades respectively.

3rd Brigade.
- 31st Regt. N. I.
- 2nd European Regt.
- 70th Regt. N. I.

4th Brigade.
- 30th Regt. N. I.
- H. M.'s 29th Foot.
- 56th Regt. N. I.

Having received orders to push forward my Light Troops, to force the Enemy to show their position, I immediately advanced the Troop of Horse Artillery and Dawes' Light Field Battery, which instantly drew a very heavy and well directed fire from two large Batteries which the Enemy had established on either side of the village of Kalerah, by which they were nearly screened from the fire of our Guns, which, with the Light Companies, were then still further pushed forward, followed by the Division which had deployed into line; the Heavy Guns in our centre, at this time, opening a very destructive cannonade. Up to this time the village above named seemed to be unoccupied, and I directed a party of Infantry to take possession of it. Upon the approach of this party a tremendous fire of musquetry was opened from the walls, which were loopholed in every direction; the 2nd European Regiment was then ordered up in support, under the command of Major Steel, and soon carried it after a most obstinate resistance, in which that gallant Regiment suffered rather severely, as well as upon its emerging from the village; soon after which the Enemy left many of their Guns and fled in the greatest confusion.

It affords me the highest satisfaction to record the valuable services of Brigadier A. S. H. Mountain C. B., and of Brigadier N. Penny, C. B. who led the 2nd European Regiment to the attack of the village, in the most gallant and exemplary manner. I should wish particularly to mention the very great assistance I received from Major Horsford, Commanding the Heavy Battery, and Major Fordyce, Commanding 2nd Troop 2nd Brigade Horse Artillery, and Captain Dawes' Commanding No. 17 Light Field Battery. It is impossible to praise too highly their conduct and that of all those under their command.

I beg likewise to bring to His Excellency's notice the valuable assistance I received from my Divisional and Personal Staff, Brevet Captain J. A. D. Fergusson, Deputy Assistant Adjutant General, Lieut. A. S. Galloway, Deputy Assistant Quarter Master General, Lieut. Col. Aid-de-Camp, Captain Sherwill and Lieut. MacDonnell Majors of Brigade, and Captain Goldie and Lieut. Irwin, of the Engineers.

Captain W. P. Robbins, 15th N. I., who acted as my Aid-de-Camp during the action afforded me great and active assistance, as did also Lieut. H. B. Hopper 31st Native Infantry, (orderly Officer.)

My warmest thanks are due to Lieut. Col. Congreve, C. B., H. M.'s 29th Foot, Lieut. Col Jack, 30th N. I. and Lieut.-Col. Holmes, 56th Native Infantry and to Majors J. Steel, 2nd European Regiment, W. R. Corfield, 31st N. Infantry, and J. R. McCausland, 70th N. Infantry (severely wounded in the attack on the village of Kalerah) for the exemplary manner in which they led their Regiments. I trust I may be permitted to bring to His Excellency's notice the name of Brevet Captain G. Gordon, 50th N. I., Officiating Sub-Assistant Commissary General, who, at my request, destroyed the Enemy's Camp Equipage and Loose Ammunition.

The conduct of all the Troops under my command, European and Native, under a terrific and well directed cannonade, was such as to call forth my highest commendation.

In conclusion, I regret, that in consequence of our being so constantly on the move, since the action, I am unable to forward herein the Returns of Casualties, but I shall do myself the honor to transmit them with the least possibly delay.

I have &c.,

(Signed) W. GILBERT, Major General,

Commanding 2nd Infantry Division, Army of the Punjab.

P. S. In the absence of the regular returns I may here add that the amount of loss is very trifling considering the heavy fire kept up by the Enemy's Artillery on the centre of the Division, where the Heavy Guns were, the 2nd European Regiment having only lost eight men killed, and 135 wounded, the 31st N. I. 11 men killed, and 131 wounded, and 70th N. I., 10 killed and 40 wounded.

In the 4th Brigade H. M.'s 29th Regiment lost only 2 men and 6 wounded, the 30th N. I. 3 men wounded, and the 56th N. I. only one man wounded.

To Lieutenant Colonel GRANT, C. B., Adjutant General of the Army.

Camp Doulutnuggur, February 23rd, 1849.

Sir,

I have the honor to report to you for the information of the Right Hon'ble the Commander-in-Chief, that in obedience to the orders, I received from His Lordship at daylight of the 21st instant, I formed the Brigades of the 3rd Division, commanded by Brigadiers Carnegy and McLeod, with the Light Field Batteries attached to them, close to the left bank of the nullah, which passed in front of the village of Shadewal a little after 7 A. M. The Brigade, under Brigadier Hoggan, was formed at the same time in rear to act as a reserve to the whole force intended to be employed on that side of the nullah.

In the advance to the attack of the Enemy's position, His Lordship desired me to keep close to the left side of the nullah and to preserve my communication with the Heavy Guns, which were placed on the opposite bank.

His Lordship further directed me to approach, but not to pass that part of the nullah, behind which the right of the Emeny's Army was formed, without further instructions from him.

With a view to the effectual fulfilment of His Lordship's wishes to maintain close communication with the Heavy Guns on my right, and to prevent their molestation by the Enemy from the nullah, I directed the Light Company of H. M.'s 24th to occupy and move along the nullah in advance of the Heavy Guns, and to render the communication more secure, I supported this Company with two Guns from No. 10, Light Field Battery which moved close along the bank of the nullah.

The two Brigades were formed, in the first instance, in contiguous columns of Regiments, (the Brigades at full distance) covered by a strong line of Skirmishers, and these immediately supported by Nos. 5 and 10, Light Field Batteries, attached to them respectively. These Skirmishers communicated on the left with those covering the front of the Bombay Division, which were likewise supported by the Troop of Horse Artillery belonging to that Force. The whole line moved forward at ¼ before 8 A. M., in this order, with the regularity of Troops at a review. The country we passed over in our advance was perfectly level, highly cultivated and without an obstruction, being merely dotted here and there with an occasional tree.

At ½ past 9 the Skirmishers having arrived within long range of the Enemy's Guns, the columns were deployed into line, when we again moved forward; at this time the Right Wing of the Enemy's Army was plainly to be seen, formed directly in our front beyond a turn in the Nullah which seemed to run parallel to the front of their position, in the centre of which and nearly opposite to Nos. 5 and 10, Light Field Batteries, they had two very Heavy Guns, and several 6 and 9-Pounders field Guns, which then opened fire, that from the former, in the first instance, caused some loss in the batteries, and here it was, I regret to say, that Lieutenant Day, of the Artillery, a very brave and most promising young Officer was killed by a cannon ball.

The line moved onwards to the front, keeping in communication with, and as much as possible, in the allinement of the Heavy Guns, while the Field Batteries kept up so destructive a fire upon the Enemy in their front, in position behind the nullah, that they finally obliged the whole force to abandon it, and take shelter under cover of the bank of the nullah, and from which they were afterwards driven in confusion and flight, by an enfilading fire from these same Field Batteries.

About ¾ of an hour before the Enemy had been finally driven in flight from the nullah and from the field, a great effort was made by many, apparently of the principal Chiefs, to bring forward a large body of their Cavalry, which was followed in a tumultuous manner by the Infantry, which had taken shelter in the Nullah to attack the centre of the Bombay Division. This attack was taken in flank by No. 5 Field Battery, and caused great loss to the Enemy, both in his short advance and subsequent retreat.

The Infantry of the 3rd Division had not occasion to fire a shot. The Enemy were driven from their different positions, and from the Field by the fire of these two Field Batteries, aided by that of the Bombay Troop of Horse Artillery.

I cannot find language to express my sense of the calm, steady and admirable manner, in which these two Batteries were commanded and worked by Major Mowatt, the Commanding Officer, and by Major Ludlow and Lieutenant Robertson, the former Commanding No. 5, the latter No. 10 Battery, nor am I able adequately to express my admiration of the bravery and gallantry of the other Officers of these Batteries and of their Non-Commissioned Officers and men, all of whom I beg to recommend, in an especial manner, to the favorable notice of the Right Hon'ble the Commander-in-Chief.

After the Troops had crossed the nullah, I received His Lordship's orders to follow the troops of the Right Wing, in their movement, towards the East side of Goojerat, while the Bombay Division passed the town on the other side. After clearing the town the Division again resumed its communication with the Bombay Troops, and proceeded with them in advance, together with the Troops of the 2nd Division on our right, until ordered to halt and encamp.

I beg leave to bring to the favorable notice of the Commander-in-Chief the conduct of Brigadiers Carnegie and McLeod to whom I feel much indebted for the brave example they set their men and for the Officer,-ike manner in which they managed their respective Brigades during the day. Brigadier Hoggan, Commanding the Reserve, was under the immediate orders of Brigadier General Dundas on the left.

The two former Brigadiers speak in strong terms of the merits and services during the day, of their respective Brigade Majors, Captain Clarke, of the 25th Native Infantry, and Captain Keiller, of the 6th Native Infantry; and I can confirm their opinion of the zeal, activity and value of these Officers' services from my own personal observation.

I beg also to recommend to the favorable notice of the Commander-in-Chief the conduct of the several Officers commanding Regiments, who all set an example of the greatest gallantry to their respective Corps, viz. Lieutenant Colonel Smith, Her Majesty's 24th Regiment, Lieutenant Colonel Corbett, 25th Native Infantry, Lieutenant Colonel Jones, Her Majesty's 61st, Major Tudor, 46th Native Infantry, and Captain Lang, 36th Native Inantry, they are all truly deserving of His Lordship's favorable notice and approbation. Lieutenant Colonel Jones, of Her Majesty's 61st, speaks in terms of praise of the assistance he received from the two Majors of that Regiment, Major Campbell and Major Stephens; and Lieutenant Colonel Smith, of Her Majesty's 24th Regiment, in a similar manner, notices the conduct of Major Blachford of that Corps.

I received, during the day, the most cordial and valuable assistance from Major Ponsonby, Assistant Adjutant General of the Division, with whom I have found a real pleasure in being associated with on service, and to whom I owe great obligation for the able and careful manner in which he conducts the duties of his department.

I beg to recommend to the particular notice of His Lordship the Commander-in-Chief the conduct of Ensign Garden, Deputy Assistant Quarter Master General, to whom I am also under many obligations for the zeal and ability with which he performs his various duties.

Captain Durand and Lieutenant Morton, of the Engineers, were attached to the 3rd Division, during the action, and accompanied me during the day; they rendered me valuable assistance, and I owe to them, accordingly, my warmest acknowledgments.

I cannot conclude this report without also bringing to the notice of the Commander-in-Chief the willing and valuable assistance afforded me by my Aid-de-Camp Captain Haythorne, and also by my brother Officer Lieutenant Shadwell, of Her Majesty's 98th Regiment, who was present in the action as a Volunteer.

I beg herewith to enclose a Return of the Killed and Wounded, together with a present state of the Troops actually engaged, and returns of the quantity of Ammunition expended.

I have, &c.,

Commanding 3rd Division, Army of the Punjab.

(No. 149 of 1849.)

From BRIGADIER GENERAL H. DUNDAS, C. B.,
Commanding Bombay Column, Army of the Punjab,

To The ADJUTANT GENERAL OF THE BENGAL ARMY,

Head-Quarters, dated Camp Saikerwalla, 22nd February, 1849.

Sir,

I have the honor to inform you that, agreeably to the orders I received, the Bombay Infantry Division was formed on the left of the Line. I advanced for some distance in contiguous columns at quarter distance, the 60th Rifles, under Lieutenant Colonel Bradshaw, and 3rd Troop Horse Artillery, under Major Blood, being thrown in advance. The Division deployed into line, and gradually advanced as the attack on the right developed itself. A party of the Enemy's Horse made a demonstration of attacking the line, but speedily moved off to their own right on receiving one or two rounds from Major Blood's Troops. A Battery of the Enemy, which was in front of the Bengal Division, was also quickly silenced by this Troop, which made excellent practice. The Division kept gradually advancing without firing a shot, the Enemy moving off so fast we could not reach him, the Artillery taking every advantage of opening its fire that was afforded. The Infantry kept constantly advancing, passing through the Enemy's Camp, which was left standing, and round the town of Goojerat on the left, bringing up the left shoulders. The ground at the first was studded with bushes and hedges of Prickly Pear, which caused some delay in getting through, and on reaching the open country again not a sign of the Enemy was to be seen. Two Guns were abandoned by him on this side of the Town. Not a casualty occurred in the Infantry Division or in the Troop, with the exception of two Horses. The Troop afterwards accompanied Major General Sir Joseph Thackwell's Division of Cavalry in pursuit of the Enemy, and it has been reported to me, by Brigadier Leeson, Commanding Bombay Artillery, that it rendered good service. The Scinde Horse, under Lieut. Malcolm, having been attached for the day to Major General Sir Joseph Thackwell's Division, I had not an opportunity of witnessing a most successful and gallant charge, which was made by that distinguished Regiment against a party of the Enemy's Horse, which was completely overthrown with the loss of their standards, and the attempt to turn our left, which the Enemy showed a disposition to try, altogether frustrated. This success was not gained without some loss, which amounted to 3 killed, and 16 or 17 wounded. The Field Battery, under Captain Turnbull, was attached to the Force protecting the Baggage, where the Troops never came in contact with the Enemy, who moved off with the utmost rapidity, there is little room for remark on their conduct, beyond making a steady and regular advance, and for a long distance, and preserving a good order of formation. I had every reason to be satisfied with the conduct of all—and my thanks are due to Brigadier Capon, Commanding the 1st Infantry Brigade, to Lieutenant Colonel Bradshaw, Commanding 60th Rifles, Major Hallett, Commanding 3rd Regiment N. I., Major Mignon, Commanding 1st Bombay Fusiliers, Major Maut, Commanding 19th Regiment N. I., Brigadier Leeson, Commanding the Artillery, rendering every assistance, and Major Blood, in Command of the Troop, is entitled to every credit for the efficient service the Troop was enabled to perform.

The steady and good order in which the Brigade of the Bengal Army moved under Brigadier Hoggan, which was in support of the Bombay Division, was very praiseworthy.

I am indebted to the Officers of the Divisional Staff for the active assistance they afforded me, Major Green, Assistant Adjutant General, Captain Hart, Deputy Assistant Adjutant General, Captain Ramsay, the Assistant Quarter Master General, Captain Skinner, the Deputy Judge Advocate General, Major St. John, Paymaster General, Lieutenant Mules, of the 1st Fusiliers, Post Master, Lieutenant Ward, 60th Rifles, my Aid-de-Camp, and Lieutenant Crawley, 15th Hussars, Aid-de-Camp to Major General Aitchison, Commanding Mysore Division, who officiated as my Aid-de-Camp,* Lieut. Stevenson, Brigade Major of Artillery, rendered every assistance in his Department. The Sappers and Miners, under Lieut. Kendall, were kept prepared for any duty that might have been required in sloping down nullahs for the Guns, &c., but the ground was so favorable for the movement of the Troops that their exertions were not required in this duty. My thanks are also due to Captain Threshie, Assistant Commissary General, on this occasion, as also for the efficient manner in which the duties of his Department have been conducted.

* Brigadier Capon also reports favorably of the assistance he derived from Capt. Stiles, Major of Brigade, and Lieut. Gordon, 60th Rifles, who officiated as Aid-de-Camp

Lieutenant Henry, 19th Regiment N. I., Aid-de-Camp to the Right Honorable the Governor of Bombay, and who was placed in political charge of the Prisoner of War, the Dewan Moolraj joined me in the afternoon, having ridden post from Lahore on purpose to be present, after delivering over charge of his Prisoner on the 20th instant.

Herewith I enclose a list of casualties, which is principally in Horses, together with a Return of Ammunition expended.

FROM MAJOR J. S. LEESON, Brigadier Commanding Artillery Brigade, Bombay Division,

TO THE ASSISTANT ADJUTANT GENERAL, Bombay Division,

Camp Goojerat, 22nd February, 1849.

SIR,

In compliance with your order, I have the honor to report that the 3rd or Major Blood's Troop of Horse Artillery was ordered to accompany the Cavalry Division under General Sir Joseph Thackwell, K. C. B., at about half past 1 yesterday to follow the Enemy, who were then retreating, with this Troop, I proceeded accompanied by Lieutenant Hamilton and my Staff.

After proceeding at a Trot and Gallop for about 9 miles we joined the Cavalry Division and soon joined the Enemy's rear, and at a distance of about 400 yards opened fire with manifest good effect; they were then attempting to carry off 3 Guns, and a considerable body of Cavalry were hovering round to afford them protection, this they were unable to effect as our well directed fire soon obliged the Enemy to abandon their Guns, Camels, Carts, Bullocks, &c., and a great proportion of their Baggage, which fell into our hands.

The Enemy still continnuing to retreat in a most disorderly manner we advanced at a Gallop for about 3 miles, and again opened fire with such effect that they were compelled to abandon another Gun.

We again advanced some distance further, and were halted by order of the General Commanding, who proceeded, and at quarter to 5 P. M., we began to fall back towards Camp, which we reached at half past 8 o'Clock P. M.

I have, &c.

SATURDAY, MARCH 10, 1849.

Fort William, Home Department, Legislative, the 3rd March, 1849.

The following Act is passed by the Hon'ble the President of the Council of India in Council, on the 3rd March 1849, with the assent of the Right Hon'ble the Governor General of India, which has been read and recorded.

Ordered, that the Act be promulgated for general information.

ACT No. V. OF 1849.

An Act for better defining the Duties of Customs and Excise.

Whereas under the Regulations in force for taking a duty of twenty Spanish Dollars for each and every Leaguer of Arrack or Asiatic Rum imported into and intended for consumption within Prince of Wales' Island, Singapore and Malacca, doubts have arisen whether any duty may be taken on importation of a quantity less than a Leaguer, and it is expedient that such doubts be removed, and that the meaning of all such or the like expressions in any Regulation or Act for the levy of Customs or Excise Duties within the territories under the Government of the East India Company be plainly declared, It is declared and enacted as follows:

I. Whenever by any Regulation or Act now or hereafter to be in force, not containing any direction to the contrary, a certain duty of Customs or Excise, or in the nature thereof, is leviable on any given quantity, by weight, measure or value, of any goods or merchandise, a like duty is leviable according to the same rate on any greater or less quantity.

FRED. JAS. HALLIDAY,
Secy. to Govt. of India.

No. 12.

Fort William, Financial Department, the 22nd April, 1848.

NOTIFICATION.—Notice is hereby given, that in pursuance of instructions received from the Hon'ble the Court of Directors, the Governments of Bengal, Madras and Bombay, have been authorized, in any case in which they may consider such a course to be expedient, to dispense with the obligation to insure, which is imposed by the existing terms and conditions upon parties who may obtain Advances from the respective Governments, on the Security of Goods hypothecated to the East India Company—intimating to them that the Hon'ble Court will make the Insurance in England,—and requiring a Declaration binding the parties to re-pay the premium upon Insurances, which the Court may effect before the Bills of Lading and other Shipping documents are handed over to their Agents.

It is to be understood, that the Insurance to be effected, will only be to the amount of the Advance in each case, so as to cover the East India Company's risk.

Light House on Cape Otway.

The Light House on Cape Otway, Bass's Straits, latitude 38 degrees 51 minutes South, longitude 143 degrees 29 minutes East, having been completed and lighted on the 29th August, 1848, a light is burning, and will continue from sunset until sunrise.

The reef off Cape Otway is one-half to three-quarters of a mile distant, bearing south-east to south-south-west, and extends 1¼ miles westward.

The Light House is erected on a cliff 251 feet 6 inches above highwater mark; the supporting column is 45 feet high, and the lantern 7 feet high.

From highwater mark to the centre of the light is 300 feet.

The light is a revolving catoptric of three groups of lamps, each group containing 7 lamps; the entire revolves round once in 2 minutes 39 seconds', shewing a flash of light of 3 seconds duration, and 50 seconds of darkness.

It is estimated that the light will be seen 8 leagues.

XIV. Any Officer of Salt Chokies, or any Officer of another Department, duly empowered to make a seizure of salt, who shall delay carrying any person arrested, or any illicit articles seized, under this Act, to the Superintendent, or who shall neglect to report the particulars of an arrest, seizure or search, within twenty-four hours thereafter shall be liable to a fine, not exceeding two hundred Rupees.

Provided that nothing in this section shall be construed to prevent the Superintendent releasing any persons arrested, or property seized, when he considers such persons or property to have been improperly arrested or seized.

XXVI. When any penalty or confiscation shall be adjudged by a Justice of the Peace under this Act, the Board of Customs, Salt and Opium, within ten days after judgment given, may call for the proceedings of the case, (with which requisition the Justice of the Peace shall be bound to comply) and, if they shall see cause, may direct that the seizure or any part thereof be restored, and remit or mitigate the penalty and discharge the party.

XXVII. All actions and prosecutions to be commenced against the Superintendent or any Officer of Salt Chokies, or any Officer of another Department duly empowered to seize contraband salt, or any person acting in aid of the Superintendent or other Officer as aforesaid, for any thing done in pursuance of this Act, shall be commenced within three calendar months after the fact committed, and not afterwards; and notice in writing of such action, and of the cause thereof, shall be given to the Defendant, one calendar month at least, before the commencement of the action; and no Plaintiff shall recover, in any such action, if tender of sufficient amends shall have been made before such action brought, or if after action brought, a sufficient sum of money shall have been paid into Court, with costs, by or on behalf of the Defendant.

III. Every copy of such an agreement, certified by the Registrar to be a true copy, shall in all cases be taken as evidence of the contents thereof on behalf of the Seaman, and no Seaman shall in any case be required to produce such agreement, or such copy as aforesaid, or to give notice for the production thereof; but, if the agreement shall not be produced and proved, he shall be at liberty to prove the contents or purport thereof, or to establish his claim by other evidence according to the nature of the case.

The following Act is passed by the Hon'ble the President of the Council of India in Council, on the 3rd March 1849, with the assent of the Right Hon'ble the Governor General of India, which has been read and recorded.

Ordered, that the Act be promulgated for general information.

ACT No. V. OF 1849.

An Act for better defining the Duties of Customs and Excise.

Whereas under the Regulations in force for taking a duty of twenty Spanish Dollars for each and every Leaguer of Arrack or Asiatic Rum imported into and intended for consumption within Prince of Wales' Island, Singapore and Malacca, doubts have arisen whether any duty may be taken on importation of a quantity less than a Leaguer, and it is expedient that such doubts be removed, and that the meaning of all such or the like expressions in any Regulation or Act for the levy of Customs or Excise Duties within the territories under the Government of the East India Company be plainly declared, It is declared and enacted as follows:

1. Whenever by any Regulation or Act now or hereafter to be in force, not containing any direction to the contrary, a certain duty of Customs or Excise, or in the nature thereof, is leviable on any given quantity, by weight, measure or value, of any goods or merchandise, a like duty is leviable according to the same rate on any greater or less quantity.

NOTIFICATION.—Notice is hereby given, that in pursuance of instructions received from the Hon'ble the Court of Directors, the Governments of Bengal, Madras and Bombay, have been authorized, in any case in which they may consider such a course to be expedient, to dispense with the obligation to insure, which is imposed by the existing terms and conditions upon parties who may obtain Advances from the respective Governments, on the Security of Goods hypothecated to the East India Company—intimating to them that the Hon'ble Court will make the Insurance in England,—and requiring a Declaration binding the parties to re-pay the premium upon Insurances, which the Court may effect before the Bills of Lading and other Shipping documents are handed over to their Agents.

It is to be understood, that the Insurance to be effected, will only be to the amount of the Advance in each case, so as to cover the East India Company's risk.

The Light House on Cape Otway, Bass's Straits, latitude 38 degrees 51 minutes South, longitude 143 degrees 29 minutes East, having been completed and lighted on the 29th August, 1848, a light is burning, and will continue from sunset until sunrise.

The reef off Cape Otway is one-half to three-quarters of a mile distant, bearing south-east to south-south-west, and extends 1¼ miles westward.

The Light House is erected on a cliff 251 feet 6 inches above highwater mark; the supporting column is 45 feet high, and the lantern 7 feet high.

From highwater mark to the centre of the light is 300 feet.

The light is a revolving catoptric of three groups of lamps, each group containing 7 lamps; the entire revolves round once in 2 minutes 39 seconds', shewing a flash of light of 3 seconds duration, and 50 seconds of darkness.

It is estimated that the light will be seen 8 leagues.

Benares Ditto,	820
Total Chests,	3,040

2. Out of the abovementioned quantity, 55 Chests of Behar Opium are reserved for the French Government.

3. The general conditions of the sale now advertized will be the same as usual. They may be ascertained by reference to the Notification issued on the 13th September 1848, and published in the Calcutta and Exchange Gazettes, or on application at the Office of the Board of Customs, Salt and Opium.

4. The latest dates for deposit and clearance will be the 21st March and 3rd April 1849, respectively; that is to say, no Sub-Treasurer's Receipts, Company's Paper, or other Public Securities that may be tendered for Deposit, in redemption of Promissory Notes, given by purchasers at the Sale, will be received after 4 P. M. of Wednesday, the 21st March 1849; and no Treasury Receipts in full payment of lots will be accepted after 4 P. M. of Tuesday, the 3rd April 1849.

By order of the Board of Customs, Salt and Opium, the 3rd March, 1849,

CECIL BEADON, Secretary.

OPIUM NOTIFICATION.—With reference to the Advertisement issued from this office under date 13th September 1848, it is hereby notified, that 20 Chests of Behar Opium of the February Sale, which were reserved for the French Government, and have not been cleared, will be re-sold on account of Government at the Exchange Rooms, on Monday, the 19th March 1849, immediately after the conclusion of the Sale of 3,040 Chests advertised for that day.

2. The Conditions of re-sale will be the same as those of the Sale of the 3,040 Chests referred to.

NOTIFICATION.—An examination will be held early in April 1849, in the College of Fort William, for the purpose of filling up existing Vacancies in the Military class of the Medical College. All candidates will be expected to possess a knowledge of the Hindustani Language, adequate to enable them to read and write it in the Persian or Devanagri character.

2nd. All Interpreters of Regiments and Battalions will be requested, through the Military Departments, not to grant certificates of qualification to any candidate under the age of fifteen and above that of twenty years; and likewise to reject all who may not pass the prescribed ordeal with a sufficient degree of fluency and facility. Much disappointment, expense, and inconvenience have already been experienced by lads from distant stations being furnished with certificates, who were found, on examination, quite unqualified for admission; and it is with a view to prevent the recurrence of this, that the above measure has been adopted.

3rd. Candidates for admission will be required to present themselves before the Secretary to the Medical College, at least three days prior to the day of examination, in order that a proper descriptive roll may be prepared for transmission to the Examiners of the College of Fort William.

4th. The preference in selection, attainments being equal, will be given to those who have already been attached to, or served in Civil or Regimental Hospitals.

5th. No candidate will be allowed to present himself for examination, who cannot produce a written testimonial of his conduct and character, or afford satisfactory evidence as to who and what he is. A few individuals of decidedly bad character have, upon recent occasions, managed to obtain admittance, it is supposed, by producing false papers; the strictest care and scrutiny will therefore be exercised in examining the credentials of all future candidates, who will, in addition, require to be furnished with regular muster rolls, in order that they may be identified.

6th. All pupils must, as a condition of their appointment, reside within the College premises at all times, and never be absent from morning and evening muster without special leave.

7th. All students in the Military class are amenable to the Articles of War, and regularly enlisted as Soldiers.

8th. No candidate will be admitted to the school, who is physically unfit for the duties of a Soldier.

The Calcutta Gazette.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 14, 1849.

GENERAL ORDER BY THE RIGHT HONORABLE THE GOVERNOR GENERAL OF INDIA.

CAMP FEROZEPORE, THE 2ND MARCH, 1849.

FOREIGN DEPARTMENT, CAMP FEROZEPORE, 1ST MARCH, 1849.

The Governor General, having received from His Excellency the Commander in Chief a Despatch, reporting the details of the brilliant Victory which was gained by the British Army at Goojerat on the 21st ultimo, directs that it be published for the information of the Army, and of the people of India.

The Sikh Army, under the command of Sirdar Chutter Sing and of Raja Shere Sing, combined with the Afghan Troops in the service of the Ameer of Cabool, were posted in great strength near to the town of Goojerat.

Their numbers were estimated at 60,000 men, and 59 guns were brought by them into action.

On the morning of the 21st they were attacked by the forces under the personal Command of His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief. A powerful and sustained cannonade by the British Artillery compelled them, after some time, to retire from the positions they had well and resolutely maintained.

The subsequent advance of the British Army drove them back at once from every point, and retreat having been speedily converted into rout, they fled in the utmost disorder, and abandoning their guns and throwing away their arms, were pursued by the Artillery and Cavalry till the evening for many miles beyond the town.

Fifty-three pieces of the Enemy's Artillery—his Camp—his Baggage—his Magazines, and vast store of Ammunition, left in the hands of the British Troops, bear testimony to the completeness and to the importance of the Victory that has been won.

The Governor General, in the name and on behalf of the Government of India, most cordially congratulates His Excellency the Commander in Chief and the whole Army on the glorious success which, under the blessing of Divine Providence, their skill and gallantry have achieved :—and he offers to His Excellency, to the Generals, the Officers, Non-Commissioned Officers and Soldiers of the Force, his grateful acknowledgments of the service they have thus rendered to the Government and to their country.

The Governor General begs especially to thank Major General Sir Joseph Thackwell, K. C. B. and K. H.; Major General Sir W. Gilbert, K. C. B.; Major General Whish, C. B.; Brigadier General Campbell, C. B., and Brigadier General the Hon'ble H. Dundas, C. B., for the ability and judgment with which they directed the operations of the Divisions respectively under their command.

To the Chief Engineer, Brigadier Cheape, C. B., to the Officers Commanding Brigades, Brigadier Brooke, C. B.; Brigadier Huthwaite, C. B.; and Brigadier Leeson;—to Brigadier White, C. B.; Brigadier Hearsey and Brigadier Lockwood, C. B.; to Brigadier Hervey and Brigadier Markham; to Brigadier Mountain, C. B.; Brigadier Penny, C. B.; Brigadier Capon and Brigadier Hoggan; Brigadier Carnegy and Brigadier McLeod—the best thanks of the Governor General are due.

The services of Brigadier General Tennant and of the Artillery of the Force have been recorded in the Despatch of the Commander-in-Chief in terms of which they may justly be proud.

The Governor General cordially joins with His Excellency in acknowledging their merit and in bestowing upon them the praise they have earned so well.

To Major Lugard, to Lieutenant Colonel Gough, C. B., and to the Officers of the General Staff of Her Majesty's Army; to Lieutenant Colonel Grant, C. B.; to Lieutenant Colonel Garden, C. B.; and to the Officers of the General Staff of the Army; to Captain Ramsay and the Officers of the Commissariat Department; to Mr. Franklin, Inspector General of H. M.'s Hospitals, to Dr. Renny and the Officers of the Medical Department and to the Officers of His Excellency's personal Staff, the Governor General offers his best thanks, and assures them of his full appreciation of their services.

And to all the Troops of every Arm, European and Native, the Governor General desires to convey his entire approbation of their steady and gallant conduct throughout the day; particularly to a portion of the 9th Lancers and the Scinde Horse for their charge against the Afghan Cavalry; to the 3rd Brigade of Infantry under Brigadier Penny, C. B., for their attack on the village of Kabra; and to a portion of Brigadier Hervey's Brigade for their charge led by Lieutenant Colonel Franks, C. B., all of which have been specially reported by His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief.

The Governor General estimates highly the important results, which the battle gained on the 21st ultimo, is calculated to produce. He entertains a hope that the conviction, which the events of that day must force upon all, of the vast superiority, which the British Army derived from the possession of Science and Military resource, will induce the Enemy shortly to abandon a contest which is a hopeless one.

The war, in which we are engaged, must be prosecuted with vigor and determination, to the entire defeat and dispersion of all who are in arms against us, whether Sikhs or Afghans.

The Governor General has ever felt, and feels, unbounded confidence in the Army which serves in India. He relies fully on the conviction that their services will be given cheerfully and gallantly, as heretofore, whatever may be the obstacles opposed to them; and he does not doubt that, with the blessing of Heaven, such full success will continue to follow their efforts, as shall speedily give to the Government of India the Victory over its Enemies, and restore the country to the enjoyment of peace.

The Governor General will not fail earnestly to commend the past services of this Army to the favorable consideration of Her Majesty's Government and of the Hon'ble East India Company.

A salute of 21 guns has been ordered at every principal Station of the Army in India.

By order of the Right Hon'ble the Governor General of India,

H. M. ELLIOT,

Secretary to the Govt. of India, with the Governor General.

(Copies,)

FROM THE RIGHT HONORABLE THE COMMANDER-IN-CHIEF IN INDIA,

MY LORD, Head Quarters, Camp Goojerat, 26th February, 1849.

By my letter of the 21st instant, written on the field of battle immediately after the action, your Lordship will have been made acquainted with the glorious result of my operations on that day against the Sikh Army, calculated from all credible reports at 60,000 men of all arms and 59 pieces of Artillery, under the command of Sirdar Chuttur Singh and Rajah Shere Singh with a body of 1,500 Afghan Horse led by Akram Khan, son of the Ameer Dost Mahomed Khan—a result, my Lord, glorious indeed for the ever victorious Army of India! The ranks of the Enemy broken, their position carried, their Guns, Ammunition, Camp Equipage and Baggage captured, their flying masses driven before the victorious pursuers from mid-day to dusk, receiving most severe punishment in their flight, and, my Lord, with gratitude to a merciful Providence, I have the satisfaction of adding, that, notwithstanding the obstinate resistance of the Enemy, this triumphant success, this brilliant victory has been achieved with comparatively little loss on our side.

The number of Guns taken in action and captured in the line of pursuit, I now find to be fifty-three (53.)

The Official Report, made by the Adjutant General of the Army, on the 20th instant, will have informed your Lordship that I had directed Brigadier General the Honorable H. Dundas to join me by forced marches, and that I had closed up to so short a distance of the Sikh Army, that they could not possibly attempt the passage of the Chenab, in order to put into execution their avowed determination of moving upon Lahore, make a retrograde movement by the Kooree Pass, (the only practicable one for Guns,) or indeed quit their position without my being able to attack them and defeat their movement.

On the 18th instant, Brigadier Markham had proceeded from Ramnuggur up the left bank of the river to Kanokee, to which I had directed 47 boats to be sent up. On the morning of the 20th, this Officer crossed the Chenab, by my instructions, and joined me at 11 o'Clock A. M. At the same time Lieutenant Colonel Byrne was directed to move down the left bank, from the position he held in front of Wuzeerabad with two Corps of Infantry and 4 Guns, leaving two Regiments of Irregular Cavalry to watch the fords, and to prevent any marauding parties or bodies of the routed Enemy from effecting a passage.

On the same day a reconnoisance was made of the Enemy's position, and it was ascertained that their Camp nearly encircled the town of Goojerat, their regular troops being placed immediately fronting us between the town and a deep watercourse, the dry bed of the river Dwara. This nullah, which is very tortuous, passing round nearly two sides of the town of Goojerat—diverging to a considerable distance on the north and west faces, and then taking a southerly direction, running through the centre of the ground I occupied at Shadiwal. Thus the Enemy's position on the right was greatly strengthened, the nullah giving cover to his Infantry in front of his Guns, whilst another deep, though narrow wet nullah running from the east of the town and falling into the Chenab, in the direction of Wuzeerabad, covered his left.

The ground between these nullahs for a space of nearly three miles being well calculated for the operations of all arms, and presenting no obstacle to the movement of my heavy Guns, I determined to make my principal attack in that direction and dispose my force accordingly.

On the extreme left, I placed the Bombay Column, commanded by the Hon'ble H. Dundas, supported by Brigadier White's Brigade of Cavalry and the Scinde Horse, under Sir Joseph Thackwell, to protect the left and to prevent large bodies of Sikh and Afghan Cavalry from turning that flank: with this Cavalry I placed Captains Duncan and Huish's Troops of Horse Artillery, whilst the Infantry was covered by the Bombay Troop of Horse Artillery under Major Blood.

On the right of the Bombay Column, and with its right resting on the nullah, I placed Brigadier General Campbell's Division of Infantry covered by No. 5 and No. 10, Light Field Batteries under Major Ludlow and Lieutenant Robertson, having Brigadier Hoggan's Brigade of Infantry in reserve.

Upon the right of the nullah, I placed the Infantry Division of Major General Sir Walter Gilbert, the heavy Guns, 18 in number, under Majors Day and Horsford with Captain Shakespear and Brevet Major Sir Richmond Shakespear, Commanding Batteries being disposed in two Divisions upon the flanks of his left Brigade.

This line was prolonged by Major General Whish's Division of Infantry with one Brigade of Infantry under Brigadier Markham in support in second line, and the whole covered by three Troops of Horse Artillery, Major Fordyce's, Captains Mackenzie's and Anderson's and No. 17 Light Field Battery, under Captain Dawes with Lieutenant Colonel Lane's and Captain Kinleside's Troops of Horse Artillery, in a second line in reserve under Lieutenant Colonel Brind.

My right flank was protected by Brigadiers Hearsey's and Lockwood's Brigades of Cavalry with Captain Warner's Troop of Horse Artillery.

The 5th and 6th Light Cavalry with the Bombay Light Field Battery and the 45th and 69th Regiments, under the command of Lieutenant Colonel Mercer, most effectually protected my rear and baggage.

With my right wing I proposed penetrating the centre of the Enemy's line, so as to turn the position of their force in rear of the nullah, and thus enable my left wing to cross it with little loss, and in co-operation with the right to double upon the centre the wing of the Enemy's force opposed to them.

At half-past seven o'Clock the Army advanced in the order described with the precision of a parade movement. The Enemy opened their fire at a very long distance, which exposed to my Artillery both the position and range of their Guns. I halted the Infantry just out of fire, and advanced the whole of my Artillery covered by skirmishers.

The Cannonade now opened upon the Enemy was the most magnificent I ever witnessed, and as terrible in its effect.

The Seikh Guns were served with their accustomed rapidity, and the Enemy well and resolutely maintained his position; but the terrific force of our fire obliged them, after an obstinate resistance, to fall back. I then deployed the Infantry, and directed a general advance covering the movement by my Artillery as before.

The Village of Burra-kabra, the left one of those of that name in which the Enemy had concealed a large body of Infantry, and which was apparently the key of their position, lay immediately in the line of Major General Sir Walter Gilbert's advance, and was carried in the most brilliant style by a spirited attack of the 3rd Brigade under Brigadier Penny, consisting of the 2nd Europeans, 31st and 70th Regiments of Native Infantry, which drove the Enemy from their cover with great slaughter.

A very spirited and successful movement was also made about the same time against a heavy body of the Enemy's Troops in and about second or Chota-kabra by part of Brigadier Hervey's Brigade most gallantly led by Lieutenant Colonel Franks of H. M.'s 10th Foot.

The Heavy Artillery continued to advance with extraordinary celerity, taking up successive forward position, driving the Enemy from those they had retired to, whilst the rapid advance and beautiful fire of the Horse Artillery and Light Field Batteries, which I strengthened by bringing to the front

the two reserved Troops of Horse Artillery under Lieutenant Colonel Brind, Brigadier Brooke having the general superintendence of the whole of the Horse Artillery, broke the ranks of the Enemy at all points. The whole Infantry line now rapidly advanced and drove the Enemy before it, the nullah was cleared, several Villages stormed, the Guns that were in position carried, the Camp captured, and the Enemy routed in every direction! The right wing and Brigadier General Campbell's Division passing in pursuit to the eastward—the Bombay Column to the westward of the Town.

The retreat of the Seikh Army thus hotly pressed, soon became a perfect flight, all Arms dispersing over the country, rapidly pursued by our Troops for a distance of 12 miles, their track strewed with their wounded, their Arms and Military Equipments, which they threw away to conceal that they were Soldiers.

Throughout the operations thus detailed, the Cavalry Brigades on the flanks were threatened, and occasionally attacked by vast masses of the Enemy's Cavalry, which were, in every instance, put to flight by the steady movements and spirited manœuvres of our Cavalry, most zealously and judiciously supported by the Troops of Horse Artillery attached to them, from whom the Enemy received the severest punishment.

On the left, a most successful and gallant charge was made upon the Afghan Cavalry and a large body of Ghoorchurras, by the Scinde Horse and a party of the 9th Lancers, when some standards were captured.

The determined front shown by the 14th Light Dragoons and the other Cavalry Regiments on the right, both Regular and Irregular, completely overawed the Enemy, and contributed much to the success of the day; the conduct of all in following up the fugitive Enemy was beyond all praise.

A competent force, under the Command of Major General Sir Walter Gilbert, resumed the pursuit towards the Jhelum on the following morning with a view of cutting off the Enemy from the only practicable Gun road to the Jhelum. Another Division of Infantry, under Brigadier General Campbell, advanced on the road to Bimber, scouring the Country in that direction to prevent their carrying off the Guns by that route, and a body of Cavalry, under Lieutenant Colonel Bradford, successfully pushed on several miles into the hills and 24 from Goojerat, accompanied by that most energetic Political Officer, Captain Nicholson, for the same purpose, whilst I remained in possession of the Field for the purpose of supporting these operations, covering the fords of the Chenab, and destroying the vast magazine of Ammunition left scattered in all directions. I am happy to add that these combinations have been entirely successful, the detached parties coming at every step on the wreck of the dispersed and flying foe.

Having thus endeavoured to convey to your Lordship the particulars of the operations of the Battle of "Goojerat," I beg now to offer my heartfelt congratulations to your Lordship and to the Government of India upon this signal victory acheived under the blessing of Divine Providence by the united efforts and indomitable gallantry of the Noble Army under my Command, a Victory, my Lord, as glorious to the Army that gained it, as it must be satisfactory to yourself and the Government of India from the very important and decisive results to be expected from it.

It is quite impossible for me sufficiently to express my admiration of the gallant and steady conduct of the Officers and Men, as well Native as European upon this occasion.

The brilliant service they have performed in so signally defeating so vastly a superior force, amongst whom were the elite of the old Khalsa Army, making a last, united, and desperate struggle, will speak for itself and will, I am confident, be justly estimated by your Lordship.

I cannot too strongly express to your Lordship my deep sense of obligation to the General Officers and Brigadier Generals in Command of Divisions, who so ably carried out my views and directed the operations of their Troops on this day.

I beg to annex for your Lordship's information the reports I have received from them, and to bring most prominently to your Lordship's notice the Brigadiers commanding Brigades, the Commanding Officers of Regiments and of Troops of Horse Artillery and Light Field Batteries, and the several Officers of the Divisional and Brigade Staff enumerated in these reports, in terms of such just commendation.

I feel much indebted to Major General Sir Joseph Thackwell for the able and judicious manner he manœuvred the Cavalry with Horse Artillery attached, on the left, keeping in check the immensely superior Force of the Enemy, whose main object was to turn my flanks. I am also greatly indebted to this tried and gallant Officer for his valuable assistance and untiring exertions throughout the present and previous operations as second in command with this Force.

To Major General Sir Walter Gilbert, whose services upon this as on all former occasions, were invaluable, and ever marked by energy, zeal, and devotion; as well as to Major General Whish, Brigadier Generals Campbell and Dundas, for their able assistance, I am deeply indebted.

To Brigadier General Tennant commanding that splendid Arm, the Artillery, to whose irresistible power I am mainly indebted for the glorious victory of Goojerat, I am indeed most grateful. Conpicuous as the Artillery has ever proved itself, never was its superiority over that of the Enemy, its irresistible and annihilating power more truthfully shown than in this battle. The Heavy Batteries manœuvred with the celerity of Light Guns and the rapid advance, the scientific and judicious selection of points of attack, the effective and well directed fire of the Troops of Horse Artillery and Light Field Batteries, merit my warmest praise, and I beg most earnestly to recommend their brave and gallant Commanders, with the several Officers named in Brigadier General Tennant's Report, to your Lordship's most favorable notice.

From Brigadier Cheape, the Chief Engineer, and the talented Officers in that Department as named in the Brigadier's report, I have received the most valuable assistance in reconnoitring the Enemy's position and on the Field of battle. The Sappers and Pioneers, under that most able Officer,

Captain Siddon's, did excellent service, and were ever in front to overcome any obstacle to the advance of the Artillery.

To the Officers of the General Staff of Her Majesty's Service, Major Lugard, Acting Adjutant General, and Lieutenant Colonel Gough, Quarter Master General of Her Majesty's Troops in India, my best thanks are due; their exertions upon the present occasion and throughout the recent operations were most valuable, and I beg to bring them under Your Lordship's favourable notice. I am equally indebted to Captain Otter, Acting Assistant Adjutant General of H. M.'s Forces, for his valuable services.

To the Officers of the General Staff of the Army, Lieutenant Colonel Grant, Adjutant General, and Lieutenant Colonel Garden, Quarter Master General, whose most onerous and very important duties have invariably been conducted to my entire satisfaction, I am under the greatest obligation. Their valuable assistance in the Field, and their indefatigable exertions throughout operations of no ordinary character, deserve my warmest thanks and your Lordship's approbation.

To Lieutenant Colonel Birch, Judge Advocate General, I am much indebted for his assistance upon every occasion.

To Major Tucker, Deputy Adjutant General, a most gallant, energetic, and valuable Officer, to Lieutenant Colonel Drummond, Deputy Quarter Master General, whose services have been very praiseworthy, to Major Chester, Assistant Adjutant General, and Lieutenant Tytler, Assistant Quarter Master General, Lieutenant Johnston, Deputy Judge Advocate General, Major G. Thomson and Lieutenant Colonel Curtis, Assistant Commissary General, Captain C. Campbell, Pay Master to the Army, I offer my best thanks for their services whilst attending me in the Field, and the efficient manner they have performed their several duties.

Mr. Franklin, Inspector General of H. M.'s Hospitals, has been unceasing in his exertions in rendering every aid to the sick and wounded of the Royal Service, and giving the benefit of his long professional experience in such duties; as has Doctor Renny, Superintending Surgeon of this Army, who has been indefatigable in his professional exertions and well-organized medical arrangements.

I feel I cannot too prominently bring to notice the valuable exertions of Doctor MacRae, Field Surgeon, and of the Medical Officers of the Army generally, they have been most unwearied and praiseworthy.

To Captain Ramsay, Deputy Commissary General and to the Officers of his Department, I am much indebted and feel grateful for their unceasing and successful exertions amidst all difficulties to supply the Troops and thus preserve the efficiency of the Army.

The Officers of my Personal Staff have well merited my best thanks and your Lordship's favorable notice. Captain Haines, Military Secretary, who has rendered me most valuable aid; Brevet Major Bates, A. D. C.; Lieut. A. Bagot, A. D. C.; Lieut. S. J. Hire, A. D. C.; Captain Gabbett, A. D. C.; Lieut. G. Hardinge, A. D. C.; and Lieut. W. G. Prendergast, my Persian Interpreter.

I beg also to acknowledge the valuable assistance I have received from the Political Officers, Major Mackeson, Mr. Cocks, Captain Nicholson and Lieut. Robison, both in the Field and throughout the operations. I regret to add that Mr. Cocks was seriously wounded during the action in a rencounter with a Sikh Horseman.

I would also bring to your Lordship's notice the name of Lieut. Stannus, of the 5th Light Cavalry, this Officer has commanded the Cavalry party attached to my Escort throughout the operations to my entire satisfaction. He was severely wounded on the 21st, when gallantly charging a party of the Enemy's Horsemen.

Major Anstruther, of the Madras Artillery, Lieut. Mayne, of the Madras Cavalry, and Captain Showers, of the 14th N. I., attended me in the Field.

I have most unwillingly been delayed from sooner forwarding this Despatch from the circumstance of having only this day received Brigadier General the Hon'ble H. Dundas' report, and some of the Casualty Returns have not even yet reached me. As soon as the whole come in, a full amended General Return shall be transmitted without loss of time for your Lordship's information.

I have the pleasure to enclose a plan of the battle of Goojerat. Also a return of the captured Ordnance.

I have, &c.,

Commander-in-Chief in India.

P. S. The Casualty Lists having arrived I have the honor to enclose the Return of killed and wounded, which I am sorry to see is so much heavier than I at first anticipated. Several of these were occasioned by accidental explosions of the Enemy's Tumbrils and Magazines after the action.

These Batteries engaged in action by those attached to the 1st and 2nd Divisions, advancing within about 600 yards, and the heavy Guns within 800 or 1,000 yards of the Enemy's Artillery on which they opened their fire about 9 o'Clock A. M., shortly after the action commenced an opportunity was observed of enfilading one of the Enemy's Batteries, when the reserve Artillery under Lieutenant Colonel F. Brind was advanced, and placed by Brigadier G. Brooke, C. B., so as to do so. The Batteries of the 3rd Division engaged as they came up, and those with the Cavalry Brigades supported their movements as opportunity offered. Nearly the whole engagement being a Cannonade, no movement of importance took place among the Batteries, which maintained their fire until ½ past 11 A. M., when many of the Enemy's guns were observed to be dismounted and their line broke, and an advance was ordered in pursuit.

I have the honor to state for the Commander-in-Chief's information my perfect satisfaction with the professional exertions of the Officers and my high approbation of the steady conduct of both Officers and men during the day.

To Brigadiers Brooke, C. B. and Huthwaite, C. B., in general direction of the Horse and Foot Artillery respectively under my orders, Lieutenant Colonel C. Grant and E. Brind, Majors R. Horsford, E. Brigadiers Brooke and Huthwaite mention their Majors of Brigade Lieut. C. V. Cox and Lieutenant E. Kaye respectively as having afforded them able assistance, I have great pleasure finally particularly to bring to His Excellency's notice the zeal and attention of Mr. Deputy Commissary Spencer during the day, and beg to recommend that old and deserving Warrant Officer to his kind consideration.

I have, &c.,

(Signed) J. TENNANT, Brigadier General,

Commanding Artillery Division, Army of the Punjab.

Camp Goojerat, the 22nd February 1849.

To Lieutenant Colonel P. GRANT, C. B.,
Adjutant General of the Army.

Sir, Head Quarters, Camp Goojerat, 26th February, 1849.

In reference to General Orders of the 21st instant, I beg to submit for the information of the Right Hon'ble the Commander in Chief, a report on the conduct of the Engineer Department, during the late operations and the engagement of the 21st.

Major Napier attended by Lieutenant Greathead, and Major Tremenheere attended by Lieutenant Glover, were employed on the 21st, the former with the right, the latter with the left Column of attack, and were very useful from their previous examination of the ground, and in particular of the position of the nullah on our right flank.

Captain Western, Lieutenants Goodwyn, Crommeline and Taylor accompanied me, and to all those Officers, my acknowledgments are due for conveying communications, and obtaining information on every point required during the day.

I have also the gratification to report to His Excellency the zealous and able manner in which Captain Cunningham and Lieutenant C. Paton, performed the duty assigned to them of bringing up the fleet of boats ordered by His Excellency from Ramnuggur, and placing them so as to enable the portion of the Army on the other side of the Chenab to co-operate and to come up: the former Officer arrived before the close of the Action and joined Brigadier General Campbell's Division.

The other Officers of Engineers were detached with the different Divisions of the Army, and no mention of these Officers is needed from me, as whatever service they may have had an opportunity of rendering will be more appropriately reported to His Excellency, or acknowledged by the General Officers commanding each Division.

Captain Siddons, commanding the Sappers and Pioneers, was attached to the Heavy Guns, with a portion of his Corps, the remainder being detached by Companies to the different Divisions; such duty, as was required from them, I need hardly say, was effectively performed; and I trust it may not be considered by His Lordship out of place, my mentioning here the gallant behaviour and unwearied exertion displayed by these men throughout the present service. I allude, in particular, to the siege operations at Mooltan, and the conduct of that portion of the Corps, who were employed there.

Prior to the engagement, on the 21st instant, the Officers of Engineers were employed in collecting information and in surveying and reconnoitering; and it is due to Captain Longden, of H. M's 10th Regiment, who is attached to the Engineer Department, as Surveyor and Field Engineer, to state the very able assistance he has rendered in all these duties during the whole operations, since I have joined the Army.

I beg to add that I am much indebted to Lieutenant J. H. Maxwell, for the very zealous performance of his duties on all occasions, as Major of Brigade of Engineers, and to Lieutenant J. E. Cracroft, Brigade Quarter Master, my acknowledgments are also due; and, I hope, I may be permitted to recommend to His Excellency's favor, Lieutenant Hutchinson, of Engineers, a very promising young Officer, who has been lately acting as my Aid-de-Camp, and who was very severely wounded on the 21st instant.

I have, &c.,

(Signed) J. CHEAPE, Brigadier,
Chief Engineer, Army of Punjab.

Sir, Head-Quarters, dated Camp Goojerat, 25th February, 1849.

I have the honor to report, for the information of His Excellency the Right Hon'ble the Commander-in-Chief, the operations of the Division of Cavalry under my Command, in the battle fought on the 21st instant, near the town of Goojerat.

H. M.'s 3rd Dragoons.—Major Yerbury.
H. M.'s 9th Lancers.—Lieut.-Col. Fullerton.
8th Light Cavalry.—Major Mackenzie.
Scinde Horse.—Capt. Malcolm.
Capt. Duncan's Troop.—Horse Artillery.
Capt. Huish's Troop.—Horse Artillery.

Right Column, 2nd Brigade of Cavalry.
Brigadier Lockwood, C. B., Commanding.
H. M's 14th Light Dragoons.—Lt.-Col. King.
1st Light Cavalry.—Lt.-Col. Bradford.
2 Ressalas, 11th Irregular Cavalry.—Capt. Masters.
2 Ressalas, 14th Irregular Cavalry.—Lieut. Roberts.
Capt. Warner's Troop.—Horse Artillery,

4th Brigade Cavalry.
Brigadier Hearsey, Commanding.
9th Irregular Cavalry.—Major Christie.
The 5th and 6th Light Cavalry were left in the rear to protect the Baggage.

The 3rd Division of Infantry and the Bombay Brigade, all on the left of the nullah, leading towards Goojerat, being under my immediate superintendence, I remained on the left flank of the Army, and I make, no doubt, Brigadier General Dundas and Campbell have made you fully acquainted with the operations of the Troop under their command.

On approaching the village of Nurrawalla, just without the range of the Enemy's Batteries the Infantry deployed into line, and Brigadier White formed his Cavalry in front of that village with its left back, and parallel to a gentle rising of the ground, on which was posted the Enemy's right, consisting of a large body of Afghans and Goorchurra Horse. From this position a fire of round shot was opened, and the Enemy's Cavalry extended to the right, so as to threaten to turn our left flank. To oppose the Enemy's Guns, I ordered Captain Duncan to move his Troop of Horse Artillery to the front, which he did in good style, and opened his fire within 5 or 600 yards. This movement was followed by the advance of Captain Huish's Troop, and both did considerable execution upon the Enemy, but did not prevent the attempt of the Afghans to outflank our left. The Scinde Horse were on the left of my line, and I ordered them to advance with a Squadron of the 9th Lancers, under Captain Campbell, a part of the former to be in reserve and supported by a Squadron of the 9th Lancers, under Major Grant, C. B., in echellon on the right. These Troops made a most brilliant charge upon the Enemy, at the same time I advanced the Guns and Cavalry towards the Enemy's line. The fire of the Guns soon put the Goorchurras in retreat, and the glorious charge of the Troops on the left caused their whole force to seek safety in retreat by the Burradurree. A Gun was captured during these proceedings, but as we were then considerably in advance of the left of the Infantry. Although Captain Duncan was enabled to enfilade a Battery opposed to them, and ignorant of the force the Enemy might have between the Burradurree and the town, a space covered with trees—it became necessary to proceed with caution, yet I soon was enabled to open a fire upon the Enemy, both on the right and left of the former place, which caused them considerable loss and hastened their retreat.

I may here observe, that all the Enemy's tents were left standing near the Burradurree, and on the Sikh right of the town, with probably much Baggage in them, all of which were probably plundered by the Camp followers.

The Enemy being now in full retreat, I moved Brigadier White's Brigade well to the left front, and soon forced the Enemy from the Jeelum road, and eventually from that of Beembur, also cutting off large bodies of the Enemy, much Baggage and many Guns, which were secured by this Brigade, as well as the Troops of the 2nd and 4th Brigades, which had been ordered to join in the pursuit. At 20 minutes past 4 P. M., none of the Enemy being in sight, and being, as was said by the villagers, nine or ten miles from Goojerat, I discontinued the pursuit and returned to Camp at this place. In this pursuit Captains Duncan and Huish's Troops of Artillery, latterly joined by Major Leeson and Major Blood's Troop of the same Arm, brought their Guns to bear upon the Enemy with good effect on several occasions, and their advance was as rapid as the intersected nature of the ground (by nullahs) would admit, and the 9th Lancers and 8th Light Cavalry made gallant attempts to close with the Enemy's Cavalry, which, however, were frustrated by the rapid retreat of the latter, yet a great number of the Enemy were slain by this Brigade in the pursuit. I witnessed the activity of Captain Unett, and part of his Squadron of the 3rd Light Dragoons and Brigadier White mentions that the whole of that Regiment was actively engaged in this work of retribution.

Being an eye-witness to all the movements of the 1st Brigade, I have great satisfaction in stating, that Brigadier White conducted them very much to my satisfaction. I am also well satisfied with the manner in which Lieutenant Colonel Fullerton, Majors Yerbury and Mackenzie commanded their respective Regiments, and in which Major Grant supported the charge of Cavalry on the left. The charge of the Scinde Horse reflects the highest credit on Captain Malcolm, and I have great pleasure in having witnessed the gallant bearing of all the Officers and men of this Brigade, during the operations of the day; and I feel sure that their only regret was that the Enemy's Cavalry so often declined the attack.

To Captains Duncan and Huish and Majors Leeson and Blood, I am much indebted for the manner in which they brought their Guns into action whenever an opportunity occurred, and the steadiness and good conduct of both Officers and men were very conspicuous.

I have now the pleasing duty to state, that I have received every assistance and support from my Deputy Assistant Adjutant General, Capt. Pratt, on the present occasion, as well as during the campaign. To my Deputy Assistant Quarter Master General, Lieut. Tucker, I am greatly indebted for his zeal, activity, intelligence and successful endeavors to procure intelligence of the movements of the Enemy during the operations, he as well as my Aid-de-Camp, Lieut. Thackwell, Lieut. Young, of the Engineers, Lieut. Carter, of the Pioneers and Cornet Beatson, of the 6th Light Cavalry, accompanied me during the Battle, and afforded me essential service in carrying my orders on various occasions during the operations of the day.

Brigadier White states how greatly he was satisfied with the conduct of his Brigade Major, Capt. Cautley, and the whole of the Officers and men of his Brigade.

As the operations of the 2nd and 4th Brigades of Cavalry did not come under my observations, except towards the latter end of the pursuit, I have the honor to forward Brigadier Lockwood's report, and it would appear therefrom that he conducted his Brigade judiciously; and I am gratified to learn that both Officers and men behaved greatly to his satisfaction, and that the 14th Light Dragoons and 1st Light Cavalry conducted themselves gallantly, and evinced every anxiety to close with the Enemy. I am happy to observe that the Brigadier has mentioned with great approbation the conduct of Lieut. Colonels Bradford and King, in Command of their Regiments; and I cannot avoid here stating, for the information of His Lordship, that I observed with much satisfaction, the zeal and judgment evinced by both Officers, when in Command of considerable bodies of Cavalry detached from the Camp at Chillianwalla on important duties.

I regret that I have not yet received any report from Brigadier Hearsey, or return of Casualties from his Brigade, or the Scinde Horse: these will be forwarded when they arrive.

I have, &c.,

(Signed) J. THACKWELL, Major General, Commanding Cavalry Division.

SIR,

I have the honor to report, for the information of Major General Sir Joseph Thackwell, commanding the Cavalry Division, that, on the morning of the 21st, I formed my Brigade as directed by his Excellency the Commander-in-Chief on the right rear of the 1st Division of Infantry, and parallel to Brigadier Markham's reserve; advancing in this Order until the Enemy opened their fire.

I then deployed the Brigade in the following manner: In the first line 5 troops H. M.'s 14th Light Dragoons, two Squadrons 1st Light Cavalry with the 1st Troop, 3rd Brigade Horse Artillery, on the left escorted by a Troop of the 14th and a Resillah 11th Irregular Cavalry. In support, the remainder of the 11th Irregular Cavalry, and in reverse, one Squadron 14th and one Squadron 1st Light Cavalry.

In the commencement of the Action I directed Captain Warner to open his fire upon a large body of the Enemy near a village in our front; but as they returned a heavy fire within accurate range I changed position left back, and the Horse Artillery ceased firing.

The Enemy's Horsemen now appeared in great force upon our right threatening to turn our flank, so I changed front to the right, directing the reserve to retain its front, and communicate with the Infantry.

Captain Warner's Guns opened with great effect upon the Horsemen and turned them, but they only retired a short distance, and then a Regiment of their Regular Cavalry moved round by a circuitous route, and got completely into our rear. I immediately detached towards them 3 Guns with a Squadron of the 14th, who, in conjunction with Major Christie's Corps of Irreg. Cavalry, drove them off.

About this time a large Gal of Horse came on towards me, and I prepared to charge, but as they turned at once from the fire of the Guns, and as there was a nullah in our front, I refrained from advancing after them. The Reserve also now advanced in support of Colonel Hervey's Brigade of Infantry.

I then received Orders from the Commander-in-Chief to bring on the Brigade, which I did and followed in pursuit of the Enemy, until I found myself parallel to the Cavalry under the Major General, when I placed myself in communication with him.

In the pursuit, the 14th Dragoons and 1st Light Cavalry cut down, or shot, a considerable number of the Sikh Infantry both Regular and Irregular, and Corporal William Pain, of the 14th Dragoons, captured a red silk standard, killing, in single combat, the Horseman who bore it.

I beg to state to the Major General that I had the greatest satisfaction in witnessing the steadiness of the Troops composing the Brigade, in performing several manœuvres under a heavy fire of Artillery.

My best thanks are due to Captain Warner, Horse Artillery, for the able and efficient manner in which he employed his Guns; also to Lieutenant Colonel Bradford, Commanding the 1st Light Cavalry; Lieutenant Colonel King, 14th Light Dragoons; Captain Masters, 11th Irregular Cavalry, and Lieutenant Robarts, 14th Irregular Cavalry; and Lieutenant Colonel Doherty, who commanded the Reserve.

I am also under the greatest obligations to my Brigade Major, Captain Yule, 9th Lancers, for the essential assistance he rendered me, not only during the action, but during the period I have commanded the 2nd Brigade.

TO CAPTAIN PRATT, Assistant Adjutant General Cavalry Division,

Camp near Koree, 23rd February, 1849.

SIR,

I have the honor to report to Sir Joseph Thackwell, K. C. B., and K. H., Commanding the Cavalry Division of the Army of the Punjab, for the information of His Excellency the Right Hon'ble the Commander-in-Chief, that agreeable to instructions received from Captain Pratt, Assistant Adjutant General Cavalry Division; I joined at about 8-30 A. M. of the morning of the 21st instant; the Brigade of Cavalry on the right, under Brigadier Lockwood, with the 3rd and 9th Irregular Cavalry, and as Senior Cavalry Officer in the field on that flank. I assumed command of the whole of that arm as detailed in the margin, and a troop of Horse Artillery under Captain Warner, soon after the action commenced, by a cannonade and heavy bodies of Horse amongst them, apparently a regular regiment, showed in our front. The Cavalry under my command advanced towards them, and the Troop of Horse Artillery was sent to the front with its support (a Squadron of H. M. 14th Dragoons and a Squadron of Irregular Horse,) and opened a well directed fire of round and shrapnell, which made the Enemy fall back to a respectable distance. On this very numerous bodies of Horse went off to our right, apparently with the intention of turning that flank. I manœuvred to the right with the Irregular Brigade and kept them in check. About this time I received orders from His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief not to separate the left of the Cavalry too far from the column of Infantry advancing in that direction. I was therefore necessitated to close to the left, which I did with Brigadier Lockwood's Brigade. At the same time as they again pressed on my right, I ordered three guns to support it, the fire from which made the Enemy again draw off. I now observed it was their determination to turn the right, and as I had been joined by Colonel Doherty with two Squadrons, I placed him to fill the gap on my left, and ordered Brigadier Lockwood's Brigade and three guns to join the Irregulars on that flank. This checked the Enemy, but a very large body now advanced on the space on our left, I immediately opposed it with the Irregular Brigade and Brigadier Lockwood's with a half Battery, and the Enemy was again foiled, but they perceiving I had only the Artillery supports and Rissalah of Horse under the command of Lieutenant Robart's on my extreme right, made a last effort to turn it.

This was promptly met by the 3rd and 9th Irregulars being sent in that direction, the 9th advancing to meet them with the half Battery, thus foiled, they returned to our left; Major Christie following their movement. This was their last attempt, a Troop of Horse Artillery with supports of 1 Squadron of 9th Irregulars, commanded by Lieutenant and Adjutant Tytler, pushed to the front and got under the fire of their Artillery, when several men and horses suffered from round shot. It was now apparent from the distance of the sound of our guns that the Enemy were in retreat and Major Mackeson informed me it was His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief's wish, that all the Cavalry should pursue and prevent the Enemy carrying off their guns, I immediately directed Brigadier Lockwood's Brigade to take a sweep to the right and pushed on myself with the 3rd Irregulars and Lieutenant Robart's Rissalah with Captain Warner's Troop of Horse Artillery, the 9th Irregulars and 11th under Captain Masters, following as soon as they could get clear off a deep and quaggy nullah, and we perceived the Enemy in full retreat, after a canter of four miles. The Artillery opened upon the masses of men whilst the Cavalry advanced on the flank and overtook them near the villlage of Runnewall, where a great many of the Bunnoo Troops were sabred and shot. In this manner the pursuit continued until a deep nullah prevented the Horse Artillery getting on without delay. Here I left them with two Squadrons and pushed on again, overtaking another body and punishing them. I detached Captain Biddulph with half a Rissalah to ascertain the cause of a heavy cloud of dust to our left. He reported it was Sir J. Thackwell's Division, and I soon after heard his Battery of Horse Artillery open. Both Divisions of Cavalry were now closing on the Enemy, and Captain Biddulph was so fortunate as to capture five guns, and Major Christie another, that had been left in a nullah by the retreating foe. (Major Christie informs me that, this gun would have been left behind if he had not made great exertions in having it brought into Camp. He disclaims the capture of it J. B. H.) The pursuit continued to the village of Sainthul, when I met and reported to Sir J. Thackwell and from whence we returned to Camp. The distance, the Cavalry under my command went over in pursuit, was 15 miles. We did not get to the Camp of the Irregulars, near the Baradurree of Goojerat until 10 o'Clock at night, and had thus been 15 hours on horseback.

I have every reason to be pleased with the conduct of all the Officers under my command. Some difference arose as to carrying my orders into effect by Brigadier Lockwood, in consequence of his receiving directions from supreme authority of which I was not at the time aware, but I found him most zealous and desirous of having an opportunity to charge the Enemy at the head of H. M. 14th Dragoons. The conduct of that Regiment throughout the day was most exemplary and steady, and I have not the least doubt, had an opportunity occurred, it would have been most eagerly seized, to the utter destruction of any body opposed to it. Brigadier Lockwood's report will bear testimony to the energy of the Officers commanding Regiments in his Brigade, as I do most assuredly of those Officers commanding and in the Regiments of Irregular Cavalry. My thanks are due to Major Tait, C. B., commanding 3rd Irregulars, Major Christie, commanding 9th Irregulars, Captain Master, commanding 11th Irregulars, and Lieut. Robarts, commanding a Risallah of the 14th Irregulars. The conduct of the Horse Artillery was beyond all praise, and I feel much indebted to Captain Warner, his Officers and Men, for the able manner in which that noble Arm was employed.

I feel myself much indebted also to Lieutenant Neville Chamberlain, Brigade Major 4th Brigade Irregular Cavalry, for his assistance in the field during the forenoon, which I cannot too much appreciate, and for the example he set in several hand-to-hand affairs with a furious and exasperated Enemy during the pursuit. Lieutenant Crawford Chamberlain, 2nd in Command 9th Irregular Horse, although still suffering from his wound, was present with the Regiment the whole day, thus showing his usual energy.

Lieutenant and Adjutant Tytler, 9th Irregulars also brought to my notice the steadiness of a Squadron of that Regiment when under severe Artillery fire, by which one Sowar was killed, and several men and horses wounded.

I shall forward a List of Casualties as soon as I can get them from the different Officers in command of Regiments and parties, but from the constant marching we have had since the Battle of Goojerat, and the inclement weather we are now enduring, I have not as yet been able to get them.

I have, &c.

P. S. I have just got the Return of Casualties of the 3rd and 9th Irregular Cavalry, which I have the honor to enclose.

No. 1.

TO THE ADJUTANT GENERAL OF THE ARMY,

SIR, Head Quarters, Camp Goojerat, February 22nd, 1849.

I have the honor to report, for the information of the Right Hon'ble the Commander-in-Chief, that the 1st Infantry Division, with Horse Artillery attached, (as detailed per margin from right to left) marched at about 7 A. M. yesterday, the 1st Brigade commanded by Brigadier Hervey, in quarter distance column of regiment, right in front, at deploying distance, with a Troop of Native Horse Artillery in either flank, drawn up in corresponding order.

The 2nd Brigade in reserve, commanded by Brigadier Markham, and three to four hundred yards in rear, proceeded in contiguous quarter distance columns.

4th Troop 1st Brig. H. A. (Capt. McKenzie.)
1st Infantry Brig. { 52nd Regt. N. I. / H. M's 10th Foot. / 8th Regt N. I.
4th Troop 3rd Brig. H. A. (Capt. J. Anderson), except two guns at Wuzeerabad.
3 Company of Pioneers. Lieut. McMullin.

2nd Infantry Brig. { 51st Regt. N. I. / H. M.'s 32nd Foot. / 72nd Regt. N. I.

After advancing about two miles or more, the Enemy opened their fire, and after the Army had made some further progress, both Brigades, agreeably to His Lordship's orders, (and taken up from the left), deployed the Horse Artillery conforming thereto. Immediately afterwards the Troops of Horse Artillery and Skirmishers (of the 1st Brigade) were ordered to the front, the latter at 300 yards distance. I then requested Brigadier Markham to take ground to the left, that the interval made by the advance of Capt. Anderson's 4 guns, might be covered by the 72nd N. I. Both Troops began a spirited cannonade and continued it for about three hours, at the rate of 40 rounds per gun per hour, until the Enemy's guns, in our front, (like those, I believe, in front of every part of the line through a similar treatment) were silenced.

During the cannonade, on first receiving an order for the further advance of both troops, I learnt from Major Garbett, who was in command of them, that the guns in our left front had had so many horses killed and disabled, that they must await the arrival of others from the rear, which, I observed, were making quick progress to their Troop; and which shortly afterwards, I regret to say, lost its gallant Captain, who was mortally wounded by a cannon ball. The duties continued, however, to be efficiently prosecuted under the superintendence of Lieutenants Francis and Mecham, to the former of whom the command immediately devolved.

After this, both troops being well advanced to the front, and the Enemy making one or two threatening demonstrations, I thought it right to make a requisition in the Cavalry for a small Detachment for their protection, which was promptly complied with by Brigadier Lockwood.

On the advance of the line being directed, the right Brigade found the Enemy's Infantry in great force in its front, with a strong body of Cavalry in their left, which rendered it necessary for Brigadier Hervey to make a short flank movement to the right, and throw back the 52nd N. I. in order to counteract any attack the Enemy might have in contemplation.

As this unavoidably caused a great gap in the line, I thought it advisable to direct Brigadier Markham at once to occupy it by his Brigade, which was accordingly done, and the arrangement immediately reported to His Excellency. The Enemy were otherwise preparing to take advantage of this opening, but on seeing the 2nd Brigade advancing to it, halted and gave a few rounds of grape and matchlock fire, which was returned with full effect by file firing from the right of Divisions and Lieutenant Francis's guns, which latter were being replenished with ammunition, and for the moment in rear of the Infantry. Lieutenant Need, Aid-de-Camp, on noticing the Enemy's Cavalry and Infantry, immediately in front of the 2nd Brigade, had made known the same to Lieutenants Francis and Mecham, who, on his suggestion, instantly galloped to the front through an interval made for the purpose by H. M.'s 32nd Regiment, and with a few rounds of grape, co-operated with the Infantry (who were advancing to charge) in sending back the Enemy in great confusion.

In the flank movement by the 1st Brigade, already adverted to, and which under a heavy fire from the Enemy of round, grape and matchlock, with the reformation to line (on discovering that the Enemy did not make the anticipated attack) was effected in the most steady and orderly manner. Capt. Mackenzie, by his able and judicious co-operation, made his Troop particularly useful, and on the Enemy's declining to receive the charge of H. M's. 10th and the 8th and 52nd N. I. poured in such a continued fire of shrapnell and round upon their retiring masses as with what had occurred from the 2nd Brigade, effectually to prevent any further threat or molestation to the Division under my command, and as far as I could observe every part of the line had been gradually successful in defeating the purposes of the Enemy, who, long before noon, must have discovered that the entire loss of their Guns, Ammunition, Camp Equipage and Cattle was inevitable.

On reaching Goojerat the 2nd Brigade, agreeably to His Lordship's orders, commenced collecting the Enemy's abandoned guns, 19 of which were sent in by them forthwith, and occupied the town with the following details, under Major Case, H. M.'s 32nd Regt. (which was afterwards reinforced by the 36th Regt. N. I.)

2 Companies H.M's. 32nd Regt. under Capt. Pigott.
2 Companies 51st Regt. N. I. under Lieutenant Wallace.

Possession of the 8 gates was first taken, and then of the fort, where about 80 of the Enemy laid down their arms, and were made over as prisoners to the 36th Regt. N. I. with other small parties found in different parts of the town, that with few exceptions, made no resistance. The above four Companies captured a gun, standard, and some horses, with the loss of one man killed of H. M.'s 32nd and an Officer of the same corps wounded, Lieut. Jeffry. The 1st Brigade, on halting here, detached a sub-division of H. M.'s 10th Regt. and the Grenadier Company of 52nd N. I. to expel a party of 200 of the Enemy in occupation of the temple and garden, in rear of which the 8th Regt N. I. is now encamped, which was effected with trifling loss on our side, but the Enemy had 30 or 40 killed and wounded, and a great number taken prisoners.

It is particularly satisfactory to me to bring to the favorable notice of the Right Hon'ble the Commander-in-Chief the conduct of the Division under my command during the services of, yesterday, performed under His Lordship's immediate orders and direction, and consisting of in fact, the Horse Artillery and Infantry of the (Bengal) Mooltan Field Force, with the exception of the 49th Regiment Native Infantry on detached duty. Brigadiers Hervey and Markham conducted their Brigades, under the various circumstances of the day, (some of which I have briefly specified,) in a manner that merits the strongest commendation, and they were, as heretofore, admirably supported by the Officers in command of Regiments, viz, :

Lieutenant Colonel Franks, C. B., Her Majesty's 10th Regiment.
„ Brooke, ditto 32nd ditto.

Brevet Major Griffin, 51st Regiment Native Infantry.
Captain Jamieson, 52nd ditto ditto ditto.
„ Lloyd, 72nd ditto ditto ditto.

I cordially unite with both Brigadiers, in the expression of thanks to the above Officers for the intelligence and zeal with which they carried out their orders, and to all the Officers and men, under their command for the steadiness and prompt obedience so uniformly evinced throughout the Division.

Brigadier Hervey acknowledges the services of his Brigade Major Captain Wiggins, in high terms of commendation; and the active assistance he received throughout the day from Lieutenant B. Reid, (34th Regiment Native Infantry) Interpretor to Her Majesty's 10th Regiment; as does Brigadier Markham those of his Brigade Major Captain Balfour Her Majesty's 32nd Regiment (who has happily recovered from the wound he received in the action of the 12th September last,) and of Ensign Fraser 23rd Regiment, appointed acting Interpreter of 49th Regiment Native Infantry, who (is awaiting the arrival of this Regiment from Mooltan, and who) gladly made his services useful to the Brigadier.

To Major Garbett, commanding the Horse Artillery attached to my Division, my best acknowledgments are due for his unremitting attention to both troops under his command, and particularly in matters, the Officers Commanding them were not so able of themselves to give directions about. He mentions in the highest terms (as does Brigadier Harvey) Captain Mackenzie and his Troop, and notices that, after the lamented death of Captain J. Anderson, the 4 guns of his Troop were well commanded by Lieutenant Francis; and I heartily concur in the testimony he bears to the admirable conduct of the Officers and men of both Troops who worked their Guns with a rapidity and precision that would have been impracticable except from their uniform coolness and steadiness under a heavy fire from the Enemy at both positions, 1st at 1,000 yards, and 2dly at 500 yards. Major Garbett also notices in most favorable terms the able assistance rendered him by Lieutenant De Feissier, Acting Adjutant, 1st Brigade Horse Artillery.

Lieutenant McMullin and his Company of Pioneers deserve much credit, having continued with the 4th Troop 1st Brigade Horse Artillery, and rendered useful service whenever called upon.

Having but recently had my attention drawn to the circumstances I am about to mention, I think, in justice to the gallant Officer affected by them, I may be permitted so to do though they refer to anterior conflicts with the Enemy. On the 12th September last after Lieutenant Colonel Pattoun was mortally wounded, the command of the 6 Companies, Her Majesty's 32nd Regiment, devolved on Major Inglis, and through the exertions of the gallant Troops employed, the Enemy's strong position was carried: and a similar result occurred on the 7th of November last, when, from Lieutenant Colonel Brooke, having the command of one of the two Columns of attack; that of Her Majesty's 32nd Regiment again devolved on Major Inglis, whose conduct in that important trust was highly satisfactory to the Brigadier Commanding, and I have accordingly great satisfaction in soliciting the favorable notice of His Excellency to the same.

Major Napier, (attended by Lieutenant Greathed) of Engineers, who was attached for the day to the two Divisions on the right, aided me much by occasionally reconnoitring positions we were approaching; and in giving me the advantage of his reconnoissance of the preceding day. Captain Glasfurd and Lieutenant J. B. Smith, of Engineers, having been directed to join me, were extremely useful during the day; and I feel much indebted to both; as also to Captain Cheape (51st Native Infantry) late Treasurer to the Mooltan Field Force, who attended me throughout, and for whom, it was not difficult to find frequent and active employment.

Major Becher, Assistant Quarter Master General, and Captain Whish, Deputy Assistant Adjutant General of the Division, as also my Aides-de-Camp, Captain J. C. Kenedy, Her Majesty's 18th Foot, and Lieutenant A. Need, Her Majesty's 14th Light Dragoons, afforded me every assistance, and are entitled to my best thanks for their attention and zeal. The Horse of the Deputy Assistant Adjutant General from which he had just dismounted, having on the commencement of our cannonade been severely wounded by a cannon shot, it was some time before another could join from the rear, and intermediately, a Camel served him as a tolerable substitute.

I beg respectfully in conclusion, to offer to the Right Honorable the Commander-in-Chief my hearty congratulations on the complete success of His Lordship's arrangements for the day, and on an issue, which, under Divine Providence, has been permitted to be most triumphant.

Camp Nowrungabad, 24th February, 1849.

Sir,

I have to apologize for the delay which has taken place in complying with General Orders of the 21st instant, directing reports of the proceedings of the Troops employed against the Enemy to be forwarded for the information of His Excellency the Right Hon'ble the Commander-in-Chief; but having been, as you are aware, constantly on the move since the morning after the action near Goojerat, in pursuit of the fugitive Sikh Army, I have not had an opportunity of doing so.

I have now to report for the information of His Lordship, that the 2nd Infantry Division, consisting of the Troops mentioned in the margin, advanced from Shadawalla on the morning of the 21st instant, in line of quarter distance columns, at deploying distance, leaving a Battery of Heavy Guns under Major Horsford of Artillery between the two Brigades, No. 17, Light Field Battery under Command of Captain Dawes, and Bt. Major Fordyce's Troop of Horse Artillery, between the Right Regiments of the Left and Right Brigades respectively.

- 70th Regt. N. I.

4thBrigade.
- 30th Regt. N. I.
- H. M.'s 29th Foot.
- 56th Regt. N. I.

Having received orders to push forward my Light Troops, to force the Enemy to show their position, I immediately advanced the Troop of Horse Artillery and Dawes' Light Field Battery, which instantly drew a very heavy and well directed fire from two large Batteries which the Enemy had established on either side of the village of Kalerah, by which they were nearly screened from the fire of our Guns, which, with the Light Companies, were then still further pushed forward, followed by the Division which had deployed into line; the Heavy Guns in our centre, at this time, opening a very destructive cannonade. Up to this time the village above named seemed to be unoccupied, and I directed a party of Infantry to take possession of it. Upon the approach of this party a tremendous fire of musquetry was opened from the walls, which were loopholed in every direction; the 2nd European Regiment was then ordered up in support, under the command of Major Steel, and soon carried it after a most obstinate resistance, in which that gallant Regiment suffered rather severely, as well as upon its emerging from the village; soon after which the Enemy left many of their Guns and fled in the greatest confusion.

It affords me the highest satisfaction to record the valuable services of Brigadier A. S. H. Mountain C. B., and of Brigadier N. Penny, C. B. who led the 2nd European Regiment to the attack of the village, in the most gallant and exemplary manner. I should wish particularly to mention the very great assistance I received from Major Horsford, Commanding the Heavy Battery, and Major Fordyce, Commanding 2nd Troop 2nd Brigade Horse Artillery, and Captain Dawes' Commanding No. 17 Light Field Battery. It is impossible to praise too highly their conduct and that of all those under their command.

I beg likewise to bring to His Excellency's notice the valuable assistance I received from my Divisional and Personal Staff, Brevet Captain J. A. D. Fergusson, Deputy Assistant Adjutant General, Lieut. A. S. Galloway, Deputy Assistant Quarter Master General, Lieut. Col. Aid-de-Camp, Captain Sherwill and Lieut. MacDonnell Majors of Brigade, and Captain Goldie and Lieut. Irwin, of the Engineers.

Captain W. P. Robbins, 15th N. I., who acted as my Aid-de-Camp during the action afforded me great and active assistance, as did also Lieut. H. B. Hopper 31st Native Infantry, (orderly Officer.)

My warmest thanks are due to Lieut. Col. Congreve, C. B., H. M.'s 29th Foot, Lieut. Col. Jack, 30th N. I. and Lieut.-Col. Holmes, 56th Native Infantry and to Majors J. Steel, 2nd European Regiment, W. R. Corfield, 31st N. Infantry, and J. R. McCausland, 70th N. Infantry (severely wounded in the attack on the village of Kalerah) for the exemplary manner in which they led their Regiments. I trust I may be permitted to bring to His Excellency's notice the name of Brevet Captain G. Gordon, 50th N. I., Officiating Sub-Assistant Commissary General, who, at my request, destroyed the Enemy's Camp Equipage and Loose Ammunition.

The conduct of all the Troops under my command, European and Native, under a terrific and well directed cannonade, was such as to call forth my highest commendation.

In conclusion, I regret, that in consequence of our being so constantly on the move, since the action, I am unable to forward herein the Returns of Casualties, but I shall do myself the honor to transmit them with the least possibly delay.

I have &c.,

Commanding 2nd Infantry Division, Army of the Punjab.

P. S. In the absence of the regular returns I may here add that the amount of loss is very trifling considering the heavy fire kept up by the Enemy's Artillery on the centre of the Division, where the Heavy Guns were, the 2nd European Regiment having only lost eight men killed, and 135 wounded, the 31st N. I. 11 men killed, and 131 wounded, and 70th N. I., 10 killed and 40 wounded.

In the 4th Brigade H. M.'s 29tth Regiment lost only 2 men and 6 wounded, the 30th N. I. 3 men wounded, and the 56th N. I. only one man wounded.

To Lieutenant-Colonel GRANT, C. B., Adjutant General of the Army.

Camp Dowlutnuggur, February 23rd, 1849.

Sir,

I have the honor to report to you for the information of the Right Hon'ble the Commander-in-Chief, that in obedience to the orders, I received from His Lordship at daylight of the 21st instant, I formed the Brigades of the 3rd Division, commanded by Brigadiers Carnegy and McLeod, with the Light Field Batteries attached to them, close to the left bank of the nullah, which passed in front of the village of Shadowal a little after 7 A. M. The Brigade, under Brigadier Hoggan, was formed at the same time in rear to act as a reserve to the whole force intended to be employed on that side of the nullah.

In the advance to the attack of the Enemy's position, His Lordship desired me to keep close to the left side of the nullah and to preserve my communication with the Heavy Guns, which were placed on the opposite bank.

His Lordship further directed me to approach, but not to pass that part of the nullah, behind which the right of the Emeny's Army was formed, without further instructions from him.

With a view to the effectual fulfilment of His Lordship's wishes to maintain close communication with the Heavy Guns on my right, and to prevent their molestation by the Enemy from the nullah. I directed the Light Company of H. M.'s 24th to occupy and move along the nullah in advance of the Heavy Guns, and to render the communication more secure, I supported this Company with two Guns from No. 10, Light Field Battery which moved close along the bank of the nullah.

The two Brigades were formed, in the first instance, in contiguous columns of Regiments, (the Brigades at full distance) covered by a strong line of Skirmishers, and these immediately supported by Nos. 5 and 10, Light Field Batteries, attached to them respectively. These Skirmishers communicated on the left with those covering the front of the Bombay Division, which were likewise supported by the Troop of Horse Artillery belonging to that Force. The whole line moved forward at ½ before 8 A. M., in this order, with the regularity of Troops at a review. The country we passed over in our advance was perfectly level, highly cultivated and without an obstruction, being merely dotted here and there with an occasional tree.

At ½ past 9 the Skirmishers having arrived within long range of the Enemy's Guns, the columns were deployed into line, when we again moved forward; at this time the Right Wing of the Enemy's Army was plainly to be seen, formed directly in our front beyond a turn in the Nullah which seemed to run parallel to the front of their position, in the centre of which and nearly opposite to Nos. 5 and 10, Light Field Batteries, they had two very Heavy Guns, and several 6 and 9-Pounders field Guns, which then opened fire, that from the former, in the first instance, caused some loss in the batteries, and here it was, I regret to say, that Lieutenant Day, of the Artillery, a very brave and most promising young Officer was killed by a cannon ball.

The line moved onwards to the front, keeping in communication with, and as much as possible, in the allinement of the Heavy Guns, while the Field Batteries kept up so destructive a fire upon the Enemy in their front, in position behind the nullah, that they finally obliged the whole force to abandon it, and take shelter under cover of the bank of the nullah, and from which they were afterwards driven in confusion and flight, by an enfilading fire from these same Field Batteries.

About ¾ of an hour before the Enemy had been finally driven in flight from the nullah and from the field, a great effort was made by many, apparently of the principal Chiefs, to bring forward a large body of their Cavalry, which was followed in a tumultuous manner by the Infantry, which had taken shelter in the Nullah to attack the centre of the Bombay Division. This attack was taken in flank by No. 5 Field Battery, and caused great loss to the Enemy, both in his short advance and subsequent retreat.

The Infantry of the 3rd Division had not occasion to fire a shot. The Enemy were driven from their different positions, and from the Field by the fire of these two Field Batteries, aided by that of the Bombay Troop of Horse Artillery.

I cannot find language to express my sense of the calm, steady and admirable manner, in which these two Batteries were commanded and worked by Major Mowatt, the Commanding Officer, and by Major Ludlow and Lieutenant Robertson, the former Commanding No. 5, the latter No. 10 Battery, nor am I able adequately to express my admiration of the bravery and gallantry of the other Officers of these Batteries and of their Non-Commissioned Officers and men, all of whom I beg to recommend, in an especial manner, to the favorable notice of the Right Hon'ble the Commander-in-Chief.

After the Troops had crossed the nullah, I received His Lordship's orders to follow the troops of the Right Wing, in their movement, towards the East side of Goojerat, while the Bombay Division passed the town on the other side. After clearing the town the Division again resumed its communication with the Bombay Troops, and proceeded with them in advance, together with the Troops of the 2nd Division on our right, until ordered to halt and encamp.

I beg leave to bring to the favorable notice of the Commander-in-Chief the conduct of Brigadiers Carnegie and McLeod to whom I feel much indebted for the brave example they set their men and for the Officer,-ike manner in which they managed their respective Brigades during the day. Brigadier Hoggan, Commanding the Reserve, was under the immediate orders of Brigadier General Dundas on the left.

The two former Brigadiers speak in strong terms of the merits and services during the day, of their respective Brigade Majors,Captain Clarke, of the 25th Native Infantry, and Captain Keiller, of the 6th Native Infantry; and I can confirm their opinion of the zeal, activity and value of these Officers' services from my own personal observation.

I beg also to recommend to the favorable notice of the Commander-in-Chief the conduct of the several Officers commanding Regiments, who all set an example of the greatest gallantry to their respective Corps, viz. Lieutenant Colonel Smith, Her Majesty's 24th Regiment, Lieutenant Colonel Corbett, 25th Native Infantry, Lieutenant Colonel Jones, Her Majesty's 61st, Major Tudor, 46th Native Infantry, and Captain Lang, 36th Native Inantry, they are all truly deserving of His Lordship's favorable notice and approbation. Lieutenant Colonel Jones, of Her Majesty's 61st, speaks in terms of praise of the assistance he received from the two Majors of that Regiment, Major Campbell and Major Stephens; and Lieutenant Colonel Smith, of Her Majesty's 24th Regiment, in a similar manner, notices the conduct of Major Blachford of that Corps.

I received, during the day, the most cordial and valuable assistance from Major Ponsonby, Assistant Adjutant General of the Division, with whom I have found a real pleasure in being associated with on service, and to whom I owe great obligation for the able and careful manner in which he conducts the duties of his department.

I beg to recommend to the particular notice of His Lordship the Commander-in-Chief the conduct of Ensign Garden, Deputy Assistant Quarter Master General, to whom I am also under many obligations for the zeal and ability with which he performs his various duties.

Captain Durand and Lieutenant Morton, of the Engineers, were attached to the 3rd Division, during the action, and accompanied me during the day; they rendered me valuable assistance, and I owe to them, accordingly, my warmest acknowledgments.

I cannot conclude this report without also bringing to the notice of the Commander-in-Chief the willing and valuable assistance afforded me by my Aid-de-Camp Captain Haythorne, and also by my brother Officer Lieutenant Shadwell, of Her Majesty's 98th Regiment, who was present in the action as a Volunteer.

I beg herewith to enclose a Return of the Killed and Wounded, together with a present state of the Troops actually engaged, and returns of the quantity of Ammunition expended.

I have, &c.,

(No. 149 OF 1849.)

FROM BRIGADIER GENERAL H. DUNDAS, C. B.,
Commanding Bombay Column, Army of the Punjab,

TO THE ADJUTANT GENERAL OF THE BENGAL ARMY,

Head-Quarters, dated Camp Saikerwalla, 22nd February, 1849.

SIR,

I have the honor to inform you that, agreeably to the orders I received, the Bombay Infantry Division was formed on the left of the Line. I advanced for some distance in contiguous columns at quarter distance, the 60th Rifles, under Lieutenant Colonel Bradshaw, and 3rd Troop Horse Artillery, under Major Blood, being thrown in advance. The Division deployed into line, and gradually advanced as the attack on the right developed itself. A party of the Enemy's Horse made a demonstration of attacking the line, but speedily moved off to their own right on receiving one or two rounds from Major Blood's Troops. A Battery of the Enemy, which was in front of the Bengal Division, was also quickly silenced by this Troop, which made excellent practice. The Division kept gradually advancing without firing a shot, the Enemy moving off so fast we could not reach him, the Artillery taking every advantage of opening its fire that was afforded. The Infantry kept constantly advancing, passing through the Enemy's Camp, which was left standing, and round the town of Goojerat on the left, bringing up the left shoulders. The ground at the first was studded with bushes and hedges of Prickly Pear, which caused some delay in getting through, and on reaching the open country again not a sign of the Enemy was to be seen. Two Guns were abandoned by him on this side of the Town. Not a casualty occurred in the Infantry Division or in the Troop, with the exception of two Horses. The Troop afterwards accompanied Major General Sir Joseph Thackwell's Division of Cavalry in pursuit of the Enemy, and it has been reported to me, by Brigadier Leeson, Commanding Bombay Artillery, that it rendered good service. The Scinde Horse, under Lieut. Malcolm, having been attached for the day to Major General Sir Joseph Thackwell's Division, I had not an opportunity of witnessing a most successful and gallant charge, which was made by that distinguished Regiment against a party of the Enemy's Horse, which was completely overthrown with the loss of their standards, and the attempt to turn our left, which the Enemy showed a disposition to try, altogether frustrated. This success was not gained without some loss, which amounted to 3 killed, and 16 or 17 wounded. The Field Battery, under Captain Turnbull, was attached to the Force protecting the Baggage, where the Troops never came in contact with the Enemy, who moved off with the utmost rapidity, there is little room for remark on their conduct, beyond making a steady and regular advance, and for a long distance, and preserving a good order of formation. I had every reason to be satisfied with the conduct of all—and my thanks are due to Brigadier Capon, Commanding the 1st Infantry Brigade, to Lieutenant Colonel Bradshaw, Commanding 60th Rifles, Major Hallett, Commanding 3rd Regiment N. I., Major Mignon, Commanding 1st Bombay Fusiliers, Major Maut, Commanding 19th Regiment N. I., Brigadier Leeson, Commanding the Artillery, rendering every assistance, and Major Blood, in Command of the Troop, is entitled to every credit for the efficient service the Troop was enabled to perform.

The steady and good order in which the Brigade of the Bengal Army moved under Brigadier Hoggan, which was in support of the Bombay Division, was very praiseworthy.

I am indebted to the Officers of the Divisional Staff for the active assistance they afforded me, Major Green, Assistant Adjutant General, Captain Hart, Deputy Assistant Adjutant General, Captain Ramsay, the Assistant Quarter Master General, Captain Skinner, the Deputy Judge Advocate General, Major St. John, Paymaster General, Lieutenant Mules, of the 1st Fusiliers, Post Master, Lieutenant Ward, 60th Rifles, my Aid-de-Camp, and Lieutenant Crawley, 15th Hussars, Aid-de-Camp to Major General Aitchison, Commanding Mysore Division, who officiated as my Aid-de-Camp,* Lieut. Stevenson, Brigade Major of Artillery, rendered every assistance in his Department. The Sappers and Miners, under Lieut. Kendall, were kept prepared for any duty that might have been required in sloping down nullahs for the Guns, &c., but the ground was so favorable for the movement of the Troops that their exertions were not required in this duty. My thanks are also due to Captain Threshie, Assistant Commissary General, on this occasion, as also for the efficient manner in which the duties of his Department have been conducted.

* Brigadier Capon also reports favorably of the assistance he derived from Capt. Stiles, Major of Brigade, and Lieut. Gordon, 60th Rifles, who officiated as Aid-de-Camp.

Lieutenant Henry, 19th Regiment N. I., Aid-de-Camp to the Right Honorable the Governor of Bombay, and who was placed in political charge of the Prisoner of War, the Dewan Moolraj joined me in the afternoon, having ridden post from Lahore on purpose to be present, after delivering over charge of his Prisoner on the 20th instant.

Herewith I enclose a list of casualties, which is principally in Horses, together with a Return of Ammunition expended.

FROM MAJOR J. S. LEESON, Brigadier Commanding Artillery Brigade, Bombay Division,

TO THE ASSISTANT ADJUTANT GENERAL, Bombay Division,

Camp Goojerat, 22nd February, 1849.

SIR,

In compliance with your order, I have the honor to report that the 3rd or Major Blood's Troop of Horse Artillery was ordered to accompany the Cavalry Division under General Sir Joseph Thackwell, K. C. B., at about half past 1 yesterday to follow the Enemy, who were then retreating, with this Troop, I proceeded accompanied by Lieutenant Hamilton and my Staff.

After proceeding at a Trot and Gallop for about 9 miles we joined the Cavalry Division and soon joined the Enemy's rear, and at a distance of about 400 yards opened fire with manifest good effect; they were then attempting to carry off 3 Guns, and a considerable body of Cavalry were hovering round to afford them protection, this they were unable to effect as our well directed fire soon obliged the Enemy to abandon their Guns, Camels, Carts, Bullocks, &c., and a great proportion of their Baggage, which fell into our hands.

The Enemy still continnuing to retreat in a most disorderly manner we advanced at a Gallop for about 3 miles, and again opened fire with such effect that they were compelled to abandon another Gun.

We again advanced some distance further, and were halted by order of the General Commanding, who proceeded, and at quarter to 5 P. M., we began to fall back towards Camp, which we reached at half past 8 o'Clock P. M.

I have, &c.

(Signed) J. S. LEESON, Major, Horse Artillery.

II. The Superintendent may appoint Darogahs, Mohurrers, Jemadars, Burkundauzes, and other Officers to assist him in the discharge of his duties; and the Officers so appointed, beside their ordinary respective designations, shall be styled "Officers of Salt Chokies."

III. Excepting salt imported by sea, and stored under bond, as provided by Act No. XXV. of 1836, it shall not be lawful to import alimentary salt into the Town of Calcutta, or to carry such salt within the said Town or upon the River Hooghly as aforesaid, in excess of the quantity of ten seers of eighty Tolahs to the seer; or to store such salt within the said Town in quantities exceeding one maund, except under a Rowannah or Special Pass from the Board of Customs, Salt and Opium, or a Charchittee or Pass from the said Superintendent, to be granted under such rules, and on the payment of such fees, as the said Board shall direct.

IV. All alimentary salt, found within the said Town, or upon the River Hooghly as aforesaid, in contravention of this Act, shall be deemed contraband and liable to seizure and confiscation; and if several persons shall be found carrying salt, unprotected by a Rowannah, or Charchittee, as aforesaid, in gangs or companies, which salt shall exceed in the whole quantity ten seers, such salt shall be deemed contraband; but no salt, found in store in any house or warehouse, shall be deemed to be contraband, unless, when the search is made, there shall be found more thereof than one maund, and the owner or person in charge shall be unable to account, satisfactorily, for the manner of its being found in his possession.

Provided that, where there is ground to suspect that such contraband salt as aforesaid is concealed in any zenana, the Superintendent or Officer authorized as aforesaid, shall follow, as closely as may be the rules for the seizure of property so concealed, adopted by the Supreme Court of Judicature at Fort William.

X. All Constables, and other Ministerial Officers of the Peace, are required to help the Superintendent and his Subordinate Officers and other Officers authorized to make a seizure of salt, in the due execution of this Act, upon notice given or request made by the Superintendent or any such Officer.

XIV. Any Officer of Salt Chokies, or any Officer of another Department, duly empowered to make a seizure of salt, who shall delay carrying any person arrested, or any illicit articles seized, under this Act, to the Superintendent, or who shall neglect to report the particulars of an arrest, seizure or search, within twenty-four hours thereafter shall be liable to a fine, not exceeding two hundred Rupees.

Provided that nothing in this section shall be construed to prevent the Superintendent releasing any persons arrested, or property seized, when he considers such persons or property to have been improperly arrested or seized.

XIX. Read a second time the Draft of a proposed Act, dated the 26th September 1846, and published in the Calcutta Gazette of the 3rd October 1846, to declare and enact the competency of the Courts of Nizamut Adawlut and the Courts of Session to punish offences by fine.

Resolution.—The President in Council resolves that the following amended Draft on the subject be published for general information:

ACT NO. —— OF 1849.

An Act to enable the Bengal Courts of Nizamut and of Session to punish certain Offences by Fine.

Whereas doubts have arisen whether the Courts of Nizamut and of Session, within the Territories subject to the Presidency of Fort William in Bengal, have power to punish certain offences by fine, It is declared and enacted as follows:

I. The Courts of Nizamut and of Session, within the said Territories, may punish by reasonable fine, at the discretion of the Court, any offenders, convicted before them, of any offence, which, by the Mahomedan Law, renders them liable to discretionary punishment; and, in default of payment of the fine, may sentence them to imprisonment, with or without labor, for any term not exceeding seven years in the case of sentences passed by the Courts of Session, or fourteen years in the case of sentences passed by the Nizamut Adawlut.

The following Draft of a proposed Act was read in Council for the first time on the 17th of March 1849.

ACT NO. —— 1849.

For enabling the Commander-in-Chief to pardon Military offences.

Whereas the power of pardoning persons under sentence of a Court Martial, for offences which are not punishable by any other authority, may be entrusted to the Commander-in-Chief of the Military Forces in the service of the East India Company in each Presidency, but in all other cases ought to belong only to the Supreme Government, It is enacted as follows:

I. The Commander-in-Chief of the Military Forces in the service of the East India Company, in each Presidency, shall have power to pardon any person belonging to the said Forces, who is convicted by sentence of a Court Martial of any offence against the Articles of War, which, wherever committed, is not punishable otherwise than by sentence of a Court Martial; or, instead of granting a full pardon to any such person, may remit any part of the punishment awarded for such offence.

II. In such cases, the Commander-inChief shall issue a Warrant under his hand, setting forth the offence, and a copy of the Warrant by which the offender was taken into custody in execution of the sentence, and pardoning or remitting such part of the punishment awarded for the offence as to him shall seem fit.

III. The said Warrant shall be countersigned by the Magistrate of the Zillah, or city in which the offender is undergoing his Sentence; or, if he is confined in any prison belonging to one of the Supreme Courts of Judicature established by Royal Charter, shall be countersigned by a Judge of such Court, if it shall appear to such Magistrate or Judge that the offence, wherever committed, is not punishable by any authority other than that of a Court Martial; but not otherwise.

IV. All Sheriffs, Gaolers, and other persons having custody, within the said territories, of any offender under sentence of a Court Martial, shall obey and give effect to any Warrant of the Commander-in-Chief, countersigned by a Magistrate, or Judge of the Supreme Court as aforesaid, for the pardon of any offender in their custody respectively, or for the remission of any part of his sentence.

Ordered, that the Draft now read be published for general information.

NOTIFICATION.—An examination will be held early in April 1849, in the College of Fort William, for the purpose of filling up existing Vacancies in the Military class of the Medical College. All candidates will be expected to possess a knowledge of the Hindustani Language, adequate to enable them to read and write it in the Persian or Devanagri character.

2nd. All Interpreters of Regiments and Battalions will be requested, through the Military Departments, not to grant certificates of qualification to any candidate under the age of fifteen and above that of twenty years; and likewise to reject all who may not pass the prescribed ordeal with a sufficient degree of fluency and facility. Much disappointment, expense, and inconvenience have already been experienced by lads from distant stations being furnished with certificates, who were found, on examination, quite unqualified for admission; and it is with a view to prevent the recurrence of this, that the above measure has been adopted.

3rd. Candidates for admission will be required to present themselves before the Secretary to the Medical College, at least three days prior to the day of examination, in order that a proper descriptive roll may be prepared for transmission to the Examiners of the College of Fort William.

4th. The preference in selection, attainments being equal, will be given to those who have already been attached to, or served in Civil or Regimental Hospitals.

5th. No candidate will be allowed to present himself for examination, who cannot produce a written testimonial of his conduct and character, or afford satisfactory evidence as to who and what he is. A few individuals of decidedly bad character have, upon recent occasions, managed to obtain admittance, it is supposed, by producing false papers; the strictest care and scrutiny will therefore be exercised in examining the credentials of all future candidates, who will, in addition, require to be furnished with regular muster rolls, in order that they may be identified.

6th. All pupils must, as a condition of their appointment, reside within the College premises at all times, and never be absent from morning and evening muster without special leave.

7th. All students in the Military class are amenable to the Articles of War, and regularly enlisted as Soldiers.

8th. No candidate will be admitted to the school, who is physically unfit for the duties of a Soldier.

Resolution.—The President in Council resolves that the following amended Draft on the subject be published for general information:

ACT No. —— OF 1849.

An Act to enable the Bengal Courts of Nizamut and of Session to punish certain Offences by Fine.

Whereas doubts have arisen whether the Courts of Nizamut and of Session, within the Territories subject to the Presidency of Fort William in Bengal, have power to punish certain offences by fine, It is declared and enacted as follows:

I. The Courts of Nizamut and of Session, within the said Territories, may punish by reasonable fine, at the discretion of the Court, any offenders, convicted before them, of any offence, which, by the Mahomedan Law, renders them liable to discretionary punishment; and, in default of payment of the fine, may sentence them to imprisonment, with or without labor, for any term not exceeding seven years in the case of sentences passed by the Courts of Session, or fourteen years in the case of sentences passed by the Nizamut Adawlut.

Ordered, that the said Draft be re-considered at the first meeting of the Legislative Council of India, after the 8th day of May next.

The following Draft of a proposed Act was read in Council for the first time on the 17th of March 1849.

ACT No. —— 1849.

For enabling the Commander-in-Chief to pardon Military offences.

Whereas the power of pardoning persons under sentence of a Court Martial, for offences which are not punishable by any other authority, may be entrusted to the Commander-in-Chief of the Military Forces in the service of the East India Company in each Presidency, but in all other cases ought to belong only to the Supreme Government, It is enacted as follows:

I. The Commander-in-Chief of the Military Forces in the service of the East India Company, in each Presidency, shall have power to pardon any person belonging to the said Forces, who is convicted by sentence of a Court Martial of any offence against the Articles of War, which, wherever committed, is not punishable otherwise than by sentence of a Court Martial; or, instead of granting a full pardon to any such person, may remit any part of the punishment awarded for such offence.

II. In such cases, the Commander-in-Chief shall issue a Warrant under his hand, setting forth the offence, and a copy of the Warrant by which the offender was taken into custody in execution of the sentence, and pardoning or remitting such part of the punishment awarded for the offence as to him shall seem fit.

III. The said Warrant shall be countersigned by the Magistrate of the Zillah, or city in which the offender is undergoing his Sentence; or, if he is confined in any prison belonging to one of the Supreme Courts of Judicature established by Royal Charter, shall be countersigned by a Judge of such Court, if it shall appear to such Magistrate or Judge that the offence, wherever committed, is not punishable by any authority other than that of a Court Martial; but not otherwise.

IV. All Sheriffs, Gaolers, and other persons having custody, within the said territories, of any offender under sentence of a Court Martial, shall obey and give effect to any Warrant of the Commander-in-Chief, countersigned by a Magistrate, or Judge of the Supreme Court as aforesaid, for the pardon of any offender in their custody respectively, or for the remission of any part of his sentence.

General Orders by the Right Hon'ble the Governor General of India.

Camp, Ferozepore, 17th March, 1849.

The following General Order from the Foreign Department, is re-published for the information of the Army:

General Order by the Right Hon'ble the Governor General of India.

Foreign Department, Camp, Ferozepore, the 17th March, 1849.

The Governor General has the utmost satisfaction in directing that the Despatches, which he has this day received from His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief, and from Major General Sir Walter Gilbert, K. C. B., be published for the information of the Army, and of the people of India.

The British subjects, who were prisoners in the hands of the Enemy, have returned in safety.

On the 14th Instant Sirdar Chuttur Singh, Rajah Shere Singh and the principal Seikh Sirdars and Chiefs delivered their Swords into the hand of Major General Sir Walter Gilbert.

Forty-one pieces of Artillery were at the same time surrendered; and the remains of the Seikh Army, to the number of 16,000 men, laid down their Arms in the presence of the British Troops.

The Governor General offers to His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief, to Major General Gilbert, and to the whole Army his heartfelt congratulations on this glorious result of the Battle of Goojerat, and of the operations subsequent to it, so admirably conducted by the Major General, in fulfilment of His Excellency's instructions.

But the War is not yet concluded, nor can there be any cessation of hostilities until Dost Mahomed Khan, and the Affghan Army are either driven from the Province of Peshawur, or destroyed within it.

The British Army has already resumed its march upon Attock, and the Governor General confidently hopes that the entire success which, with God's blessing, will attend it, may enable him soon to announce the restoration of Peace.

The Governor General directs that in honor of the important events, which have now been notified, a Salute of 21 Guns be fired from every principal Station of the Army in India.

By order of the Right Hon'ble the Governor General of India,

(Sd.) H. M. ELLIOT,
Secy. to the Govt. of India, with the Govr. Genl.

FROM THE RIGHT HON'BLE THE COMMANDER-IN-CHIEF,

TO THE RIGHT HON'BLE THE GOVERNOR GENERAL OF INDIA, &c. &c. &c.

Dated Head Quarters, Camp Kullalla, 16th March, 1849.

MY LORD,—I have the greatest gratification in reporting to your Lordship the further happy results of the decisive Victory obtained at Goojerat on the 21st ultimo.

Major General Sir Walter Gilbert, with that energy and judgment, which induced me to select him to conduct the ulterior operations, subsequent to that action, has well fulfilled the trust reposed in him by rapidly pressing the routed Enemy, which has led to their unqualified submission, the surrender of their remaining Guns, and about 16,000 Stand of Arms, all of which are now in our possession, and I rejoice to add that this fortunate consummation has been obtained without a single shot being fired.

The whole of the Seikh Force with their Sirdars have now come in, with the exception of Bhaie Maharaj and Colonel Richpaul Sing, who have absconded, but without followers.

We have now in our possession 56 Guns, taken at Goojerat, and abandoned by the Enemy in his retreat on the 21st February; 40 surrendered to Major General Sir Walter Gilbert since that event; 12 captured at Chillianwalla, and 50 at Mooltan—making a total of 158 pieces of Ordnance, which have fallen into our hands during the present Campaign.

Again heartily congratulating your Lordship at this most satisfactory termination of the Sikh War.

I have, &c.,

(Signed) GOUGH, General.

FROM MAJOR GENERAL SIR W. R. GILBERT, K. C. B., Commanding Field Force on Special Service.

To H. M. ELLIOT, ESQ., Secy. to the Govt. of India, with the Governor General.

Dated Camp Rawul Pindee, 14th March 1849.

SIR,—Since I addressed you on the 11th instant, from Hoormuck, I have advanced to Rawul Pindee, which place I reached to-day.

I have now the high gratification of reporting for the information of the Right Hon'ble the Governor General of India, that the disarmment of the Seikh Army, commenced at Manikyalla, has been this day completed by the surrender of their Swords by the Seikh Sirdars, in presence of the Commanding Officers of Divisions and Brigades and their Staff.

The total number of Guns surrendered is Forty-one, of which a return shall be forwarded hereafter, and the number of Stands of Arms, laid down before the Force, under my Command, is about Sixteen Thousand.

I have, &c.

ACT No. —— 1849.

For enabling the Commander-in-Chief to pardon Military offences.

Whereas the power of pardoning persons under sentence of a Court Martial, for offences which are not punishable by any other authority, may be entrusted to the Commander-in-Chief of the Military Forces in the service of the East India Company in each Presidency, but in all other cases ought to belong only to the Supreme Government, It is enacted as follows:

I. The Commander-in-Chief of the Military Forces in the service of the East India Company, in each Presidency, shall have power to pardon any person belonging to the said Forces, who is convicted by sentence of a Court Martial of any offence against the Articles of War, which, wherever committed, is not punishable otherwise than by sentence of a Court Martial; or, instead of granting a full pardon to any such person, may remit any part of the punishment awarded for such offence.

II. In such cases, the Commander-in-Chief shall issue a Warrant under his hand, setting forth the offence, and a copy of the Warrant by which the offender was taken into custody in execution of the sentence, and pardoning or remitting such part of the punishment awarded for the offence as to him shall seem fit.

III. The said Warrant shall be countersigned by the Magistrate of the Zillah, or city in which the offender is undergoing his Sentence; or, if he is confined in any prison belonging to one of the Supreme Courts of Judicature established by Royal Charter, shall be countersigned by a Judge of such Court, if it shall appear to such Magistrate or Judge that the offence, wherever committed, is not punishable by any authority other than that of a Court Martial; but not otherwise.

IV. All Sheriffs, Gaolers, and other persons having custody, within the said territories, of any offender under sentence of a Court Martial, shall obey and give effect to any Warrant of the Commander-in-Chief, countersigned by a Magistrate, or Judge of the Supreme Court as aforesaid, for the pardon of any offender in their custody respectively, or for the remission of any part of his sentence.

Ordered, that the Draft now read be published for general information.

EDUCATION NOTICE.—The next Meeting of the Committee appointed for the Examination of Candidates for promotion and employment in the Education Department, will be held in the Hindu College, on Saturday, the 7th of April 1849, at 10 A. M.

Detailed particulars of the nature and extent of the Examinations, the number of Vacancies in the Department, &c. &c., will be afforded by the Secretary to the Council of Education to all candidates on personal application.

(By order,)
FRED. J. MOUAT, M. D., Secy.,
Council of Education.

Fort William, 7th March, 1849.

NOTIFICATION.—An examination will be held early in April 1849, in the College of Fort William, for the purpose of filling up existing Vacancies in the Military class of the Medical College. All candidates will be expected to possess a knowledge of the Hindustani Language, adequate to enable them to read and write it in the Persian or Devanagri character.

2nd. All Interpreters of Regiments and Battalions will be requested, through the Military Departments, not to grant certificates of qualification to any candidate under the age of fifteen and above that of twenty years; and likewise to reject all who may not pass the prescribed ordeal with a sufficient degree of fluency and facility. Much disappointment, expense, and inconvenience have already been experienced by lads from distant stations being furnished with certificates, who were found, on examination, quite unqualified for admission; and it is with a view to prevent the recurrence of this, that the above measure has been adopted.

3rd. Candidates for admission will be required to present themselves before the Secretary to the Medical College, at least three days prior to the day of examination, in order that a proper descriptive roll may be prepared for transmission to the Examiners of the College of Fort William.

4th. The preference in selection, attainments being equal, will be given to those who have already been attached to, or served in Civil or Regimental Hospitals.

5th. No candidate will be allowed to present himself for examination, who cannot produce a written testimonial of his conduct and character, or afford satisfactory evidence as to who and what he is. A few individuals of decidedly bad character have, upon recent occasions, managed to obtain admittance, it is supposed, by producing false papers; the strictest care and scrutiny will therefore be exercised in examining the credentials of all future candidates, who will, in addition, require to be furnished with regular muster rolls, in order that they may be identified.

6th. All pupils must, as a condition of their appointment, reside within the College premises at all times, and never be absent from morning and evening muster without special leave.

7th. All students in the Military class are amenable to the Articles of War, and regularly enlisted as Soldiers.

8th. No candidate will be admitted to the school, who is physically unfit for the duties of a Soldier.

(By order,)

Secretary.

The Deputy Governor of Bengal, with the concurrence of the Government of India, has now been pleased to determine, that on and after the 1st April 1849, the rate of duty to be charged on Salt Imported by Sea, into any part of the Presidency of Fort William in Bengal, shall be Two Rupees and Eight Annas, upon every Maund of 3,200 Tolahs.

THE LIGHT ON CAPE AGULHAS.

Colonial Office, Cape of Good Hope, 15th December, 1848.

A Light House having been erected at Cape Agulhas, near the Southernmost point of the Continent of Africa, the following Sailing Instructions for vessels approaching that point, which have been drawn up by T. MACLEAR, Esq., F. R. S., Her Majesty's Astronomer Royal at the Cape of Good Hope, and which include a description of the land and shore about Agulhas,—instructions for anchoring in Struys Bay,—and a description of the construction of the Light Apparatus, are, by direction of His Excellency the Governor, published for general information.

His Excellency has further desired it to be notified that, the works being now completed, the Lantern will be lighted on the 1st of March next; and will, thereafter, continue to be lighted every evening at sunset.

By His Excellency's Command,

Secretary to Government.

CAPE AGULHAS LIGHT.

It has been thought advisable to reverse the logical order of the matter connected with the establishment of this Light, so that what is most wanted should appear first, and further information be had by reference to the particular heads.

The adopted arrangement is as follows:—

1. General Sailing Instructions for Passing Agulhas.
2. Description of the Land and Shore about Agulhas.
3. Instructions for anchoring in Struys Bay, Currents, Tides, &c.
4. Description of the Construction of the Light Apparatus.

1.—General Sailing Instructions for Passing Agulhas.

Latitude of the Light, ...	34	49	45·7
Longitude, East of Greenwich, ... =	20	0	40 =	1	20	2·67
Longitude, East of the Cape Observatory, ... =	1	31	55 =	0	6	7·67

Magnetic Variation 29° 20′ W.

The Light can be seen in clear weather in any direction seaward, between East and North West by West, at the distance of six leagues from a deck 15 feet high. It is a steady white Light.

All the bearings mentioned are Magnetic, and all the distances expressed in miles are Geographical, unless the contrary is stated.

If a vessel from the Eastward passes Struys Point at the distance of 5 miles from the shore, and steers a W. by S. course exactly, she will pass the most Southerly projection of the Northumberland Point Reef at the distance of 4¼ miles, and the Light at the distance of 5½ miles, and clear Gunner's Quoin. This is the limit Northward within which no sailing vessel should be found. It secures every advantage that could possibly be obtained by a closer course, and at that distance the Light will be brilliant.

Precautions.—In clear weather, the Light may be seen, when 5 or 6 miles Eastward of Struys Point, from a look-out at the height of 35 feet; and if the vessel then should chance to be close in shore, by steering the above course, she might touch the shoal off Struys Point. To guard against this, when the Light is first seen, it should be brought immediately to bear W. by N.; and keeping this bearing of the Light, the vessel will pass 2 miles to the Southward of any danger respecting Struys Point.

Care should be taken when approaching the land before the Light is discovered, for in hazy weather, or from spray in a fresh breeze, combined with the distance of Struys Point (about 15 miles), the Light may be faint or altogether obscured, and the vessel may get within the line of danger. Under these circumstances, the Lead should not be neglected, and the depth should not be less than 20 fathoms, without putting about immediately to the South.

The like precautions are required in the day time, particularly in foggy weather; for the high land of Agulhas may be invisible, while the sand hills of Struys Bay and the breakers off Northumberland Point are distinctly seen. On these occasions it is difficult to determine whether the vessel is to the Eastward or Westward of Struys Point; because the shore features of the Bay Eastward of that Point, are similar to those of Struys Bay, although the extent is less.

Sailing vessels in particular should adhere to the rules, for if it should fall calm, the heavy swell which constantly rolls towards the shore would carry them with it, and the only resource, that of anchoring, would probably be of no avail from the rocky nature of the bottom, combined with the swell. The "St. Mungo" is said to have been wrecked in this way.

Coming from the Westward, the Light will be seen first on a S. 57° 15′ E. bearing. The extreme end of the low ground called Gunner's Quoin Point bears N. 52° 30′ W. from the Light House, distant 19* miles, but it is not visible from it. The sea was remarked breaking a long way off the Point,—it will therefore be necessary to keep off until the Light becomes visible.

With the precautions here given, there will be as little danger in rounding Agulhas as in rounding the Cape of Good Hope, or indeed any other head land.

2.—Description of the Land and Shore about Agulhas.

Cape Agulhas is defined to be the rocky projection from the South East corner of the Agulhas Promontory, the centre of which Promontory is about ¼th of a mile Westward of the projection, and about 200 yards more Southerly, being the most Southern part of Africa.

Description of the Land.—The features of the land about Agulhas distinguish it from the neighbouring head lands. A ridge-shaped undulating clump, rising from the flat ground, is separated into four ridge-shaped hills by irregular ravines running nearly true East and West. The middle ridges enter, wedge-like, at the East-end, and are lost towards the centre, where the ravine widens to a mile in breadth. The middle ridges are the lowest, the Northern and Southern are nearly of equal height.

Viewed at a distance from the seaward, Easterly or Westerly, the North and South elevations being seen nearly end on, resemble two oblong hummocks; but the former extending more Easterly appears the highest as seen from the Eastward.

Viewed at a distance from the Southward, the South ridge masks the others, save at their East end; but the ravines being hid, the whole appear to be united (only the South and middle ridges are noticed on the chart. They are all given on Col. MICHELL's plan.)

The highest part of the South ridge is 455 feet above the level of the sea, and its true meridional distance from the shore is almost exactly one mile. From this point the descent Eastward is rather gradual. Westward the descent is at first steep, then slightly undulates. Southward it is steep, then undulates to within 300 yards of the shore, where the ground becomes flat.

On the first undulation from the shore, which is about 55 feet above the level of the sea, nearly true South of the highest point before mentioned, and N. 30° W., 520 yards from Cape Agulhas, the Light House is built.

This spot was selected by the Masters of H. M. Ships President, Brilliant and Rosamond, (Messrs. REES, RUSSEL and ASHTON), under the command of Capt. FOOTE, R. N., in conjunction with Lieut.-Colonel MICHELL.

The Light commands to seaward between E. and N. W. by W., or more correctly, E. to N. 57° 15′ W.

Description of the Shore.—West of the Agulhas Promontory the shore bends North-westerly, then round to the head land called Gunner's Quoin, forming an irregular shallow incurvation of about 19 miles in breadth. Immediately to the E. N. E. of the Promontory are two deep indentations. The first called St. Mungo's inlet. The next is deeper and wider, and the projection which separates them is called St. Mungo's Point. From the last inlet the shore runs jagged to the dangerous projection called Northumberland Point, the site of the wreck of the ship "Duke of Northumberland," which Point forms the west horn of Struys Bay.

The whole of the beach, from the west of the Agulhas Promontory to Northumberland Point, consists of rugged sand stone and quartz rocks, or rocky reef, perfectly impracticable even for a boat. At the Promontory groups of rock prevail; at the Cape, rocks, and rocky reef, extending out a third of a mile. At the inlets, flat rocky reef exposed at low water for a third of a mile; thence rocky to Northumberland Point, where it is sand and reef.

Exposed to the uninterrupted oscillations of the Southern Ocean, the sea breaks heavy on this iron bound shore, particularly during Southern winds. A vessel touching upon it, has not the slightest chance of escaping destruction.

The coast between Northumberland Point, and Struys Point, viz., of Struys Bay, is low and sandy, but a short distance from the beach, there is a line of sand hills varying from 50 to 150 feet in height, some of them covered with dark coloured bush, a feature that distinguishes the coast from Struys Point to the next Point Eastward of it. There is no high land sufficiently near to interfere with the distinguishing character of the hills Northward of Agulhas, as viewed from the seaward.

Northumberland Point bears East from the Light 3¼ miles. It is low and sandy immediately on the beach; but a very dangerous ledge of rocks extends S. 37°.30′ E., 1 mile from the Point, and a detached rock was fixed by intersection while breaking, which places it S. 58°.30′ E., 1⅛ miles from the Point; and S. 81°.40′ E., 4¼ miles from the Light. The extreme of Northumberland Point reef bears S. 77°.30′ E., $3\frac{9}{16}$ miles nearly from the Light. Westward from the Point the reefs extend about one-third of a mile and break heavily when the wind is from the S. E. In one or two places it breaks further out but in no place exceeds half a mile.

Struys Point is the outer extreme of a number of sand hills, and as before stated, forms the Eastern horn of Struys Bay. It bears from Northumberland Point, which is the Western horn, N. 79° .30′ E., 11 miles (estimated), and N. 82° .20′ E., 15 miles from the light house. This point is more dangerous than Northumberland Point, inasmuch as the reefs lie much further off the shore, and there is no high land to enable the mariner to determine his position. Circumstances did not allow of this Point being included in the Agulhas survey; but during a strong South-easter it was remarked from the summit of the sand hills near the Point, that the reef extended seaward about 3 miles, and was then breaking with fury.

Like Northumberland Point, the color of the water off this Point changes to seaward from brown to light, then dark green; from which it may be inferred, together with the known shallowness of the water off Northumberland Point, that the Lead as well as the color of the water, will always warn a ship of the approach of danger.

Struys Bay is formed by Struys Point to the East and Northumberland Point to the West. The landing place is in a small bay or cove to the N. W. of Northumberland Point, sheltered by a projecting shelf of shingle from each extremity of the cove. The jetty, constructed from pieces of wreck, renders the landing easy; but at the outer horns of the shingle there is only water sufficient for a boat at quarter flood in fine weather. Three or four huts at the head of the jetty, point out its position from the Bay. Immediately in the neighbourhood, on higher ground, is a stone dwelling house, with a signal staff a few yards behind it, termed the telegraph staff on the chart.

The marks for anchoring are the large stone house near the beach W. ¼ S., and the sandy extreme of Northumberland Point S. W. by S., in 5 fathoms sand. Here the bottom is clear, while to the westward and nearer to the reef where the water is smoother the bottom is foul,—rocks interspersed with patches of sand. The latter is unsafe, the cable is liable to snap from fouling the rocks, an accident that befel H. M. Vessel "Dee," while, lying there in a light South-westerly wind accompanied by the usual swell.

Directions for Anchoring.—Vessels from the westward, intending to anchor in this bay, should not bring the light house to bear more Westerly than W. by N. ½ N., until Northumberland Point bears N. W. ¼ N. Then steer N. N. E. or N. E. by N. until the stone house before mentioned bears W. N. W. This will lead clear of the outer detached reefs off Northumberland Point. Proceed then to N. W. and bring the anchorage marks on.

The light will not be visible from this anchoring ground, owing to the swell of the intervening land.

Precautions respecting Struys Bay.—Shelter may be obtained in this bay during Westerly and North Westerly winds only. None is afforded with the wind between S. W. round to the Southward and East. With any of the latter winds it is unsafe, if not impossible, to ride in this bay, for the sea rises to such an extent as to break in 7 or 8 fathoms, a circumstance that was remarked on two occasions while H. M. Steamer "Dee" was standing off waiting for the weather to moderate to enable her to anchor. At the time of anchoring, although the wind had subsided for several hours, the water nearly broke in 7 fathoms where the anchor was let go; and at the place from whence she had put to sea three days before in 4¾ fathoms, the sea was breaking heavily. As a general rule, vessels seeking shelter in this bay in a N. W. gale, should put to sea immediately after it subsides: for the wind frequently changes in a few hours from a strong N. W. to a S. E. or South point; in which case it is very difficult to work out in consequence of the heavy sea that rises with these winds.

Currents.—During the examinations of the Coast (Sept. 1848) no current was observed in Struys Bay, nor about the coast 2½ miles from the shore, as far to the westward of Agulhas as the letter E. on the chart: but it was confidently asserted by fishermen, and the residents at Struys Bay, that a very strong current frequently sets to the Westward round Northumberland Point.

Tides.—Circumstances did not allow of the Tides being observed with due accuracy. Two copper plugs were let into rocks S. W. of the Light House to mark the high and low water points nearly at Spring Tides. The comparisons with these plugs on October 15, 16, 18, 19, 28, 29, (1848), and an observation at the jetty in Struys Bay, on October 28, give the establishment, and rise and fall, nearly similar to what prevails in Table Bay and Simon's Bay.

Magnetic Variation.—This was determined by means of two Magnets, on the flat ground between the Light House and Beach. The result (29° 20′ W.) has been employed for the compass bearings, given in these Instructions.

4.—Description of the Light Apparatus.

This Light is of the first or most brilliant class, and is the work of Mr. Henry le Paute. It is constructed upon what is technically called the Dioptric principle.

A hollow cylinder with a paraboloid top of about 19 feet in circumference, and 10 feet in height, is composed (omitting a door way) of 28 horizontal tiers of glass and reflectors, firmly fixed in a metallic frame work of six compartments; so that each tier is divided into six circular segments.

The centre tier is a large hoop-shaped plano-convex lens, 11 inches in depth. Next, 8 tiers of circular prisms above and 8 below the centre lens. Then 7 tiers of reflectors above and 4 tiers below. Three-fourths of the circumference of the cylinder is formed by this combination. The remaining quadrant which is towards the land, and its centre due North, serves for the door way into the cylinder; but the door is lined with two large concave metallic reflectors, each two feet in breadth and three feet in height.

The burner, consisting of four concentric Argand Wicks, 4 inches in diameter, is placed in the centre of the cylinder in the focus of the large lens. It is supplied with oil by a force pump driven by clock-work; and there is a simple contrivance, which gives notice by the ringing of a bell when the reservoir requires to be replenished.

The frame work of the Lenticular (the name given to the whole combination) is firmly attached to a cast-iron circular floor, supported by a stem of cast iron; the lower end of which is let into a block of granite resting upon the crown of the supporting dome, where it (the stone) is surrounded by masonry.

The theory of the Lenticular may be understood, as follows:—The burner being in the focus of the plano-convex lens, the rays of light that impinge upon the inner plane surface, emerge outside horizontal.

The bases of the prisms are perpendicular inside; their upper planes are horizontal, and their hypothenusal planes outside slant downwards and inwards. The depth of each base successively diminishes from 3 inches to 1⅛ inch in depth, in the order from the centre lens upwards and downwards, which is the order of the increasing inclination of the impinging rays from the burner. The effect of the prismatic form, is to turn the rays, and to send them out horizontal, upon the same principle by which objects in a horizontal direction in front of a Camera Lucida are seen by looking down into it.

The tiers of reflectors commence at the height and depression where the still greater inclination of the impinging rays from the burner would cause a prism to decompose them in the horizontal direction into the prismatic or rainbow colours. The reflectors are concave towards the lens, their curvatures increasing as they recede from the centre lens. They reflect the rays that fall upon them to the prisms, whence they are sent out horizontal.

The two large reflectors behind on the inside of the door return the rays from their direction to the large lens, through which they escape horizontal.

Thus all the light from the burner, save the small quantity that escapes up the chimney glass, is bent into one brilliant horizontal sheet to overspread the horizon.

This splendid specimen of skill is protected by a Lantern 10½ feet in diameter, or 33 feet in circumference, glazed with thick plate glass, and surmounted by a copper dome, from which a lightning conductor of wire rope descends to the ground.

The Light House was planned by Lieut. Colonel Michell, the late talented Surveyor General at the Cape, who made a journey to Paris for the express purpose of selecting the Lenticular Apparatus.

It may be proper to mention, that the Tower of the Light House is to be painted, and will show alternate horizontal bands of white and red, two of each.

Messrs. Rees, Carr and Skead of H. M. Ships President, Nimrod and Dee, respectively, particularly Mr. Skead, provided a large portion of the Sailing Instructions. These, with the remainder by myself, I have arranged and compared carefully with the Chart recently constructed from measurement and rigorous trigonometric calculation. The other matter is by myself, and I hold myself responsible for the accuracy of the whole.

I may add, that one of the trigonometric stations in the measurement of the Arc of the Meridian is on the highest point of the hill above the Light House; by means of which, the Latitude and Longitude of the Light House are derived from the position of the Observatory. Thus the Light is an exact Geographical Point.

EDUCATION NOTICE.—The next Meeting of the Committee appointed for the Examination of Candidates for promotion and employment in the Education Department, will be held in the Hindu College, on Saturday, the 7th of April 1849, at 10 A. M.

Detailed particulars of the nature and extent of the Examinations, the number of Vacancies in the Department, &c. &c., will be afforded by the Secretary to the Council of Education to all candidates on personal application.

(By order,)

FRED. J. MOUAT, M. D., Secy.,
Council of Education.

Fort William, 7th March, 1849.

NOTIFICATION.—An examination will be held early in April 1849, in the College of Fort William, for the purpose of filling up existing Vacancies in the Military class of the Medical College. All candidates will be expected to possess a knowledge of the Hindustani Language, adequate to enable them to read and write it in the Persian or Devanagri character.

2nd. All Interpreters of Regiments and Battalions will be requested, through the Military Departments, not to grant certificates of qualification to any candidate under the age of fifteen and above that of twenty years; and likewise to reject all who may not pass the prescribed ordeal with a sufficient degree of fluency and facility. Much disappointment, expense, and inconvenience have already been experienced by lads from distant stations being furnished with certificates, who were found, on examination, quite unqualified for admission; and it is with a view to prevent the recurrence of this, that the above measure has been adopted.

3rd. Candidates for admission will be required to present themselves before the Secretary to the Medical College, at least three days prior to the day of examination, in order that a proper descriptive roll may be prepared for transmission to the Examiners of the College of Fort William.

4th. The preference in selection, attainments being equal, will be given to those who have already been attached to, or served in Civil or Regimental Hospitals.

5th. No candidate will be allowed to present himself for examination, who cannot produce a written testimonial of his conduct and character, or afford satisfactory evidence as to who and what he is. A few individuals of decidedly bad character have, upon recent occasions, managed to obtain admittance, it is supposed, by producing false papers; the strictest care and scrutiny will therefore be exercised in examining the credentials of all future candidates, who will, in addition, require to be furnished with regular muster rolls, in order that they may be identified.

6th. All pupils must, as a condition of their appointment, reside within the College premises at all times, and never be absent from morning and evening muster without special leave.

7th. All students in the Military class are amenable to the Articles of War, and regularly enlisted as Soldiers.

8th. No candidate will be admitted to the school, who is physically unfit for the duties of a Soldier.

THE LIGHT ON CAPE AGULHAS.

Colonial Office, Cape of Good Hope, 15th December, 1848.

A Light House having been erected at Cape Agulhas, near the Southernmost point of the Continent of Africa, the following Sailing Instructions for vessels approaching that point, which have been drawn up by T. MACLEAR, Esq., F. R. S., Her Majesty's Astronomer Royal at the Cape of Good Hope, and which include a description of the land and shore about Agulhas,—instructions for anchoring in Struys Bay,—and a description of the construction of the Light Apparatus, are, by direction of His Excellency the Governor, published for general information.

His Excellency has further desired it to be notified that, the works being now completed, the Lantern will be lighted on the 1st of March next; and will, thereafter, continue to be lighted every evening at sunset.

By His Excellency's Command,

Secretary to Government.

CAPE AGULHAS LIGHT.

It has been thought advisable to reverse the logical order of the matter connected with the establishment of this Light, so that what is most wanted should appear first, and further information be had by reference to the particular heads.

The adopted arrangement is as follows :—

1. General Sailing Instructions for Passing Agulhas.
2. Description of the Land and Shore about Agulhas.
3. Instructions for anchoring in Struys Bay, Currents, Tides, &c.
4. Description of the Construction of the Light Apparatus.

1.—General Sailing Instructions for Passing Agulhas.

	°	′	″		h.	m.	s.
Latitude of the Light, ...	34	49	45·7
Longitude, East of Greenwich, ...	20	0	40	=	1	20	2·67
Longitude, East of the Cape Observatory, ...	1	31	55	=	0	6	7·67

Magnetic Variation 29° 20′ W.

The Light can be seen in clear weather in any direction seaward, between East and North West by West, at the distance of six leagues from a deck 15 feet high. It is a steady white Light.

All the bearings mentioned are Magnetic, and all the distances expressed in miles are Geographical, unless the contrary is stated.

If a vessel from the Eastward passes Struys Point at the distance of 5 miles from the shore, and steers a W. by S. course exactly, she will pass the most Southerly projection of the Northumberland Point Reef at the distance of 4¼ miles, and the Light at the distance of 5¼ miles, and clear Gunner's Quoin. This is the limit Northward within which no sailing vessel should be found. It secures every advantage that could possibly be obtained by a closer course, and at that distance the Light will be brilliant.

Precautions.—In clear weather, the Light may be seen, when 5 or 6 miles Eastward of Struys Point, from a look-out at the height of 35 feet; and if the vessel then should chance to be close in shore, by steering the above course, she might touch the shoal off Struys Point. To guard against this, when the Light is first seen, it should be brought immediately to bear W. by N.; and keeping this bearing of the Light, the vessel will pass 2 miles to the Southward of any danger respecting Struys Point.

Care should be taken when approaching the land before the Light is discovered, for in hazy weather, or from spray in a fresh breeze, combined with the distance of Struys Point (about 15 miles), the Light may be faint or altogether obscured, and the vessel may get within the line of danger. Under these circumstances, the Lead should not be neglected, and the depth should not be less than 20 fathoms, without putting about immediately to the South.

The like precautions are required in the day time, particularly in foggy weather; for the high land of Agulhas may be invisible, while the sand hills of Struys Bay and the breakers off Northumberland Point are distinctly seen. On these occasions it is difficult to determine whether the vessel is to the Eastward or Westward of Struys Point; because the shore features of the Bay Eastward of that Point, are similar to those of Struys Bay, although the extent is less.

Sailing vessels in particular should adhere to the rules, for if it should fall calm, the heavy swell which constantly rolls towards the shore would carry them with it, and the only resource, that of anchoring, would probably be of no avail from the rocky nature of the bottom, combined with the swell. The "St. Mungo" is said to have been wrecked in this way.

Coming from the Westward, the Light will be seen first on a S. 57° 15′ E. bearing. The extreme end of the low ground called Gunner's Quoin Point bears N. 52° 30′ W. from the Light House, distant 19¾ miles, but it is not visible from it. The sea was remarked breaking a long way off the Point,—it will therefore be necessary to keep off until the Light becomes visible.

With the precautions here given, there will be as little danger in rounding Agulhas as in rounding the Cape of Good Hope, or indeed any other head land.

2.—Description of the Land and Shore about Agulhas.

Cape Agulhas is defined to be the rocky projection from the South East corner of the Agulhas Promontory, the centre of which Promontory is about ¼th of a mile Westward of the projection, and about 200 yards more Southerly, being the most Southern part of Africa.

Description of the Land.—The features of the land about Agulhas distinguish it from the neighbouring head lands. A ridge-shaped undulating clump, rising from the flat ground, is separated into four ridge-shaped hills by irregular ravines running nearly true East and West. The middle ridges enter, wedge-like, at the East-end, and are lost towards the centre, where the ravine widens to a mile in breadth. The middle ridges are the lowest, the Northern and Southern are nearly of equal height.

Viewed at a distance from the seaward, Easterly or Westerly, the North and South elevations being seen nearly end on, resemble two oblong hummocks; but the former extending more Easterly appears the highest as seen from the Eastward.

Viewed at a distance from the Southward, the South ridge masks the others, save at their East end; but the ravines being hid, the whole appear to be united (only the South and middle ridges are noticed on the chart. They are all given on Col. MICHELL's plan.)

The highest part of the South ridge is 455 feet above the level of the sea, and its true meridional distance from the shore is almost exactly one mile. From this point the descent Eastward is rather gradual. Westward the descent is at first steep, then slightly undulates. Southward it is steep, then undulates to within 300 yards of the shore, where the ground becomes flat.

On the first undulation from the shore, which is about 55 feet above the level of the sea, nearly true South of the highest point before mentioned, and N. 30° W., 520 yards from Cape Agulhas, the Light House is built.

This spot was selected by the Masters of H. M. Ships President, Brilliant and Rosamond, (Messrs. REES, RUSSEL and ASHTON), under the command of Capt. FOOTE, R. N., in conjunction with Lieut.-Colonel MICHELL.

The Light commands to seaward between E. and N. W. by W., or more correctly, E. to N. 57° 15′ W.

Description of the Shore.—West of the Agulhas Promontory the shore bends North-westerly, then round to the head-land called Gunner's Quoin, forming an irregular shallow incurvation of about 19 miles in breadth. Immediately to the E. N. E. of the Promontory are two deep indentations. The first called St. Mungo's inlet. The next is deeper and wider, and the projection which separates them is called St. Mungo's Point. From the last inlet the shore runs jagged to the dangerous projection called Northumberland Point, the site of the wreck of the ship "Duke of Northumberland," which Point forms the west horn of Struys Bay.

The whole of the beach, from the west of the Agulhas Promontory to Northumberland Point, consists of rugged sand stone and quartz rocks, or rocky reef, perfectly impracticable even for a boat. At the Promontory groups of rock prevail; at the Cape, rocks, and rocky reef, extending out a third of a mile. At the inlets, flat rocky reef exposed at low water for a third of a mile; thence rocky to Northumberland Point, where it is sand and reef.

Exposed to the uninterrupted oscillations of the Southern Ocean, the sea breaks heavy on this iron bound shore, particularly during Southern winds. A vessel touching upon it, has not the slightest chance of escaping destruction.

The coast between Northumberland Point, and Struys Point, viz., of Struys Bay, is low and sandy, but a short distance from the beach, there is a line of sand hills varying from 50 to 150 feet in height, some of them covered with dark coloured bush, a feature that distinguishes the coast from Struys Point to the next Point Eastward of it. There is no high land sufficiently near to interfere with the distinguishing character of the hills Northward of Agulhas, as viewed from the seaward.

Northumberland Point bears East from the Light 3⅛ miles. It is low and sandy immediately on the beach; but a very dangerous ledge of rocks extends S. 37°.30′ E., 1 mile from the Point, and a detached rock was fixed by intersection while breaking, which places it S. 58°.30′ E., 1⅛ miles from the Point; and S. 81°.40′ E., 4¼ miles from the Light. The extreme of Northumberland Point reef bears S. 77°.30′ E., 3$\frac{9}{10}$ miles nearly from the Light. Westward from the Point the reefs extend about one-third of a mile and break heavily when the wind is from the S. E. In one or two places it breaks further out but in no place exceeds half a mile.

Struys Point is the outer extreme of a number of sand hills, and as before stated, forms the Eastern horn of Struys Bay. It bears from Northumberland Point, which is the Western horn, N. 79° .30′ E., 11 miles (estimated), and N. 82° .20′ E., 15 miles from the light house. This point is more dangerous than Northumberland Point, inasmuch as the reefs lie much further off the shore, and there is no high land to enable the mariner to determine his position. Circumstances did not allow of this Point being included in the Agulhas survey; but during a strong South-easter it was remarked from the summit of the sand hills near the Point, that the reef extended seaward about 3 miles, and was then breaking with fury.

Like Northumberland Point, the color of the water off this Point changes to seaward from brown to light, then dark green; from which it may be inferred, together with the known shallowness of the water off Northumberland Point, that the Lead as well as the color of the water, will always warn a ship of the approach of danger.

Struys Bay is formed by Struys Point to the East and Northumberland Point to the West. The landing place is in a small bay or cove to the N. W. of Northumberland Point, sheltered by a projecting shelf of shingle from each extremity of the cove. The jetty, constructed from pieces of wreck, renders the landing easy; but at the outer horns of the shingle there is only water sufficient for a boat at quarter flood in fine weather. Three or four huts at the head of the jetty, point out its position from the Bay. Immediately in the neighbourhood, on higher ground, is a stone dwelling house, with a signal staff a few yards behind it, termed the telegraph staff on the chart.

The marks for anchoring are the large stone house near the beach W. ¼ S., and the sandy extreme of Northumberland Point S. W. by S., in 5 fathoms sand. Here the bottom is clear, while to the westward and nearer to the reef where the water is smoother the bottom is foul,—rocks interspersed with patches of sand. The latter is unsafe, the cable is liable to snap from fouling the rocks, an accident that befel H. M. Vessel "Dee," while, lying there in a light South-westerly wind accompanied by the usual swell.

Directions for Anchoring.—Vessels from the westward, intending to anchor in this bay, should not bring the light house to bear more Westerly than W. by N. ¼ N., until Northumberland Point bears N. W. ¼ N. Then steer N. N. E. or N. E. by N. until the stone house before mentioned bears W. N. W. This will lead clear of the outer detached reefs off Northumberland Point. Proceed then to N. W. and bring the anchorage marks on.

The light will not be visible from this anchoring ground, owing to the swell of the intervening land.

Precautions respecting Struys Bay.—Shelter may be obtained in this bay during Westerly and North Westerly winds only. None is afforded with the wind between S. W. round to the Southward and East. With any of the latter winds it is unsafe, if not impossible, to ride in this bay, for the sea rises to such an extent as to break in 7 or 8 fathoms, a circumstance that was remarked on two occasions while H. M. Steamer "Dee" was standing off waiting for the weather to moderate to enable her to anchor. At the time of anchoring, although the wind had subsided for several hours, the water nearly broke in 7 fathoms where the anchor was let go; and at the place from whence she had put to sea three days before in 4¾ fathoms, the sea was breaking heavily. As a general rule, vessels seeking shelter in this bay in a N. W. gale, should put to sea immediately after it subsides: for the wind frequently changes in a few hours from a strong N. W. to a S. E. or South point; in which case it is very difficult to work out in consequence of the heavy sea that rises with these winds.

Currents.—During the examinations of the Coast (Sept. 1848) no current was observed in Struys Bay, nor about the coast 2½ miles from the shore, as far to the westward of Agulhas as the letter E. on the chart: but it was confidently asserted by fishermen, and the residents at Struys Bay, that a very strong current frequently sets to the Westward round Northumberland Point.

Tides.—Circumstances did not allow of the Tides being observed with due accuracy. Two copper plugs were let into rocks S. W. of the Light House to mark the high and low water points nearly at Spring Tides. The comparisons with these plugs on October 15, 16, 18, 19, 28, 29, (1848), and an observation at the jetty in Struys Bay, on October 28, give the establishment, and rise and fall, nearly similar to what prevails in Table Bay and Simon's Bay.
